RADFORD'S ARTISTIC BUNGALOWS. By WILLIAM A. RADFORD.

This book is just off the presses, and contains the perspective views and floor plans of 208 Bungalows suitable for any climate and for every material. The illustrations show the bungalows exactly as they will appear when built, and the floor plans show the size and arrangement of the rooms. It gives estimated cost of construction ranging from $500 to $5,000 in price. The book is 8x11 inches in size, printed on the best enameled paper, more than 600 of the finest half-tone and zinc etchings being used to properly illustrate it.

Handsomely bound in cloth, and will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address upon receipt of $1.00.

RADFORD'S ARTISTIC HOMES is an absolutely brand new book (1909), illustrating the newest and most up-to-date designs in modern homes. Great care has been exercised in the selection of original, practical and ideal house designs, such as seventy to ninety per cent. of the people of to-day wish to build. Every effort has been made by a corps of experienced, licensed architects to provide for the most economical construction, thus giving the contractor and the home builder the benefit of the saving of many hundreds of dollars. This is the largest single book of house designs ever published, containing the perspective view and floor plans of over 250 low and medium priced detached houses.

The book is printed on best quality super calandered paper, with handsome half-tone illustrations, is strongly bound in cloth, and will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address upon receipt of $1.00.

RADFORD'S UP-TO-DATE BARN PLANS, and All Kinds of Out-Buildings; being a complete collection of practical, economical and common sense plans of Barns, Out-Buildings, and Stock Sheds, containing 160 large 6x8½ inch pages neatly bound in cloth and handsomely illustrated by 350 engravings.

Better farm methods require better buildings, not necessarily expensive ones, but buildings that are well planned and properly adapted to the work for which they are intended. This book describes and illustrates a large number of Dairy Barns, General Farm Barns, Horse Barns, Cattle Sheds, Poultry Houses, Silos, Ice Houses, Granaries, Corn Cribs, Wagon Sheds, Tank Houses, Smoke Houses, Hog Houses, etc.; together with directions for erecting, supplemented by a large collection of little farm helps—something of value to every farmer and mechanic; also 9 designs of cosy houses.

The book will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address upon receipt of $1.00.

PRACTICAL CARPENTRY. Illustrated by over 300 engravings; being a guide to the correct working and laying out of all carpenters' and joiners' work; with the solutions of the various problems in hip-roofs, gothic work, centering, splayed work, joints and joining, hinging, dovetailing, mitering, timber splicing, hopper works, skylights, raised mouldings, circular work, etc., etc., to which is prefixed a thorough treatise on "Carpenter's Geometry." By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," "The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book," "The Slide Rule and How to Use It," etc. This is the most complete book of the kind ever published. It is thorough, practical and reliable, and at the same time is written in a style so plain that any workman or apprentice can easily understand it. Cloth bound, $1.00.

STAIR-BUILDING MADE EASY. For Young Carpenters and Joiners. Simple, plain, and may be learned in an hour; being a full and clear description of the art of building the bodies, carriages and cases for all kinds of stairs and steps together with illustrations showing the manner of laying out stairs, forming treads and risers, building cylinders, preparing strings; with instructions for making carriages for common, platform, dog legged and winding stairs. To which is added an Illustrated Glossary of Terms used in stair-building and designs for newels, balusters, brackets, stair-mouldings and sections of hand-rails. By FRED. T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder." Cloth bound, $1.00.

A NEW SYSTEM OF HAND RAILING; or, How to Cut Hand Railing for Circular and Other Stairs, Square from the Plank, without the aid of a Falling Mould. The system is new, novel, economic and easily learned. Rules, instructions and working drawings for building rails for seven different kinds of stairs are given. By AN OLD STAIR-BUILDER. Edited and corrected by Fred. T. Hodgson. Cloth bound, $1.00.

THE BUILDER'S GUIDE. The Builder's Guide and Estimator's Price Book; being a compilation of current prices of lumber, hardware, glass, plumbers' supplies, paints, slates, stones, limes, cements, bricks, tin, and other building materials; also, prices of labor and cost of performing the several kinds of work required in building, together with prices of doors, frames, sashes, stairs, mouldings, newels, and other machine work. To which is appended a large number of building rules, data, tables and useful memoranda, with a Glossary of Architectural and Building Terms. By FRED T. HODGSON, editor of "The Operative Builder," author of "The Steel Square and Its Uses," etc,, etc. 12mo, cloth bound, $2.00.

CARPENTERS' AND BUILDERS' COMPLETE COMPANION. An immense work 11x14 inches in size; embracing eight different sections, each containing the best and quickest method of performing the work described, and completely covering the several branches of the building trades. There are 29 page plates, giving 134 different diagrams of problems in stair-building, hand railing, etc., with descriptive letter-press giving full explanation of each. Also, a graphic description of the Steel Square and its applications, the Slide Rule, etc. Treatise on painting, paper hanging, plastering, and general carpentry; together with rules, memoranda, data, tables, etc., in every branch. Methods, suggestions, measurements, tables showing strength and weight of materials, glossary of terms, carpenters' geometry, how to estimate the cost of construction, etc., with much other useful information. This is the only work ever issued with which is incorporated a treatise on either the Steel Square or the Slide Rule. The sections devoted to these subjects alone being worth the price of the book. All tables given on estimating, etc., together with those showing the strength and weight of materials, have been prepared with the utmost care and are absolutely correct. In fact, each section which forms part of this book is complete and thorough within itself. Price, bound in cloth, only $2.00.

It contains 310 pages and 65 illustrations; also, 104 tables of calculations. Price, cloth bound, $2.50. Sent by mail to any address on receipt of price.

Are You a Bookkeeper Are You a Business Man ? ?

Are You Awake to the possibilities of the new methods and have you the ambition, the will, the "stick-to-it-ivness" to forge ahead, or are you waiting for the "man ahead" to die?

Is There Anything about bookkeeping and accounts that you do not know? or that those under you do not know?

Do You Have Trouble at the end of the month and at the end of the year in taking a trial balance and closing up your books satisfactorily?

Do You Understand thoroughly the PRINCIPLES of Accounting? Do you need these principles in compact form so that you can refer to them for information and guidance when necessary?

Do You Have Trouble in compiling reports of business transacted during the year for the Federal Government or for the Census of Manufacturers?

If so, you need the book just issued by us entitled

Ogilvie's Science of Commercial Bookkeeping and Accounting.

By ADOLPH HIRSCH, Public Accountant and Adjuster.

The many years' experience of the author as accountant and book adjuster convinced him that a concise work, explaining both the theory and practice of bookkeeping, was just what bookkeepers, business men and instructors needed or were desirous to have. This book was written with that end in view.

Many Bookkeepers, although well experienced for their special tasks, are more or less lacking in a thorough knowledge of the principles of bookkeeping, so essential when circumstances cause changes or require more general knowledge for practical purposes. Besides setting forth the principles of bookkeeping in most condensed and comprehensive form, this book contains explanations of the most approved systems with special devices for labor saving, welcomed by the bookkeeper as well as the employer.

The Businessman will find in the book an ideal combination of theory and practice, giving him by its plain and distinct language a proper grasp on one of the most important branches of work under his control.

Leading bookkeeping authorities and the press have commented in highly favorable terms on the merits of the book. It is a large 12mo, of 140 pages, handsomely printed, with many explanatory plates in two colors, is bound in silk cloth embossed in gold, and will make a welcome addition to any library.

NEW YORK COMMERCIAL.

BOOKKEEPING.

Bookkeepers and general accountants—and their name is legion in this town, to say nothing of the country at large—will be much interested in a book by Adolph Hirsch on "The Science of Commercial Bookkeeping." It is an explanation of the various systems, their principles and their practical application; it was prepared with special reference to condensed bookkeeping, and many practical devices are outlined in it. To young men or women seeking employment as accountants, with a view to making that their life work, the book will be valuable as well as interesting; and the every-day man of business, young or old, needn't throw it aside as a book that can teach him nothing.

The most valuable portion of the little treatise, no doubt, is that devoted to "labor-saving devices" which, as Mr. Hirsch says, are not a "system" but simply a means of carrying out a system with more facility. Numerous sample pages accompany this chapter.

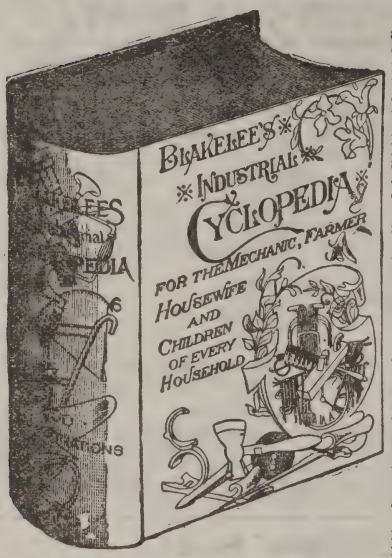
BLAKELEE'S INDUSTRIAL CYCLOPEDIA,

A READY REFERENCE AND RESERVOIR OF USEFUL INFORMATION.



In this book, by George E. Blakelee, practical mechanic, and editor of a farmers' paper, seven hundred and twenty octavo pages are devoted to explaining clearly the easiest, most practical, and best way of doing every kind of work, mechanical and otherwise. that can be of use in or about a city or village home, or on a large or small farm. It not only treats fully of the use and care of tools, and shows how to make and mend an endless variety of useful articles, but also points out how to do thousands of things not requiring tools, such as mixing paints, managing teams, caring for farm stock and poultry, storing hay, grain and vegetables, harvesting a corn crop, caring for furs, leather, lamps and glass articles, butter and cheese making, pork packing, canning, preserving, and the like, without end.

Not only are the mechanic and house-holder thoroughly provided for, but matters of use and interest to the farmer are treated at such length, that there seems to be nothing in the wide range of his multifarious duties that the author has overlooked. The housewife, too, has a department of her own, where, among hundreds of other things, she is taught the mysteries of bleaching and dyeing, the management of all kinds of fabrics; how to make brackets, frames, tidies, rugs, mats and all kinds of knitted and fancy articles; how to beautify her furniture, polish and renew table-ware, make soap, etc., etc. The boys and girls are also fully cared for. The former are shown how they can make their own hand-sleds, cages, traps and snares for birds and animals, row-boats, apparatus for a home gymnasium and the like; while the latter are instructed in making hundreds of those beautiful and useful articles which add so much to the adornment and convenience of home.

The book is a substantial octavo volume of seven hundred and twenty pages, well printed on paper of fine quality, fully illustrated with over two hundred engravings, furnished with a detailed table of contents and copious index, and handsomely bound.

TWO GREAT DETECTIVE STORIES.

The Adventures of ARSENE LUPIN, GENTLEMAN BURGLAR,

-- AND --

ARSENE LUPIN versus HERLOCK SHOLMES.

By MAURICE LEBLANC.

Not since the great success and wide popularity of "Sherlock Holmes," has there appeared in fiction a character so interesting, so vivacious, full of gaiety, of irony, and of the unexpected as ARSENE LUPIN. Maurice Leblanc can be compared only to A. Conan Doyle. They have the same power of recital, the same capacity in intrigue, the same science of mystery, the same rigorous chain of facts, the same sobriety of means.

With Sherlock Holmes one is each time facing a new robbery and a new crime. With ARSENE LUPIN we know in advance he is the guilty one. We know, that when we shall have unravelled the tangled threads of the story, we shall find ourselves facing the famous Gentleman Burglar. But with the aid of processes which the most adept are not able to fathom, the author holds your attention to the very end of each adventure, and the dramatic termination is always the unexpected. ARSENE LUPIN does not steal, he simply amuses himself by stealing. He chooses, at need he restores. He is noble, charming, chivalrous, delicate. Thief and burglar, robber and confidence man, anything you could wish, but so sympathetic—the bandit ! If you appreciate skill, ability, resourcefulness, and a battle between master-minds, do not fail to read these books.

The popularity in France of these books was so great that a play was made from them, which was presented in America with marked success. Arsene Lupin will live forever, and bids fair to outshine Sherlock Holmes.

THE OPEN COURT

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE

Devoted to the Science of Religion, the Religion of Science, and the Extension of the Religious Parliament Idea

Editor: Dr. Paul Carus — Associates: E. C. Hegeler, Mary Carus

An Unpartisan Organ of Religious, Ethical, Philosophical and Scientific Expression, Contributed to by the Leaders of Science in all Countries, and by the Leaders of Religion of all Denominations.

THERE is no conflict between religion and science, but there is a conflict between scientific truth and religious dogma. Dogmas are symbols which express religious truth in more or less appropriate allegories. They are not the truth itself. A belief in the letter of dogmas indicates indolence and the lack of genuine religion. The old dogmatism must be surrendered and will have to give place to a higher and more religious conception, which from the methods employed is called "The Religion of Science."

THE MONIST

A QUARTERLY MAGAZINE

Devoted to the Philosophy of Science

Editor: Dr. Paul Carus. — Associates: E. C. Hegeler, Mary Carus

THE Philosophy of Science is an application of the scientific method to philosophy. It is a systematization of positive facts; it takes experience as its foundation, and uses the formal relations of experience (mathematics, logic, etc.) as its method. All truths form one consistent system and any dualism of irreconcilable statements indicates a problem arising from either faulty reasoning or an insufficient knowledge of facts. Science always implies Monism i. e. a unitary world-conception.

"The Monist" also discusses the Fundamental Problems of Philosophy in their Relations to all the Practical Religious, Ethical and Sociological Questions of the Day.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

In the U. S., Canada and Mexico, yearly, postpaid, $2.00; single copies, 60 cents. In England and the U. P. U., yearly, 9s. 6d.; single numbers, 2s. 6d.

An index covering seventeen years of THE MONIST will be sent to any interested reader, desiring to become acquainted with the work and the standing of its contributors.

THE BOOK LIST

OF

Outing Publishing Company

315 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK

The star (*) in front of book title designates new publications.

ABBOTT (TWYMAN O.). *Abbott's 1910 Automobile Law for Motorists. This book is to the motorist what Blackstone is to the Jurist.

Mr. Abbott has condensed the general principles of automobile law and the customs of the road into 178 definite rules. In these rules he has stripped the general laws of all technical phrasing and arranged them for ready reference.

The book also covers such points as definitions, regulations as to equipment, speed, rates, registration (for residents and non-residents), duty toward persons and animals on the highway, and the law of negligence, arrest, trial and bail, rights and liability of garage keepers, and kindred subjects.

Following this, in alphabetical order of States, are the complete Motor Vehicle Statutes of all the States.

Although the arrangement of the book makes it really "self-indexing," a General Index is appended.

Size, 4¼ x 7 inches. Price in Cloth Binding, $1.50.

Price in Full Leather, Gold Edges, $2.50.

BRUNNER (JOSEF). *Tracks and Tracking. This book is full of woodland lore, and the language of the forest. It shows how to look for animal and bird tracks, and how it is possible to tell by the record of the signs the name of the animal or bird that made them, its sex, how fast it was going, its mood, and many other wonderful things. The author has gathered his material with wonderful patience. Here are photographs from life of the most timid animals, and information regarding their secret ways to be found nowhere else. Cloth, large 12mo. Illustrated. $1.25 net.

"No amateur hunter should consider himself fully equipped for hunting unless he has 'Tracks and Tracking' in his kit."—Lewiston (Me.) Evening Journal.

"Even to the lay reader it will prove interesting, while to the boy in the country it will be invaluable."—Portland (Ore.) Bulletin.

"A book of great interest to hunters that will be helpful to nature students, too."—New York Sun.

BURBA (GEORGE F.). Our Bird Friends. Delightful little sketches of the birds about us, told in the form of simple stories. They are of especial interest to the young, on account of the simplicity of style and the clearness of treatment. A volume full of wonderfully interesting facts about the feathered host of which the majority of persons have no knowledge. Ten full-page illustrations of our most familiar birds in their natural color. Cloth, octavo. $1.00 net.

"There could really be no more pleasing book for the purpose of interesting young folks in the study of the feathered kingdom than 'Our Bird Friends.'"—Mobile Herald (Ala.).

CAMP (SAMUEL G.). *Fishing Kits and Equipment. A comprehensive handbook by an expert on the necessary tackle for fresh water fishing. Mr. Camp speaks with authority on the selection of rods, reels, lines, leaders, lures, etc. The book also contains chapters on bait casting for bass and pickerel and the other fresh water game fishes of America. The man who goes fishing for the first time will find information here that he cannot secure elsewhere, and the veteran will pick up many useful hints. The whole field of equipment is covered, from fly to creel, and even the clothes to wear are appropriately discussed. The range of equipment cost is outlined, and the reader is told how much he should be prepared to spend in order to secure the best results. Cloth, decorative, 16mo. Fully illustrated. $1.00 net.

CLEVELAND (GROVER). Fishing and Shooting Sketches. A delightful little volume on the ethics of sport. This book of calm, genial philosophy will be a sportsman's creed for this generation and for many generations to come. Twenty-four full-page drawings and numerous decorations by Hy. Watson. Cloth, 16mo. $1.25 net.

"It is a classic that for pleasant philosophy and a sound defense of amiable mendacity stands alone in the literature of sport."—The San Francisco Bulletin.

FARIES, A.M., M.D. (RANDOLPH). Practical Training (for Athletics, Health and Pleasure). The second edition of a very practical work on an all-important subject. The work is in two parts: the first, dealing with the body in general and its treatment, and the second with the various contests in field and track athletics. An excellent book for college men and all interested in track contests. Cloth, 12mo. Illustrated. $1.00.

HENDERSON (W. B.). Nora Conough. A story of ranch life in Australia, full of the local color of that country. $1.25.

HENSHALL (DR. J. A.). Favorite Fish and Fishing. The author writes not only as an ardent fisherman, for the information of his kind, but also as a nature lover, and, as literature alone, his book is of high rank. He discourses delightfully about the black bass, which he calls the Game Fish of the People; has a most interesting and entertaining account of the Grayling, the Flower of Fishes; tells of the Trout, the Angler's Pride; grows eloquent over the pleasure of taking his majesty, the Silver King (the Tarpon), and writes at length about the fishes that may be taken in Florida. Many illustrations in half-tone. Cloth, decorative, 12mo. $1.25 net.

"A guide to the genuine follower of Walton. Mr. Henshall knows the literature of his gentle art as well as its practical side, and he sets forth his descriptions with an enthusiasm and a grace that are decidedly alluring."—The Dial.

HENSHAW (NEVIL G.). Aline of the Grand Woods. This is one of those unusual novels, possessing remarkable local color. The story part deals with Louisiana life and the Cajuns, who were the offshoots of the true Arcadians made famous by Longfellow in "Evangeline." A charming romance, that represents "something different" and distinctly worth while. Cloth, decorative, 12mo. $1.50.

HOLDER (CHARLES FREDERICK). Big Game at Sea. The well-known sportsman and naturalist tells of adventures with the Giant Tuna, the relentless Devilfish, the mighty Shark, and other mammoth denizens of the deep sea. Mr. Holder is a true sportsman, always plays fair with his game, and enjoys his sometimes dangerous encounters with the zest of a boy. Many illustrations. Cloth, decorative, 12mo. $2.00 net.

"A great book this—a book of wonderful things and surprising experiences in fishing. It is a veritable encyclopedia of mysterious antics of sea game, of their habits and species, their exclusiveness and their beauty. There is not anything else just like it in the literature of sportsmanship."—The Philadephia Record.

JOB (HERBERT K.). *How to Study Birds. Mr. Job tells in detail how to take up the study of bird life, how to know the birds, when and where to find them at different seasons, etc. Every detail of the use of the camera on bird subjects is made plain, revealing every secret of the author's own great success. Mr. Job has studied birds for years, and no one can claim to speak with more authority in this field. He is the lecturer on bird study at Chautauqua. This book will be his text for the course. It is the ideal guide for teachers—or anyone else interested in the study of our native birds. Cloth, large 12mo. Copiously illustrated with photographs from life. $1.50 net.

The Sport of Bird Study. Mr. Job is unquestionably one of the best authorities, in his special field, and his present book is a fascinating account of his experiences while hunting with a camera. He writes with enthusiasm; tells entertaining stories of the habits of the birds as he saw them at short range; and has adorned his narrative with a wonderful display of photographs from life, pictures obtained sometimes only after days of patient study of bird life. The book is designed especially for the beginner at the study. One hundred and thirty-four half-tones from photographs. Cloth, octavo. $2.00 net.

"One of the most delightful volumes tht has come from the publishers in many a long day."—The St. Louis Republic.

KEMP (OLIVER). Wilderness Homes (A Book of the Log-cabin.) To all who are contemplating a home in the woods this book will appeal. It is both inspirational, breathing the very peace of the forest, and practical. It tells how the amateur can build his own summer home at a minimum of expense, and the best way to go about it. No detail is omitted. Many plans and specifications are given. Illustrated with half-tones from photographs of log cabins and with numerous sketches by the author. Cloth and wood-veneer, decorative, 12mo. $1.25 net.

"'Wilderness Homes' must appeal to a great many. Oliver Kemp has given the public something worth having in this volume, for it tells how anyone may set about building a log cabin in the woods. It is well illustrated."—The Boston Globe.

KENEALY (CAPT. A. J.). Boat Sailing (Fair Weather and Foul). This is the seventh edition of a capital book dealing with one of the most interesting of sports. The large range of subjects treated, the concise and thorough manner in which every topic is handled, at once pronounce the author an enviable authority in his line. The demand of the public, as shown by the number of editions through which the book has passed, denotes sufficient evidence of the worth of this volume. Copiously illustrated with half-tone plates and zinc etchings. Cloth, decorative, 16mo. $1.00 net.

KEPHART (HORACE). *Camp Cookery. The best of camping trips can be spoiled by bad cooking. Therefore, any man who teaches the camper how to cook food that can be eaten with relish is a benefactor of his kind. Mr. Kephart has done this in his little book on "Camp Cookery." He has made a complete practical manual of everything that concerns cooking in camp, on the trail, or on the water. All recipes given have been thoroughly tested and can be recommended as authoritative and up-to-date. The book also shows how to utilize the results of rod and gun, as it contains simple rules for dressing and cooking all kinds of game and fish. It should be in every camp kit and galley locker. Cloth, size 4¼ x 7 inches, fully illustrated. $1.00 net.

The Book of Camping and Woodcraft. A veritable encyclopedia on the ways of the woods. It is conceded by all authorities that this is the best little volume ever produced on the subject. Many illustrations from photographs and pen drawings. Cloth, size 4¼ x 7 inches. $1.50 net.
The same, flexible leather, $2.00 net.

"'The Book of Camping and Woodcraft' is one of the most alluring and easily the most complete manuals of camping now available."—The Chicago Evening Post.

"'No one has approached the great subject with the equipment, experience and serene common sense as has Horace Kephart in 'The Book of Camping and Woodcraft.'"—The Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

McCORMICK (FREDERICK). The Tragedy of Russia in Pacific Asia. This is by far the most important book on the late war that will be published for a long time. Mr. McCormick was the Associated Press representative with the Russian army, and went right through the war from beginning to end. He heard the opening shot at Port Arthur, and was on the firing line at the great battles of Mukden and Liao-yang. Not only did he see more of the war than any other American correspondent, but he saw more than any other non-combatant. The book is a dispassionate survey of the war, its causes, and its lessons. Copiously illustrated from sketches by the author; many half-tones from photographs; numerous maps. Cloth, large octavo Two volumes in a box. $6.00 net.

"Mr. McCormick writes in an interesting manner, and one feels that the information he dispenses comes from an authority, and one who saw the things told of enacted before his own eyes. Such was the case, for Mr. McCormick was ever in the foreground with the forces with whom he cast his lot. The volumes are illustrated with pictures made by the writer and artist. The book contains the best account that has yet been written of that mighty Eastern conflict."—The St. Louis Republic.

PARKINSON (EDW. K.). A Guide to the Country Home. If ever a book filled a long-felt want it is this practical little volume, which tells the prospective purchaser of a country place, in plain terms, just what he ought to know about the house, the grounds, and all their appurtenances. It is designed especially to show how profit, as well as pleasure, may be derived from the Country Home. $1.00 net.

"Well-nigh everything that the owner of the country home wants to know expressed in language that he can understand."—The Argonaut.

"The book is full of excellent advice."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

"Every feature of the country home is treated in this book."—Denver Republican.

"The book is surprisingly comprehensive and technically valuable."—Chicago Evening Post.

"Many books have been written with 'back to the land' as their text. A Guide to the Country Home is one of the most sensible that has appeared."—The Boston Globe.

PRESBREY (FRANK). Motoring Abroad. For the person contemplating a tour in Europe (Normandy, Brittany, the wonderful chateau region, England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales), this book possesses a rare charm. Besides a delightful text there will be found much valuable suggestion on how to transport and handle one's car on board ship and railway. Copiously illustrated. Cloth, decorative, large 12mo. $2.00 net.

"The book makes capital reading, and the publishers have produced it so elegantly, with its wealth of illustrations, that we know of no guide-book over the same region that is half so interesting, half no informing or a tithe so readable."—New York American.

RHEAD (LOUIS). Bait Angling for Common Fishes. This volume is full of valuable information regarding the history and habits of the fishes described as well as directions on how to catch them. Numerous illustrations in half-tone and line from drawings by the author. Cloth, decorative, 12mo. $1.25 net.

"It is a handbook for the every-day, patient angler, who does not spell sport with a capital S, and who does not necessarily make of fishing a fad. Mr. Rhead is just the fellow you may safely choose as a companion."—The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

WHITFORD (C. B.). Training the Bird Dog. The most complete and exhaustive treatise ever written on the development of the hunting dog. It is indispensable to every sportsman, and should be in the library of every dog owner. Mr. Whitford is peculiarly qualified to write the book, being a well-known writer of authority on the hunting dog, as well as an expert breaker. His system is here fully set forth for the first time. It is scientific, but yet so simple that his method of breaking, which has given us a long list of notable prize winners, can be practiced by anyone. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. $1.25 net.

WHITLATCH (MARSHALL). *Golf for Beginners, and Others. Mr. Whitlatch bases his book on a few simple rules that anyone can understand and put in practice. His object is to show the application of these rules to the different strokes and conditions of play, rather than to lay down rigid formulas that must be followed, regardless of physique, age, or physical peculiarities. It is the method by which the author transformed himself in a very short time from an indifferent golfer to one of exceptional skill and steadiness. Cloth, large 12mo. Fully illustrated. $2.00 net.

ASKINS (CHAS.). *The Twentieth Century Shotgun. A complete description of the development of the modern arm with expert suggestions as to selection, care and use and a full discussion of the principles and methods of wing shooting. Copiously illustrated. Probable price, $1.50

CAMP (SAMUEL G.). *Days with the Rod and Camera. A practical book on the method of catching and experiences with the popular sweet water game fishes of North America, fully illustrated with photographs. A companion volume to "Fishing Kits and Equipment." Fully illustrated. Probable price, $1.00

MOODY (DR. CHAS. S.). *Backwoods Surgery and Medicine. A brief, practical treatise on first aid surgical and medicinal treatment in case of accident or illness in the woods or mountains. Price, .75

POWELL (E. P.). *The Country Home. Traces the various steps of finding the place; preparing the grounds; building the house; planting lawns, shrubbery, orchards, grounds, etc. Emphasizes strongly the spirit in which the country must be approached if the country home is to have its fullest value. Illustrated with photos. Probable price, $1.50

SLOSS (ROBT.). *Man and His Motor Car. Treats the every-day problems of automobile owning and operation from the standpoint of the owner, who, though not a mechanic, wishes to know how to select, care for, and operate his car at a minimum of expense and a maximum of pleasure. Fully illustrated. Probable price, $1.00

Of God's power. JOB, 39, 40. Job humbleth himself.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, Here we are?

36 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,

15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.

16 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not her's: her labour is in vain without fear;

17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

18 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

21 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.
2 Therefore when thou doest

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.
17 But thou, when thou fastest.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW 5. on the mount.

Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judæa, and from beyond Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill, 15 the candle. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

New Series of Illustrated Bibles and Testaments.

OXFORD PICTORIAL PALESTINE BIBLES.

The originators of this new Pictorial Bible hope they may claim to fill a want. There are many illustrated Bibles. Some contain copies from the Old Masters, and grand as these pictures are in color and artistic skill, no one would venture to say they are correct, either as to place or costume. Other editions contain modern pictures drawn by very capable artists unfamiliar with the East. Some Bibles are full of pictures of supposed occurrences, but to our mind, no legend or tradition should be pictorially represented in a Bible. In this volume neither artist has made any attempt to illustrate by picture the Divine Christ, but to depict existing customs, which throw light on Bible statements. In this Bible, the pictures, whatever merit or demerit they may have, are at least true.

For Specimen Types, see pages 5, 6 and 8.

Exhortations PSALMS. to praise God.

17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.
18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

fice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.
18 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people,
19 In the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

Christ foreshoweth ST. MATTHEW, 16. his own death.

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?
12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.
21 ¶ From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests

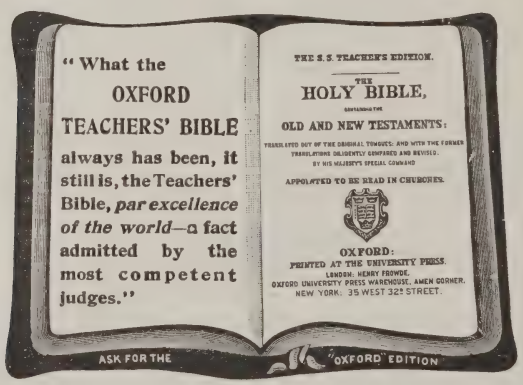
A MARVELLOUS IMPROVEMENT IN TEACHERS' BIBLES

AN ENTIRELY NEW SERIES OF

Oxford Teachers' Bibles

WITH NEW AND UP-TO-DATE HELPS

ARRANGED UNDER ONE ALPHABET



The Only Teachers' Bible made with 20th Century Helps

BEING A PRACTICAL BIBLE DICTIONARY, INCLUDING INDEX, CONCORDANCE, GLOSSARY, WEIGHTS, MEASURES, COINS, BOTANY, ETC., ETC.

ARRANGED UNDER ONE ALPHABET

WITH NEW ILLUSTRATIONS

NOTE

THE HELPS in this new Series of Teachers' Bibles have been thoroughly revised by English and American scholars, so as to embody the results of the most recent researches. For the greater convenience of teacher and student the information given in the forty-seven alphabetical lists of the Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is required may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place, without the necessity of reference to an index, or of search in a table of contents.

But though the arrangement is that of a Dictionary, the CYCLOPEDIC HELPS are much more than a word-book, for many of the cyclopedic articles of the Helps are included, each in its alphabetical place, and wherever it is necessary cross references to these are given under the more special entries. For instance, each weight, measure, and coin is entered in its own place in the general alphabetical order, and under each entry a reference is given to the general articles, such as Weights, Measures, or Coins, in which further information will be found. Of the illustrations, some have been taken from the 'Bible Illustrations' which have appeared in recent issues of the Oxford Helps, and nothing has been included that is not authentic beyond all possibility of doubt. The pictures of scences in Bible Lands are from photographs recently taken by M. Bonfils, and are reproduced with his permission. A new series of maps, fifteen in all, is included in the volume.

These new Helps doubly strengthen the position which the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLE has always held as

"The Bible par excellence of the World"

Reviews of the New Oxford Editions

"The Oxford University Press is always in the front line of improvement. It gradually added to the helps published in connection with their Bibles, till there were forty-seven alphabetical lists. These have been rearranged under one alphabetical arrangement, with changes bringing it up to date, and entitled The Cyclopedic Concordance. . . . They are the most complete and best arranged of all the helps in various bibles."—The Intermediate Sunday School Quarterly.

"What the Oxford Teachers Bible always has been, it still is, the Teachers' Bible par excellence of the world—a fact admitted by the most competent judges."—The Christian Nation.

"The new Bible just published by the Oxford Press is, without doubt, the finest product of the kind ever given to the public."—The Christian Advocate.

"As nearly a perfect Teachers' Bible as could well be made."—The Southern Christian Advocate.

THE "OXFORD INDIA PAPER"

IS UNIVERSALLY ADMITTED TO BE WITHOUT A RIVAL

THIS wonderful paper is a specialty of the Oxford Press, and is manufactured at their own paper mills. It was first produced in the year 1875, and has steadily grown in popular favor.

No other paper has yet been made that can approach it for its wonderful opacity, great toughness and softness, and its agreeable tone. The secret of its manufacture is known to only three living persons.

NOTE ON THE MARKINGS.

It is claimed for this book that it goes further in this direction than any previous book, and that it also indicates the pronunciation of certain other words, such as "leviathan," "homer," "cherub," etc., which cannot be called proper names, but which might present difficulties to an unskilled reader.

THE MARKED NEW TESTAMENT.

Philip's question, "Understandest thou what thou readest?" and the reply he received, "How can I, except some man should guide me?" probably occur more frequently to-day than ever; the advantage, therefore, of such markings as shown in these specimen pages is undoubted, in order to serve as finger-posts to those who are but little acquainted with the Bible.

The verses marked, will, under the Holy Spirit's teaching, help to make plain God's way of salvation through Christ. They deal exclusively with this subject in its various phases—the divinity and death of Jesus Christ, repentance, faith, obedience, etc.—and are not spread out over a variety of topics.

The Selection of Texts has been examined and approved by leading Bible students of different denominations, including Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Friends, who reported as follows:

"We are of opinion that the Marked Testament will be very helpful in mission work, and to mission workers. Having examined the texts selected for marking, we consider that they are judiciously chosen for the purpose, and are not likely to give rise to controversy."

No flesh justified by ROMANS, 3. the deeds of the law.

God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have better proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets:
22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.
24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

and they said unto them, Why have we not cast him?
46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?
49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them,
(he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) 51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee?
Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery,
in the very act.
5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse
him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman,

Special attention invited to the superbly printed "Oxford India Paper" Editions of Prayer Books and Hymnals.

The Oxford India Paper is a specialty of the Oxford Press, and is manufactured at the paper-mills of the Oxford University Press.

A distinguishing characteristic of the Oxford India Paper as compared with all so-called India Paper is that the impression on one side does not show through when the other side is being read.

A strip of this paper, only three inches in breadth, has been tested and found able to support a quarter of a hundredweight without yielding; a decisive proof of its exceeding toughness and durability.

The wonderful lightness of these books, the exceedingly clear type, the strength and excellence of binding, combine to place them far in advance of any book hitherto issued.

MORNING PRAYER. 9

Through the tender mercy of our God ; whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us ;

To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Jubilate Deo. Psalm c.

O BE joyful in the LORD, all ye lands : serve the LORD with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the LORD he is God ; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves : we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the LORD is gracious, his mercy is everlasting : and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

THE CHURCH—MISSIONS. 221

4 Soon shall end the time of weeping,
Soon the reaping time will come;
Heaven and earth together keeping God's eternal Harvest Home.
Saints and angels
Shout the world's great Harvest Home.

251 L. M.

LOOK from Thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from Thee!

3 Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;

SING, oh, sing, this blessèd morn;
Unto us a Child is born,
Unto us a Son is given,
God Himself comes down from heaven;
Sing, oh, sing, this blessèd morn,
Jesus Christ to-day is born.

2 God of God, and Light of Light,
Comes with mercies infinite,
Joining in a wondrous plan
Heaven to earth, and God to man.
Sing, oh, sing, etc.

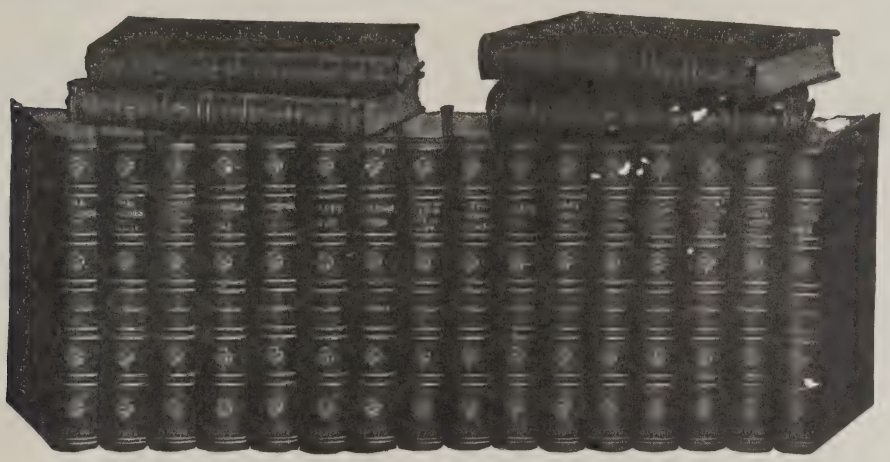
THE OXFORD THACKERAY.

Complete Edition.



On Fine White and the Famous Oxford India Papers.

Edited, with Introductions, by

GEORGE SAINTSBURY,

Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature in the University of Edinburgh.

Oxford Edition. Complete in 20 Volumes.

SIZE, $6\frac{3}{4}$ x $4\frac{3}{8}$ INCHES.

With more than 1,500 Illustrations.

The illustrations are taken mainly from early editions, many of which were drawn by Thackeray himself.

In this edition the various writings have been arranged in chronological order, as far as such an arrangement is possible, so that the reader may get a very much better appreciation of the nature and development of Thackeray's genius.

Vol.

1. The Yellowplush Papers, Major Gahagan, Stubbs's Calendar, The Bedford Row Conspiracy, Flore et Zephyr, and other Early Miscellanies. 660 pages. With 67 illustrations.

'Do you mean you never felt an inclination for another?' said Captain Quin.

'Never, my Eugenio, but for thee! How can you ask a blushing nymph such a question?'

'Darling Norelia!' said he, raising her hand to his lips. I had a knot of cherry-coloured ribands, which she had given me out of her breast, and which somehow I always

"After mature reflection it was determined to use the Authorized Version. None of the many Revisions have commended themselves to the public at large. The Revised Version, which has now been before the public for twenty-seven years, gives no indication of becoming in any general sense the people's Bible of the English-speaking world. Such emendations of the text as scholarship demands have been placed in the margins of this edition, which therefore combines the dignity, the high religious value, the tender associations of the past, the literary beauty and remarkable general accuracy of the Authorized Version, with the results of the best textual scholarship."

FEATURES OF THE SCOFIELD REFERENCE BIBLE

1. All the great words of Scripture are clearly defined.
2. Chain references, with final summaries, cover all the great topics of Scripture.
3. Every book has an introduction and analysis, thus facilitating Book study—the true method of Bible study.
4. Helps at the hard places.
5. Apparent contradictions reconciled and explained.
6. The types are explained and illustrated by N. T. references.
7. The Greater Covenants are analyzed and explained. All scriptures gather around these covenants.
8. The prophecies are harmonized, thus becoming self-explanatory.
9. The text is the Authorized, or King James Version, with emendations in the margin where needed.
10. Type: black-faced, imported Clarendon.
11. Paper: the famous Oxford White and India Papers.
12. Binding: eight styles. Prices, $2.00 to $10.00.

was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light [1]Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the [2]evening and the morning were the first day.

The second day: vapour above, water below.

6 And God said, Let there be a [a]firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the [b]firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

The third day: land and sea; plant life appears.

9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth [3]bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

[a] Lit. expanse (i.e. of waters beneath, of vapour above).

[c] Psa. 136. 5-9.

[d] The word does not imply a creative act; vs. 14-18 are declarative of function merely.

[e] i.e. the "heaven" of the stars; e.g. Gen. 15. 5. See Lk. 23. 43, note.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

The fourth day: the sun, moon, and stars become visible.

14 And God said, [c]Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God [d]made two great lights; the [4]greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the [e]heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

The fifth day: the second creative act—animal life. (See Gen. 2. 19.)

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that

[1] The word "day" is used in Scripture in three ways: (1) that part of the solar day of twenty-four hours which is light (Gen. i. 5, 14; John ix. 4; xi. 9); (2) such a day, set apart for some distinctive purpose, as, "day of atonement" (Lev. xxiii. 27); "day of judgment" (Mt. x. 15); (3) a period of time, long or short, during which certain revealed purposes of God are to be accomplished, as "day of the LORD."

[2] The use of "evening" and "morning" may be held to limit "day" to the solar day; but the frequent parabolic use of natural phenomena may warrant the conclusion that each creative "day" was a period of time marked off by a beginning and ending. But see Ex. xx. 11 and refs.

[3] It is by no means necessary to suppose that the life-germ of seeds perished in the catastrophic judgment which overthrew the primitive order. With the restoration of dry land and light the earth would "bring forth" as described. It was animal life which perished, the traces of which remain as fossils. Relegate fossils to the primitive creation, and no conflict of science with the Genesis cosmogony remains. Man is never found in a fossil state.

[4] The "greater light" is a type of Christ, the "Sun of righteousness" (Mal. iv. 2). He will take this character at His second advent. Morally the world is now in the state between Gen. i. 3 and i. 16 (Eph. vi. 12; Acts xxvi. 18; 1 Pet. ii. 9). The sun is not seen, but there is light. Christ is that light (John i. 4, 5, 9) but "shineth in darkness," comprehended only by faith. As "Sun of righteousness" He will dispel all darkness. Dispensationally the Church is in place as the "lesser light," the moon, reflecting the light of the unseen sun. The stars (Gen. i. 16) are individual believers who are "lights" (Phil. ii. 15, 16). See John i. 5, note.

(A type is a divinely purposed illustration of some truth. It may be: (1) a person (Rom. v. 14); (2) an event (1 Cor. x. 11); (3) a thing (Heb. x. 20); (4) an institution (Heb. ix. 11); (5) a ceremonial (1 Cor. v. 7). Types occur most frequently in the Pentateuch, but are found, more sparingly, elsewhere. The antitype, or fulfilment of the type, is found, usually, in the New Testament.)

OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES

Paper, Printing, Helps, Illustrations

IN ADVANCE OF ALL OTHERS

"Since 1880, the Oxford Teachers' Bible has been acknowledged the greatest book marvel of modern times. The publishers have just brought out an edition with revised Helps which again puts this work clearly in advance of all others."

—Sunday-school Magazine.

The Paper

"The India paper, in which we believe this company leads the world, has made a revolution in the art of printing."—The Living Church.

No other paper has yet been made that can approach it for its wonderful opacity, great toughness and softness, and its agreeable tone, nor for the ease with which

The Pages Can be Turned

A distinguishing characteristic of the Oxford India paper, as compared with all so-called India paper, is that the impression on one side does not show through when the other side is being read.

The Printing

"Its letterpress is remarkably clear and distinct. This is appreciated the more because it is uncommon in Bibles. Long and close attention to the print of ordinary Bibles strains the strongest eyes, but the Oxford is not an ordinary Bible in this or in any other respect."—The Christian Nation.

The Helps

Rev. F. N. Peloubet, D.D., Author of "Peloubet's Notes on the International Lessons" says, January 14, 1899:

"I have been comparing the two editions of the Oxford Helps, your new one with mine dated 1893. Your appendix, and especially the new plates, and more especially the descriptions of them, which are a wholly new feature, add greatly to the value of these Helps. I shall refer to them as often as I can in my 'Notes on the Lessons.'"

The Christian Advocate, Nashville, Tenn.

"The Helps are real helps. Unlike those in many of the cheap Bibles, they are not simply thrown together in hodge-podge fashion, but represent the freshest and ablest work of the foremost modern scholars."

The Interior, Chicago, Ill.

"Helps prepared for this work by the most eminent Biblical scholars of the day, and revised up to the latest possible date, to keep in touch with the last discoveries of science, the last lights of interpretation. This edition has reached, in former issues, a sale of over two million copies, and it is safe to say that nothing offers even fair competition with it in general favor."

The Illustrations

The Sunday-school Times, September 17, 1898

Referring to the illustrations:—"In this department this Bible is probably far superior to any other of those commonly called Teachers' Bibles. Probably there does not exist another equally compact collection of the kind."

Vol. III (=III i of the German edition), with 7 maps and 23 illustrations. $5.75.
Vol. IV (=III ii of the German edition), with 55 illustrations. $7.75.

Fossils of the British Islands, Stratigraphically and Zoologically arranged. Part I, Palaeozoic. By R. Etheridge. 4to. $7.50.

Martini Lister Historia sive Synopsis Methodica Conchyliorum. Editio Tertia. Recensuit et indice locupletissimo instruxit L. W. Dillwyn. 1823. With numerous plates. $15.75.

First Lessons in Modern Geology. By A. H. Green, edited by J. F. Blake. With 42 illustrations. Crown 8vo. 90 c.

Geology of Oxford and Thames. By J. Phillips. 8vo. $5.25.

Vesuvius. By the same. Crown 8vo. $2.60.

Geology. By Sir J. Prestwich. Royal 8vo. Vol. I. Chemical and Physical. $6.25. Vol. II. Stratigraphical and Physical. With a geological map of Europe. $9.00. Geological Map (separately), $1.25.

Physics of Earthquake Phenomena. By C. G. Knott. 8vo, with numerous diagrams. $4.75.

Astronomy

Astronomy in the Old Testament. By G. Schiaparelli. Authorized English translation, with many corrections and additions by the Author. Crown 8vo. $1.15.

A Handbook of Descriptive Astronomy. By G. F. Chambers. Fourth edition. 3 vols. 8vo. $8.75, or separately, Vol. I. The Sun, Planets, and Comets. 8vo. $5.00. Vol. II. Instruments and Practical Astronomy. 8vo. $5.00. Vol. III. The Starry Heavens. 8vo. $3.40.

The Story of the Comets. By G. F. Chambers. 8vo, with many illustrations. $2.00.

Bradley's Miscellaneous Works and Correspondence. With an account of Harriot's astronomical papers. 4to. $5.75.

A Cycle of Celestial Objects, observed, reduced, and discussed by W. H. Smyth; revised and greatly enlarged by G. F. Chambers. 8vo. $2.00.

Astronomical Observations made at the University Observatory, Oxford, under the direction of C. Pritchard. Royal 8vo.

No. I. On observations of Saturn's Satellites. Paper covers, 90 c. No. II. A Photometric determination of the magnitudes of all Stars visible to the naked eye, from the Pole to ten degrees south of the Equator. $2.10. Nos. III and IV. Researches in Stellar Parallax by the aid of Photography. Part I, $1.90. Part II, $1.10.

Tables for Facilitating Computation of Star-Constants. By H. H. Turner. Second impression. 8vo. 50 c. (published by Mr. Frowde).

Halley's Comet. By H. H. Turner. 2nd ed. Illustrated. 35 c.

Chemistry

Mathematical Crystallography. By H. Hilton. 8vo. $4.75.

Crystallography. A treatise on the Morphology of Crystals. By N. Story-Maskelyne. Crown 8vo. $3.25.

Fock's Introduction to Chemical Crystallography, translated and edited by W. J. Pope; with a preface by N. Story-Maskelyne. Crown 8vo. $1.40.

The Molecular Tactics of a Crystal. By Lord Kelvin. With twenty illustrations. 8vo. 90 c.

Elementary Chemistry. Progressive Lessons in Experiment and Theory. By F. R. L. Wilson and G. W. Hedley. 8vo, with many diagrams. Part I. Second edition. 75 c. Part II. Second edition. $1.25.

Class Book of Chemistry. By W. W. Fisher. Fifth edition. Revised and enlarged. Crown 8vo. $1.10.

Exercises in Practical Chemistry. By A. G. Vernon Harcourt and H. G. Madan. Fifth edition. Crown 8vo. $2.60.

Van 't Hoff's Chemistry in Space, translated and edited by J. E. Marsh. Crown 8vo. $1.10.

Original Papers in the Science of Chemistry. A list compiled by V. H. Veley. Third edition. Paper covers, 25 c.

Chemistry for Students, with solutions. By A. W. Williamson. Extra fcap 8vo. $2.10.

Tables of Qualitative Analysis. By H. G. Madan. 4to, paper covers. $1.10.

Pure and Applied Mathematics

Introduction to the Algebra of Quantics. By E. B. Elliott. 8vo. $5.00.

Theory of Continuous Groups. By J. E. Campbell. 8vo. $4.75.

Theory of Groups of Finite Order. By Harold Hilton. 8vo. $4.75.

Treatise on Infinitesimal Calculus. By Bartholomew Price.
Vol. I. Differential Calculus. [Out of print.]
Vol. II. Integral Calculus, Calculus of Variations, etc. [Out of print.]
Vol. III. Statics, including Attractions; Dynamics of a Material Particle. Second edition. 8vo. $1.25.
Vol. IV. Dynamics of Material Systems. Second edition. 8vo. $1.25.

The Collected Mathematical Papers of H. J. Stephen Smith, late Savilian Professor of Geometry in the University of Oxford. Edited by J. W. L. Glaisher. 2 vols. 4to. $15.75.

Rigaud's Correspondence of Scientific Men of the Seventeenth Century. 1841. 2 vols. 8vo. $4.75.

Elementary Books

Responsions Papers in Stated Subjects (exclusive of Books), 1901–1906, with answers to Mathematical Questions and Introduction by C. A. Marcon and F. G. Brabant. Crown 8vo. $1.15.

A School Course of Mathematics. By David Mair. 1906. Crown 8vo. 90 c.

A Study of Mathematical Education, including the teaching of Arithmetic. By Benchara Branford. Crown 8vo. $1.10.

School Algebra. By W. E. Paterson. Crown 8vo. Parts I and II, each 60 c. (with answers, each 75 c.); together, $1.00 (with answers, $1.25).

Arithmetic. With or without answers. By R. Hargreaves. Crown 8vo. $1.10.

Elementary Plane Trigonometry. By R. C. J. Nixon. Crown 8vo. $1.90.

Book-keeping. By Sir R. G. C. Hamilton and J. Ball. Fcap 8vo, cloth. 50 c.
Ruled exercise book to the above, 40 c.; to preliminary course only, 10 c.

Lectures on the Logic of Arithmetic. By M. E. Boole. Crown 8vo. 50 c.; or interleaved with writing-paper, 75 c.

Figures made Easy: a first Arithmetic Book. By Lewis Hensley. Crown 8vo. 15 c. Answers, 25 c.

The Scholar's Arithmetic. By the same. 60 c. Answers, 40 c.

The Scholar's Algebra. By the same. Crown 8vo. 60 c.

A Text-Book of Algebra: with Answers. By W. S. Aldis. Crown 8vo. $1.90.

Elementary Mechanics of Solids and Fluids. By A. L. Selby. Crown 8vo. 90 c.

Geometry

Geometry for Beginners: an easy introduction to Geometry for young learners. By G. M. Minchin. Extra fcap 8vo. 40 c.

Elementary Geometry, on the plan recommended by the Mathematical Association.

Experimental and Theoretical Course of Geometry. By A. T. Warren. With Examination Papers set on the new lines. Crown 8vo. With or without answers. Third edition with additions (1905). 50 c.

Elementary Modern Geometry. Part I. Experimental and Theoretical. (Ch. I–IV) Triangles and Parallels. By H. G. Willis. Crown 8vo. 1905. 50 c.

Euclid Revised, containing the essentials of the Elements of Plane Geometry as given by Euclid in his first six books, edited by R. C. J. Nixon. Third edition. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

Sold separately as follows:—Book I, 25 c.; Books I, II, 40 c.; Books I–IV, 75 c.; Books V, VI, 90 c.

Geometry in Space, containing parts of Euclid's Eleventh and Twelfth Books. By R. C. J. Nixon. Second edition. Crown 8vo. 90 c.

Geometrical Exercises from Nixon's Euclid Revised. With Solutions. By Alexander Larmor. Crown 8vo. 90 c.

The 'Junior' Euclid. By S. W. Finn. Crown 8vo. Books I and II, 40 c. Books III and IV, 50 c.

Sequel to Elementary Geometry, with numerous examples. By J. W. Russell. Crown 8vo. $1.50. Solutions (Key). Crown 8vo. $3.40. Obtainable only from Mr. Henry Frowde, 29–35 West 32nd Street, New York.

Pure Geometry, an elementary treatise, with numerous examples. By J. W. Russell. Crown 8vo. New and revised edition (1905). $3.00.

Analytical Geometry, an elementary treatise by W. J. Johnston Crown 8vo. $1.50.

Notes on Analytical Geometry. By A. Clement Jones. Crown 8vo. $2.00.

Cremona's Elements of Projective Geometry, translated by C. Leudesdorf. Second edition. 8vo. $3.25.

Cremona's Graphical Statics, being two treatises on the Graphical Calculus and reciprocal figures in Graphical Statics, translated by T. H. Beare. 8vo. $2.25.

On the Traversing of Geometrical Figures. By J. Cook Wilson. 8vo. $2.00. Addendum. 8vo, paper covers. 15 c.

Non-Euclidean Geometry. By J. L. Coolidge. 8vo. $5.00.

Physics

Hermann von Helmholtz. By Leo Koenigsberger. Translated by Frances A. Welby. With a Preface by Lord Kelvin. Royal 8vo, with 3 portraits. $5.25.

Modern Views on Matter. Being the Romanes Lecture for 1903. By Sir Oliver Lodge. New edition. 35 c.

Treatise on Electricity and Magnetism. By J. Clerk Maxwell. Third edition. Two vols. 8vo. $8.00.

Notes on Recent Researches in Electricity and Magnetism. By Sir J. J. Thomson. 8vo. [Out of print.]

Maxwell's Elementary Treatise on Electricity. Edited by W. Garnett. 8vo. $1.90.

Introduction to the Mathematical Theory of Electricity and Magnetism. By W. T. A. Emtage. 2nd ed. Crown 8vo. $1.90.

The Measurement of Electrical Resistance. By W. A. Price. 8vo. $1.50.

The Mathematical Theory of Electricity and Magnetism. In two volumes. By H. W. Watson and S. H. Burbury. 8vo. $1.50 each.
Vol. I. Electrostatics. Vol. II. Magnetism and Electrodynamics.

The Application of Generalized Co-ordinates to the Kinetics of a Material System. By the same. 8vo. 60 c.

Lessons on Thermodynamics. By R. E. Baynes. [Out of print.]

Elementary Treatise on Heat, with numerous Woodcuts and Diagrams. By Balfour Stewart. Sixth edition, revised with Additions, by R. E. Baynes. Crown 8vo. $2.25.

Practical Work in General Physics. By W. G. Woollcombe. Crown 8vo. 50 c. each part.
Part I. General Physics. Second edition, Revised. Part II. Heat. Second edition, Revised. Part III. Light and Sound. Part IV. Magnetism and Electricity.

The Theory of a Physical Balance. By J. Walker. 8vo. 90 c.

A Treatise on the Kinetic Theory of Gases. By H. W. Watson. Second edition. Crown 8vo. $1.00.

Acoustics. By W. F. Donkin. Second edition. Crown 8vo. $1.90.

A Treatise on Statics with Applications to Physics. By G. M. Minchin.
Vol. I. Equilibrium of Coplanar Forces. Sixth edition. 8vo. $2.60.
Vol. II. Non-Coplanar Forces. Fourth edition. 8vo. $4.00.

Hydrostatics and Elementary Hydrokinetics. By the same. Crown 8vo. $2.60.

Statutes of the University, etc

Oxford University Sheet Almanack, 1910. $1.50.
With a view of Tom Tower, Christ Church; that for 1909 had a view of Worcester College; both collotypes from original drawings by MUIRHEAD BONE. Most of the illustrations for back years can be obtained, price 70 c. each.

Oxford University Calendar, 1910. Crown 8vo, cloth. $1.75.

The Historical Register, a supplement to the Calendar, with record of University Honours and Distinctions to 1900. Crown 8vo, cloth, $1.90.

The Student's Handbook to the University and Colleges at Oxford. Eighteenth edition. Revised to September, 1909. Crown 8vo, 85 c. Includes an account of special studies and opportunities of research (sold separately, 20 c.).

Examinations and Degrees in Music. Regulations, &c. 10 c.

The Examination Statutes, with the Regulations of the Boards of Studies and of Faculties for 1908–1909. 8vo. 35 c.

Examination Papers set in the University Examinations. See special list on cover of the Examination Statutes.

Responsions Papers in Stated Subjects (exclusive of Books), 1901–1906, with answers to Mathematical Questions and Introduction. By C. A. MARCON and F. G. BRABANT. Crown 8vo. $1.15 c.

Guide for Colonial, Indian, and Foreign Students. 5 c.

Statuta Universitatis Oxoniensis. 1909. 8vo, cloth, $1.25.

Statutes made by the Commissioners, 1863. 8vo. $3.00.
1877. 8vo. $3.25. Statutes for the University only, stitched, 50c.; for the Colleges, stitched, each 25 c. Supplementary Statutes, 1888. 8vo. 60 c.

Laudian Statutes (1636). Edited by JOHN GRIFFITHS. With introduction by C. L. SHADWELL. 4to. $5.25.

Enactments in Parliament, specially concerning the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. Collected by JOHN GRIFFITHS. 8vo, cloth, $3.00.

The Universities and College Estates Acts, 1858 to 1880, and 1898. Arranged by W. B. GAMLEN. 8vo, stiff covers, 60 c.

Catalogue of Oxford Graduates from 1659 to 1850. 8vo. $1.90.

Index to Wills proved in the Chancellor's Court. By J. GRIFFITHS. Ry. 8vo. 90 c.

Oxford University Gazette, containing official notices, lecture-lists, etc; published weekly during Term and when necessary in Vacation. $2.00 per annum, post free. Bound volumes from 1870–1909 may still be purchased. Folio, cloth, $4.15 each.

Catalog of Publications

of the Pacific Press Publishing Assn.

Each publication has a number before it to indicate the particular class to which it belongs. Following is the key to these figures:

1. Regular subscription books — sold through agents.

2. Books for Home Workers.

3. Trade Books — no discount to any one.

3. ALMOST A MAN. By Dr. Mary Wood-Allen. This book is not only a doctor's talk to boys, but a mother's talk. No one can come so close to a boy's heart as a mother. She stimulates the good, helps him to correct the bad, and upon her teaching depends much of the success or failure of his after-life.

In this book Dr. Wood-Allen appeals to the manly qualities found in every boy. She describes the functions and natural uses of the organs of the body, and compares their development with familiar plant and animal life.

It is just the book to put into any boy's hands when he begins to ask those delicate questions which many find so hard to answer. Cloth 50

3. ALMOST A WOMAN. By Dr. Mary Wood-Allen. Doubly important is the period when the girl blossoms into womanhood. Upon the training and education which she receives at this time depends her future usefulness as a woman and a mother.

Dr. Wood-Allen knows just how to handle this subject so as to win a girl's confidence, and cause her to recognize the responsibilities which are awaiting her. She presents the whole subject in such a reverent attitude that even the most careless will be led to look upon the mysteries of life as sacred. Cloth 50

3. AMONG THE NORTHERN ICEBERGS. By Emma H. Adams. Interesting sketches of Arctic expeditions of England and America in the nineteenth century. It is a book which will fascinate young folks, and add very materially to their stock of knowledge. 160 pages, illustrated, cloth 50

3. BELL'S GUIDE TO CORRECT LANGUAGE. A ready reference book. A treatise convenient for the use of all people in all callings and professions, and especially helpful to printers, teachers, students, and those who write for the press. It contains facts that everybody wishes to know about the correct use of the English language, and these facts are so arranged that they can be instantly found.

This book is written in three parts.

Part I. Practical grammar, containing the most essential grammatical laws, illustrated with examples that reveal the correct and the incorrect use of words.

Part II. Punctuation; in an entirely new and simple method, embracing illustrations, rules, and examples, so arranged that one can instantly find what he wants.

Part III. Use of Capitals; though this is one of the most difficult problems in the use of the English language, the rules in this book render it as simple as possible.

Substantially bound in cloth. Size, 6 x 9¼ inches. Post-paid 50

3. BELL'S LANGUAGE SERIES. In five books. This series gives an outline study of the English language, adapted to the training of the child from the nursery till he graduates from college. These books claim the attention of practical educators everywhere. Based upon the natural method, giving and illustrating principles rather than rules, and are particularly suited to home study. This unique series consists of:

Book One, Primary Language Lessons from Life, Nature, and Revelation, 227 pages. Cloth 65

Book Two, Elementary Grammar, 224 pages. Cloth 65

Book Three, Complete Grammar, 281 pages. Cloth 80

Book Four, Rhetoric and Higher English, 375 pages. Cloth 1 25

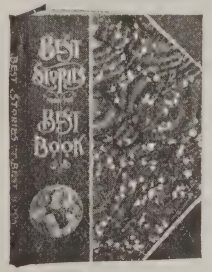
1. BEST STORIES FROM THE BEST BOOK. The best book is the Bible; and the author has selected from that grand volume some of the choicest gems, and placed them in attractive form for children. It opens with a series of easy nature lessons, adapted to the little folks just learning to read. Following this are short stories based on prominent Bible characters, which are very entertaining and inspiring. The book is nicely illustrated, some of the pictures being colored, and will prove very pleasing and helpful to the children, impressing lessons that will never be forgotten. Published in English, German, Danish, and Swedish.



Bound in stiff board with cover design .. 50
Presentation edition, cloth back and corners, with art paper sides 75

3. BIBLES. Remember that we are headquarters for anything in the Bible line. We shall be pleased to send you our catalog of Bible selections free on application.

2. BIBLE CHILD LIFE. A biography of the principal children mentioned in the Bible, written especially for young people. These biographies are a part of the word that is "a lamp to our feet and a light to our path." The book presents, in simple narrative, Bible child life in a manner that charms and molds the lives of children. There is nothing that can be done for children that will help them more than to teach them to read the simple story of the lives of children recorded in the Scriptures. The impressive lessons received from the stories written in "Bible Child Life" will mold the mind, quicken the conscience, and prepare the children for true Christian lives. 144 pages, 22 full-page illustrations. Cloth .. 50

BIBLE DICTIONARY. See Reference Books.

1. BIBLE FOOTLIGHTS. A book of studies on the important truths which God has given for the special instruction of the present generation. The lessons are brought out by means of questions answered by texts quoted from the Bible, supplemented by notes. Well illustrated; contains 322 pages; bound in two styles of cloth. Plain 1 00
Gilt 1 50

3. BIBLE KINDERGARTEN MATERIAL. Contains three boxes of material to illustrate the lessons and make teaching easy. Boxes 1 and 2 contain hard maple blocks, cut into cubes, halves, quarters, squares, and oblongs. Boxes are of cherry, dovetailed corners, sliding top, durable. Box 3 contains 10 miniature sheep, 30 mounted sticks to represent people (10 of them children), green French tissue-paper for Sea of Galilee, cones and domes, and green splints for river outline and tree-building. Three boxes material 2 45

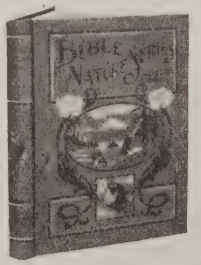
3. BIBLE NATURE SERIES BOOK 1. This book covers in one volume the fourth grade elementary studies most easily grouped together in Bible Nature Study; thus combining in one text-book Bible, Geography, Physiology, Botany, and Natural Science.



It contains 336 pages, and is beautifully illustrated with 223 engravings. There are six colored maps, printed in from two to six colors each, besides a large number of maps, charts, and diagrams. Handsomely bound in cloth .. 1 20

3. BIBLE NATURE SERIES BOOK 2 1 20
BOOK 3 in preparation.

For Note Books accompanying this series see Nature Study Note Books.

3. BIBLE NATURE STUDIES. By M. E. Cady. The aim of this volume is to illustrate the fact that the Book of books is the foundation of all true science. From this standpoint the author has carefully prepared two hundred and sixty-seven lessons, and classified them in sixteen leading chapters, as follows:

1. The Earth in the Beginning. 2. Light and Heat. 3. Air and Sound. 4. Water. 5. The Dry Land. 6. Plants. 7. The Sun,

Moon, and Stars. 8. The Water Animals. 9. The Air Animals. 10. The Land Animals. 11. Man. 12. The Sabbath. 13. The Fall of Man. 14. The Flood. 15. The Earth's Final Destruction. 16. The New Earth.

In these chapters the learner is taught to behold the Creator in His creation, and to know that the power and life of true education is a "knowledge of God and of Jesus Christ whom He hath sent." It fills a long-felt need as a text-book in our church schools and colleges, and in a beautiful way connects Bible study with that of the sciences. Parents will find its use valuable in the home training of their children 1 00

3. BIBLE OBJECT-LESSONS AND SONGS FOR LITTLE FOLKS. By Lillie E. Affolter and F. E. Belden. This book contains fifty-two illustrated lessons, accompanied by thirty original hymns and songs, and thirty-one large engravings from the famous "Hofmann Series." The steps in the teaching are natural and progressive; the music is good and pleasing, and adapted to little children, and the illustrations are beautiful.

2. CHRIST OUR SAVIOUR. This book gives the story of our Saviour from the manger to the cross, telling in a pleasing way of the many interesting incidents of His life; of who His parents were, where He was born, how He spent His childhood days, the precious lessons He taught, the wonderful miracles He performed, and of His kindly words and deeds. The style of the book is simple and direct, enabling young minds to grasp right impressions of the One who said, "Suffer little children to come to Me." As they grow up, the memories of the Man of Galilee will cling to them and be an inspiration to reach for the high ideals of His life and work. This book contains nearly 200 pages, is finely illustrated, and attractively bound. Published in English, German, Danish, Swedish, and Spanish.

Fine English cloth 75

3. CHRIST'S OBJECT LESSONS. By Mrs. E. G. White. This volume of 436 pages from the pen of Mrs. White is an attractive grouping of the parable-teaching of Christ. The linking of divine truth with common things and incidents is a prominent characteristic of Him who "taught as never man taught;" and in this book the author has developed and illustrated in a beautiful way these teachings, making a volume full of gems of truth, and which will give to many readers a new meaning to the surroundings of every-day life. The publishers have taken great pains to make the setting worthy of the gem, as to both mechanical work and illustrations. The latter are by talented New York artists, and have been expressly designed for this book. Also published in German, Danish, and Swedish at the same price.

Handsomely ornamented cloth cover 1 25

3. CHURCH, THE, ITS ORGANIZATION, ORDER, AND DISCIPLINE. By J. N. Loughborough. This pamphlet of 184 pages gives the scriptural basis for church organization, and shows in a clear, definite manner how order is to be maintained and discipline administered.

Attractive paper covers 25

3. CHURCH-SCHOOL MANUAL. For parents and teachers. A concise and comprehensive guide for the progressive teacher. The introductory chapters contain a brief but convincing statement of the principles and methods of True Education.

The complete outline of studies, as adopted by the Educational Department of the General Conference, is given in full.

The chapter on Geography contains a section giving "Mission Outlines of the World," showing in a graphic manner the status of the work in "the regions beyond."

The chapters on "Physiology and Hygiene" and "Manual of Industrial Training" are especially valuable.

The only official guide for S. D. A. denominational schools. 378 pages.

1. COLDS: THEIR CAUSE, PREVENTION, AND CURE. The object of this little book is to enable one not only to treat successfully all colds, but so to live as not to be susceptible to them 25

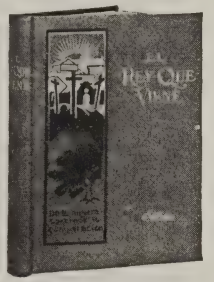
1. COMING KING, THE. By James Edson White. Treats in a clear, concise, and readable manner the live issues of our times. It shows our Saviour's connection with the history of the world during the patriarchal age, and the events clustering around His first advent to earth. But more especially does it show how history is accurately fulfilling the great prophecy of our Lord as recorded in Matthew twenty-four. Famines, pestilences, cyclones; the conflict between capital and labor; the money question; the iniquity abounding in political, social, and religious life; the great war preparations of all nations,— these and kindred topics are discussed in separate chapters, showing they are but the response of history to the unerring voice of the prophecies of Christ and His apostles. These events are all shown to point to the great culminating event of this earth's history — the coming of the King and the restoration of this earth as the final abode of those who are faithful in their allegiance to Him. "The Coming King" contains 318 pages, and the text is illustrated with over 180 engravings, many of them full-page half-tones, designed and engraved expressly for this book. Issued also in German, Swedish, Dutch, Spanish, and Danish.



English bound in same style.

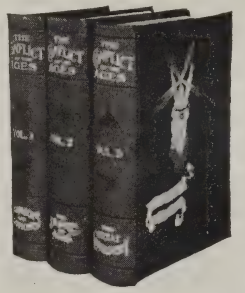
CONCORDANCE. See Reference Books.

1. CONFLICT OF THE AGES, THE, or a History of the World in Three Volumes. By Mrs. E. G. White. These three books form a connected narration of the conflict between good and evil from Satan's first evil thought to the time when all sin will be banished from the universe of God. To rightly understand the purpose of God in the creation of this earth and in allowing evil to exist, is a matter of vital import to every person. A right understanding of God's dealings with men is the cornerstone of faith.

PATRIARCHS AND PROPHETS begins with the fall of Satan and reaches to the death of King David. The introductory chapter, "Why Was Sin Permitted?" gives the key, not only to this particular volume, but to the entire series. The divine solution of this perplexing question is here given. A mighty procession of saints, sages, prophets, and kings passes before us. From their lives we may learn to live.



THE DESIRE OF AGES passes from the time of King David and begins with the "root and offspring of David," our Saviour. The appropriateness of the title is at once apparent. Its key is contained in the opening sentence, "His name shall be called Immanuel, God with us." It is more than a mere biographical sketch. It is a use of incidents to illustrate the principles of true Christianity.

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY BETWEEN CHRIST AND SATAN covers the period from the close of Christ's ministry to the end of time, forming a history of the church during the Christian era. The early Apostolic Church; the work of the Papacy; the Reformation; the conflict between Apostate Protestantism and the remnant church; the final overthrow of Satan and the establishment of Christ and His eternal kingdom,— these are the themes of the third volume.

A total of 2,413 pages profusely illustrated. Many costly drawings have been especially made for these books and a large number have been reproduced as full-page engravings, greatly embellishing the work.

Cloth, marbled edges 9 00
Half Russia, marbled edges 12 50
Full Morocco, marbled edges 16 00

3. CONSECRATED WAY TO CHRISTIAN PERFECTION, THE. By Alonzo T. Jones. This book clearly shows the work of Christ our "Faithful High Priest." It proves that as Christ the Son of God came down from heaven and was made flesh, and dwelt among men as the Son of Man; died on the cross of Calvary; arose from the dead; ascended to heaven and sitteth on the right hand of the throne of God, even so He stands as our Advocate "as a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched and not man;" also that He will come again in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory, to take His people unto Himself. 129 pages. Illustrated 50

COOK BOOKS. See Vegetarian Cook Book, and Friend in the Kitchen.

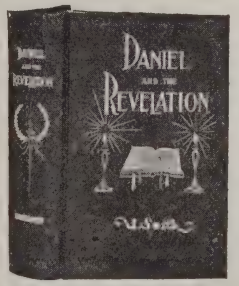
1. DANIEL AND THE REVELATION. The Response of History to the Voice of Prophecy. By Uriah Smith, author of "Here and Hereafter," "Looking unto Jesus," "The Marvel of Nations," "Synopsis of Present Truth." A new edition; new type; new illustrations; carefully revised; a handsome and valuable book. Many have considered the symbolical prophecies of Daniel and the Revelation difficult, if not impossible, to understand; but the statements of the prophets themselves assure the reader that these portions of Scripture were written for our instruction. This book gives the simple and correct rule for the interpretation of all symbolic prophecy. It is a most intensely interesting and instructive volume of nearly 900 pages, in which many wonderful and solemn things are brought to notice. Every chapter stirs the mind with vivid portrayals of present truth. Bible students will particularly prize this book, although it is well adapted to all classes of readers.



"Daniel and the Revelation" contains a verse-by-verse study of both these prophecies. The harmony and completeness of the plan of salvation thus made clear has led many to accept the Bible as the revealed will of God, and Christ as their personal Saviour. Doubtless there are no other books in the Bible which throw as much light on the strained, perplexing conditions in the business, social, and religious world to-day, as those here considered. No one can afford to miss this opportunity of studying the history of the past in connection with present developments, and in the light of these prophecies.

This new edition has been profusely re-illustrated, there being about eighty full-page cuts, some of which are beautifully colored, besides numerous illustrated chapter headings, etc. Over 100,000 copies of the previous editions have been sold. It has been translated into a number of languages. Also issued in German, Danish, Swedish, and Dutch, except in plain cloth edition.

2. Paper covered edition, in two volumes ... 50

1. DESIRE OF AGES, THE. By Mrs. E. G. White. The life of Christ presented in a new and beautiful form. Its whole object is to show that in Christ the love of the Father is revealed, and that we may live the life He lived if we rightly connect with the same source of power.

In every phase and circumstance His experiences were similar to our own. The wonderful manner in which divinity and humanity were combined; the way in which Christ, while dwelling in a human body, with only human strength, took hold of divine strength, and thus overcame sin; these things are made wonderfully clear and helpful on every page and in every sentence. Step by step the life of our Saviour is traced, and is made to touch our life, so that He becomes, in very truth, "our elder Brother."

The illustrations number about 300, and are largely original. It contains nearly 900 pages, printed on fine book paper. The bindings are handsome, as well as substantial.

Cloth, marbled edges 3 00
Half leather, marbled edges 4 50

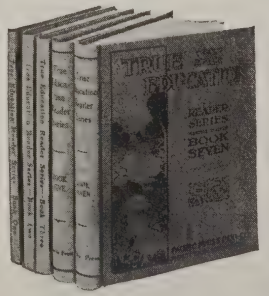
3. EARLY WRITINGS. By Mrs. E. G. White. A new edition of this popular work, rearranged and reprinted from new plates. This book is a compilation of the first published writings of the author, and contains many encouraging words for those who are looking for the soon return of our Lord.

Paper 35
Cloth 75
Limp leather 1 25

3. EDUCATION READER SERIES, TRUE. This series of school readers is designed to cover the work of primary and intermediate schools in grades one to seven, inclusive.



A competent corps of educators has been working on this series for several years. Believing that fairy tales and myths should have no place in the education of children and youth the authors have eliminated all such matter and given place only to the good, the pure, and the true.

The first three books give the Gospel story, told in different form in each book, using the simple but wonderful truths of science and nature to vary and enliven the telling of the story.

The other books in the series have received equal care in their preparation and the complete line presents absolutely the best and most useful school readers obtainable.

These readers are of uniform size, printed on fine, smooth paper, and illustrated by a large number of expensive engravings prepared especially for these books. All are substantially bound in beautiful cloth with green ink stamp. (Books One and Two, red and green.)

Book One, 204 pages, profusely illustrated 60
Book Two, 256 pages, many illustrations 60
Book Three, 304 pages, fully illustrated 75
Book Four, in preparation
Book Five, 353 pages, illustrated 90
Book Six, in preparation
Book Seven, 392 pages, illustrated 1 00

2. EDUCATION. The object of true education and how it may be realized by the youth, the parent, the teacher, the writer; the tiller of the soil, and the business man, is the great theme of this book.

Its first chapter is devoted to First Principles; following that are illustrations taken from the history of Israel. Master Teacher, Nature Teaching, The Bible as an Educator, Physical Culture, Character Building, The Under Teacher, and the Higher Course, are titles of other chapters. 321 pages. Cloth 1 25

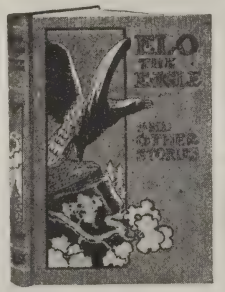
2. ELO THE EAGLE AND OTHER STORIES. A book in which every boy and girl and young man and woman will be deeply interested. It contains ten stories of animal life — life histories of the author's boyhood friends. The subjects are as follows:



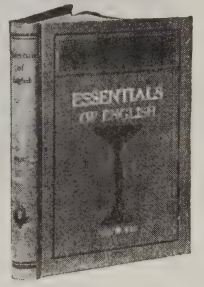
Elo the Eagle; Lady Betty the Quail; Jonah the Barred Owl; Joe the Blue Jay; Father Screech-Owl; Frank the Collie; The Coyote, the Last of a Hated Race; Dick the Black Bear; Boblets the Meadow-Mouse; Sobersides the Toad.

Each story is introduced by a handsome portrait of the hero, printed in glossy luxotype.

It contains nearly 200 pages. Fully illustrated, handsomely bound in cloth... 1 00

ENCYCLOPEDIA. See Reference Books.

3. ESSENTIALS OF ENGLISH. By Geo. W. Rine. This book is true to its title and gives in concise, easily understood language the essential rules for the correct use of English. It should be on the desk of every one who writes or speaks in public. 308 pages.



Cloth 75

1. FRIEND IN THE KITCHEN. This is an educational cook book. Its object is to educate people away from flesh-eating by presenting to them a far better way. This "better way" consists of 400 thoroughly tested recipes for the preparation of good, wholesome dishes, none of which include meat of any kind. The book gives the nutritive value of foods, time required to digest various foods, rules for dyspeptics, best food for infants, substitutes for meats, and, in fact, about everything a person wishing to reform his dietary needs to study. Durably bound in flexible cloth 25

Oilcloth 50

3. GARDEN NEIGHBORS, MY. By L. A. Reed. All will be interested in the true story of the sparrows who learned to imitate the bluebirds, of the cat that went wild, of the cowbird that imposed on a sparrow, and all the other chapters in this instructive and entertaining book. It contains 256 pages with nearly one hundred illustrations, several of them colored.

Bound in cloth 1 00

GEOGRAPHY. See Morton's Advanced.

2. GLORIOUS APPEARING, HIS. An exposition of Matthew 24, revised, enlarged, and illustrated. The book contains 114 pages, with 20 full-page illustrations. It takes up Christ's great prophecy of His own second coming, and the signs of the times are clearly pointed out in their relation to that greatest event. Just the book for the times. Attractive, interesting, timely, and instructive.

Bound in fine English cloth, embossed covers 50

1. GOOD FORM AND CHRISTIAN ETIQUETTE. By Mrs. S. M. I. Henry. Treats good manners as related to society rules and Gospel work, and is a most helpful book for old and young, laity and clergy, Christian and unbeliever, notwithstanding it was not primarily written for either the world or the nominal professor of Christianity, but "for those who are earnestly looking for the best means of serving God and humanity." It tells how to avoid those things which give offense and lessen our influence for good among the best classes in the world, before whom we are "to shine as lights." The reproach of the Gospel is inevitable, but this should not be augmented by reproach for violation of those rules of social etiquette which refined society has laid down for its own protection against boorishness and immorality. 144 pages. Felt paper 25

2. GOSPEL IN CREATION, THE. By E. J. Waggoner. A finely illustrated work which sets forth clearly and simply the relation between God's work in Creation and Redemption.

This is an excellent book for those to read who might be disturbed by the specious attacks being made against the Bible, and especially those portions dealing with Creation. A splendid presentation of the fact that in Creation is to be seen the "power of God" which is "unto salvation." 169 pages. Cloth 50

1. GOSPEL PRIMER, THE. This little book gives the Gospel stories in a simple and pleasing way that can be understood by the very young. It begins with an attractive Bible alphabet, followed by Bible words and sentences, and gradually leads up to the interesting stories drawn from Bible experiences, both in the Old and New Testaments. The book is ornamented with a cover design, and is fully illustrated with Bible scenes. Published in English, German, Danish, Swedish, and Spanish.

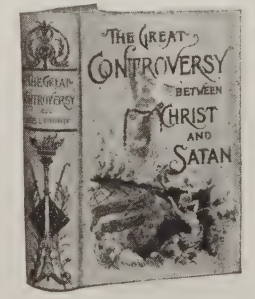
1. GREAT CONTROVERSY BETWEEN CHRIST AND SATAN, THE. By Mrs. E. G. White. This volume presents the most wonderful and intensely interesting history that has ever been written of the great conflict between Christianity and the powers of darkness, as illustrated in the lives of Christian martyrs and reformers on the one hand, and wicked men and persecuting powers on the other. Beginning with our Lord's great prophecy, given while viewing Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, this book outlines the history of the whole dispensation down to the time when "sin and sinners are no more, God's entire universe is clean, and the great controversy is forever ended." It has 38 full-page illustrations, nearly all of them new and specially engraved. It is printed on fine paper, beautifully and substantially bound, and contains over 800 octavo pages, and 148 engravings. Over 400,000 copies already sold.



Also published in German, Danish, Swedish, and French.

2. GREAT NATIONS OF TO-DAY. By Alonzo T. Jones. A graphic explanation of the prophecies concerning the great world-powers and the position assigned to the great nations of to-day in prophetic history. Berean Library No. 7. 257 pages 25

3. GREAT SECOND ADVENT MOVEMENT, THE. This book gives a history of the greatest and most important religious movement this world has ever witnessed. It is written by Elder J. N. Loughborough, one of the oldest pioneers in this movement, and the only person living who has preserved a record of the early experiences. It contains a wealth of information which it is not possible for any other book to contain.

Its illustrations include the portraits of nearly all the leading pioneer workers in this message. This splendid volume contains 26 chapters, 480 pages, and is substantially and neatly bound in paper and cloth with cover design in three colors, thus presenting an attractive appearance.

2. HEALTH: How to Find It When It's Lost; How to Keep It When It's Found. Written by B. Franklin Richards, whose long and careful study of the subject of health in its different bearings has well fitted him to answer the questions propounded in the above title.

The author considers the details of such practical, every-day questions as good foods, food combinations, influence of stimulants, advantages of vegetarianism, how to avoid consumption, care of the teeth, office of the skin, value and proper use of the bath, home remedies, etc.

To illustrate and make all these points perfectly plain, more than a dozen carefully prepared tables are introduced. These tables alone are worth more than the price of the entire volume. Contains 222 pages, and is so thoroughly indexed as to enable one to instantly refer to any passage. Well bound in cloth 1 00

1. HERALDS OF THE MORNING. By A. O. Tait. A new edition of this popular work, enlarged and thoroughly up to date. It treats on the second coming of Christ, and the signs that the Scriptures tell us should precede that great event. It tells the meaning of the appalling loss of life by murder and suicide, and by fearful calamities on every hand, of the capital and labor troubles, strikes, fires, perplexity among the nations, socially and politically, and the significance of the great phenomena in nature as portrayed all about us. With all this Christ is presented as the Friend of sinners, and His coming as the cheering hope of His children. It points out the place of refuge for those who would be shielded amid the perils of these last days, and how we may be saved from the great deceptions that Satan is multiplying in the earth. The light from the "sure word of prophecy" is turned on life's pathway, clearing up the obscurity and brightening it up amid the troubles and perplexities, even unto the dawning of the morning of the eternal day when strife shall cease. 419 pages.

3. HERE AND HEREAFTER, OR MAN'S NATURE AND DESTINY. By Uriah Smith. This work is a thorough canvass of the great questions of a future existence, and the nature of man in the present life. Every text in the Bible which has any possible bearing upon these points is taken up and carefully explained. 357 pages. Cloth 1 00

3. HISTORY OF THE REFORMATION. By J. H. Merle d'Aubigné. This is the one recognized standard and most popular history of the great Reformation of the sixteenth century. D'Aubigné says: "I acknowledge this translation as the only faithful expression of my thought in the English language, and I recommend it as such to all my readers."

The style of the author is elegant, but simple, and the reader with little education, as well as those more educated, will therefore appreciate the book. The description given of the battles waged against error by Luther and his associates is thrilling, and no family should be without this work. Five volumes, cloth..... 3 50

HOME AND CHURCH-SCHOOL MANUAL. See Church-School Manual.

1. HOME AND HEALTH. Prepared and edited by a competent committee of home-makers and physicians.

Home and Health is a household manual containing two thousand recipes and helpful suggestions on the building and care of the home in harmony with sanitary laws, the preservation of health by clean, consistent living, and the home treatment of more simple ailments and diseases by use of natural rational remedies instead of drugs.

It contains six sections as follows:

The Home, Its Location, Suggestions on Building, Sewerage, Healthful Surroundings, Water Supply, etc.

General Housekeeping, including all the general features of the housekeeper's work, such as Care of the Rooms, Laundering, House Cleaning, Fruit Canning, Pests, etc.

Diet.

Care of the Body.

Care and Training of Children.

The Home Treatment of Disease.

The object of this work is twofold:

(1.) The prevention of disease by teaching the principles of life and health.

(2.) The classification in convenient form for reference of such recipes and items of information as are most needed in the home.

The book contains nearly six hundred pages, is fully illustrated.

Published also in Spanish at same prices.

2. HOUSE WE LIVE IN, THE, OR THE MAKING OF THE BODY. By Vesta J. Farnsworth. Here is a most important and instructive book for the young, telling about the wonders of our physical house, in its various parts, the proper function of each organ, and how to care for the body from childhood up. The subject is presented as a conversation between a mother and her children, questions being freely asked and intelligently answered. The style of presentation is certainly a happy one, each part of the body being compared to some part of a house. For example, the mouth is compared to the eating-room, the stomach to the kitchen, the eyes to the windows, our nerves to a telephone system, our lungs to the bathroom, etc., which makes it very interesting and impressive to the young. You can readily see the importance of such a book as this in your family, for we all like to see our children become intelligent and form correct habits of living, so that they will grow up well and strong. This is the purpose of the book; and the numerous pictures well illustrate the thoughts expressed. Published in English only. Bound in cloth 1 00

3. LEFT WITH A TRUST. By Nellie Hellis. It is a story of the struggles of a family to help mother and each other during the absence of father, and pleasantly reveals the brighter side of youth where there is a worthy purpose and a will to be kind and affectionate. 160 pages, illustrated. Cloth 50

3. LETTERS FROM THE HOLY LAND. By Henry A. Harper. Illustrates many customs and practises, people and things, so different from those of our own land. The reading of the book will make more interesting the study and reading of the word of God. It contains a large number of illustrated chapter headings and full-page cuts. 160 pages, illustrated. Paper 25

3. LIFE ON THE CONGO. By Rev. W. Holman Bentley. This short though comprehensive story of the new-old empire of the Congo, in many respects the choicest portion of the "Dark Continent," can not fail to interest young and old. The information given has the merit of being the product of the personal observation of the author and other well-known parties who have traversed the country which is so graphically described. Young People's Library Series. 12mo, 160 pages, illustrated. Cloth 50

3. LUTHER, MARTIN. By Emma H. Adams. The name of this great reformer is well known in every household, and this story of his life, at home, at the university, as a monk, as a priest, at Rome, at the Diet of Worms, and finally the closing scenes of his eventful career, will be of deep interest to the young. 160 pages, illustrated. Cloth 50

3. MAN OF VALOR, A. By A. W. Spaulding. A new book written expressly for young people. The Old Testament character of Jonathan is taken as the leading figure, and around the wonderful story of his life is clustered a wealth of practical lessons and historical information.

Twelve beautiful full-page illustrations have been especially prepared for the book, and each is a real work of art. The illustrations are printed on a fine quality of enameled paper, and greatly enhance the general appearance of the book. Cloth... 75

2. MAKING HOME HAPPY. We all enjoy a home where there is happiness, where all join together to make things pleasant. The writer of this book pictures before us, in interesting story form, the actual experiences of a certain family, and how it grew from a home of discord to one of peace. By this object-lesson held up before us we readily see just the lines of influence to be drawn, and points to be guarded, and the traits to be cultivated to make home life pleasant. In the same way the children almost unconsciously grasp the true ideas of what home should be, and learn to prize its blessings more. The whole family may read the book with pleasure and profit. Published in English only. Bound in attractive cloth 50

2. MAKING HOME PEACEFUL. This book by the same author is the sequel to Making Home Happy, telling the outcome of the family mentioned in the first book. Ten years have passed away, and great changes have taken place. You will be interested as well as pleased in following this family in their later experiences, and learning that the once home of discord became a quiet and peaceful abode, pervaded with love and happiness. In the frontispiece we have given a picture of the author. Published in English only. Cloth 75

1. MARVEL OF NATIONS. Our Country: Its Past, Present, and Future, and What the Scriptures Say of It. By Uriah Smith. A portrayal of American progress since the founding of the nation to the close of the nineteenth century, when this nation stood as one of the first nations in the world. The manner of the rise of this nation and its political nature are evidences of its prophetic importance.

While the historic past and the prophetic present of this nation are of great interest to the American people, the principal and the most interesting feature of this work is its treatise on the scriptural future of the United States and the setting up of the kingdom of God.

Over two hundred and fifty-five thousand of these books have been sold. Contains 324 pages. Also published in German, Danish, and Swedish.

1. MINISTRY OF HEALING. By Mrs. E. G. White. The meaning to us of our Saviour's example in healing the soul as well as the body is made very clear in this cheering volume. In the very first chapter we read, "During His ministry Jesus devoted more time to healing the sick than to preaching." This is a new viewpoint, perhaps, from which to consider the many incidents in His life, but from it the reader may gain physical as well as spiritual strength from every one of them.

The beautiful way in which these incidents are treated is indicated in the following from chapter entitled "Days of Ministry":

"Hour after hour they came and went;

for none could know whether to-morrow would find the Healer still among them. Never before had Capernaum witnessed a day like this. The air was filled with the voice of triumph and shouts of deliverance.

"Not until the last sufferer had been relieved, did Jesus cease His work. It was far into the night when the multitude departed, and silence settled down upon the home of Simon. The long, exciting day was past, and Jesus sought rest. But while the city was wrapped in slumber, the Saviour, 'rising up a great while before day,' 'went out,' and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed."

3. OUT-OF-DOORS. By M. E. Olsen. The book is permeated with a wholesome outdoor spirit. To read it is like getting a whiff of fresh mountain air. The writer is evidently in love with God's great out-of-doors, and has a way of making others fall in love with it, too. He points out the supreme value of fresh air from the point of view of health preservation. He shows that the morning walk, garden-making, camping, and other forms of open-air recreation are really remarkably effective remedies for common physical ills, and that open-air sleeping has done wonders in building up the health. He also discusses the serious moral and social problems growing out of the tendency to leave the country and crowd into the large cities. Education comes in for its share of attention, and is shown to consist of something more than book knowledge. In a chapter on "The Higher Ministry of Field and Wood," we are reminded of the spiritually uplifting influences to be found out-of-doors, and are led to see nature telling the story of God's love and care. Altogether it is an inspiring book with a message of peace and power straight from God's out-of-doors. 104 pages. Cloth 60

1. PATRIARCHS AND PROPHETS; or The Great Conflict Between Good and Evil, as Illustrated in the Lives of Holy Men of Old. By Mrs. E. G. White. This book treats upon the themes of Bible history — themes not in themselves new, but so presented here as to give them a new significance. Beginning with the rebellion in heaven, the author shows why sin was permitted, why Satan was not destroyed, and why man was tested, gives a thrilling description of man's temptation and fall, and rehearses the plan of redemption devised for his salvation. The life of each of the patriarchs, from Adam to King David, is carefully scanned, and from each a lesson is drawn. This volume traces the great conflict between good and evil from its inception down through the centuries to the time of David's death, and shows God's wonderful love for mankind by His dealings with the "holy men of old." The book contains 825 octavo pages. It is printed from clear, new electrotypes on a fine quality of tinted paper. Its pages are adorned with more than 50 engravings, over 30 of which are full-page, and many were designed and engraved especially for this book and at great expense.

1. PROPHECIES OF JESUS. By Elder J. G. Matteson. This book was first published in Swedish and Danish, and has run through several editions in those languages. It has been thoroughly revised by the author with careful attention to its adaptability to the English-speaking people; and additional matter of a peculiarly timely character has been added.

The book contains 566 pages, printed on finely calendered paper, and is embellished with 34 full-page illustrations. It is divided into four parts. Part 1 treats on the prophetic utterances of Christ. Part 2 takes up the predictions of the apostles, and marks their fulfilment. Part 3 treats on the great prophecies of Daniel, and gives the historical evidence of their fulfilment. Part 4 treats on the prophecies of John as recorded in the Revelation.

1. STORY OF DANIEL THE PROPHET. By S. N. Haskell. A biography of this wonderful prophet of God. Entirely new in its conceptions and designs. The scriptures narrating the story are printed in parallel columns with the author's delineations and interpretations. This one feature of the book alone renders it very serviceable and desirable.

In connection with the story of this remarkable life, a clear and forcible exposition of the prophecies is also given. The author has endeavored not to arouse controversy, but to suggest thoughts both in the story and side references, that will create a religious interest and further study in the things of God.

The book contains both a scriptural and general index of subjects, has eighteen chapters, and over 350 pages.

2. STORY OF JOSEPH, THE. By James Edson White. A book for children. Large type. The interesting story of Joseph's life,— of how he was sold a slave by his older brothers when only a mere lad, yet many years afterward became the governor of all Egypt,— is told in a manner so simple that the children will appreciate it. Many illustrations; printed in three colors; 64 pages. Board 25

2. STORY OF PITCAIRN ISLAND.

From murderous mutineers to peaceable Christians faithfully observing the commandments of God. This is the wonderful history of the settlement of Pitcairn Island as told by Miss Young, a native daughter. In simple but beautiful language the writer unfolds the story of hate and love, crime and its punishment, and the development of a happy race of islanders. Bound in cloth, 266 pages 1 00

1. STORY OF THE SEER OF PATMOS. By S. N. Haskell. The author's latest book is on the thrilling prophecies of the book of Revelation. It presents no vague new theories, but in simple narrative style portrays the story of the prophet John's life, and traces his prophecies and their wonderful fulfilment.

Illustrated with original engravings made especially for this work. The text of the entire book of Revelation is printed in the margins, and accompanying it are thousands of Scripture references elucidating the text; and besides all this, the explanatory comment of the author on each chapter. It is a companion volume to "Story of Daniel the Prophet," by the same author, and is written in the same style.

The two books are uniform in size and style, and treat two of the most important and least understood books of the Bible. Fully illustrated. Contains 424 pages.

3. STUDIES IN GOSPEL HISTORY. By Milton E. Kern. As indicated by the title, these studies are intended to cover that portion of the Christian dispensation included in the four Gospels, and are designed for the use of academic students. The purpose of this book is briefly but clearly stated in the motto on the title-page, "Study to show thyself approved unto God." A close study of the life of Christ is of supreme importance to our young people in these last days. The forty-five lessons are arranged with space after each question for written answer, and with two blank pages for "notes" at the end of each lesson. One colored map and five outline maps, fourteen half-tone illustrations. Authorized by the Educational Department of the General Conference for use in the schools of the S. D. A. denomination. 3. TEACHING TRUTH. By Dr. Mary Wood-Allen. Is composed of talks and advice to mothers with reference to unfolding to their children the truths concerning their bodies and the origin of life. The queries which arise in the minds of the young must be answered. If not instructed by the parents, answers to their queries will be gotten by them from other sources, and often with the most undesirable results. How and when to teach this and other kindred subjects is the object of this book. Cloth, new edition 50

3. TEMPERANCE TORCHLIGHTS. By Matilda Erickson. Just from the press. A book of studies, stories, songs, poems, and useful information on temperance topics; for the use of individuals, churches, schools, temperance and young people's societies. Every one interested in the cause of temperance will find many helpful suggestions in this book. It should be placed in the hands of every temperance worker. Cloth, 256 pages 50

3. TESTIMONIES FOR THE CHURCH. By Mrs. E. G. White. Bound in 9 volumes, of from 300 to 770 pages each, each volume containing a complete index of subjects. Volume 1 contains a brief sketch of the early life and Christian experience of the writer of the Testimonies, together with Testimonies Nos. 1 to 14.

Volume 2 contains Testimonies Nos. 15 to 20.

Set of three 2 00

3. THOUGHTS FROM THE MOUNT OF BLESSING. An exposition of Christ's

Sermon on the Mount. It has 218 pages and 6 chapters: On the Mountainside, The Beatitudes, The Spirituality of the Law, The True Motive in Service, The Lord's Prayer, Not Judging but Doing. A new edition just printed on fine enameled paper, new type, and re-illustrated with 27 beautiful half-tone engravings specially prepared for the book by eminent New York artists. It will be found full of comfort and blessing by all fortunate enough to obtain and read it. A beautiful gift book. Cloth 75

3. TONGA ISLANDS AND OTHER GROUPS. By Emma H. Adams. This intensely interesting story of the far-away islands of the Pacific gives the reader an introduction to the strange people who inhabit these "gems of the ocean."

Once they were cannibals, and this story tells of their emancipation from dark heathenism, and the wonderful change wrought by contact with Christianity and civilization.

Strange customs and wonderful scenes still greet the eye of the traveler, and many curious plants and animals are described by the author. 160 pages, illustrated. Cloth bound 50

TRUE EDUCATION READERS, THE. See Education Reader Series.

3. TWO CANNIBAL ARCHIPELAGOES. By Emma H. Adams. A graphic description of the New Hebrides and Solomon Islands. The luxuriance of their vegetation, the strange phases of animal life, the volcanoes and other natural curiosities, the manners and customs of the people, and the efforts to civilize and Christianize them, are all told in a lively and most entertaining style. 160 pages, illustrated. Cloth 50

1. TWO REPUBLICS, THE. By Alonzo T. Jones. A comparative history of the two greatest republics, Rome and the United States. It contrasts the principles underlying enforced religious observances with the true principles of religious freedom for every man, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States. It contains 899 pages, beautifully and substantially bound, and illustrated with over 67 full-page engravings.

2. UNCLE BEN'S COBBLESTONES.

Familiar talks with boys and girls about the common articles of everyday use: sunshine, fire, smoke, glass, coal, salt, paper, matches, etc.

Uncle Ben has a very pleasing way of telling about the origin and use of these various things. There is a ray of sunshine streaming throughout the whole book, and yet it does not touch the fickle so prevalent in books for children.

The purpose of the book, aside from the useful information given, seems to be soul-culture, for we observe on every page a moral fragrance that will impress young minds in the right way.

Uncle Ben tells about more than one hundred different things in all, and intersperses with happy thoughts that bring good cheer to young and old. 221 pages. 1 00

3. VEGETARIAN COOK BOOK, THE.

While in almost every kitchen there are one or more "cook books" on hand for reference, we have no apology to make for the appearance of this new Vegetarian Cook Book.

The need of good, wholesome advice as to what people should eat and drink is emphatically shown by the alarming increase of disease on every hand.

Mr. Fulton, the author of this volume on vegetarian cookery, is a person of wide experience in vegetarian restaurant work, and is at present manager of the popular and well-known Vegetarian Cafeterias of Los Angeles. He has embodied in his book the results of his long experience and observation in the combination of foods and their healthful and palatable preparation.

The book has 420 pages, including a handy and well-arranged index of all the recipes given. Bound in cloth, post-paid 1 00

1. WEBSTER'S VEST-POCKET DICTIONARY. Until phonetic spelling is universally adopted, we are all likely to be driven to a spelling authority more or less often. To meet this need there are dictionaries and dictionaries, but there is only one "Webster Dictionary and Vest-Pocket Library" which actually spells and pronounces 45,800 words and yet weighs less than three ounces and slips easily into the vest pocket.

This literary wonder also gives the capital, population, and area of all the countries of the world, the population of all large cities, a digest of parliamentary practise, etc., while the 60c style contains a three-year calendar and waxed sheets for the preservation of postage stamps.

Signs of the Times Leaflet Series

A new series of leaflets covering vital phases of Bible truth for this time.

Various writers who have made a special study of their subjects have prepared matter, which has been examined and criticized by a committee. Appropriate headings for each were drawn by an artist, which adds materially to the attractive appearance of the leaflets.

The leaflets contain two pages each, and the titles are as follows:

1. The Sure Word of Prophecy.
2. Prophetic History of the World.
3. Second Coming of Christ.
4. Signs of Our Times.
5. The Sanctuary.
6. The 2,300 Days.
7. The Law of God.
8. The Sabbath of the Bible.
9. The First Day in the Bible.
10. Who Changed the Sabbath?
11. The Great Threefold Message.
12. The Seal of God and Mark of the Beast.
13. Church and State.
14. Life and Immortality.
15. The Great Judgment Day.

GENERAL CATALOGUE AND TRADE LIST FOR 1910

Travel Lovers' Library

A series of great value and interest, both to travellers and to the general public. Not only are the works accurate guides and histories in their chosen fields, but at the same time the beauty of the volumes, the abundance of illustrations, and the style of the text make them of the utmost interest to those who have never seen with their own eyes the marvels and beauties of the "Old World."

List of Titles

BELGIUM: ITS CITIES. By GRANT ALLEN, author of "Paris," "Florence," "Venice," etc.

Two volumes, large 16mo, cloth decorative, profusely illustrated with full-page photogravure and half-tone plates, deckle edge, flat back, gilt top, per set, boxed $3.00
The same, three-quarters morocco 7.00

"In the two volumes devoted to Belgium, Mr. Allen has done some of his best work." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Blarney Castle

ROMANTIC IRELAND.

By M. F. and B. McM. Mansfield.

Two volumes, large 16mo, cloth decorative, with over eighty full-page plates, flat back, gilt top, boxed . $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco 7.00

This book will appeal to many, — to the readers of romance and legends, to the lovers of the picturesque and beautiful in nature, and to the loyal sons and daughters of Erin.

"The authors seem to have covered all the ground that could be covered in a work of this kind. It is full of tradition and romance to liven up the descriptive matter, and good use has been made of the great mass of legendary lore that enriches the history of the little green isle." — Chicago Evening Post.

OLD EDINBURGH. By Frederick W. Watkeys, M. D.

Two volumes, large 16mo, cloth decorative, with over eighty full-page plates, gilt top, flat back, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco 7.00

The story of Edinburgh is almost a history of Scotland, for Edinburgh was the stage upon which were produced the most striking scenes of all the dramas of love and war and intrigue played within its borders; and the most romantic periods in its history have been inseparably associated with the life of Scotland's capital.

"While including much that others omitted, he gives the cream of all previously published. 'Old Edinburgh' may thus be considered a compendium of the history, traditions, manners and customs of Auld Reekie from the earliest times." — Scottish-American, New York City.

ROME. By Walter Taylor Field.

Two volumes, large 16mo, cloth decorative, with over eighty full-page plates, gilt top, flat back, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco 7.00

Mr. Field knows all phases of his subject well, — pagan Rome, mediæval Rome, the Rome of the Renaissance, and the modern city. History and legend, description and comment, give delightful variety to the text; and the illustrations are particularly excellent.

"Ably discussed from the point of view of the intending visitor in two exquisitely made little volumes by Walter Taylor Field. In their format, these are two of the most attractive books of the season." — Cyrus Townsend Brady, in The Lamp.

CHINA AND HER PEOPLE. By Colonel Charles Denby.

Two volumes, large 16mo, cloth decorative, fully illustrated in duogravure from original photographs, gilt top, flat back, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

The late Colonel Denby was American Minister to China from 1885 to 1898, and there could hardly be found a clearer, more comprehensive account of China, or one written with more insight and sympathetic understanding than this book.

"The book reads like the after-dinner talk of an accomplished speaker, whose knowledge and experience make his utterances well worth while. There are many evidences of the author's deep study of Chinese character, and the illustrations of Chinese traits he uses are selected with great care and discrimination. The book contains a wealth of information." — Boston Transcript.

The Castles Series

CASTLES AND CHATEAUX OF OLD TOURAINE AND THE LOIRE COUNTRY.

By Francis Miltoun, author of "Rambles on the Riviera," etc. With seven colored plates and upwards of fifty other illustrations by Blanche McManus.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed $7.00

"The country of magnificent chateaux and famous men is here portrayed vividly with brush and pen. The book is the result of leisurely wanderings and the places and men are intimately and pleasingly described." — Literary Digest.

THE CASTLES AND CHATEAUX OF OLD NAVARRE;

Including a Pilgrimage through Gascony and the Basque Provinces. By Francis Miltoun, author of "Castles and Chateaux of Old Touraine and the Loire Country," etc. With eight colored plates and upwards of fifty other illustrations by Blanche McManus.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

The kingdom of Navarre, with its immediate suggestion of the gallant Henry, stands out in a sense by itself among the old French provinces. Chivalry and romance, and the love of art and literature, have here left many enduring memories.

"Mr. Miltoun's love for and knowledge of old France show him at his best in this volume. He has a keen eye for the picturesque and the unusual and his descriptions are never perfunctory." — Chicago Record-Herald.

THE CASTLES AND KEEPS OF SCOTLAND.

By Frank Roy Fraprie, author of "Among Bavarian Inns," etc. With especially selected original illustrations in color and duogravure.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

Much of the thrilling history and romance of the Middle Ages is necessarily connected with the castles and keeps which are the subject of this volume. Edinburgh Castle and Holyrood Palace, haunted by a myriad of memories; Castle Doune, the most picturesque relic of feudal days; Stirling, the most famous castle of them all, are only a few of the historic piles mentioned, once the strongholds of the Scottish nation.

"There is hardly a ruin in Scotland but has a literature of its own. But to pick out what is most interesting and offer it in popular form with a pictorial obligato is a task worth while, and Mr. Fraprie has already shown by his book on Bavaria that he is well qualified to undertake it." — Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

IN THE LAND OF MOSQUES AND MINARETS:

Or, Rambles in Algeria and Tunisia.

By Francis Miltoun, author of "Castles and Chateaux of Old Navarre," etc. With eight colored plates and upwards of fifty other illustrations by Blanche McManus.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

The great interest of travellers in what we call Mediterranean Africa is growing yearly. One thinks of North Africa as a land of mosques and minarets as he thinks of Japan of cherry blossoms and Switzerland of mountains. It is a land of vivid color, of fascination and mystery which none can resist.

"It is in fact the best book we have met with in English on personal experiences in Algeria, which region Francis Miltoun seems almost to have discovered for American readers." — The Literary Digest.

WORKS OF PROF. W. S. MONROE

IN VIKING LAND.

Norway: Its People, Its Fjords and Its Fjelds. By WILL S. MONROE, author of "Turkey and the Turks."

One volume, cloth decorative, fully illustrated from special photographs, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed $7.00

Unlike the majority of books of travel in Norway, this work is not confined to descriptions of scenery, but gives prominence to matters of human interest, — the people, their habits, customs and traditions.

"The human interest — 'human touch' Richard Burton would say — thrills every paragraph. The style is rich and attractive without being statuesque, vivid without intensity. If you have been there, it is a halo to your memories; if not, it is a relishing vista." — The Boston Transcript.

TURKEY AND THE TURKS; OR, THE LANDS, THE PEOPLES, AND THE INSTITUTIONS OF THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE. By WILL S. MONROE.

One volume, cloth decorative, fully illustrated from special photographs, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

"This book is easily the best book on Turkey and the Turks that is in print. It is critically authentic as to information, fascinating as to style, and exquisitely illustrated. Whatever else you may have read on Turkey, this will give you a better perspective; if you have read nothing else this will give you an equipment as though you had read much of other writers." — The Journal of Education.

SICILY, THE GARDEN OF THE MEDITERRANEAN.

One volume, cloth decorative, fully illustrated from special photographs, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

"A book interesting as a novel." — Northampton Gazette.

"A good, sound, conscientious, comprehensive book; just the kind of a book that one ought to read." — Nashville American.

"A very interesting book on Sicily, with an excellent account of the salient points of its history, and an intelligent description of its people and its topography." — Buffalo Express.

"It is a work that is bound to interest the general reader of travel and description, even as it will refresh the memories of those who have already made the tour." — Boston Times.

"Mr. Monroe's book is at once concise and inclusive. His style has the simplicity of good English. The wealth of information covers almost every feature of Sicilian life and history." — The Chicago Evening Post.

"One of the most interesting travel books of the year." — Critic.

"A thoroughly up-to-date description of Sicily." — Boston Times.

"One feels a distinctly human touch about Mr. Monroe's portrayal of the characteristics of the people, the land and its history from the time of the Phoenician control of the Island until the present time." — Atlantic Educational Journal.

"Mr. Monroe condenses much information into small space; yet he is not dull or statistical, but gives in readable form the facts that people most want to read when trying to familiarize themselves with new lands and countries." — Springfield Union.

"Critically authentic as to information and fascinating as to style."—Omaha Daily Bee.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

The record of hundreds of miles of motoring through regions rich in beautiful views, in strange costumes, and quaint peoples, whose pictured and narrated charms form a volume of exceptional attractiveness.

"Its handsome appearance, excellent typography, beautiful illustrations, enticing descriptions, and complete practical information make Mr. Miltoun's 'The Automobilist Abroad' a necessary part of the fitting out of any touring car of which the owner is even contemplating a trip abroad." — Brooklyn Eagle.

"The volume contains all the essential elements of a motor guide through Europe presented through the medium of a personal and very practical experience." — N. Y. Times Saturday Review.

BRITISH HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS FROM A MOTOR CAR.

By Thomas D. Murphy.

With sixteen colored plates and upwards of thirty other illustrations.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

"To write an account of so extended a journey within the compass of a single volume, and in a manner so creditable as has been done by Mr. Murphy, is a remarkable achievement. Though not implied by the modest title, all the eminent cathedrals as well as many notable abbeys and ruins, are visited; also innumerable objects of historic and literary interest, together with countless places quite out of the beaten path." — The Photo Era, Boston.

"The author has a keen sense of what is worth while in the way of historic and literary landmarks, knows how to hit off the vital points in a few words, and has shown unusual taste in the selection of the illustrations." — Chicago Record-Herald.

"It is doubtful if any writer in so small a volume has described so many objects famous in history and literature as Mr. Murphy has in this. . . . Indeed, the whole journey is through delightful country, and it is all well described." — Boston Transcript.

"The book is of general interest, the motor car happenings being of a secondary nature and in no way predominating." — St. Louis Times.

"Mr. Murphy succeeded in making himself remarkably well acquainted with all that is most characteristic both in British cities and in rural Britain, . . . and he imparts his knowledge and impressions clearly and pleasantly. . . . He has succeeded in giving us something more readable and more literary in character than the ordinary compendiums." — Independent, New York.

GUATEMALA AND HER PEOPLE OF TO-DAY.

By NEVIN O. WINTER, author of "Mexico and Her People of To-day." Illustrated from photographs especially taken by the author.

8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco, boxed . $7.00

There is a vast amount of ignorance and wrong conception prevalent concerning the republics of Central America. Mexico has been exploited a great deal in recent years and the whereabouts of Panama is now pretty generally known, but the five republics lying between these two countries have been too much overlooked by recent writers.

"'Guatemala and Her People of To-day' is the product of extensive travel and two years' study. There is a marked disinclination to take the little republics south of us seriously, but Mr. Winter gives us a book of carefully substantiated facts, combating the impression, at least so far as Guatemala is concerned, that they are an opera bouffe nation." — New York Herald.

MEXICO AND HER PEOPLE OF TO-DAY.

By NEVIN O. WINTER. Illustrated from photographs especially taken by the author.

One volume, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

"No better book is likely to be written on Mexico than this of Mr. Winter. The illustrations add materially to the text, which is discriminating in its treatment of the country, the people and customs, and its comment on development or non-development. It is a candid presentation of an interesting subject and comes to the public after two years' research and observation. Of permanent value, it is a work to which one may refer aside from the fact that it possesses an interest as contemporaneous literature." — Army and Navy Register.

"An interesting narrative which every reader will enjoy. The author has a singularly fascinating way of writing briefly of large considerations so as to bring out his points without elaboration and yet leave a lasting impression, an illuminating and entertaining account of Mexico, enriched with good illustrations." — Philadelphia Inquirer.

A WOMAN'S JOURNEY THROUGH THE PHILIPPINES.

By FLORENCE KIMBALL RUSSEL, author of "Born to the Blue," etc.

One volume, cloth decorative, illustrated from photographs, boxed . . . $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco 6.00

"A Woman's Journey Through the Philippines" is a volume of bright, witty travel-talk, giving Mrs. Russel's experiences while in the islands, and her impressions of their beauties, and the life and customs of their natives.

"Every page is full of interesting information, descriptions of places, people and happenings so vivid and real that it seems we are not readers but listeners, hearing an engrossing story of adventure as it comes from the mouth of a witty and entertaining speaker." — Chicago Tribune.

A WOMAN ALONE IN THE HEART OF JAPAN.

By MRS. G. ADAMS-FISHER.

One volume, with especially selected original illustrations, cloth decorative, boxed $2.50

INNS AND TAVERNS OF OLD LONDON. By Henry C. Shelley, author of "John Harvard and His Times," "Literary Bypaths in Old England," "Untrodden English Ways."

One volume, cloth decorative, fully illustrated from rare prints and photographs, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed $7.00

The London taverns and coffee-houses of the 17th and 18th centuries were the rendezvous where gathered the various classes of people in their first strong impulse toward present-day club life.

"No writer of the present day is more competent than Mr. Shelley to present in an entertaining manner a comprehensive picture of these famous houses, the celebrities who visited them, and the life that passed within their doors." — Louisville Times.

FROM CAIRO TO THE CATARACT. By Blanche M. Carson.

One volume, cloth decorative, with forty-eight full-page illustrations in duogravure from photographs taken by the author, boxed $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 6.00

The author has the happy faculty of bringing to the reader's attention only the things that are really worth while, and of imparting their historical relation in the most interesting way.

"The book consists of a series of letters written during the journey and describing in detail the splendid trip. There are many illustrations from photographs and some descriptive maps. The journey could not be more real to the reader unless he actually experienced it." — Herald Transcript, Ill.

THE SPELL OF ITALY. By Caroline Atwater Mason, author of "A Lily of France," "The Little Green God," etc.

One volume, cloth decorative, colored frontispiece and forty-eight illustrations in duogravure, decorative end leaves and title, boxed $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 6.00

"The author makes us understand the spell of Italy where many other writers have written with the same object but without such success. Everywhere she made friends who placed their special knowledge at her disposal." — The Browser in Club Fellow.

"The very title brings back the matchless panorama from the Cappuccini at Amalfi, the oppressive embarrassment of things in Rome, the murmur of the White Cataracts at Tivoli, and the wizard charm of Perugia piled on its historic hilltop!" — Chicago Record-Herald.

IN WILDEST AFRICA. By Peter MacQueen, F. R. G. S.

One volume, cloth decorative, fully illustrated from photographs taken by Mr. Peter Dutkewich, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

The present volume is an account of a trip taken by the author in 1908 to British East Africa, German East Africa, Uganda and the Headwaters of the Nile, covering practically the same route as that outlined by President Roosevelt for his big hunting trip.

His account of game on the British reserves in East Africa will prove a delight to the sportsman, while his descriptions of the country, the natives, their customs, costumes, morals, etc., will fascinate the general reader.

"This is a most timely volume by a well-known and adventurous explorer." — Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch.

"The writer gives glowing descriptions of African scenery in impressive and picturesque language, of which he shows himself a master. His vivid portrayal of the great rivers, forests, and plains makes us see a new Africa that we had not seen in former books." — Critic.

Little Pilgrimages to Famous Inns of the Old World

The Castle, Nuremberg.

AMONG BAVARIAN INNS.

By FRANK ROY FRAPRIE.

One volume, octavo, cloth decorative, with many illustrations $2.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco . . 5.00

This book is a record of leisurely travel in Bavaria. It touches upon some of the less-known sides of life in Munich, and describes the artists' and students' resorts and their carnival and popular festivals. Trips are made to the inns of Southern Bavaria, and to the famous houses in the picturesque Bavarian Highlands.

"A vivid, entertaining sketch of a country whose mountain uplands rival those of the Swiss Alps, and of a city where art and the American student are perennially at home. The author has a happy faculty of description, and an unerring sense of the picturesque in legend, song, and story comes to his aid in picturing the famous inns of Bavaria." — Boston Herald.

AMONG FRENCH INNS. By CHARLES GIBSON.

One volume, 8vo, cloth decorative, with many illustrations . . . $2.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco 5.00

"A substantial volume which might well serve as a guide to travellers eager to get off the beaten tracks, and to see France in its characteristic features. It is also a very readable and interesting book. Fact and fancy in the shape of observation, history, and legend are happily interwoven with personal experiences."— Outlook.

AMONG ENGLISH INNS. By JOSEPHINE TOZIER.

8vo, cloth decorative, with illustrations $2.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco 5.00

"The author has the faculty for crisp and animated description, and her story of travel is always entertaining, for she sees things with a tolerant vision, and is quick to discern the humor of a situation. The book merits hearty approval. Her account of some of the quaint old inns is decidedly alluring."— Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

AMONG OLD NEW ENGLAND INNS. By MARY CAROLINE CRAWFORD, author of "The Romance of Old New England Churches," "The Romance of Old New England Rooftrees," etc. With many illustrations from rare and valuable prints and photographs.

One volume, cloth decorative . $2.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco . 5.00

Miss Crawford's book on old New England inns follows the same general plan of her successful books on rooftrees and churches. Personal and local anecdotes, bits of history, legendary lore, and descriptions of Colonial and early American life are included.

"Lovers of Colonial history will find their pulses quickened and their imaginations stirred as they read these chronicles of that venerable institution, the New England Inn, with its hallowed association and rich traditions of the past, linking it with many a famous name, many a thrilling scene, many an epoch-making event and many a tender drama." — The Literary Digest.

ST. BOTOLPH'S TOWN.

AN ACCOUNT OF OLD BOSTON IN COLONIAL DAYS. BY MARY CAROLINE CRAWFORD, author of "Among Old New England Inns," etc. With many illustrations from rare and valuable prints and photographs.

One volume, cloth decorative $2.50
The same, three-quarters morocco 6.00

An interesting history of old Boston from the time of Blackstone, the first settler, to the outbreak of the American Revolution.

In this new volume Miss Crawford paints the brave days of old, their color, romance, and charm with that same skill and feeling for her subject which have gained for her books on old New England such merited success.

"Here is a writer who can make history as interesting as romance." — The Boston Transcript.

"It is a noteworthy book by reason of the skilful fashion in which the story is told, and the excellent taste which characterizes the narrative. She has a bright, picturesque style of writing and the sense of proportion which makes her account of old Boston in colonial days something more than a collection of interesting data." — The Brooklyn Eagle.

THE ITALIAN LAKES.

By W. D. MCCRACKAN, author of "The Fair Land Tyrol," "Romance and Teutonic Switzerland," etc. Illustrated with special photographs.

One volume, cloth decorative $2.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco 5.00

The Italian lakes lying at the foot of the Alps are renowned among the great natural beauties of the world. In their atmosphere there is the zest of the winter's snow from the mountains towering above, and the warmth of fruitful summers from the plains of sunny Italy below, combining to produce a touch of constant spring.

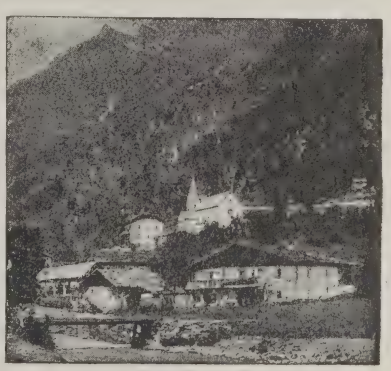
"No one should attempt to visit the Italian lakes without this book."— Chicago Tribune.

"The author has a keenly appreciative eye for whatever is striking or picturesque or beautiful and lets none of it escape the traveller's attention. The reader will find much to interest him and much that will add greatly to his enjoyment and knowledge." — N. Y. Times Saturday Review.

THE FAIR LAND TYROL.

By W. D. MCCRACKAN, author of "Romance and Teutonic Switzerland," etc.

One volume, with especially selected illustrations, cloth $2.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco 5.00



Reduced Illustration

Mr. McCrackan's extensive and prolonged travels through Switzerland and the Tyrol, and his appreciation of and love for this romantic district and its people, render him a most fitting medium to present its history, its scenic charms, the quaintness of its customs, and the personality of the Tyrolese to the reading public.

"You have told the story of the fair land with the skill of one who knows and loves his subject. Your chapters are delightful reading, and they bring back to me in the pleasantest way many golden memories of travel; at the same time they profitably increase my knowledge of Tyrolese history. So you see, I am much in your debt." — Henry Van Dyke in a letter to the author.

The Art Lovers' Series

THE ART OF THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM.

By David C. Preyer, author of "The Art of the Netherland Galleries."

One volume, cloth decorative, profusely illustrated with 100 duogravures, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed $7.00

"As the Metropolitan Museum collections are enumerated and described in but few volumes of any sort, this book is really needed more by Americans than those dealing with the art galleries of Europe, and long acquaintance has qualified the author to treat the subject with uncommon ability." — Boston Transcript.

ARTS AND CRAFTS IN THE MIDDLE AGES.

By Julia de Wolf Addison, author of "The Art of the National Gallery," etc.

A description of mediæval workmanship in several of the departments of applied art, together with some account of special artisans in the early renaissance.

One volume, cloth decorative, with forty full pages and numerous text illustrations, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

"Nothing could be more timely than this delightful book, although its timeliness is its least valuable quality, since a work so sincere, enthusiastic and absorbing would not fail of creating an interest in its subject did such interest not already exist." — N. Y. Times Saturday Review.

PORTRAITS AND PORTRAIT PAINTING.

The Art Galleries of Europe

Bohemian Girl. — Frans Hals.

This series is an unparalleled opportunity for the study of the great art galleries of Europe. It will not only interest artists, lovers of art, and those who have themselves seen the works of art, but also the beginner and layman in art matters. It is an interesting and important contribution to art literature. Each gallery will be represented by a volume written by an art critic of taste and reputation. While the text will be authoritative and scholarly, care will be taken to make it also interesting and enjoyable. Each volume contains at least forty duogravures from originals selected with care and judgment.

THE ART OF THE LOUVRE.

The Same, three-quarters morocco 5.00 net, postpaid, $5.17

"The book is well written; unusual discrimination has been shown in the choice of opinions by famous critics, and the author's own perception and critical judgment are so apparent as to give the book a merit of a character lacking in works of a much more pretentious kind." — Brooklyn Times.

THE ART OF THE PITTI PALACE. By JULIA DE W. ADDISON.

One volume, large 12mo, cloth decorative, printed on a special featherweight paper, profusely illustrated with full-page plates in duogravure.

$2.00 net, postpaid, $2.13

The Same, three-quarters morocco . . . . . 5.00 net, postpaid, 5.13

"As an introduction to the art of the Pitti Palace, it is an introduction to the art of Europe and to the beginnings of the history of modern times." — St. Louis Star.

THE ART OF THE VATICAN. By MARY KNIGHT POTTER, author of "Love in Art," etc. With forty full-page plates in duogravure.

One vol., library 12mo, cloth, gilt top, decorative cover, boxed,

$2.00 net, postpaid, $2.13

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 5.00 net
Postage extra.

"It has remained for the present author to write a coherent narrative of the whole gallery, not only appraising the works there, but revealing the conditions under which they were produced, their transportation hither, and their special significance as individual achievements in the wonderful harmonious whole. One might spend half a lifetime with catalogues and yet gather much less real knowledge than may be pleasantly acquired by the perusal of this book." — N. Y. Times Saturday Review.

THE ART OF THE VENICE ACADEMY. By Mary Knight Potter, author of "The Art of the Vatican," "The Art of the Louvre," etc.

"Nowhere, in like compass, is there a better, more interesting or more trustworthy description of the Art of the Belgian galleries than in this volume." — Buffalo Evening News.

Music Lovers' Series

Realizing that no musical education is complete without that knowledge gained only through wide reading, the publishers have endeavored to present in popular and attractive form the various phases of musical history, from the earliest times to the present day, from the standpoint alike of the historian, the biographer, and the critic. Only those whose knowledge and experience enable them to speak with authority have been invited to contribute to the series, so that, taken as a whole, these volumes constitute a reference library of great value and importance.

The Cathedral Series

Although much has already been said and written concerning the grand and the lesser Cathedrals of the Old World, the fact remains that no volumes have yet been given that cover the field in a concise and complete manner. To this end the publishers are issuing the "Cathedral Series," thus giving an attractive and pleasing presentation of a subject in which all well-informed persons may be supposed to be interested.

The text is authoritative and scholarly. The illustrations of many of these volumes have been done from studies and sketches made on the spot by Miss McManus, who is recognized as one of the foremost American artists of the day.

A WOMAN OF THE WORLD: HER COUNSEL TO OTHER PEOPLE'S SONS AND DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. Wilcox

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox, author of "Every-Day Talks," "Poems of Passion," "Maurine," etc.

12mo, cloth decorative, with a photogravure frontispiece $1.50

A volume of brilliant and powerful essays dealing with the every-day life about us, and with topics ever in the minds and hearts of the people, by an author who needs no introduction to the reading public.

"This wise counsel to other people's sons and daughters is anecdotal as well as aphoristic, and reads racially throughout, like a chapter from the great book of human life instinct with vital emotion." — Philadelphia North American.

"They are the opinions, tersely, bluntly expressed, of a woman versed in the ways of the world, and rarely gifted with common sense and unusual ability of expression, so that the meaning and intent of the book may not be misunderstood. The book is well worth perusal and careful study." — Boston Transcript.

THE KINDERGARTEN IN THE HOME. By Carrie S. Newman.

One volume, cloth decorative, illustrated with full-page and text illustrations by E. B. Barry $1.50

"In 'The Kindergarten in the Home' Carrie S. Newman has endeavored to make the lessons of Froebel's own book for mothers more explicit than he or his translators have done; and by showing his teachings put into practice by a mother of the present time in familiar surroundings, instead of by a last century mother in Germany, to demonstrate how practical Froebel's teachings are now and here." — The Congregationalist.

"'The Kindergarten in the Home' might well be called 'How to Raise Children,' for it is a treatise on the art of child raising — something every mother thinks she knows and something not one mother in 1,000 knows anything about, if domestic economists are to be believed. Carrie Newman has written pleasingly and with illuminative skill on this subject before, and the parent and child will benefit through this latest work." — Times-Star.

OUR NOBLEST FRIEND THE HORSE. By Francis M. Ware, manager of the American Horse Exchange, etc. With sixty illustrations of celebrated horses.

One vol., 12mo, cloth, gilt top . . . $1.50

A most valuable work for lovers of the horse, containing, in addition to many interesting anecdotes of horse life, a study of the character of the horse and directions for its purchase, care and use.

". . . The sanest and most expert book on the subject we have ever read." — Boston Journal.

Percheron

OUR DEVOTED FRIEND THE DOG. By Sarah K. Bolton, author of "Girls Who Have Become Famous," etc.

EDWIN BOOTH

PLAYERS AND PLAYS OF THE LAST QUARTER CENTURY. By LEWIS C. STRANG, author of "Famous Actresses," "Famous Actors," etc.

Two volumes. Illustrated with sixty-six portraits.
Cloth, gilt top, decorative cover, boxed $ 4.00
Three-quarters morocco 10.00

This interesting and valuable survey of the American stage, by presenting biographical sketches and critical estimates of the famous actors and actresses of the last twenty-five years, and the stage history of their time, rounds out Mr. Strang's previous work, already so favorably known. The volumes are fully illustrated with photogravure and half-tone reproductions of rare portraits, playbills, etc.

". . . Will be of interest to one not especially concerned in matters theatrical, while to the student of the modern drama they will throw new light upon many obscure points and will prove a valuable addition to one's dramatic library." — Buffalo News.

THE PILOT. Daily Guidance from Master Minds.

Square 16mo, India paper, 376 pages, gilt edges, limp leather . $1.00 net

A compilation of quotations accumulated during a period of nearly twenty years, which have proved to be of enduring value.

The object of the compilation is to develop and call into service the whole personality, to stimulate both heart and head, thought, devotion and action, insight and sympathy.

The book begins by calling attention to the plain moralities of daily life, — conscience, will, thought, and action, — and the moral order which is involved in the most elementary duties; then follow the great truths on which the soul's life is maintained and nourished; then the finer virtues of the Christian character, the perils which make life's journey dangerous, the powers by which they are overcome, and the victory of the spiritual life.

One page is devoted to each day in the year, and the authors represented are the master minds of all the centuries.

IN THE WOODS AND ON THE SHORE. By RICHARD D. WARE

Illustrated in duogravure from photographs taken by the author and other sportsmen, and with four full-page plates from drawings by Charles Livingston Bull.
Square quarto, decorative cover $2.00

"Mr. Ware's book is one that will gladden the leisure even of the reader who does not care to pursue the paths of sport. In fact it will do good service in whiling away hour after hour of open-air reading, even if it does not inspire the reader to follow Mr. Ware's sportsmanlike example and go and do likewise." — The Boston Transcript.

RACE OR MONGREL: AMERICAN OR PAN-EUROPEAN? By DR. ALFRED P. SCHULTZ.

With bibliography appendix, statistical charts, etc.
One volume, 8vo, cloth decorative $2.50

A work on the necessity of race purity of interest to the general reader as well as to the student of social science. From the most ancient civilization to our own times, according to the author, the cross-breeding of races is the evil which has caused, and will continue to cause, the downfall of nations.

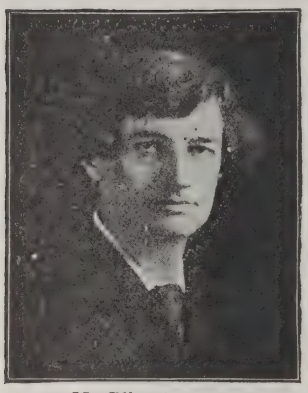
WORKS OF BLISS CARMAN



Mr. Bliss Carman

THE FRIENDSHIP OF ART. By Bliss Carman.

12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

The Same, three-quarters morocco . . . 3.50

Mr. Carman's first book of prose, "The Kinship of Nature," was the most widely read volume of essays of the publishing season of 1903–4. In this volume Mr. Carman aims to show the real relationship of Life to Nature and Art.

"They will appeal to young men and young women as Emerson's essays did." — Chicago Tribune.

"The reader gets from Mr. Carman's work a distinct flavor of individuality. His essays have a suggestion of wide horizons and the large sweep of landscape, and there are many sound and discriminating bits of criticism in them." — Outlook.

THE KINSHIP OF NATURE. By Bliss Carman.

One volume, library 12mo, cloth decorative, gilt top, with a photogravure portrait of Mr. Carman $1.50

The Same, three-quarters levant morocco 3.50

In these essays Mr. Carman discusses the relation of man to nature, the secret of happiness, the true philosophy, and topics of like trend, handling them with brilliancy and rare sympathy.

"It is a work to open here and there, and enjoy at random, for it is unified by atmosphere. Indeed, wherever we turn a page there is something worth reading and remembering." — The Reader.

THE POETRY OF LIFE. By Bliss Carman.

12mo, cloth decorative, with photogravure frontispiece $1.50

The Same, three-quarters morocco 3.50

Mr. Carman is in his element in this book of essays. Poet that he is, what could be more to his taste than to write of the poetry of life. An eager optimist, seeking ever beauty, saturated with the mere joy of living, his ideas find expression in English as beautiful as the thoughts it clothes.

"Nobody can read Mr. Carman's book without agreeing with him in every particular. People who are exacting in their ideals will derive as much pleasure from his book as they have ever experienced in reading a beautiful poem." — The Index.

THE MAKING OF PERSONALITY. By Bliss Carman.

12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

The Same, three-quarters morocco 3.50

The essays in this volume are on the general theme of self culture and are a valuable contribution to the subject of character building. The book is one which appeals to every thinking man and woman.

"Bliss Carman is perhaps the most interesting of essayists now writing in English." — The Chicago Daily News.

"A beautiful contribution to that oldest of all the arts, the art of living, which we are all by reason of our existence compelled to face, but which none of us has ever succeeded in completely mastering." — Current Literature.

25 copies, full crushed levant, per copy, net 30.00

This edition of Bliss Carman's poems is the first collected edition of the work of a living poet who ranks high among our sympathetic interpreters of nature and life.

The volumes include all of his various published books, except "Sappho," supplemented by a large number of poems which have already appeared in periodicals, but which are now included in a book for the first time. Many poems, first contributed to the three books, "Songs from Vagabondia," "More Songs from Vagabondia," and "Last Songs from Vagabondia," originally published in conjunction with the late Richard Hovey, are also included here. The title of "By the Aurelian Wall," has been changed to "Memorabilia."

Every care has been taken to make the volumes beautiful from a typographical standpoint, and there will be no further edition, as the type has been distributed.

Only a small number of copies now remain, and the publishers reserve the right to advance the price at their option. Subscribers will receive their copies, numbered, in the order of date of application.

ODES FROM THE DIVAN OF HAFIZ. By Richard LeGallienne, author of "The Quest of the Golden Girl," etc.

One volume, tall 12mo, decorative boards, with paper label . . . $2.00
The Same, Persian ooze leather, decorative 4.00

Richard LeGallienne

Mr. Richard LeGallienne's rendering of "The Odes of Hafiz," as in the case of his paraphrase of Omar Khayyam, has been made from literal prose versions of the poet, supplemented by his own fancy. While he has kept as closely as he deems necessary to his original, his aim, as before, has been to make English poetry, rather than a joyless shadow of a great classic. He offers this rendering in the first place as poetry, in the second as translation; but at the same time his aim has been, as faithfully as in him lies, truly to interpret the great Persian poet to English readers, so that the total result of his endeavor is really — if not literally — Hafiz.

"Of all the renderings of the Odes of Hafiz which we have seen, Mr. LeGallienne's is by all odds the best adapted to give the English reader an adequate idea of the poetry of Hafiz." — Literary Digest.

"Each of the matchless odes is a perfect gem varying in color, but equally full of fire. They will appeal to all modern lovers. The poems have exquisite imagery. The book is beautifully made, and its cover is the quintessence of art." — Minnie T. Antrim in Club Fellow.

"This is the quintessence of lyric poetry. It is a work of consummate art, and is certainly one of the very best volumes of English love poetry I have read." — Wilfred Scawen Blunt in London Spectator.

By arrangement with Mr. Le Gallienne, we also are able to offer a few copies of the limited de luxe editions, privately printed by Mr. Le Galliene, namely:

The small paper edition (limited to 300 copies) . . . $15.00 net
The large paper edition, in small folio size (limited to 35 copies) 25.00 net (O. P.)

THE GOLDEN TREASURY OF AMERICAN SONGS AND LYRICS. Edited by Frederic Lawrence Knowles.

Professor Barrett Wendell, in reviewing the first edition of "The Golden Treasury," expressed the opinion that "it is the best collection of American lyrical verse which has yet been made," and in spite of other anthologies which occasionally appear, this remark still holds true.

Portrait Holiday Edition, with photogravure frontispiece, and thirty-two other portraits of famous poets, reproduced in duogravure. 12mo, cloth. In a box $1.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco 3.50
New Popular Edition, large 16mo, with frontispiece, cloth 1.00
The Same, full flexible leather, with gold stamp. In a box . . . 1.50

"The Golden Treasury of American Songs and Lyrics" is to American poetry what Palgrave's "Golden Treasury" is to British poetry.

"No collection that can be called to mind contains, in so small a space, an equal number of the finest verses produced on this side of the Atlantic." — St. Louis Globe Democrat.

"The collection can easily stand as representative." — Chicago Tribune.

"The little volume will be prized by all into whose hands it may come." — Bangor Commercial.

"The selections show good judgment, and they will help materially in cultivating a taste for good verse." — Saturday Evening Gazette.

"The work is a valuable contribution to present volumes on American poetry." — Grand Rapids Herald.

"These stories are exquisite in their refinement, and yet robust in their appreciation of some of the rougher phases of woodcraft. Among the many writers about animals, Mr. Roberts occupies an enviable place." — The Outlook.

THE KINDRED OF THE WILD. A Book of Animal Life. With fifty-one full-page plates and many decorations from drawings by Charles Livingston Bull.

Square quarto, decorative cover . . $2.00

"Is in many ways the most brilliant collection of animal stories that has appeared; well named and well done." —John Burroughs.

EARTH'S ENIGMAS. A new edition of Mr. Roberts's first volume of fiction, published in 1892, and out of print for several years, with the addition of three new stories, and ten illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull.

Square quarto, cloth, uncut edges $1.50

"It will rank high among collections of short stories. In 'Earth's Enigmas' is a wider range of subject than in the 'Kindred of the Wild.'" — Chicago Evening Post.

RED FOX: The Story of His Adventurous Career in the Ringwaak Wilds, and of his Final Triumph over the Enemies of His Kind. With fifty illustrations, including frontispiece in color and cover design by Charles Livingston Bull.

Square quarto, cloth decorative $2.00

"True in substance but fascinating as fiction. It will interest old and young, city-bound and free-footed, those who know animals and those who do not."— Chicago Record-Herald.

THE HAUNTERS OF THE SILENCES. With fifty illustrations, four in full color, and cover design by Charles Livingston Bull.

Square quarto, cloth decorative $2.00

"One cannot put down 'Haunters of the Silences' without having received from it a profounder sense of the wilderness of land and water, of the littleness of man and his works, and the greatness of the forces against which his hands have battled since the beginning."— The Bookman.

12 mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Every paragraph is a splendid picture, suggesting in a few words the appeal of the vast, illimitable wilderness." — The Chicago Tribune.

"Songs of the Common Day" and "In Divers Tones" are out of print.

These volumes include Professor Roberts's poems from the time of his first recognition as a master poet. The wondrous appreciation of nature, the sensibility to the poetry in common things, the virile, exalted passion, the playfulness, the perspective, the splendid workmanship of this poet, are apparent in all of them.

History

A HISTORY OF CANADA.

Large 8vo, cloth, gilt top . . . . . $2.00 net. Postpaid, $2.18

No other living writer is so equipped for an ideal history of Canada as Professor Roberts, who unites profound scholarship, balanced judgment, rich and graceful style, and a patriotic love for the land of his birth.

Noble is the word to characterize this new and obviously just history of the British Dominion in North America. A stimulating breeze of freshness seems to blow through it. We find the influence of Parkman, which is as it should be, but the point of view is distinct and modern.

This book is of particular interest to Americans for its independent treatment of the many questions in dispute between the two countries, from the Revolution to the present. With its maps, charts, appendices, giving the British and Imperial acts in full, and with its compactness of presentation and its fine perspective, it is of equal value for the citizen's library or a university text.

WORKS OF LILIAN BELL

THE CONCENTRATIONS OF BEE. With colored frontispiece.

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover $1.50

A witty book of clever people, new scenes and real life affairs.

"When we state that Lilian Bell's name is on the title page of a book, the reader will need no further assurance that the book is an entertaining one. Her work is always sweet and sparkling, refreshing and modern." — Nashville American.

"One of the cleverest women writers of fiction is Lilian Bell. She belongs to the younger class, old enough to have experience, but not old enough to have lost the saving grace of enthusiasm." — Los Angeles Express.

AT HOME WITH THE JARDINES. A companion volume to "Abroad with the Jimmies."

Library 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Bits of gay humor, sunny, whimsical philosophy, and keen indubitable insight into the less evident aspects and workings of pure human nature, with a slender thread of a cleverly extraneous love-story, keep the interest of the reader fresh, and the charmingly old-fashioned happy ending is to be generously commended. Typical, characteristic, Lilian Bell sketches, bright, breezy, amusing, and philosophic." — Chicago Record-Herald.

HOPE LORING. With five illustrations by Frank T. Merrill.

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover $1.50

"Lilian Bell's new novel, 'Hope Loring,' does for the American girl in fiction what Gibson has done for her in art. It gives her the place she is entitled to occupy among the creations of literature."

ABROAD WITH THE JIMMIES. With a portrait, in duogravure, of the author.

Library 12mo, cloth, decorative cover $1.50

"Is one of her best and cleverest novels and is filled to the brim with amusing incidents and experiences. This vivacious narrative needs no commendation to the readers of Miss Bell's well-known earlier books. They will all read it — and they will enjoy it, and that is one of the safest prophecies we have made for some time." — N. Y. Press.

"A deliciously fresh, graphic book. The writer is so original and unspoiled that her point of view has value." — Mary Hartwell Catherwood.

WORKS OF GABRIELE D'ANNUNZIO

Signor d'Annunzio is known throughout the world as a poet and a dramatist, but above all as a novelist, for it is in his novels that he is at his best. In poetic thought and graceful expression he has few equals among the writers of the day.

He is engaged on a most ambitious work — nothing less than the writing of nine novels which cover the whole field of human sentiment. This work he has divided into three trilogies, and five of the nine books have been published. It is to be regretted that other labors have interrupted the completion of the series.

"This book is realistic. Some say that it is brutally so. But the realism is that of Flaubert, and not of Zola. There is no plain speaking for the sake of plain speaking. Every detail is justified in the fact that it illuminates either the motives or the actions of the man and woman who here stand revealed. It is deadly true. The author holds the mirror up to nature, and the reader, as he sees his own experiences duplicated in passage after passage, has something of the same sensation as all of us know on the first reading of George Meredith's 'Egoist.' Reading these pages is like being out in the country on a dark night in a storm. Suddenly a flash of lightning comes and every detail of your surroundings is revealed." — Review of "The Triumph of Death" in the New York Evening Sun.

WORKS OF NATHAN GALLIZIER

THE SORCERESS OF ROME.

Cloth decorative, illustrated in colors by the Kinneys $1.50

The love-story of Otto III., the boy emperor, and Stephania, wife of the Senator Crescentius of Rome, has already been made the basis of various German poems and plays. Mr. Gallizier has used it for the main theme of "The Sorceress of Rome," the second book of his trilogy of romances on the mediæval life of Italy.

"A splendid bit of old Roman mosaic, or a gorgeous piece of tapestry. Otto is a striking and pathetic figure. Description of the city, the gorgeous ceremonials of the court and the revels are a series of wonderful pictures." — Cincinnati Enquirer.

Reduced illustration from drawing in colors by "The Kinneys."

"A romance full of action, movement and color, of the contrast of many emotions and ambitions, of all the turmoil and confusion which the historian discovers through a gap in the dark curtain which shields the past from our eyes. An absorbing historical romance planned on a large scale." — N. Y. Commercial.

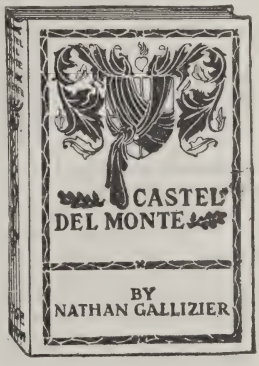
"For downright adventure, intrigue and love, few romances present more dramatic possibilities than 'The Sorceress of Rome.' The style is brilliant and the story is exciting." — Boston Globe.

CASTEL DEL MONTE.

Illustrations by H. C. Edwards.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative . $1.50

A powerful romance of the fall of the Hohenstaufen dynasty in Italy and the overthrow of Manfred by Charles of Anjou, the champion of Pope Clement IV.



"There is color; there is sumptuous word-painting in these pages; the action is terrific at times; vividness and life are in every part; and brilliant descriptions entertain the reader and give a singular fascination to the tale." — Grand Rapids Herald.

"The author displays many of the talents that made Scott famous." — The Index.

"The martial spirit of these stirring times, weird beliefs in magic and religion are most admirably presented by the author, who knows his subject thoroughly. It belongs to the class of Bulwer-Lytton's romances; carefully studied, well wrought, and full of exciting incident." — Cleveland Enquirer.

"Romance at it's best."—Boston Herald.

WORKS OF MARK ASHTON

AZALIM: A ROMANCE OF OLD JUDEA.

Illustrated with colored frontispiece and eight reproductions from rare old plates.

12mo $1.50

Frontispiece (reduced) of Azalim

This is the second of the author's series of novels founded on Biblical history, and has Judea for its background, the infamous Jezebel for its central figure, and her intrigues and ambitions for its motif. It is full of interesting and exciting incidents, with vivid descriptions of the life of the times.

"The story is clear-cut and straightforward, and we feel we are breathing the atmosphere of the period. It is brilliant with descriptions, has a wealth of interesting incidents, unique situations and swift action." — Boston Herald.

"There is plenty of action which frequently becomes exciting, and the author wisely avoids the archaic style frequently attempted by those who write of this period." —Boston Transcript.

"A straightforward story with a plot that has been invented and put together with considerable ingenuity." — N. Y. Evening Mail.

"The book is not only an interesting novel, but it has the added virtue of unusual faithfulness to the times and events which it portrays." — Newark Evening News.

SHE STANDS ALONE.

Being the Story of Pilate's Wife.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative, gilt top, with twelve full-page plates . $1.50

Few novels of the present day can stand comparison with this remarkable book, which must be ranked in modern literature dealing with the early Christian era as only second to "Ben Hur." The reader will be charmed by its dignity and power, as well as by its dramatic incidents and vivid portrayals of those wonderful early Christians.

A GENTLEMAN OF QUALITY.

By Frederick Van Rensselaer Dey, author of "The Magic Story," etc.

Cloth decorative, with frontispiece in color by Frank P. Fairbanks . . . $1.50

A thrilling tale of mistaken identity; of an unwilling masquerader who unknowingly follows the lead of Justice away from the bitter of crime and the sweet of love, on to a new shore and through the mazes of English aristocratic life, until he rests at last where no man can foresee who has not been with Love a Pioneer.

"A romance that is vivid and original. The author shows a great gift of originality and dramatic insight. It is a story that will hold firmly the attention of even the veteran novel reader to the end." — The Brooklyn Eagle.

"It is the best purely novelish story of the season." — St. Louis Times.

"Mr. Dey has a wonderful command of language and has the happy faculty of telling a good story in an absorbing manner." — Rochester Union and Advertiser.

"It is a strong, an admiration-compelling novel, revealing in the author a master mind, and extraordinary powers of description and character analysis. As a whole it is far superior to the average 'best selling' novel of the period." — New York Commercial.

"The story, therefore, becomes one of those absorbing tales of to-day which the reader literally devours in an evening, unwilling to leave the book until the last page is reached, and constantly alert, through the skill of the author, in following the characters through the twisted ways of their career." — Boston Journal.

"The story is well-written, unique, quite out of the usual order, and a vein of mystery running through it that is most captivating." — Christian Intelligencer.

WORKS OF L. M. MONTGOMERY

ANNE OF GREEN GABLES.

Illustrated by M. A. and W. A. J. Claus. 12mo $1.50

"Anne of Green Gables" is beyond question the most popular girl heroine in recent years. Poets, statesmen, humorists, critics, and the great public have lost their hearts to the charming Anne. "Anne of Green Gables" is not a book of a season, to attain a wide popularity for a brief space and sink into oblivion with many another "best seller," but its literary merit is such that it is bound to have a permanent place in literature and continue to increase in popularity with each succeeding season.

"In 'Anne of Green Gables' you will find the dearest and most moving and delightful child since the immortal Alice." — Mark Twain in a letter to Francis Wilson.

"I can hardly tell you how much I enjoyed the book, and I can heartily recommend it to my friends who are not ashamed when from time to time they find the eyes suffuse and the page grow blurred at the pathos of the story." — Sir Louis H. Davies of the Supreme Court of Canada.

"I take it as a great test of the worth of the book that while the young people are rummaging all over the house looking for Anne, the head of the family has carried her off to read on his way to town." — Bliss Carman.

"Here is a literary bouquet, full of life and naturalness and quiet humor and pathos, suitably summed up by Marilla's shrewd verdict concerning its namesake and subject — 'No house will be dull that she's in.'" — Edwin L. Shuman in the Chicago Record-Herald.

"You pass from tears to laughter as the story unfolds, and there is never a moment's hesitation in admitting that Anne has completely won your heart, as she candidly admits you into her many and varied thoughts." — Joe Mitchell Chapple, Editor, The National Magazine.

ANNE OF AVONLEA.

Illustrated by George Gibbs, 12mo $1.50

In this volume Anne is as fascinating as ever, and the author has introduced several new characters, including the highly imaginative and charming little boy, Paul Irving, whose quaint sayings will recall to the reader the delightful Anne on her first appearance at Green Gables.

"Here we have a book as human as 'David Harum,' a heroine who outcharms a dozen princesses of fiction, and reminds you of some sweet girl you know, or knew back in the days when the world was young and you threw away your sponge that you might have to borrow hers to clean your slate." — San Francisco Bulletin.

"A book to lift the spirit and send the pessimist into bankruptcy!" — Meredith Nicholson.

"The tale, with its recurrent romance, pathos and humor, is as fresh and wholesome as crisp autumn breezes, while the simple Canadian characters have a modest charm all their own." — Chicago Record-Herald.

"A book which contributes so much of freshness, enthusiasm, and healthy life to offset the usual offerings of modern fiction, deserves all the praise which can be showered upon it." — Kindergarten Review.

"Miss Montgomery deserves more than ordinary praise for her clear simple style, and her power to convey the sweetness and charm of such a country and such a heroine." — Toronto News.

"The writer's style is careful and refined and the reader loses no time in becoming thoroughly interested in the story." — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"The fiction of the period contains few more agreeable and charming characters than Anne Shirley." — Evansville Courier.

THE CALL OF THE SOUTH.

By Robert Lee Durham.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by Henry Roth . . $1.50

An absorbing and intensely realistic story dealing with the race problem in this country. The principal theme is the danger to society from the increasing miscegenation of the black and white races, and the encouragement it receives in the social amenities extended to negroes of distinction by persons prominent in politics, philanthropy and educational endeavor; and the author, a Southern lawyer, hopes to call the attention of the whole country to the need of earnest work toward its discouragement. The moral of the story, however, is not flung at the reader's head. It is absorbed unconsciously as the reader is swept onward in his enjoyment of the vivid narrative.

" ' A terrific story but a true one ' — this is what the thinking world is saying concerning ' The Call of the South.' " — The Baltimore Sun.

" The force of the book is tremendous. In dramatic power it equals Tolstoi's ' Resurrection.' " — Rev. Martin D. Hardin, Pastor Third Presbyterian Church, Chicago.

" The speech of Rutledge before the Senate is splendid. By itself it is one of the best arguments against social equality that has ever been printed. If not already done, it should be printed in a pamphlet by itself and given world-wide distribution." — The Louisville Courier-Journal.

" 'The Call of the South' is a great book. In it Mr. Durham holds the mirror of future possible events up to us in a fascinating, dramatic form. The plot of the story would alone be sufficient to insure its success." — Birmingham Age-Herald.

PEGGY AT SPINSTER FARM.

By Helen M. Winslow, author of " Literary Boston of To-Day," etc.

Illustrated from original photographs by Mary G. Huntsman. 12mo $1.50

Whatever Miss Winslow writes is good, for she is in accord with the life worth living. The Spinster, her niece " Peggy," the Professor, and young Robert Graves, — not forgetting Hiram, the hired man, make a very cheerful company.

Light-hearted character sketches and equally refreshing and unexpected happenings are woven together with a thread of happy romance

" Very alluring is the pictures she draws of the old-fashioned house, the splendid old trees, the pleasant walks, the gorgeous sunsets, and — or it would not be Helen Winslow — the cats." — The Boston Transcript.

" ' Peggy at Spinster Farm ' is a rewarding volume, original and personal in its point of view, redolent of unfeigned love for the country and the sane, satisfying pleasures of country life." — Milwaukee Free Press.

" It is an alluring, wholesome tale." — Schenectady Star.

" Is a story remarkably interesting, and no book will be found more entertaining than this one, especially for those who enjoy light-hearted character sketches, and startling and unexpected happenings." — Northampton Gazette.

" An exceptionally well-written book." — Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

" The Spinster and Peggy have a quiet sense of humour of their own and they convey their experiences with a quaint enjoyment that holds us irresistibly." — The Argonaut.

" This is a thoroughly enjoyable story. Mary Wilkins at her best was never more interesting, and she has never produced a book more normal and as wholesome as this." — Journal of Education.

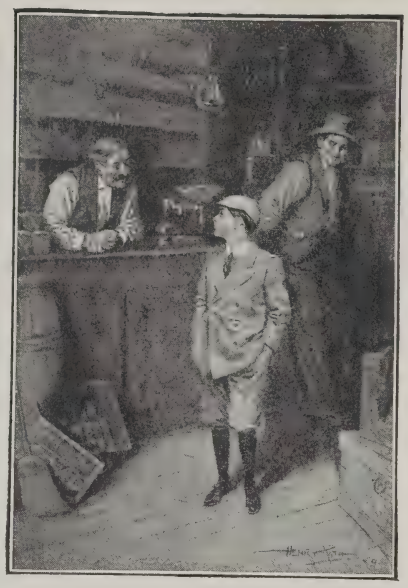
THE FURTHER ADVENTURES OF QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER AND MASON'S CORNER FOLKS.

By Charles Felton Pidgin, author of "Quincy Adams Sawyer," "Blennerhassett," "Stephen Holton," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by Henry Roth $1.50



"The book is intensely human, bright, witty, hopeful, kindly, and interesting." — Christian Endeavor World.

"It is a story of just plain common folks, and will reach the heart and mind of every reader." — Chicago Common Sense.

"The knowledge of the conditions of American life displayed in this book is one of its merits. Nobody who takes the trouble to peruse these pages will have wasted his time." — Rochester Post-Express.

"You have got 'Quincy Adams Sawyer' beaten to a frazzle." — Charles Osborne, Indianapolis, in a letter to the author.

"A story of typical New England life which when depicted as graphically and happily as it is in this volume is always of unfailing interest to every reader born under the Stars and Stripes." — Maine Journal.

"There is a pleasant love plot and the characters are delightful or curious, just as you find them. The characters grow more interesting and likable as the tale proceeds." — Pittsburgh Press.

THE MYSTERY OF MISS MOTTE. By Caroline Atwater Mason, author of "A Lily of France," etc.

Cloth decorative, with frontispiece in color by Albert R. Thayer $1.25

"It is a clean, wholesome story of present-day life, with nothing far-fetched or overdrawn." — United Presbyterian.

"It is a thoroughly interesting and very suggestive story." — Boston Watchman.

"It is a pleasure to compliment so well-intended and well-written a book as this. The portraying of such types as the cynical and brilliant Dr. Tiffany, the idealistic William Dane, the very human Matt O'Brien, and the charming Noelle Motte is decidedly worth while." — Philadelphia Press.

"A love story particularly neat and sweet, in which mystery plays a part. Mrs. Mason develops her romance skilfully against a very pleasant social background." — New York World.

"The book holds the reader fascinated and interested from the opening chapter until the last." — Portland Telegram.

TRAVELS OF A LADY'S MAID. By A. B.

Library 12mo, cloth $1.50

"An entertaining, desultory and delightfully naive recital of the incidents of a journey around the world. It purports to be written by one Annie Burns, maid to the Countess of Glamorden, and the book maintains its artistic integrity well. In its several phases, as a journal of events, as a reflex of the English point of view on American history and institutions, or even as a simple romance, it makes enjoyable reading." — Chicago News.

"Everywhere the bright-eyed maid sees many interesting things and hears many amusing little stories, all of which are duly transferred from her diary to this volume." — The Boston Transcript.

TAG; Or, The Chien Boule Dog.

By Valance Patriarche.

Illustrated by Wallace Goldsmith.

Cloth decorative $1.00

An amusing story of a newly married couple, a lost child and a dog — decidedly a dog. The young wife's kindly interest in the forlorn little fellow traveller, Bateese, and his Chien Boule Dog results in all sorts of complications, but the author's humor is a frisky sunlight that penetrates even the cloud of a bridegroom who naturally wanted his honeymoon.

"It is fresh in plot, bright and merry in spirit, full of kindly humor in style and incident." — Grand Rapids Herald.

"The entire tale is a delightful bit of humor." — Portland Press.

THE GOLDEN DOG. A Romance of Quebec. By William Kirby.

New authorized edition, printed from new plates. Illustrated by J. W. Kennedy.

One vol., library 12mo, cloth $1.25

"A powerful romance of love, intrigue, and adventure in the times of Louis XV. and Madame de Pompadour. Mr. Kirby has shown how false prides and ambitions stalked abroad at this time, how they entered the heart of man to work his destruction, and particularly how they influenced a beautiful demon in female form to continued vengeances." — Boston Herald.

CAPTAIN FRACASSE. A new translation from the French of Gautier.

Illustrated by Victor A. Searles.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative $1.25

This famous romance has been out of print for some time, and a new translation is sure to appeal to its many admirers.

Books for Young People

WORKS OF ANNIE FELLOWS JOHNSTON

THE LITTLE COLONEL SERIES (Trade Mark)

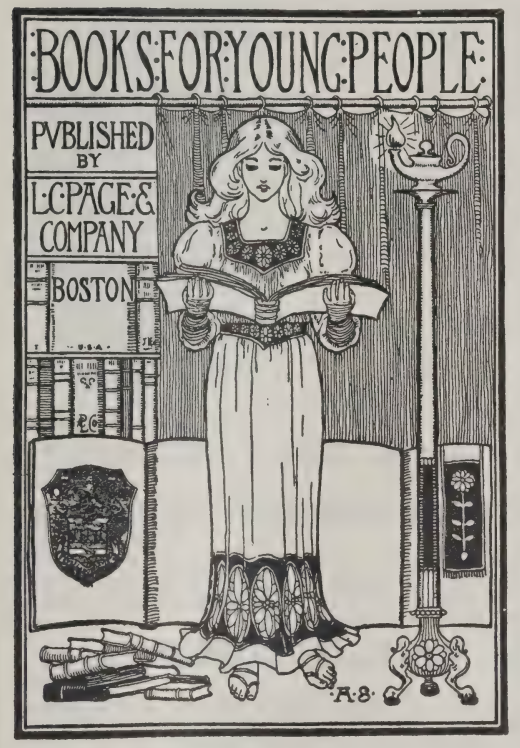
The eleven volumes are also boxed as a set, $16.50.



No juvenile heroine is so well-beloved as the "Little Colonel" whom Mrs. Johnston has made the central figure of the "Little Colonel Series" which now contains the most delightful and popular books for young people published. Though some of the books are several years old, there is a continually increasing demand for them.

Their tone is especially high and pure, and the strength of their influence may be gauged from the fact that both author and publishers are constantly in receipt of letters telling of the charitable undertakings which the books have instigated. Dozens of clubs formed by boys and girls all over the country for the purpose of helping less fortunate children are directly traceable to the "Little Colonel" stories, and the examples set forth therein.

THE LITTLE COLONEL STORIES. Being three "Little Colonel" stories in the Cosy Corner Series, "The Little Colonel," "Two Little Knights of Kentucky," and "The Gate of the Giant Scissors," put into a single volume, owing to the popular demand for a uniform series of the stories dealing with one of the most popular of juvenile heroines.

One vol., large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

THE LITTLE COLONEL'S HOUSE PARTY. Illustrated by Louis Meynell.

One vol., large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Whatever she does, or wherever she goes, the chronicle of her adventures is sure to be entertaining, pure and wholesome in spirit, and free from mawkish sentimentality. The 'Little Colonel' is a thoroughbred." — New York Sun.

THE LITTLE COLONEL'S HOLIDAYS. Illustrated by L. J. Bridgman.

One vol., large 12mo, cloth, decorative cover $1.50

"The book is the best one in the series. The spirit is thoroughly wholesome and uplifting, and we have never seen a fairer picture of an old Kentucky home." — Boston Pilot.

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

"Since the days of Little Women, nobody has written so delightfully and so sanely and humanly of girl life as she does. Her girls are real girls, full of fun and frolic, and growing up into beautiful womanhood. Few heroines are as fascinating as the Little Colonel, and none a better friend for a girl to have." — Dorothy Dix in New Orleans Picayune.

THE LITTLE COLONEL'S KNIGHT COMES RIDING.

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated . . . $1.50

"Every one knows the winsome tenderness and loving comprehension of child nature that marks the author of 'The Little Colonel' as the successor of Louisa M. Alcott." — George Seibel in Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

MARY WARE: THE LITTLE COLONEL'S CHUM.

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

"The same delightful charm and freshness attaches to this book as characterized the others. The new heroine, Mary Ware, is just as lovable, even more strikingly individual in character than was Lloyd Sherman, who has held first place in girlhood's heart for the last five or six years." — The Chicago Daily News.

THE LITTLE COLONEL'S GOOD TIMES BOOK.

(Trade Mark)

Cover designs and decorations by Peter C. Verberg.
Bound in linen with attractive design $1.50
White kid (morocco) and gold 3.00

Betty's "Good Times Book" has been so interesting to "Little Colonel" admirers that Mrs. Johnston has prepared one for them. The front of the book contains a calendar of twelve pages, with quotations from the "Little Colonel" Series, beautifully illuminated, and a preface by Mrs. Johnston, with facsimile autograph. An original poem, together with quotations from the "Little Colonel" Series, form the headings for the blank pages, wherein the records of the "good times" are to be kept.

"The Little Colonel's Good Times Book," arranged by Annie Fellows Johnston, is a charming concession to the persistent demand for a journal similar, in material and form, to the one supposed to have been kept by one of the popular writer's popular child heroines. The introduction is characteristic, full of suggestion to the young folk as to the joy in after years of a well-kept record of simple happenings, which had once brought unusual pleasure, not at all the perfunctory, sentimental, daily commonplace entries. There are provided blank pages, headed by quotations from the various "Little Colonel" books, and a charming new poem, pretty marginal decorations and, what will greatly please her child admirers, an excellent frontispiece portrait of the author. The book is a fitting finale to a series of books for young people." — The Chicago Daily News.

"A mighty attractive volume in which the owner may record the good times she has in decorated pages, and under the directions as it were of Annie Fellows Johnston." — Buffalo Express.

"'The Little Colonel's Good Times Book' has novelty and beauty to commend it, and it has, too, the quality of gently and persuasively fostering an optimistic spirit." — Brooklyn Daily Times.

JOEL: A BOY OF GALILEE. New illustrated edition.

Cloth, 12mo, with handsome decorative cover $1.50

This is a book worthy of the widest recognition. It is an interesting tale for children, telling the story of a little boy who lived in Galilee during the life of Christ. This boy, Joel, born a cripple, but restored to health by one of Jesus' miracles, is a manly and natural little fellow, winning the sympathy of all by his courageous spirits and sturdy faith. The life of Jesus, from its simple beginning to its glorious ending, is indirectly presented in a way to greatly interest and appeal to every boy and girl.

This book, of which this new illustrated edition has been issued in response to a wide demand, is an already established favorite in this country, and also in Italy, having been recently translated into that language. "Joel" should find a place in every home, both for the charming story it tells and for the noble lessons it teaches.

"Fills for young readers the place which 'Ben Hur' fills for their elders." — Brooklyn Eagle.

The Jack Lorimer Series

CAPTAIN JACK LORIMER. By WINN STANDISH. Illustrated by Arthur W. Brown.

Square 12mo, cloth $1.50

Jack Lorimer is a fine example of the all-around American high-school boy. He has the sturdy qualities boys admire, and his fondness for clean, honest sport of all kinds will strike a chord of sympathy among athletic youths.

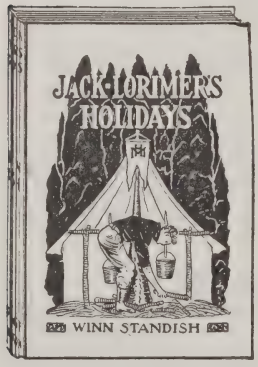
"It is exactly the sort of book to give a boy interested in athletics, for it shows him what it means to always 'play fair' and inspires him with a hearty dislike for trickery and treachery."— Chicago Tribune.

JACK LORIMER'S CHAMPIONS; Or, Sports on Land and Lake. By WINN STANDISH. Author of "Captain Jack Lorimer," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by James K. Bonnar $1.50

"A bully book for active up-to-date American boys. Jack and his friends are a sturdy wholesome lot of chaps, with plenty of duplicates in real life who will enjoy the perusal of this clean and interesting story. There is a lively story woven in with the athletic achievements which are all right, since the book has been O. K'd by Chadwick, the Nestor of American sporting journalism, and Tim Murnane, the New England baseball authority."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

JACK LORIMER'S HOLIDAYS; Or, Millvale High in Camp. By WINN STANDISH, author of "Captain Jack Lorimer," "Jack Lorimer's Champions," etc.



Cloth decorative, illustrated by Frank P. Fairbanks $1.50

"Jack Lorimer is a warm favorite with thousands of American boys, and the present tale should prove more than usually attractive to young readers, for Jack and his many friends crowd innumerable happenings into the happy holidays before the opening of Jack's last school year. The author evidently believes in stimulating the American boy to better performance both in study and sport, and his characters always present an excellent manly example, after which young readers may pattern." — The Courier, Evansville, Ind.

"It would be well not to put this book into a boy's hands until the chores are finished, otherwise they might be neglected." —The Springfield Union.

JACK LORIMER'S SUBSTITUTE; Or, The Acting Captain of the Team. By WINN STANDISH, author of the Series.

The Boys' Story of the Army Series

BORN TO THE BLUE. By Florence Kimball Russel

12mo, cloth, with exceptionally excellent illustrations by R. Farrington Elwell . . . $1.25

The Boy is the son of a captain of United States cavalry stationed at a frontier post in the days when our regulars earned the gratitude of a nation. His military training is begun at a very early age; and, how well he profits by the soldierly qualities of manhood and honor and modesty and courtesy instilled, is brought out in a series of incidents and adventures which will appeal to every youngster, and to many of their elders. Every phase of garrison life is included, for, though an officer's son, his friends range from the colonel commanding to the trooper who taught him to ride.

"The story deserves warm commendation and genuine popularity." — Army and Navy Register.

IN WEST POINT GRAY. By Florence Kimball Russel

12mo, cloth, with illustrations by James K. Bonnar. $1.50

West Point forms the backgound for the second volume in this series, and gives us the adventures of Jack as a cadet. Here the training of his childhood days in the frontier army post stands him in good stead; and he quickly becomes the central figure of the West Point life.

Mrs. Russel spent five years at West Point, where her husband was detailed as instructor in the Military Academy, so that this book shows the same fidelity to accurate detail and the same knowledge of military life that was so evident and elicited such praise in "Born to the Blue."

Famous Leaders Series

FAMOUS CAVALRY LEADERS. By Charles H. L. Johnston.

12mo, cloth decorative, fully illustrated $1.50

Biographical sketches, with interesting anecdotes and reminiscences of the heroes of history who were leaders of cavalry.

From the time of Attala the Hun and of Genghis Khan the Tartar chieftain, down through the days of the Chevalier Bayard, Gustavus Adolphus, Prince Rupert, Marshal Ney, Murat, and our own generals, Marion, hero of the Revolution, Stuart, Wheeler, Custer and Sheridan, — what thrilling stories are uncovered to the eager eyes of the boy reader.

"More of such books should be written, books that acquaint young readers with historical personages in a pleasant informal way." — N. Y. Sun.

FAMOUS INDIAN CHIEFS. By Charles H. L. Johnston, author of "Famous Cavalry Leaders," etc

12mo, cloth decorative, fully illustrated $1.50

In this book Mr. Johnston gives interesting sketches of the Indian braves who have figured with prominence in the history of our own land, including Powhatan, the Indian Cæsar; Massasoit, the friend of the Puritans; Pontiac, the red Napoleon, Head Chief of the Ottawas and organizer of the first great Indian Confederation; Tecumseh, the famous war chief of the Shawnees; Sitting Bull, the famous war chief of the Sioux; Geronimo, the renowned Apache Chief, etc., etc.

"Mr. Johnston has done faithful work in this volume, and his relation of battles, treaties, sieges and struggles of these famous Indians with the whites for the possession of America is a worthy addition to United States history." — New York Marine Journal.

THE SANDMAN: MORE FARM STORIES.

By WILLIAM J. HOPKINS, author of "The Sandman: His Farm Stories." With forty illustrations by Ada Clendenin Williamson.

Large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

Mr. Hopkins's first essay at bedtime stories has met with such approval that this second book of "Sandman" tales has been issued for scores of eager children.

"Children will call for these stories over and over again." — Chicago Evening Post.

THE SANDMAN: HIS SHIP STORIES.

By WILLIAM J. HOPKINS, author of "The Sandman: His Farm Stories," etc.

Large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Here comes the kind and welcome old Sandman with his most delightful bedtime stories, and this time they are all about ships. Little ones will understand and delight in the stories, and their parents will read between the lines and recognize the poetic and artistic work of the author." — Indianapolis News.

THE SANDMAN: HIS SEA STORIES.

More stories of the Brig Industry. By WILLIAM J. HOPKINS, author of "The Sandman: His Farm Stories," "The Sandman: His Ship Stories," etc. Illustrated by Diantha W. Horne.

Large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.50

"Once upon a time there was a man who knew little children and the kind of stories they liked, so he wrote four books of Sandman's stories, all about the farm or the sea, and the brig Industry, and this book is one of them. The stories were so real and so true that the boys and girls never grew tired listening to them, and all the mothers and fathers and uncles and aunts, and big sisters and brothers, who had to make up stories wished Mr. Hopkins would write more of them, and that's all." — The Canadian Congregationalist.

SONGS AND RHYMES FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Compiled by MARY WHITNEY MORRISON (Jenny Wallis).

New edition, with an introduction by Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney and eight illustrations.

Large 12mo, cloth decorative $1.00

No better description of this admirable book can be given than Mrs. Whitney's happy introduction:

"One might almost as well offer June roses with the assurance of their sweetness as to present this lovely little gathering of verse, which announces itself, like them, by its deliciousness. Yet, as Mrs. Morrison's charming volume has long been a delight to me, I am only too happy to declare that it is to me the most bewitching book of songs for little people that I have ever known."

MARCHING WITH MORGAN.

How Donald Lovell Became a Soldier of the Revolution. By John V. Lane.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by John Goss $1.50

This is a splendid boy's story of the expedition of Montgomery and Arnold against Quebec.

"The volume possesses the veracity of history, with the intense interest attached to a narrative set with dramatic effect." — Army and Navy Register.

"The tale is an excellent one for boys, portraying in a realistic manner the beginning of the great struggle for independence, the knowledge of which should be a fundamental part of the education of every young American." — Louisville Evening Post.

"The story is one in every way calculated to hold the interest and win the favor of both old and young. It is rapid in movement, full of incident, and its characters throughout are clearly and sharply drawn. It is from every point of view one of the strongest juvenile books that has appeared in recent years." — Kennebec Journal.

LITTLE WHITE INDIANS. By Fannie E. Ostrander.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by Diantha W. Horne $1.25

"All boys and girls from 6 to 10 should read 'Little White Indians,' for every child likes to play 'Indian.' A good book for children, for they will learn much of the wild life of the woods. It is cleverly told, with much quiet humor."—Brooklyn Eagle.

TENANTS OF THE TREES. By Clarence Hawkes, author of "Shaggycoat," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrated in colors by Louis Rhead $1.50

Mr. Hawkes writes delightfully and intimately of nature and animal life. He is acutely sensitive to all moods of the outdoors world, and has made a close study of animal and bird life since his childhood.

"A beautiful book of outdoor life which is most delightful reading for young or old. No one could possibly call the author a 'Nature Faker,' as he has no wonders of animal ingenuity to impart beyond what any intelligent, observant and interested child can verify." — N. Y. Commercial.

CAPTAIN JINKS: The Autobiography of a Shetland Pony. By Frances Hodges White, author of "Helena's Wonderworld," etc.

THE CHRISTMAS MAKERS' CLUB.

By Edith A. Sawyer.

Cloth decorative, illustrated by Ada C. Williamson $1.50

One of the best books for girls that has been published for a long time. It abounds in merrymaking and the right kind of fun, and possesses a gentle humor and pathos which will touch the hearts of mothers as well as their daughters.

"The chief charm of the book lies in its simplicity. It is written in a style that will appeal to the understanding and interest of every child." — The Brooklyn Eagle.

"The story is beautifully told, the characters are such as may be commended for the reading of young children and there is no lack of life and go to the various chapters and the finish has a touch of melodrama in it, though of the right sort, such as children enjoy." — Buffalo News.

THE DOCTOR'S LITTLE GIRL. By Marion Ames Taggart.

Author of "Pussy-Cat Town," etc.

One vol., library 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

A thoroughly enjoyable tale of a little girl and her comrade father, written in a delightful vein of sympathetic comprehension of the child's point of view.

"A charming story of the ups and downs of the life of a dear little maid." — The Churchman.

In the "Doctor's Little Girl," Nancy Porter, who was known throughout the village as "the doctor's assistant," Miss Taggart has created one of the most lovable child characters in recent years.

SWEET NANCY: The Further Adventures of the Doctor's Little Girl.

By Marion Ames Taggart.

One volume, library 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

"A thoroughly enjoyable tale, written in a delightful vein of sympathetic comprehension of the child's point of view." — Ithaca Journal.

"This book is a regular 'Sun-shine society' in itself." — Sioux City Tribune.

"The characters are strongly drawn with a life-like realism, the incidents are well and progressively sequenced, and the action is so well timed that the interest never slackens." — Boston Ideas.

BLACK BEAUTY: The Autobiography of a Horse. By Anna Sewell.

New Illustrated Edition. With nineteen full-page drawings by Winifred Austin.

One vol., large 12mo, cloth decorative, gilt top $1.25

There have been many editions of this classic, but we confidently offer this one as the most appropriate and handsome yet produced. The illustrations are of special value and beauty. Miss Austin is a lover of horses, and has delighted in tracing with her pen the beauty and grace of the noble animal.

DIVINE AND MORAL SONGS FOR CHILDREN. By the Rev. Isaac Watts, D. D. With fourteen color plates by Mrs. Arthur Gaskin of unusual charm.

Small quarto, cloth decorative $1.00

Did the Rev. Isaac Watts ever dream of finding himself perpetuated in such quaint and charming array? This is a most enticing volume, where Greenawayish babies gaze with edified gravity upon "How doth the little busy bee," or are lulled to sleep by the sweetest of cradle hymns, with Greenaway angels to guard their slumbers. It is a unique and beautiful idea in the way of a child's gift book.

FLYING PLOVER: His Stories Told Him, by Squat-by-the-Fire.

By G. E. Theodore Roberts, author of "The Red Feathers," "Hemming, the Adventurer," "Captain Love," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull $1.00

This is a series of stories all connected, and really one continuous story, dealing with the myths and folk-lore of the Indians. The time and setting is the same as "The Red Feathers," and the book is written in the same charming vein, making delightful reading for adults as well as children.

"The whole book is filled with one tale after another and is narrated in such a quaint, pleasing manner as to reach the heart of every child." — Common Sense, Chicago.

"It instructs as well as entertains and amuses. The tales are characteristically Indian, and the manner of their telling is wholly pleasing." — Peoria Herald-Transcript.

"It is gratifying to get hold of a book for youthful readers which puts the Indian in a light other than fostered by those tales which are successors of the regulation dime-novel variety. The stories are well told." — Brooklyn Daily Times.

"It is a story to entrance an intelligent boy, and to please any grown-up who knows enough to appreciate it." — Bridgeport Standard.

"The Indian legends in this volume are most interesting and fascinating, and the book is an unusually attractive one." — The Christian Guardian.

THE RED FEATHERS.

By G. E. Theodore Roberts, author of "Brothers of Peril," etc.

Cloth decorative, cover design and illustrations by Charles Livingston Bull . . . $1.50

"The Red Feathers" tells of the remarkable adventures of an Indian boy who lived in the Stone Age, many years ago, when the world was young, and when fairies and magicians did wonderful things for their friends and enemies.

"It would be hard to suggest by way of comment the sheer delightfulness of this tale. It is not a story for children in the sense of being unfit for grown-ups. It is a fairy tale and an Indian tale and a little manual of kindly and ripe philosophy in one. In short we really do not see why it should not win a place on that small beloved shelf where Grimm and Alice and the Water-Babies and how few others! stand in quiet and perennial disproof of the pap-theory of juvenile fiction." — N. Y. Evening Post.

THE QUEST FOR THE ROSE OF SHARON.

By Burton E. Stevenson, author of "The Marathon Mystery," "The Holladay Case," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrations by Thomas Fogarty $1.25

This tale of mystery and its solution contains all the elements which go to make a fascinating story.

"An ingenious story, well filled with happenings." — New York World.

"The story is unusually good, but even better is the exquisite charm of the telling." — Boston Congregationalist.

"There is a decidedly sweet and wholesome atmosphere about the book." — Springfield Republican.

"It certainly is a unique story, and has a way of holding the reader from the beginning straight to the end. It will interest the boys as much as it does the girls." — Young People's Monthly.

"The work is interesting to the highest degree, captivating the reader at the beginning of the work, and holding his interest until the very last page has been reached. The most striking characteristic of the work and the one which makes it the most valuable is its simplicity." — Chillicothe Gazette.

THE LITTLE COUSIN SERIES (Trade Mark) 39 Volumes

By MARY HAZLETON WADE, BLANCHE McMANUS, ELIZABETH ROBERTS MacDONALD, MARY F. NIXON-ROULET, and others.

Small 12mo, illustrated in colors, six or more illustrations in each volume, decorated cover . . . $0.60

The books are the most interesting and delightful accounts possible of the children in other countries. The daily home life of each little cousin is described, his mode of dress, his work and his play, the quaint customs of his people and some of the adventures he is sure to have. The information contained is absolutely accurate, and the stories are so charmingly written that the readers do not realize how much information they are really obtaining.

The stories are mainly new copyrighted fiction, including the works of such engaging writers as Mrs. Annie Fellows Johnston, whose "Little Colonel" books have attained a favor scarcely second to Miss Alcott's "Little Women," Miss Edith Robinson, whose stories of child-life in Puritan days have won such popularity, and Miss Frances Margaret Fox, whose outdoor stories of children and birds and the wild dooryard creatures have all the charm of reality. On the other hand, the older favorites have not been neglected; and there is a well-chosen list of such child-classics as the stories of John Ruskin, Miss Mulock, and Ouida.

The stories themselves show no less variety, and it would be an odd child indeed, whose taste could not be suited by a selec-

The attractive bindings, the charming illustrations, and the low price combine to make this series appeal strongly to those whose privilege it is to provide reading for children.

IN UNFAMILIAR ENGLAND

A Record of a Seven Thousand Mile Tour by Motor of the Unfrequented Nooks and Corners, and the Shrines of Especial Interest, in England; With Incursions into Scotland and Ireland.

By THOMAS D. MURPHY

Author of " British Highways and Byways from a Motor Car." With sixteen superb plates in full color and forty-eight full-page illustrations in duogravure.

8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco, boxed . . . 7.00

A chronicle of the extensive wanderings by motor car of an American in rural England and a record of his discoveries in the out-of-the-way corners of the Island; also of delightful incursions into Scotland and Ireland. It is a story redolent with the summer beauty of the loveliest countryside in the world, and is replete with the tales of lonely ruins, quaint old churches, historic manor houses and palaces; it takes one through the leafy byways, into the retired country villages, and to many unfrequented nooks on the seashore. Especially has the writer sought out the historic shrines in England of particular interest, and his book is quite a revelation in this particular.

A companion volume to Mr. Murphy's successful " British Highways and Byways from a Motor Car," voted " The handsomest travel book of the season " when published a year or two since. The chief difference between the two books is that " British Highways and Byways from a Motor Car " is a record, as the title indicates, of a trip through the better known parts of England, while the new book takes the reader out of the beaten track into the less frequented and accordingly more fascinating parts of rural England. The text comments on matters of historical and romantic interest, and gives much practical information for motorists and other tourists.

" To write an account of so extended a journey within the compass of a single volume and in a manner so creditable as has been done by Mr. Murphy, is a remarkable achievement. Though not implied by the modest title, all the eminent cathedrals as well as many other notable abbeys and ruins, are visited; also innumerable objects of historic and literary interest, together with countless places quite out of the beaten path." — The Photo Era, Boston.

" The author has a keen sense of what is worth while in the way of historic and literary landmarks, knows how to hit off the vital points in a few words, and has shown unusual taste in the selection of the illustrations." — Chicago Record-Herald.

" Every page of the book, and especially every picture in it, is an invitation to the road. . . . An altogether delightful book, replete with good and valuable things." — New York American.

A New Volume in THE CASTLES SERIES as follows:

ROYAL PALACES AND PARKS OF FRANCE

By FRANCIS MILTOUN

Author of " Castles and Chateaux of Old Touraine," etc.
With many illustrations, plates in full color, minor decorations, etc., from drawings by Blanche McManus.

8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco, boxed . . . 7.00

In his new volume for this valuable series Mr. Miltoun has given a most interesting account of the magnificent palaces and parks which are so closely associated with not only the history but the romances of the French monarchs and their courts. Few realize how closely the historic and social evolutions in France were associated with the fêtes and revels which took place in the royal palaces and pleasure grounds of the French kings. It is not only Paris itself, the Louvre and the Tuileries, but Versailles, Fontainebleau, St. Cloud, and those other famous resting places of royalty, which are concerned in Mr. Miltoun's book, and the further he goes into his subject the more apparent it becomes that he has uncovered a wealth of interesting material.

The book is certain to receive a sincere welcome, and to take its place as a valuable work of reference.

A New Volume in the AMERICAN TRAVEL SERIES as follows:

PANAMA AND THE CANAL TO-DAY

By FORBES LINDSAY

Author of " Panama, The Isthmus and the Canal."

8vo, cloth decorative, profusely illustrated, boxed . . . $3.00
The Same, three-quarters levant morocco, boxed . . . 7.00

Perhaps no authority has made a closer study of the conditions in Panama than has Mr. Lindsay, who has spent many months in the Isthmus, investigating not only the progress of the Canal, but the conditions in the country itself. He is recognized as an authority on the subject, uninfluenced by political considerations, disregarding political pressure.

His story is the story about the country, and the vast undertaking in which all Americans are so interested, unbiased, unprejudiced, and what he has to say is not only of intense interest but of real moment to the American public.

BOHEMIA AND THE ČECHS

The Geography, History, People, Institutions and Cities of the Ancient Kingdom, Together with Accounts of Moravia and Silesia

By WILL S. MONROE

Author of " Turkey and the Turks," " In Viking Land," " Sicily, the Garden of the Mediterranean," etc.

8vo, cloth decorative, illustrated with a map and many special photographs, in a box $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco in a box 7.00

When it is recalled that there does not exist in English a work of travel and description of Bohemia, readers in general and travel lovers in particular are certain to welcome Professor Monroe's forthcoming work. As in his other travel books, special emphasis is placed on the human side of the subject — the people and the institutions — while giving due importance to the geography and the descriptive aspects of the country.

BRAZIL AND HER PEOPLE OF TO-DAY

Being a Volume Descriptive of the Country, Its Conditions, and Its People

By NEVIN O. WINTER

Author of " Mexico and Her People of To-day," " Guatemala and Her People of To-day," etc.

With upwards of fifty illustrations in duogravure from photographs taken especially by the author, boxed $3.00

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

Brazil is the largest, as well as the most interesting and most prosperous of the South American republics; but the country and its people are but little known to the American reader. Certainly no recent volumes approaching the scope of Mr. Winter's work have been issued from the American or British press.

In the treatment of his new subject Mr. Winter follows closely the plan of his earlier works on Mexico and Central America which are accepted as standards. Indeed, Mr. Winter, by research, as well as by personal observation and travel in these countries, has fitted himself for his task as perhaps has no other writer of the day.

SUSAN IN SICILY

Her Adventures and Those of Her Friends During Their Travels and Sojourns in the Garden of the Mediterranean

By JOSEPHINE TOZIER

Author of "Among English Inns," etc. With thirty-two full-page plates in duogravure.

8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $2.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco 5.00

A sprightly volume, part fiction and part travel, told in the letters of a vivacious American girl, travelling through the land of the Sicilian, to her sister Betty at home. The work is realistic yet authentic, and describes in Miss Tozier's own inimitable way the dark-haired Sicilians, their customs, the Sicilian towns and landmarks — in fact everything interesting to the American girl in the "Garden of the Mediterranean," and there is hardly a site or fact worth noting which escapes the quick "Yankee" eye of Susan. The book also contains an interesting account of the late earthquake described by an Italian Countess, one of Susan's most agreeable hostesses.

The work compares favorably with the author's first book, "Among English Inns," which has gone through several editions and is still in excellent demand.

HOUSEBOATING ON A COLONIAL WATERWAY

By FRANK and CORTELLE HUTCHINS

Illustrated from photographs taken specially by the authors. 8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco 6.00

Books upon houseboating we have had before, but a volume of real houseboat travel finds a fresh field. This book is the story of a lazy summer spent upon the James River and some of its tributaries. "Gadabout," a lovable, lubberly craft, starts in at the mouth of this our oldest colonial waterway following some three hundred years later in the wake of the quaint old caravels, Sarah Constant, Goodspeed, and Discovery. She comes one morning to the historic Jamestown Island, and, casting anchor there, sets her little family of voyagers ashore to wander among the ruins of Olde James Towne, the birthplace of our country.

Then, on up the "Greate River" again she takes her way, skirting now a bank of to-day and again a seventeenth century shore, and stopping here and there to laze the days away while her people visit and revisit the noted old colonial homes of the James.

Under lightness of style is strict historical accuracy, and the work has the endorsement of recognized authorities on the colonial history of Virginia.

UNDER THE ROOF OF THE JUNGLE

By CHARLES LIVINGSTON BULL

Square 12mo, decorative cover and wrapper, with 50 full-page plates in color and black and white, cover design and many decorations from drawings made from sketches done on the spot by the author . $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 6.00

Mr. Bull is already well-known as one of the foremost illustrators of animal life and has also aroused much favorable comment with his short stories of animal life in the leading magazines.

After many months spent in the forests and swamps of British Guiana, he has now given us a book of the life in the wild and beautiful jungle regions, which spread in an unbroken sweep from the Gulf of Mexico away to the southern limits of Brazil, and from the mouth of the Amazon to the Andes Mountains — " the greatest and least known of jungles." He tells of the bright mornings, the suffocating noons, the long lazy afternoons and the quiet, calm tropical nights of the jungles and of the wonderful animals which inhabit them — the noiseless snakes, great boas, labarrias, the black ants, the swashbuckling harpy eagle, of the restless capybaras and the deadly cayman. A fascinating book with its strange and wonderful tales and splendid drawings of animal life.

THE LANDS OF THE TAMED TURK

A Descriptive and Historical Account of the Balkan States

By BLAIR JAEKEL

Illustrated from photographs taken by the author and Nox McCain.
8vo, cloth decorative, boxed $2.50
The Same, three-quarters morocco 6.00

There still remains a portion of Europe — one little south-eastern corner — that has been overlooked by the many travel writers, and, under the title of " The Lands of the Tamed Turk," Blair Jaekel covers this little known land by writing an interesting and straightforward narrative of twentieth century travel through Servia, Bulgaria, Montenegro, Dalmatia and the newly acquired Austrian provinces of Herzegovina and Bosnia.

There is no tiresome recitation of the political, and the work contains just enough history of the territory, descriptions of the primitive people, their curious customs, and the medieval methods that still obtain, to give one the desire to see for himself the countries and peoples of the Balkan States.

A New Volume in THE ART GALLERIES OF EUROPE SERIES

as follows:

Uniform with " The Art of the Vatican," " The Art of the Louvre," etc.

THE ART OF THE MUNICH GALLERIES

By FLORENCE JEAN ANSELL and FRANK ROY FRAPRIE

One volume, large 12mo, cloth decorative, printed on a special feather-weight paper, profusely illustrated with full-page plates in duogravure, boxed . . . . . $2.00 net. Postage extra.
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed . 5.00 net. " "

A New Volume in THE ART GALLERIES OF AMERICA SERIES

THE BOSTON MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

By JULIA de WOLF ADDISON

Author of " Arts and Crafts in the Middle Ages," " The Art of the Pitti Palace," etc. Profusely illustrated with full-page plates in duogravure.

Cloth decorative, boxed $3.00
The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 7.00

This is the second volume in our series of books dealing with the leading American Art Galleries, inaugurated successfully last fall with the publication of " The Art of the Metropolitan Museum of New York," by David C. Preyer.

Mrs. Addison is a recognized authority on art subjects, and already has a large number of successful books to her credit, including " The Art of the National Gallery (London)," " The Art of the Dresden Gallery," etc. Her critical judgment and quick perception admirably equip her for the task of writing such a volume as the one in hand.

THE WHISTLER BOOK

A monograph of the life and position in art of James McNeil Whistler, together with a careful study of his more important works, by Sadakichi Hartmann, author of "History of American Art," "Japanese Art," etc.

Library 12mo, cloth decorative, with upwards of sixty reproductions in duogravures of Whistler's most important works; in a box . $2.50

The Same, three-quarters morocco, boxed 6.00

Much has been written in recent years of Whistler and his work, but hitherto there has been no publication which adequately covers the field. That Whistler was among the foremost of the painters of his day was recognized during his life, but it is only since his death that he has taken the rank which he now occupies in the opinion of most critics, that of the greatest painter of modern times.

Mr. Hartmann, whose standing in Art is well known, has handled his subject with skill, and the book, the first comprehensive one issued at a moderate price, promises to become the recognized authoritative one on Whistler. The appended list of Chapters will afford some idea of the scope of his work.

1. Biography
2. The Black Butterfly (Various influences that developed his style)
3. Light and Tone (His principal pictures)
4. Visions and Interpretations (Portraits)
5. Moss-like Gradations (Lithographs)
6. In Quest of Line Expressions (Etchings)
7. The Art of Omission (Nocturnes)
8. Whistler's Iconoclasm
9. The Story of the Beautiful

KILMENY OF THE ORCHARD

By L. M. MONTGOMERY

Author of the "delightful and irresistible ANNE books," "Anne of Green Gables" and "Anne of Avonlea."
Cloth decorative, with four full-page illustrations in color by George Gibbs $1.25

Miss Montgomery's new book — a charming love story (which every reader is eagerly awaiting) — has again for its setting the author's favorite Prince Edward Island. Kilmeny Gordon, the heroine, is certain to prove as dear to the hearts of old and young readers alike as did her predecessor, Anne Shirley, "the dearest and most moving and delightful child since the immortal Alice," according to Mark Twain.

The following quotation from one of the early chapters will be sufficient to give a clue to the story.

"Under the big branching white lilac tree was an old, sagging wooden bench; and on this bench a girl was sitting playing an old brown violin. Her eyes were on the faraway horizon and she did not see Eric. For a few moments he stood there and looked at her. . . . To his latest day Eric Marshall will be able to recall vividly that scene as he saw it then — the velvet darkness of the spruce woods, the overarching sky of soft brilliance, the swaying lilac blossoms — and amid it all the girl on the old bench with the violin under her chin. . . . Her loveliness was so perfect that his breath almost went from him in his first delight of it. Her face was oval, marked in every cameo-like line and feature with that expression of absolute flawless purity found in the angels and Madonnas of old paintings—a purity that held in it no faintest stain of earthliness. Her head was bare, and her thick, jet-black hair was parted over her forehead and hung in two heavy lustrous braids over her shoulders. Her eyes were of such a blue as Eric had never seen before — the tint of the sea in the still, calm light that follows after a fine sunset; they were as luminous as the stars that came out over Lindsay Harbor in the afterglow, and were fringed about with very long, soot-black lashes, and arched over by most delicately pencilled dark eyebrows. Her skin was as fine and purely tinted as the heart of a white rose. The collarless dress of pale blue print she wore revealed her smooth, slender throat; her sleeves were rolled up above her elbows, and the hand which guided the bow of the violin was perhaps the most beautiful thing about her — perfect in shape and texture, firm and white, with ivory-nailed taper fingers. One long drooping plume of lilac blossom lightly touched her hair and cast wavering shadow over the flower-like face beneath it. There was something very child-like about her and yet at least eighteen sweet years must have gone to the making of her."

COMMENCEMENT DAYS

By VIRGINIA CHURCH

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

Mrs. Church's new college story is based on the well-known play of the same name which had such a successful run last season, and it is hard to imagine a more truthful picture of college life than is here depicted. It all happens at that most interesting time of the college girl's career, Commencement Season, which brings with it a round of receptions, parties, coaching expeditions, Junior Proms, fudge feasts, and the happiest and merriest of times.

There are girls and girls, scores of them, all through the tale, and all interesting ones, too — there's Kate Wells, the most popular girl of the college, and Lorraine, her chum, quiet, dignified and sweet, who plays the role of an indulgent sister. And there's the twins; who really ought not to be twins at all, their tastes are so unlike, one preferring men, and the other sports, not to mention the slangy, masculine girl, who goes in for athletics, and the dainty little college flirt.

Of course there couldn't be any plot if a man were not allowed to enter in, and as Penny, the roly-poly Freshman observes — " It's nice to see trousers around sometimes, anyway " — some mighty nice chaps are allowed to enter on the scene. Then there are three distinct love affairs in the plot, all in admirable contrast.

Girls who are in school and college will find in " Commencement Days " types that they have known among their own classmates, graduates will pick out old friends, and older women, whose school days are among their sweetest memories, will find that girl nature is much the same in this day as it was in theirs.

" The story is new, bright, and as interesting as the events it deals with usually are. It is one of the best college stories of the year, and is founded on the well-known play of the same name. It is so well done that the author is likely to hear within a brief period that the book is outdoing the successful run of the play. — Nashville American.

" A delightful tale of college life, one that cannot fail to appeal to the lover of good things in fiction. It is well worth reading." — Rochester Union & Advertiser.

" Of the numerous books of college life that have been written, it is safe to predict that this one will take rank for its naturalness and its truth." — Wilmington Every Evening.

MY HEART AND STEPHANIE

By REGINALD WRIGHT KAUFFMAN

Author of " Miss Frances Baird, Detective," etc.

Cloth decorative, illustrated with two portraits in color by A. G. Larned

A goodly tale of love and mystery, with the scenes for the most part laid in New York and Paris, dealing with the intrigues and causes celebres of the Austrian Court. The story is woven around the Countess Stephanie, a Polish conspirator, and continues also the stirring career of the American girl, Frances Baird, the heroine of Mr. Kauffman's detective story of that name. A novel to delight the heart of every lover of fiction.

" The story goes with a fascinating rush which is most entertaining, and so thoroughly imbued is the reader with the spirit of the plot that he is almost sorry to end the mystery with the last chapter, even if the ending is a most happy and logical one." — Boston Globe.

" Parisian life in Bohemian circles is picturesquely described, and probably there has never been a better word painting of restaurant gaiety than Mr. Kauffman's account of the famous ' Abbaye ' with its brilliant gathering." — Philadelphia Item.

" It is a rapidly moving and exciting narrative, presenting a sensational explanation of the death of Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria." — Philadelphia Press.

" A mystery story in the highest degree, and remarkably well-finished." — G. C. Morse.

" The author has the happy faculty of telling a good story in an interesting way." — The Reader.

" The interest of the reader is held throughout the entire story." — Portland Telegram.

" This story is unusually well told. It has vivacity and vitality beyond the casual light novel of the hour." — New York American.

" This story is remarkable for its color and momentum." — Chicago Daily News.

" A lively story, crowded with incident and leaving the reader to a consideration of various dramatic happenings both in this country and in Europe, is told by Mr. Kauffman in his story. The tale will hold the attention closely. It is quite the best thing that Mr. Kauffman has yet done." — Observer, Utica, N. Y.

" This is one of the detective stories that you want to sit up and finish." — Boston Ideas.

" The author has combined love and mystery in such a fascinating and dramatic manner as to keep the interest of the reader fresh to the end. Terrific action at times, brilliant descriptions of exciting and strenuous episodes dealing with the intrigues of the Austrian Court, and a plot ingenuously contrived are the strong features of this novel." — Evening Star, Schenectady, N. Y.

A CAVALIER OF VIRGINIA

By G. E. THEODORE ROBERTS

Author of " Hemming, the Adventurer," " Captain Love," etc.
12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated by Louis D. Gowing . . $1.50

Theodore Roberts is one of the younger writers of to-day whom the critics have been watching with interest, as he is a born story-teller and the possessor of an unusually fine literary style.

The scene of his present story is laid in the old chivalric days of colonial Virginia, although part of the action takes place upon the high seas, and the scene shifts for a short time to England, Spain and to the unsettled parts of North America.

The story develops the boy and girl love affair of the Cavalier and a typical Southern beauty, Isobel Dariza. The characters are admirably drawn and the reader follows with breathless interest the adventures of Francis Drurie, the Cavalier, through his stirring adventures on land and sea.

" A Cavalier of Virginia " is easily the finest story Mr. Roberts has yet given the reading public, and is assured great popular success.

THE COURT OF LUCIFER

By NATHAN GALLIZIER

Author of " Castel del Monte," " The Sorceress of Rome," etc.
With four illustrations in full color by the Kinneys . . . $1.50

Mr. Gallizier's new book, completing his Italian trilogy, of which " Castel del Monte " and " The Sorceress of Rome " have already been published, is a brilliant historical romance woven around the famous and notorious Borgia family, the main theme touching upon the perfidy and cunning of Cesare Borgia, that brilliant and unprincipled son of Pope Alexander VI.

Mr. Gallizier has chosen a most interesting field for his historical romances, and in his new book he tells with vividness and daring of the glamour and stir of the old days in Rome, the corruption of church and state, and the subsequent downfall of " The Imperial City."

Of Castel del Monte and The Sorceress of Rome the critics have written as follows:

" The author displays many of the talents that made Scott famous." — The Index.

" There is color, there is sumptuous word-painting in these pages; the action is terrific at times; vividness and life are in every part; and brilliant descriptions entertain the reader and give a singular fascination to the tale." — Grand Rapids Herald.

A SOLDIER OF THE REVOLUTION

BY

ROBERT NEILSON STEPHENS

Author of " An Enemy to the King," " Philip Winwood," etc.

AND

G. E. THEODORE ROBERTS

Author of " Hemming the Adventurer," " Captain Love," etc.

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

The many admirers of the brilliant historical romances of the late Robert Neilson Stephens will be gratified at the announcement of a posthumous work by that gifted writer. The rough draft of the story was laid aside for other work, and later, without completing the novel, the plot was utilized for a play. With the play completed Mr. Stephens again turned his attention to the novel, but death prevented its completion. Mr. Roberts has handled his difficult task of completing the work with care and skill.

The story, like that of " The Continental Dragoon," takes as its theme an incident in the Revolution, and, as in the earlier novel, the scene is the " debatable ground " north of New York. In interest of plot and originality of development it is as remarkable as the earlier work, but it is more mature, more forceful, more real.

THE LEAD OF HONOUR

By NORVAL RICHARDSON

12mo, cloth decorative, with a frontispiece in full color by Frank T. Merrill $1.50

If this book is a criterion of what is to come, Mr. Richardson will take high rank among American novelists. His writing has a beauty of phrase, a poetry of expression that is unusual, and joined to this is directness and power.

His plot is well conceived and well executed and his characters are living, breathing men and women whose fortunes are followed with ever deepening interest.

The scene of the story is Natchez, Miss., in about 1830, and the central character is Sargent Everett, a young lawyer, in whom many will recognize a portrait of the Hon. Seargent Prentiss. Indeed many of the incidents of the story are drawn from the early life of that prominent statesman and silver-tongued orator.

Young Everett's struggle for recognition, his final success, his brilliant progress in his profession, are matters of absorbing interest. His love, his hope, his struggle with self, his temptation and his renunciation, and always his steadfast following of the lead of honour, form the theme of this remarkable novel.

HELL-FIRE HARRISON

By W. D. WATTLES

Cloth decorative, illustrated and decorated in colors by Frank T. Merrill $1.00

The scene of this stirring story is laid in England during the reign of George III., when atheism held full sway. The principal characters are two Virginians, father and son, the elder of whom answers to the sobriquet of " Hell-fire Harrison," so-called because he founded the first Hell-fire Club of Virginia.

The return to " merrie England " of Harrison with his son, after an absence of thirty years, the thrilling adventures that followed this return, the intermingling of a sweet romance, and the intensely dramatic denouement are all so cleverly depicted by this graceful writer that the story is bound to leave a lasting impression.

Lovers of history, as well as the general reader, will find this story of absorbing interest, as the manners, customs, the history and the religion of the period are set forth in a way that proves extremely fascinating.

A New Volume in THE "LITTLE COLONEL" SERIES as follows:

MARY WARE IN TEXAS

By ANNIE FELLOWS JOHNSTON

Uniform with the previous volumes of the Little Colonel Series (Trade Mark) $1.50

The new book continues the adventures of Mary Ware, the heroine of the tenth and latest volume in the famous Little Colonel Series, "Mary Ware: The Little Colonel's Chum."

It was interesting to note in the recent "Little Colonel Favorite Character Contest" that, next to Betty Lewis, Mary Ware held first place in the hearts of the Little Colonel lovers, and the announcement that Mrs. Johnston has still more to tell about the original and vivacious "little vicar" will undoubtedly prove welcome news to thousands of young readers.

The new book takes up the Life of Mary Ware two months after the ending of the last story and carries her to Texas, where she spends the winter with her mother and Jack in San Antonio and the hill country. Of course she has many new and interesting experiences, and quite like her own friendly self makes many new friends in the South. Phil Tremont, Gay Melville and Alec Shelby appear in the story, and more or less mention is made of the loved characters of the earlier books.

LITTLE COLONEL DOLL BOOK

(Trade Mark)

Quarto, boards $1.50

All girls, from six to sixteen, are fond of paper dolls although perhaps some will not admit it. But all girls, from six to sixteen, are fond of the Little Colonel Series, and are glad to admit it. What more natural, then, than a series of "Little Colonel" dolls, — not only the Little Colonel herself, but Betty and Kitty and Mary Ware, yes, and Rob, Phil, and many another of the well-loved characters, — even Mom' Beck herself. There are many of them and each has several changes of costume, so that the happy group can be appropriately clad for the rehearsal of any scene or incident in the series. What fun for the happy child to have the characters before her as she reads, to arrange and rearrange them, dress and redress them, as the story requires!

The large, cumbersome sheets of most of the so-called doll "books" have been discarded, and instead each character, each costume, occupies a sheet by itself. The dolls and costumes are cut out only as they are wanted. — There is no confusion, there can be nothing lost — everything remains in the book until the child owner wishes a new character, or a new costume.

Two New Volumes in THE ROSES SERIES as follows:

SEVEN LITTLE WISE MEN

By FRANCES MARGARET FOX

Author of "Carlota," "Seven Christmas Candles," "Little Lady Marjorie," etc.

Square 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated in colors by E. B. Barry $1.00

In this new story Miss Fox relates how seven little children, who lived in Sunny California, prepared for the great Christmas Festival. How, after learning the story of the "Three Wise Men," they decided to play that they were "Seven Wise Men," and tried to emulate the example of the original Wise Men, by having faith like the Greek, be loving like the Hindoo, and doing good works like the Egyptian, and, lastly, by following their father's advice, to "never trail their hopes in the dust."

The many surprises they found on Christmas morning, and, best of all, the return of their father in time for the Christmas celebration, made the little folks' effort well worth while.

A LITTLE SHEPHERD OF PROVENCE

By EVALEEN STEIN

Author of "Gabriel and the Hour Book."

Square 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated in colors by Diantha Horne Marlowe $1.00

Little lame Jean, a goatherd of Provence, hears the wonderful legend of the "golden goat" who is supposed to guard a hidden treasure, so that when a stray goat, of a peculiar color, wanders into his little flock he is very much excited and plans to follow the goat and perhaps discover the legendary wealth. The goat proves to be quite different from what little Jean hoped and expected; but indirectly is the means of Jean's rapid rise to fame and fortune. It all happens many hundreds of years ago in the French-peasant country and the story charmingly relates many of the old-time customs, and the peasant customs and the French country are all described in a dainty and interesting way.

Of "GABRIEL AND THE HOUR BOOK," the author's previous volume in this series, the critics have written as follows:

"It is one of the most charmingly written and artistically told tales that I have read for years, with an exquisite feeling for color. The publishers are to be congratulated upon having brought out such a beautiful book." — Annie Fellows Johnston.

"A tender little masterpiece, told with great delicacy and charm." — Chicago Daily News.

FAMOUS SCOUTS

Including Trappers, Pioneers and Soldiers of the Frontier

By CHARLES H. L. JOHNSTON

Author of " Famous Cavalry Leaders," " Famous Indian Chiefs," etc.
One volume, large 12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated . . . $1.50

In this new volume for our " Famous Leaders Series," Mr. Johnston gives us historical facts and biographical sketches and interesting anecdotes of those heroes of early pioneer days who made names for themselves among the hardy adventurers who thronged the border. There are tales of Gen. Israel Putnam; the celebrated Daniel Boone; Kit Carson, the noted scout; Lewis and Clarke, the hardy explorers; the world-renowned Buffalo Bill, and of many other famous scouts, trappers and pioneers, the mere mention of whose names causes the boy's heart to flutter with excitement, all told in that enthusiastic, informal, yet authoritative manner which characterizes Mr. Johnston's writings. The accounts are not only authentic, but distinctly readable, making a book of wide appeal to all who love the history of actual adventure.

" More of such books should be written, books that acquaint young readers with historical personages in a pleasant informal way." — N. Y. Sun.

" Books to delight a boy's heart since they tell true tales of daring and are vouched for as historically accurate." — Detroit Free Press.

COMRADES OF THE TRAILS

By G. E. THEODORE ROBERTS

Author of " The Red Feathers," " Flying Plover," etc.

12mo, cloth decorative. Illustrated by Charles Livingston Bull $1.50

The story of a fearless young English lad, Dick Ramsey, who, after the death of his father, crosses the seas and takes up the life of a hunter and trapper in the Canadian forests. He has many interesting adventures and hair-breadth escapes as he tramps the woods with his Indian guide.

That Mr. Roberts knows the Canadian woods, and the wild life in them, as do few living writers has been shown by his previous work. As a stylist and as a descriptive writer he occupies an enviable position in literature; but above all he is known as an inimitable story teller, and his latest book has that dash and fervor, — that veritable riot of action, which is so appealing to boy readers.

A TEXAS BLUE BONNET

By EMILIA ELLIOTT

Author of " Joan's Jolly Vacation," " Joan of Juniper Inn," etc.

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated $1.50

This is the story of a warm-hearted, impulsive and breezy girl of the Southwest, who has lived all her life on a big ranch. She comes to the far East for a long visit, and her experiences " up North " are indeed delightful reading.

Coming as she does from the " big, open, free-hearted Southwest," Blue Bonnet finds it rather difficult to conform to the restraints of school discipline and to adapt herself easily to the conventionalities of Boston life; and more than once she is on the point of " chucking it all over." But, on the other hand, her new surroundings and the many friendships which her frank and generous nature win for her, make her stay in the East altogether delightful. Blue Bonnet is sure to win the hearts of all girl readers.

The contrasting types of the young American girl of the East and of the West are handled by the author in a way that is both interesting and convincing, and the plot is developed skilfully and with a keen sense of dramatic climax.

THE BOY WHO WON

By FANNIE E. OSTRANDER

Author of " Little White Indians."

12mo, cloth decorative, illustrated by R. Farrington Elwell . $1.25

A companion volume to " Little White Indians " continuing the adventures of the different " tribes," whose " doings " were so interestingly told in the earlier volume. The story deals mainly, however, with Rex Webster. The story opens with the close of a school competition which Rex wins over his cousin Clifford, and his victory turns Clifford against him. How Rex gains the confidence of Clifford's father, and finally wins Clifford's lasting friendship, makes an interesting story for both boys and girls.

" Little White Indians is a charming story, simply yet interestingly told, and all lovers of nature and the simple outdoor life should read it." — Boston Traveller.

" All boys and girls from six to ten should read ' Little White Indians,' for every child likes to play ' Indian.' A good book for children, for they will learn much of the wild life of the woods. It is cleverly told with much quiet humor." — Brooklyn Eagle.

" The book is written with brisk and deft cleverness." — New York Sun.

" An attractive story, with a healthy outdoor atmosphere." — New York Commercial Advertiser.

A New Volume in Our Famous Educational Series

The Little Cousin Series

(Trade Mark)

FRANCISCO, OUR LITTLE ARGENTINE COUSIN

By EVA CANNON BROOKS

Small 12mo, with six colored illustrations by John Goss . . $ .60

" This new little cousin will doubtless be welcomed on the school lists like many of the series, for, like the rest, it combines information most palatably with a story." — Louisville Times.

" The Little Cousin Series, covering the history of all nations, for the younger readers, is of absorbing interest, as each book delineates the traits and customs of the people in a way that holds the attention of the reader, whether young or old." — Grand Rapids Herald.

" This series of books fulfils a very definite and agreeable plan for informing children about their ' cousins ' in foreign lands." — Brooklyn Daily Times.

" The stories are written in a charmingly interesting style, well calculated to hold the attention of the youthful reader. They are especially adapted for supplementary reading in schools." — Journal of Education.

" The Little Cousin Series should be in every library for intelligent children." — Christian Advocate.

" It is a very clever idea to gather a great deal of information about child-life in various countries, and present it in the interesting form of stories of children. We hope the publishers will extend the series to embrace other of our little cousins, for certainly children everywhere will welcome such books." — The Living Church.

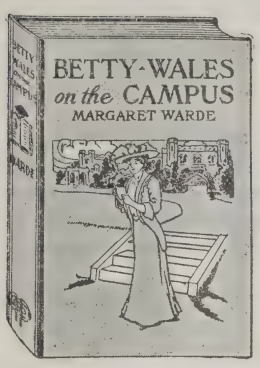
Keystone Series for Boys and Girls

For young people from 12 to 17 years



Of books for young people these are the best. They are readable; there's a story, a good one, in each of them, and any boy or girl must enjoy it. There is in each story something useful for young people. They are by the most popular writers, are well printed, cleverly illustrated, attractively bound—the best to look at, to read, to keep, to give away, to sell. There can be nothing better than these volumes for the private book shelf, the Public Library, or the school.

Stories for Girls

Cloth binding. Illustrated. Each, $1.25

The Betty Wales Books

BETTY WALES, FRESHMAN. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Betty and the rest of the girls get all the good and all the fun possible out of their freshman year at college. The graduate will wish she were back among them, and the one who is going to college will find herself eager to be with such as Betty and her friends.

BETTY WALES, SOPHOMORE. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Those who knew Betty Wales as a Freshman will follow her into her second year at college with keen pleasure. She and her friends are the same jolly, high-spirited creatures they were, and more lovable and interesting than ever.

BETTY WALES, JUNIOR. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Each year of college life is better and more interesting than the last. A feature of this volume is the formation of the "Merry Hearts" society, whose object is to promote cheerfulness among its members and outsiders. A trip to the Bahamas occurs at the holidays and gives rise to a number of delightful and surprising happenings.

BETTY WALES, SENIOR. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. This volume takes Betty and the other well known characters through what is perhaps the most interesting year of their college course. They are the same original, light hearted company of girls as before, and they make this year as full as possible of profit and pleasure.

BETTY WALES, B. A. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Betty and her college friends go abroad as no one ever did before. They find queer by-ways and unusual adventures everywhere, from a ghost in a Scotch castle to the taming of a railroad magnate. Seeing Europe through the eyes of these jolly girls is a delightful experience.

BETTY WALES & CO. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Full of whimsical college fun. Betty Wales' way of earning money is characteristic and original. She and her friends open a unique college tea shop, which becomes popular and prosperous. The book has all the charm of the previous volumes, besides a zest and sparkle of its own.

BETTY WALES ON THE CAMPUS. By Margaret Warde. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Betty Wales, now the secretary of the Students Aid Committee at Harding College, lives in Morton Hall, the new dormitory. The girls in the house and Betty Wales' sister supply interesting problems and she shares the jolly companionship of college friends. The bright and sober sides of college life are shown in brilliant contrast. One of the girls writes a successful play and two very queer ghosts enliven the story.

College Girls' Stories

A FRESHMAN CO-ED. By Alice Louise Lee. Illustrated by Paula B. Himmelsbach. Winifred Lowe is a Freshman in a coeducational college, and a member of Alpha Gamma sorority. She decides to give up both in order to make a place for a girl whose rich father can do great things for the college. But her friends discover and prevent the sacrifice. In Winifred's sweet, brave and loyal character is shown a fine type of the American college girl.

College Girls' Stories

EARNING HER WAY. By Mrs. Clarke Johnson. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A charming story of an ambitious girl who overcomes many obstacles that stand in the way of a college course. While many of her experiences are of a practical nature, some of her adventures are most exciting, and, surrounding the whole is an atmosphere of refinement and inspiration.

HER COLLEGE DAYS. By Mrs. Clarke Johnson. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A faithful picture of a girl's life at college, which has about it just enough incident, with a suggestion of romance, to make it a most charming and delightful story.

BEATRICE LEIGH AT COLLEGE. By Julia A. Schwartz. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. These charming chapters in the life of Beatrice and her friends will find an eager welcome from girls, especially those who are looking forward to a college career of their own in the near future.

Adventure Stories for Girls

A LITTLE PRINCESS OF TONOPAH. By Aileen Cleveland Higgins. Illustrated by Ada C. Williamson. Little Jean Kingsley goes to the western mining camp with her father, lives in a tent, finds a cave, and helps her father in the search for the fortune that comes at last. A book that will appeal almost as much to "grown-ups" as to children.

A LITTLE PRINCESS OF THE PINES. By Aileen Cleveland Higgins. Illustrated by Ada C. Williamson. The story of how Jean Kingsley, a Western girl, went with her father to Minnesota and lived in Wahcaska Win Lodge. She goes to school and makes many jolly girl friends, learns to use snowshoes, skees and a canoe, and enjoys to the full a Northwestern winter. Visits to the lumber camps and the great iron mines, a forest fire and an exciting yacht race are some of Jean's treasured experiences.

TWO WYOMING GIRLS. By Mrs. Carrie L. Marshall. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. Two girls, thrown upon their own resources, are obliged to "prove up" their homestead claim. They have many difficulties and some exciting adventures, but finally secure their claim.

THE GIRL RANCHERS. By Mrs. Carrie L. Marshall. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A story of life on a sheep ranch in Montana. The dangers and difficulties of such a life are vividly pictured, and the interest is enhanced by the fact that the ranch is managed almost entirely by two young girls.

LITTLE MISS EVANGELINE. By Evelyn Raymond. Illustrated by Emma Troth. This Evangeline, descendant of the old Acadians celebrated by Longfellow, lives in historic Grand Pré, Nova Scotia. "What I must I can," the sunny little heroine's motto, carries her through hard trials, saves a companion from drowning, and brings happiness to many others.

THE HEROINE OF ROSELAND. By Evelyn Raymond. Illustrated by Nina E. Allender. The heroine is a girl of strong character, of deep affections and a great reverence for truth. She is the central figure of a school-master's family in a busy mill village and her courage eventually saves the home.

THE WHIRLIGIG. By Evelyn Raymond. Illustrated by Ruth Rollins. The heroine is called "The Whirligig," because she is so apt to be blown about by her emotions. It is not until she goes to live with an old aunt and uncle and is thrown upon her own resources that she develops a steadier and stronger character.

A YANKEE GIRL IN OLD CALIFORNIA. By Evelyn Raymond. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A delightful story of ranch life in southern California. In addition to the many adventures in which the heroine figures, she is also the means of restoring the fortunes of the relatives with whom she makes her home.

A QUAKER MAIDEN. By Evelyn Raymond. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A young girl reared in all the simplicity of a Quaker family is suddenly transported to the home of a wealthy cousin. She is ridiculed at first, but her unfailing gentleness and sterling character win respect, and at a time of financial disaster she becomes the reliance of the entire family.

GLENLOCH GIRLS. By Grace M. Remick. Illustrated by Ada C. Williamson. Ruth Shirley, a girl of fourteen, goes to live with friends in Glenloch. The story of how she wins her way is charmingly told. The characters are high school boys and girls of good family, who take their fun and work in the happy and hearty way of American young people. A spirited and cheery book, to be followed by others with the same characters.

GLENLOCH GIRLS ABROAD. By Grace M. Remick. Illustrated by Ada C. Williamson. That a spirited American girl can have good times anywhere was proved by Ruth Shirley when she left Glenloch's jolly young people for a winter abroad. A sailing accident at Lucerne, an English college race, skating in Germany, jumping English hedges on horseback, and "punting" on the Thames were among Ruth's adventures, and the coming of some of her Glenloch friends made a happy ending to an unusual year.

DOROTHY DAY. By Julie M. Lippmann. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. The heroine is an exceptionally clever girl; generous, free, full of spirit, intensely fond of frolic, and a leader in her set. The things she does are worth reading about.

MISS WILDFIRE. By Julie M. Lippmann. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A fine portrayal of character development on the part of a young girl who is possessed of a wilful disposition, but who has sufficient strength to eventually overcome it.

AN ODD LITTLE LASS. By Jessie E. Wright. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. This is a story of a little street waif. She is exceptionally bright and winning, but her mischief-making tendencies lead her into difficulties, some of which threaten to be serious.

Historical Stories for Girls

PEGGY OWEN. By Lucy Foster Madison. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. The adventures of a patriotic Quaker maiden in Philadelphia during its occupation by the British. She lives across the street from the State House and the Liberty Bell. Washington, Franklin, Robert Morris, and Betsy Ross figure in the story, which gives a thrilling but accurate picture of the Revolutionary Capital.

PEGGY OWEN, PATRIOT. By Lucy Foster Madison. Illustrated by H. J. Peck. Peggy Owen is a Philadelphia girl whose father is in the American Army. She and her mother go to spend the winter with him at Washington's camp near Morristown, New Jersey. Through the treachery of her cousin Harriet, an English girl, Peggy is captured and taken to New York, and afterward to the South. Among other leaders she meets Sir Henry Clinton, Tarleton, Benedict Arnold, and General Gates.

A MAID OF SALEM TOWNE. By Lucy Foster Madison. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. Much interest centres about the year 1692, when the witchcraft delusion threatened to overwhelm the new country. The heroine is a victim of the superstition, and is accused of witchcraft, but the story ends happily. Sir Wm. Phipps, Lady Phipps, and the famous Cotton Mather are prominent in the story.

A DAUGHTER OF THE UNION. By Lucy Foster Madison. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. A thrilling story of the Civil War. A brave young girl is sent from New York to New Orleans as a bearer of important messages. Aided by Admiral Farragut she delivers these, but is finally captured and held at Vicksburg until its surrender to General Grant.

A COLONIAL MAID OF OLD VIRGINIA. By Lucy Foster Madison. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. The heroine, an adopted niece of a Tory planter of Virginia, evinces a strong love for the cause of the colonies. Her many deeds of heroism carry her to Philadelphia during its occupancy by the British, thence to Valley Forge, the Wyoming massacre, and finally to the surrender at Yorktown.

A LITTLE LADY AT THE FALL OF QUEBEC. By Annie M. Barnes. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. Mistress Anne Weldon, heir to an important English estate, is in Quebec when it is besieged by General Wolfe. She carries the information which enables England to gain the Plains of Abraham and the city. Wolfe, Montcalm, and other noted historical characters figure in the story, which has a stirring plot.

THE LITTLE LADY OF THE FORT. By Annie M. Barnes. Illustrated by Helene Wood. A story of the early French and Spanish settlers in the Carolinas. The heroine is the daughter of the French commandant, and is captured and held by the Spaniards. Her release is finally effected, but not until after she has endured many severe trials.

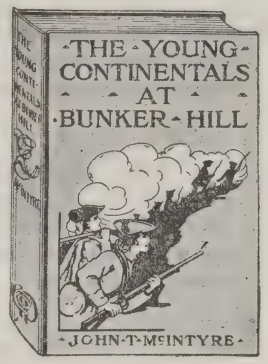
Historical Stories

The Young Continental Series



THE YOUNG CONTINENTALS AT LEXINGTON. By John T. McIntyre. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. This book begins a series that carries a group of American boys through some of the most interesting scenes of the Revolution. The hero discovers a Tory plot to seize General Washington, and is very useful to Warren and other American leaders. The action is in Philadelphia and Boston, and the climax of the story is at Lexington.

THE YOUNG CONTINENTALS AT BUNKER HILL. By John T. McIntyre. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. A spirited story of four young patriots, one of whom discovers a plot to raise the siege of Boston. In spite of the danger he ventures into the city and brings back valuable information to Ward, Putnam, Prescott, and other patriot leaders. The lads are in the battle of Bunker Hill, and help Knox to bring from Ticonderoga the big guns that Washington needed.

THE BOY TARS OF 1812. By John T. McIntyre. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. The hero of this story participated in the conflict between the "Constitution" and the "Guerriere" and rode with Jackson when he broke the pride of the British at New Orleans. The author presents vivid pictures of the two great battles.

WITH JOHN PAUL JONES. By John T. McIntyre. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. A young man is sent by the Continental Congress, with John Paul Jones, as a messenger to Paris to deliver an important document to Benjamin Franklin. The adventures include many mishaps by land and sea, and the hero takes part in several of Paul Jones' famous exploits, notably in the conflict between the "Serapis" and the "Bonhomme Richard."

FIGHTING KING GEORGE. By John T. McIntyre. Illustrated by J. A. Graeber. Even boys were sturdy patriots in '76. Tom Deering was one of "Marion's Men," those fleet and daring riders who so baffled Tarleton and Clinton in the Carolinas. Tom sees lots of fighting and has the good fortune to be at Yorktown when Cornwallis gives up his sword.

THE EVE OF WAR. By W. Bert Foster. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. A story of the days just before the Civil War, when every hour made history. The hero learns of the plan to assassinate Lincoln on the way to his inauguration, and is sent to warn the President elect. His mission is accomplished, and largely as a result of his services the plot comes to naught.

WITH ETHAN ALLEN AT TICONDEROGA. By W. Bert Foster. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. A vivid picture of the struggles of those heroic New Englanders, the Green Mountain Boys, against the Tory residents. Ethan Allen is the central figure of the narrative and in the thrilling incidents which lead up to the capture of Fort Ticonderoga.

WITH WASHINGTON AT VALLEY FORGE. By W. Bert Foster. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. The hero, an enthusiastic patriot, performs many heroic deeds at the battle of Brandywine and elsewhere. He renders great service to our forces at Valley Forge, and shares the hardships which the American army suffers during that memorable winter.

UNCROWNING A KING. By Edward S. Ellis, A. M. Illustrated by J. Steeple Davis. A tale of the Indian war waged by King Philip in 1675. A most absorbing and instructive story of the early days of the colonies.

AMONG THE FUR TRADERS. By James Otis. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. The story deals with the beginnings of commercial development in the region of the Great Lakes and the Mississippi Valley. The scenes are those of trading post, river, forest, camp, and open prairie. The boys surmount obstacles and brave difficulties and finally establish a trading company of their own.

AT THE SIEGE OF QUEBEC. By James Otis. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. A story of the American Revolution. A graphic portrayal of Benedict Arnold's forced march through the Maine wilderness to join Montgomery's attack upon Quebec.

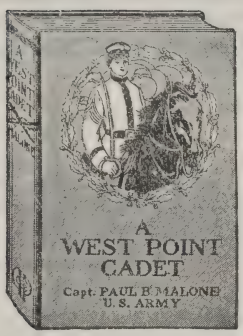
WITH PURITAN AND PEQUOT. By William Murray Graydon. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. There is a swing of martial spirit and a spice of bold enterprise in this stirring story of Colonial times that must appeal to every healthy mind. It is the hero's rare fortune to have for his friends Roger Williams and Captain Miles Standish.

IN THE DAYS OF WASHINGTON. By William Murray Graydon. Illustrated by J. C. Claghorn. A story of the American Revolution, opening at Valley Forge. The hero participates in the battle of Monmouth, is at the Wyoming Massacre, on several occasions renders distinguished service, and has the personal approval of General Washington.

IN THE CAMP OF THE CREEKS. By Louis Pendleton. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. A stirring tale of the last stand made by the Creek Indians in Georgia. Two young men and a girl fall into their hands, and finally succeed in making their escape. There is much valuable information about the Indians.

THE BOER BOY OF THE TRANSVAAL. By Kate Milner Rabb. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. While taking an active part in the late Boer war, the hero comes into contact with all the leading officials. Much information pertaining to this remote country is introduced, thus enabling the reader to understand the hatred of the Boers toward the British.

West Point Series



WINNING HIS WAY TO WEST POINT. By Capt. Paul B. Malone, U. S. Army. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. A thrilling story of a young recruit in the Philippines. The scenes are those of camp and jungle, skirmish and battle. As a result of his bravery and service the hero wins an appointment to West Point.

A PLEBE AT WEST POINT. By Captain Paul B. Malone, U. S. Army. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. Douglas Atwell won his cadetship by his bravery in the Philippines, and now appears in his first year at West Point. Captain Malone knows the cadet life at first hand, and has made of it a story that will stir the blood of every reader.

A WEST POINT YEARLING. By Capt. Paul B. Malone, U. S. Army. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. As President of the Yearling class, Cadet Corporal Douglas Atwell succeeds in breaking up hazing at the Military Academy. He again figures prominently in the army and navy foot-ball game, as well as in other phases of West Point life.

A WEST POINT CADET. By Captain Paul B. Malone, U. S. Army. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. In his last years at the famous Military Academy, Cadet Douglas Atwell again wins football honors and a relay race. He becomes a Cadet Captain, leads a superb cavalry charge, saves a child's life and graduates. The real spirit of West Point, that makes "officers and gentlemen," is in every page.

Annapolis Series

AN ANNAPOLIS PLEBE. By Lieutenant Commander E. L. Beach, U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. As a plebe at the United States Naval Academy, Robert Drake enters upon a life that is as new as it is stirring. The rigid discipline, the training and the customs of the Academy are all of much interest and are faithfully portrayed.

AN ANNAPOLIS YOUNGSTER. By Lieutenant Commander E. L. Beach, U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. Cadet Robert Drake's second year at Annapolis, including an exciting cruise on a battleship. The hero's strict sense of duty is misunderstood by his classmates, who "send him to Coventry." The interest of the book is in its unusual setting, humorous interludes, spirited incidents and enticing plot.

AN ANNAPOLIS SECOND CLASSMAN. By Lieutenant Commander E. L. Beach, U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. This is the third of Mr. Beach's faithful reproductions of life at the Naval Academy. His midshipmen sometimes break regulations for the sake of fun; but one cannot help liking the way they squarely accept consequences. Robert Drake discovers a plot against the United States government and helps to check it. The book is unusually full of spirited, vigorous incident.

AN ANNAPOLIS FIRST CLASSMAN. By Commander Edward L. Beach. Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill. Robert Drake, as a "three-striper," commands a Company of the Annapolis Midshipmen. He has notable honors at football, rescues a child from kidnappers and wins a flag for his Company in an exciting shooting competition with "six-pounders." Bob heroically resigns in order to save his best friend, but fortunately the sacrifice is proved unnecessary and he graduates with his class—a full-fledged officer of the United States Navy.

United States Midshipman Series

A UNITED STATES MIDSHIPMAN AFLOAT. By Lieutenant Commander Yates Stirling, Jr., U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. A picturesque, brilliant story of two recent Annapolis graduates, who become involved in a South American revolution, are imprisoned, help to defend an intrenchment and fight a cruiser. The story shows how our modern navy quietly does big things.

A UNITED STATES MIDSHIPMAN IN CHINA. By Lieutenant Commander Yates Stirling, Jr., U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. The second of Mr. Stirling's remarkable stories of life in the United States Navy. Two midshipmen on a gun-boat help to thwart an attack on an American mission. The incidents are drawn largely from personal observation of the Boxer Rebellion, and in spite of a very exciting plot, the book is in no way sensational.

A UNITED STATES MIDSHIPMAN IN THE PHILIPPINES. By Lieut. Com. Yates Stirling, Jr., U. S. Navy. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. Philip Perry, a recent Annapolis graduate, after active service in South America and China, commands a gun-boat in Philippine waters. He and his friend Sydney Monroe take part in some stirring fights with the "insurgents" on sea and land. The book gives an excellent picture of Philippine character and warfare.

College Athletic Stories

MAKING THE FRESHMAN TEAM. By T. Truxtun Hare. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. College athletics form the chief theme of the story, and there are consequently interesting descriptions of training, track meets, foot-ball games and other features, written by one whose name is well known in the athletic world.

A SOPHOMORE HALF-BACK. By T. Truxtun Hare. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. The second of the series by a well-known college athlete. Bob Walters, a sophomore, is prominent in athletics and all other interesting features of college life. An escapade he has with a friend causes heavy damage, but they earn the money, pay the bill, and learn a valuable lesson.

A JUNIOR IN THE LINE. By T. Truxtun Hare. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. Bob Walters is one of the finest types of Young America. In this, his Junior year at college, he succeeds in athletics, as elsewhere, by sheer force of the character and common sense he showed in two previous stories. There are stirring football games and field sports. The book touches nearly all sides of college life.

A SENIOR QUARTER-BACK. By T. Truxtun Hare. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. Bob Walters is Captain of the Varsity Team. He finds it necessary to discipline his friend Trelawney, a veteran player. The college sympathizes with Trelawney, who is very popular. But Bob proves he is right, and is forgiven when the team wins the great game of the year. An exceptionally vigorous, exciting story of football and college life.

School Athletic Series

ON THE SCHOOL TEAM. By John Prescott Earl. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. The first of an exceptional preparatory school series dealing with football, track athletics, sturdy character and wholesome boyish fun. This story tells how Bob Farrar and another football player had a serious misunderstanding, but how each won the other's respect, admiration and liking.

THE SCHOOL TEAM IN CAMP. By John Prescott Earl. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. As in an earlier volume of the same series, the characters in this jolly outdoor story are members of a football team camping with their friends in Maine. A canoe race with another camp and an unusual baseball game make two exciting chapters. This is one of the truest pictures of boy character ever drawn.

CAPTAIN OF THE SCHOOL TEAM. By John Prescott Earl. Illustrated by Ralph L. Boyer. Standham Academy has a high sense of honor, but it likes to win its football games. Bob Farrar, Captain of the School Team, refuses, on what he thinks good grounds, to protest a player on the rival Conway Team, who the Standham boys think is ineligible. In spite of popular clamor, Bob sticks to his guns, wins the great game and proves he is right. A manly story of the sort boys love best.

PENNSYLVANIA STORIES. By Dr. Arthur Hobson Quinn. Illustrated by F. F. Lincoln. A volume of attractive stories descriptive of under-graduate life at the University of Pennsylvania, and intensely interesting to every graduate of this institution as well as to all others interested in college affairs.

Adventure Stories

TRUE TO HIS TRUST. By Edward S. Ellis, A. M. Illustrated by J. Steeple Davis. The hero of this story is sure to win the sympathy and interest of every reader, and no person who follows his adventures and experiences can fail to be inspired by his true manliness and sturdy integrity.

AMONG THE ESQUIMAUX. By Edward S. Ellis, A. M. The exciting incidents of this narrative occur among the snows and icebergs of the arctic regions. Apart from the absorbing interest attached to the story there is woven into it much valuable information pertaining to this unexplored country.

THE CAMPERS OUT. By Edward S. Ellis, A. M. This story is bright, breezy, and full of adventure of just the right sort to hold the attention of any young mind. It is clean, pure, and elevating, and the stirring incidents convey a forcible lesson.

EXILED TO SIBERIA. By William Murray Graydon. Illustrated by F. A. Carter. Nearly all the action occurs in the mines and prisons of Siberia, and the interest is most intense. The plot is absorbing, the adventure exciting, the movement rapid, and the style unsurpassed.

A CAPE COD BOY. By Sophie Swett. Illustrated by P. L. Hoyt. A realistic story of the New England coast. The endeavors of a little Portuguese castaway to secure a living by means of a small schooner, of which he is the owner, are told in a most pleasing manner.

The Alger Books

THE YOUNG MUSICIAN. By Horatio Alger, Jr. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. The hero is left homeless and penniless by the death of his father. He is forced to make his own living and finds that a violin which has been but a pleasure may be made a source of income. He withstands temptations, conquers difficulties, and achieves success.

FINDING A FORTUNE. By Horatio Alger, Jr. Illustrated by W. S. Lukens. Most boys would consider themselves very lucky to find a box of bonds and bring to justice the rascals who had stolen them, even though at one time it looked as if they would escape. In the end, however, everything turns out well for the manly, upright boy, and he receives his just reward.

FORGING AHEAD. By Horatio Alger, Jr. Illustrated by W. S. Lukens. An earnest, energetic, and ambitious boy supports his widowed mother, and by persistent efforts against great odds succeeds in rising in the world. The story is one that will encourage any young reader to an effort to make the best of himself.

THE YOUNG BOATMAN. By Horatio Alger, Jr. A story of a manly boy whose fine character is brought in contact with a coarse, cruel one in the person of his stepfather. Perseverance and honesty always win, as is shown in this interesting tale.

THE ODDS AGAINST HIM. By Horatio Alger, Jr. The story is full of bright, amusing incidents, showing that a boy of good, industrious habits can always secure friends and succeed in earning an honest living.

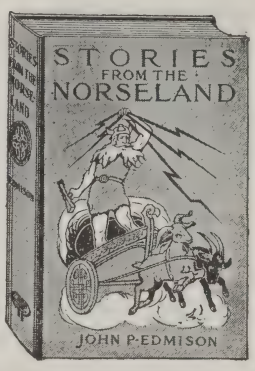
Classic Stories for Boys and Girls

Cloth binding. Illustrated. Each, $1.25

These stories, by Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M., recently Superintendent of Philadelphia Public Schools, and by John P. Edmison, are everywhere recognized as the best literature for either entertainment or education that can be put into the hands of young people.

While carefully retaining all the elements of romance and adventure, and omitting whatever might prove unwholesome, or divert the purpose of the story, the authors have to a surprising degree preserved the unity, completeness, and spirit of the original. These books give the youth of our day an intimate acquaintance with the heroic characters of mythology and folk lore.

STORIES FROM THE NORSELAND. By John P. Edmison. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith and A. R. Bowker. From the original Scandinavian sources, the author retells the old Norse legends in a fresh and vigorous style that will win them many admirers. The stories abound in the heroic feats, magic, dwarfs, and giants that stimulate the imagination of young people.



WONDER STORIES FROM THE MABINOGION. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrated by A. R. Bowker. These old Welsh folk-tales have all the charm of the King Arthur legends, which they closely resemble. They picture tournaments and dragons, imprisoned maidens and rescuing knights-errant, and all the other mystic brave adventure that children so delight in.

THE STORY OF SIEGFRIED. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrations from the German. Probably the most interesting of all the legends is the Nibelungenlied, or the Story of Siegfried. The author tells, in simple style, the wonderful story of Siegfried's life and death, and the events which finally rent asunder the kingdoms of the Burgundians and Huns.

THE STORY OF KING ARTHUR. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrations by Aubrey Beardsley. The principal events of King Arthur's reign and the conquests of the Knights of the Round Table are set forth in a charming and instructive way.

THE STORY OF TRISTRAM. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrated by Aubrey Beardsley. This interesting tale of the days of chivalry is the subject of frequent allusion by poets and romancers. The story possesses a peculiar fascination for those who delight in the deeds of knightly courtesy, courage, and valor.

THE STORY OF THE FAERIE QUEENE. Edited by Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. With numerous illustrations. The Faerie Queene is one of the greatest poems of English literature. The archaic style of Spenser is here converted into the purest of modern English prose, yet preserving the rich imagery and fertility of conception of the original.

THE STORY OF THE ILIAD. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrated by Flaxman's drawings. Homer's Iliad is said to be the world's greatest poem. The chief episodes of the tale of Helen and the dire results of her misdoing are here told in words admirable for their simplicity and directness.

THE STORY OF THE ODYSSEY. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrated by Flaxman's drawings. The wanderings of Ulysses are narrated in a charming way. It is not merely attractive and absorbing, but it is a classic with which all young people should be familiar.

THE STORY OF THE ÆNEID. By Dr. Edward Brooks, A. M. Illustrated by Pinelli's drawings. Virgil's classic poem was probably never before rendered into such choice and simple English. The story of the erratic journeyings of Æneas and his companions flows smoothly along with much of the spirit of the original.

Vacation Series of Juveniles

Cloth binding. Illustrated. Each, 60 cents

The best cheap line of new copyright juveniles in print. Nearly half the titles are for girls, and all are by popular authors. They are well printed on the highest grade of paper, and each contains seven full-page half-tone illustrations. Sunbeam Series for Young People

For children from 7 to 12 years
Cloth binding. Illustrated. Each, $1.00

A series of delightful books for children in which the characters are healthy, free-hearted boys and girls. Their experiences are often amusing, and their adventures are sometimes thrilling, but their lives are characterized by beautiful and childish simplicity, sweetness of disposition, and at times by a moral heroism.

GRANDPA'S LITTLE GIRLS. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. When their parents go to California, the two little girls are sent to Grandfather Newman at Pine Tree Farm. This story tells most amusingly how the old people and the young people plotted to remain together, and how secretly Miss Abitha brought it all about just as they had wished.

GRANDPA'S LITTLE GIRLS AT SCHOOL. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. The second book about the two little Newman girls. This story tells how they ran away to escape going to school. But they finally went, played basketball, joined societies, enjoyed picnics and plays, made new friends and wouldn't have missed it for anything.

GRANDPA'S LITTLE GIRLS AND THEIR FRIENDS. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. This is the third book about the Newmans, who are again shown as pupils of Miss Wilson's school. Constance finds that the best way to be a leader is to be of service to others. The experiences of the two sisters and their friends are charmingly told, and the book has many pleasant surprises.

GRANDPA'S LITTLE GIRLS' HOUSEBOAT PARTY. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. It is the jolliest kind of a party, with the two Newman girls, several school friends, Jimmy Woodyear and his sister, and Grandpa Newman and Miss Abitha Bean to look after them all and plan the good times. They camp out, go fishing and swimming, "play Indians," fall overboard, and survive many other exciting adventures, and everyone declares it the best time anybody ever had.

THE LITTLE RUNAWAYS. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Ruth Rollins. A simple, quiet story of the life of real children. Two orphans run away from an asylum, and find friends and a home through their childish faith that all the world is waiting to be kind to them. The story is full of both pathetic and happy touches that are unmistakably genuine.

MARJORIE'S WAY. By Alice Turner Curtis. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. Marjorie had two aims—to be like her Aunt, and to help Luke Sanders, who was worth it. Luke turned out well and Marjorie did become like her Aunt in a surprising way. There are some real people in the book, and this bit of their lives makes a wholesome and charming story.

THE BOYNTON PLUCK. By Helen Ward Banks. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. Bob and Billy, sent away for the summer, by mistake get into the hands of a mean old screw of a farmer, who overworks them and half starves them. It takes real pluck to stand it without whimpering, but they pull through it, and are all the better in the end for their experience.

MISTRESS MOPPET. By Annie M. Barnes. Illustrated by Margaret F. Winner. The charming little heroine of this story lived two hundred years ago in Charles Town, South Carolina. The adventures of this little maid of Colonial times, by land and sea, make a very pleasing and wholesome story.

FELICIA. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Josephine Bruce. The good folks at Blackberry Hill expect the new minister's daughter to be grown up. She is only a bright, happy, girl of thirteen. But she manages creditably the minister's home, and makes the congregation and community glad that she is—just Felicia.

FELICIA'S FRIENDS. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Josephine Bruce. This book, the second of its series, is an unusual record of child life in a country town. Felicia, the minister's daughter, and her friend Winifred are as winsome little girls as any one would care to know. While having good times themselves, they manage to bring them to a good many other people. A very happy, simple, humorous story.

FELICIA VISITS. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Mary L. Price. Felicia Lane is disappointed because she cannot go with Winifred Harlow for a visit to the city. But she visits one after another her best friends in Blackberry Hill and is astonished to find how quickly the time goes. Pedro, a dog that does tricks, comes to her in a wonderful way. Felicia has a plan for a public library at Blackberry Hill and everybody helps her, for everybody loves Felicia.

THE ADMIRAL'S GRANDDAUGHTER. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. Nancy Beaumont is a sweet tempered, warm hearted little girl whose love for her stern old grandfather, her devoted "mammy," and her beautiful mare Jessie fills many happy days.

THE ADMIRAL'S LITTLE HOUSEKEEPER. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Wuanita Smith. As winsome a little maiden as ever lived is little Nancy Beaumont, who takes care of her grandfather, the Admiral, while old Aunt Sylvia, her colored "mammy," takes care of Nancy. The old house rings with merriment when Nancy's friend Marguerite Compton and her four brothers come to spend Christmas. It is a house with a secret passage, and it shelters a mystery that turns out very happily for Nancy.

A ROSE OF HOLLY COURT. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. Little Rosie, a great favorite at a "college settlement," suddenly finds herself bread winner for a large family. She surmounts every obstacle, and works with a cheerfulness that wins the admiration of everyone.

LITTLE POLLY PRENTISS. By Elizabeth Lincoln Gould. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A pleasing story of the happy influence of a little girl upon elderly people, showing the harm which may be done by trying to bind a bright, cheerful, young nature to a faulty ideal. It is charming in style and intensely interesting.

UNCLE TOM, THE BURGLAR. By Mabel E. Wotton. Illustrated by Ida Waugh and H. M. Brock. A story of six happy children whose irrepressible fondness for doing things quite unconventional leads them into many perplexing situations.

DEARIE, DOT, AND THE DOG. By Julie M. Lippmann. Illustrated by Margaret F. Winner. When her mother sails for Europe Dot is left in the care of an aunt, whom she calls Dearie. A small white dog soon becomes her inseparable companion. The three have many happy days and some trying ones, and their experiences make a delightful and charming story.

SWEET P'S. By Julie M. Lippmann. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. Priscilla, who has all the gifts wealth can bestow, takes no interest in her playthings. Polly, a little girl of her own age, comes to share her home. The intense interest of the latter is contagious, and soon Priscilla becomes cheerful, healthy, and happy.

DREAMLAND. By Julie M. Lippmann. Illustrated by Anna Whelan Betts. The stories, which are graphically and beautifully told, have about them all the charm of fairy tales, and each embodies some healthful lesson that will be firmly impressed upon the child's mind.

ANDY. By Lucile Lovell. Illustrated by Eva M. Nagel. There is something about the downright fearless and trusting little Andy that no one can resist. How he wins people to him and how he learns to be just the right sort of a boy is told with a delicate pathos and rare humor. Altogether it is a very unusual story of a very unusual boy.

THE WALCOTT TWINS. By Lucile Lovell. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A boy and his twin sister indulge themselves in the amusement of exchanging their dress. They are sent off to the country, the girl by mistake going to the house of a bachelor uncle and the boy to that of a maiden aunt, and many excruciatingly funny experiences result.

THE GREEN DOOR. By Margaret Compton. Illustrated by John H. Betts. A natural and simple narrative of the experiences of a number of school-boys whose favorite place of meeting is at a house distinguished by a large green door outside of which they conceive many interesting adventures.

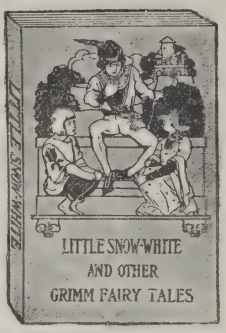
BOCKERS. By Margaret Compton. Illustrated by John H. Betts. Two bright boys and a yellow dog are the chief characters in this amusing and highly original tale. The many pranks and escapades of the boys, in school and out, constitute a thoroughly natural and wholesome story.

HIS LORDSHIP'S PUPPY. By Theodora C. Elmslie. Illustrated by Ida Waugh. A story of a little boy and his dog. Missing his mother one day the little child thinks she has gone to heaven, and he and his pet start out in search of her. A wonderfully interesting and touching story.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN. By Harriet Beecher Stowe. Adapted for younger children by Helen Ring Robinson. Profusely illustrated. Cover design by W. M. Rhoads, represents the cabin, in colors, with doorway cut out, showing Eva and Uncle Tom. The pleasant parts of the story are emphasized, and the book is handsomely made, with wide margins and large type.

Children's Classics

Covers in color and fully illustrated
Paper binding, each, 10 cents; flexible linen, 15 cents



A most attractive series of books for young children, embracing classical literature of all times. The text is in simple prose, so clear and easy to read that any child can readily understand the stories. There is an appropriate picture for every page. The books are stamped with an attractive cover design and each volume is bound in a different color. Altogether this is the most effective and inexpensive line of children's books ever offered.

The Family Books

Cloth, each, $1.00 net.

These books furnish a complete home-maker's library. They are invaluable household counsellors and friends. Each is prepared by an expert, and covers thoroughly its own field. All are helpful, scientific, readable and thoroughly modern. They will be found useful by any one who takes a pride in making a healthful, beautiful and well organized home.

THE FAMILY HEALTH. By M. Solis-Cohen, M. D. The book tells in the simplest way how to build up the natural forces which keep the family well and combat disease. Among the subjects fully treated are ventilation, heating, lighting, drainage, disposal of refuse, bathing, clothing, food, drink, exercise, dress and care of the body and mind, and emergencies. With this book the family will always know what to do before the doctor arrives.

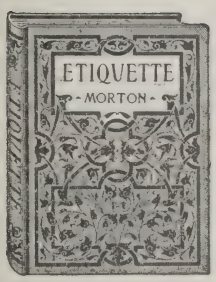
HOME DECORATION. By Dorothy T. Priestman. Illustrated by Mildred M. Smith. This book tells how to keep in touch with the artistic development that is transforming American life. It deals fully and practically with the treatment of walls, furniture, floor covering, hangings, ornaments and pictures. It gives color schemes, tells how to arrange a door or a window; how to make the most of small space; how to do stencilling; how to make rugs, etc. It fairly bristles with good advice and new suggestions.

THE CARE OF THE CHILD. By Mrs. Burton K. Chance. Illustrated by Mildred M. Smith. This is one of the few books that deal with the mental and moral as well as the physical aspect of the growing child. Exact directions are given about diet, clothing, bathing, sleep, and all the needs of the child both in health and sickness. There are helpful chapters on obedience, imagination, personality, truth telling, play, and education.

THE FAMILY HOUSE. By F. C. Osborne, Architect. Fully illustrated. A helpful book for anyone who intends to "set up housekeeping." It tells what to look for in the location of a house, price or amount of rent, exposure, plumbing, fixtures, lighting, ventilation, water, how to tell whether a house is well built, dry and warm, what is the best plan and how to get comfort and artistic effects in furnishing. Whether one is renting, buying or building this concise but comprehensive book will save annoyance, time and money.

Popular Hand-Books

Cloth, each, 50 cents



Some books are designed for entertainment, others for information. This series combines both features. The information is not only complete and reliable, it is compact and readable. These are the latest as well as the best books on the subjects of which they treat. No one wishing to have a fund of general information, or who is inspired with the spirit of self-improvement, can afford to be without them. They average 200 pages, are 6 x 4½ inches in size, well printed on good paper, handsomely bound in green cloth, with a heavy paper wrapper to match.

ETIQUETTE. By Agnes H. Morton. Success in life is often marred by bad manners. A perusal of this work will prevent such blunders. It is a book for everybody, for the select sets as well as for the less ambitious. The subject is presented in a bright and interesting manner and represents the latest vogue.

LETTER WRITING. By Agnes H. Morton. Most persons dislike letter writing because they fear they cannot say just the right thing. This admirable book not only shows by numerous examples just what kind of letters to write for all occasions, but it teaches the reader to become an accomplished original letter writer.

BUSINESS LETTERS. By Calvin O. Althouse. Business letters should be business getters. An expert here shows by numerous complete examples from real business how to write business letters effectively. There are letters of information, application, introduction, recommendation, letters to order goods, sell goods, collection letters, and indeed every letter a business man needs. The book includes also a full list of business forms.

QUOTATIONS. By Agnes H. Morton. A clever compilation of pithy quotations, selected from a great variety of sources, and alphabetically arranged according to the sentiment. It contains the popular quotations in current use, together with many rare bits of prose and verse not usually found.

SHAKESPEAREAN QUOTATIONS. By C. S. Rex. On every human experience and emotion the great poet shed the light of his genius. Here are more than one thousand subjects, arranged alphabetically, and under each is given from one to twenty apt quotations. It is Shakespeare condensed, in a form for practical and universal use.

EPITAPHS. By Frederic W. Unger. Even death has its humorous side. There are said to be "sermons in stones," but when they are tombstones there is many a smile mixed with the moral. This volume is full of quaint pieces of obituary fancy, with a touch of the gruesome here and there for a relish. It is the most carefully made collection of the kind.

PROVERBS. By John H. Bechtel. The genius, wit, and spirit of a nation are discovered in its proverbs, and the condensed wisdom of all ages and all nations is embodied in them. This volume contains a representative collection of proverbs, old and new, and the indexes, topical and alphabetical, enable one to find readily just what he requires.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING. By John H. Bechtel. It is an easy task to fill a book with a mass of uninteresting statistical matter. It is quite another thing to get together a vast accumulation of valuable material on all conceivable subjects. Here is information for everybody, whether it pertains to health, household, business, affairs of state, foreign countries, or the planets, all conveniently indexed.

A DICTIONARY OF MYTHOLOGY. By John H. Bechtel. The average person dislikes to look up mythological subjects on account of the time occupied. This book remedies that difficulty because in it can be found at a glance just what is wanted. It is comprehensive, convenient, condensed, and interesting.

SLIPS OF SPEECH. By John H. Bechtel. Who does not make them? The best of us do. Why not avoid them? Any one with the desire for self-improvement can. No necessity for studying rules of rhetoric or grammar, when this book can be had. It teaches both without the study of either.

PRONUNCIATION. By John H. Bechtel. What is more disagreeable than a faulty pronunciation? No defect so clearly shows a lack of culture. This book contains over 5000 words on which most of us are apt to trip. They are here pronounced in the clearest and simplest manner, and according to the best authority.

PRACTICAL SYNONYMS. By John H. Bechtel. Any one with the least desire to add to his vocabulary should have a copy of this book. It is designed mainly to meet the wants of the busy merchant or lawyer, the thoughtful clergyman or teacher, the wide-awake school boy or girl.

READY MADE SPEECHES. By George Hapgood, Esq. Pretty much everybody is now and again called upon "to say a few words in public." This is a book of carefully planned model speeches to aid those who, without some slight help, must remain silent.

AFTER-DINNER STORIES. By John Harrison. The dinner itself may be ever so good and yet prove a failure if there is no mirth to enliven the company. Nothing adds so much zest to an occasion of this kind as a good story well told. Here are hundreds of them, short and pithy, and easy to remember.

TOASTS. By William Pittenger. What would you not give for the ability to respond to them? No need to give much when you can learn the art from this little book. It will tell you how to do it: not only that, but by example, it will show you the way.

THE DEBATER'S TREASURY. By William Pittenger. There is no greater ability than the power of skillful debate. Here are directions for organizing debating societies, and suggestions for all who desire to discuss questions in public. Also a list of over 200 questions for debate, with arguments both affirmative and negative.

PUNCTUATION. By Paul Allardyce. Few persons can punctuate properly; to avoid mistakes many do not punctuate at all. A perusal of this book will remove all difficulties and make all points clear. It is practical, concise, and comprehensive.

ORATORY. By Henry Ward Beecher. Our country has produced few, if any, greater orators than Mr. Beecher. This volume contains a famous address of his in which he gives a unique and masterly exposition of the fundamental principles of true oratory.

CONVERSATION. By J. P. Mahaffy. Some people are accused of talking too much. But no one is ever taken to task for talking too well. Of all the accomplishments of modern society, that of being an agreeable conversationalist holds first place. What to say, just how and when to say it, is the general aim of this work.

STORIES WORTH TELLING. By Herbert Leonard Coggins. Illustrated by Claire Victor Dwiggins. Here is the cream of all the funny stories, and not an objectionable one among them. They are all the kind that tickle when you taste, and explode when you take them in. The book is as funny as human nature, which is saying a good deal, but not too much. The whimsical conceits in Mr. Dwiggins' one hundred pictures add to the fun of the book.

READING AS A FINE ART. By Ernest Legouvé. The ability to read aloud well, whether at the fireside or on the public platform, is certainly a fine art. The directions and suggestions contained in this work will go far toward the attainment of this delightful and valuable accomplishment.

SOCIALISM. By Charles H. Olin. Socialism is "in the air." But few persons except the socialists themselves have more than a dim comprehension of what it really means. This book gives in a clear and interesting manner a complete idea of the economic doctrines taught by the best socialists.

JOURNALISM. By Charles H. Olin. What is news, how is it obtained, how handled, and how can one become a journalist? These questions are all answered in this book, and detailed instructions are given for obtaining a position and writing up all kinds of "assignments." It shows what to avoid and what to cultivate and contains chapters on book reviewing, dramatic criticism and proofreading.

VENTRILOQUISM. By Charles H. Olin Although always a delightful form of entertainment, ventriloquism is to most of us more or less of a mystery. It need be so no longer. This book exposes the secrets of the art completely and shows how almost anyone may learn to "throw the voice" both near and far. Directions for the construction of automatons are given, as well as good dialogue for their successful operation. Fully illustrated.

CONUNDRUMS. By Dean Rivers. Conundrums are intellectual exercises which sharpen our wits and lead us to think quickly. They are also a source of infinite amusement and pleasure to an evening company. This book contains an excellent collection of over a thousand of the latest, brightest, and most up-to-date conundrums, to which are added many Biblical, poetical, and French conundrums.

MAGIC. By Ellis Stanyon. This complete volume contains full and intelligible descriptions of all the well known tricks with coins, handkerchiefs, hats, cards, flowers, etc., together with a number of novelties not previously produced. The tricks are all easily performed, and but few require apparatus. Illustrated.

HYPNOTISM. By Edward H. Eldridge, A. M. There is no more popular form of entertainment than hypnotic exhibitions, and everyone would like to know how to hypnotize. By following the simple and concise instructions in this complete manual anyone can, with a little practice, readily learn how to exercise this unique and strange power.

BRIDGE, AND HOW TO PLAY IT. By Boston. There's no longer any mystery about Bridge. An expert here explains how to plan a game and win it, with every principle and play fully illustrated. A feature is the "Illustrative Deals," showing every hand and every card played, with reasons. The book gives also the complete Laws of Bridge.

WHIST. By Cavendish. Twenty-third edition. "According to Cavendish" is now almost as familiar an expression as "according to Hoyle." No Whist player, whether a novice or an expert, can afford to be without the aid and support of Cavendish.

SOLITAIRE AND PATIENCE. By George Hapgood, Esq. With the aid of this book and two decks of cards anyone, anywhere, can make a lonely hour pass quickly. Of the fifty games many afford infinite opportunity for observation and judgment. Among them are Demon, Babette, Rainbow, Miss Milligan, Squaring the Circle, Matrimonial Confusion, and many other old favorites.

PARLOR GAMES. By Helen E. Hollister. "What shall we do to amuse ourselves and our friends?" is a question frequently propounded. This complete volume most happily answers this puzzling question, as it contains an excellent collection of all kinds of games for amusement, entertainment, and instruction.

ASTRONOMY: THE SUN AND HIS FAMILY. By Julia MacNair Wright. Can you tell what causes day and night, seasons and years, tides and eclipses? Why is the sky blue and Mars red? What are meteors and shooting stars? These, and a thousand other questions, are here answered in a most fascinating way. Illustrated.

BOTANY: THE STORY OF PLANT LIFE. By Julia MacNair Wright. The scientific subject of Botany is here made as interesting as a fairy tale. Not only is the subject treated with botanical accuracy, but there is given much practical information pertaining to the care and treatment of plants and flowers. Illustrated.

FLOWERS: HOW TO GROW THEM. By Eben E. Rexford. Every woman loves flowers, but few succeed in growing them. With the help so clearly given in this volume no one need fail. It treats mainly of indoor plants and flowers, those for window gardening, all about their selection, care, light, air, warmth, etc.

DANCING. By Marguerite Wilson. A complete instructor beginning with the first positions and leading up to the square and round dances. A full list of calls for square dances, the etiquette of the dances, and 100 figures for the german. Illustrated.

FORTUNE TELLING. By Madame Xanto. "What's going to happen?" All the approved ways of piercing the future, by cards, dominoes, dice, palmistry, tea or coffee grounds, or astrology, are given here in convincing form. There are interesting chapters on birth stones, language of flowers and love charms, together with Napoleon's Oraculum.

ASTROLOGY. By M. M. Macgregor. If you wish to know in what business or profession you will succeed, what friends you should make, whom you should marry, the kind of a business partner to choose, you will find these and many other vital questions solved in this book by the science of astrology.

DREAM BOOK. By Madame Xanto. There is "something in dreams." This book presents the old traditions proved by time and the experience of famous Oriental, Celtic and early English observers. It includes also the Xanto Oracle, which answers questions everybody is asking.

PHRENOLOGY. By Charles H. Olin. Tells how to examine the head and learn how its shape influences character. With a little study of this fascinating science you can analyze your friend's character, provide unlimited amusement, give useful advice and find a way to success for yourself and others.

PHYSIOGNOMY. By Leila Lomax. How can we judge whether a man may be trusted? How can a woman analyze a man who would marry her? Mostly by his looks—the shape of the head, the set of the jaw, the line of the mouth. Physiognomy as explained in this book shows how to read character, with every point explained by illustrations and photographs.

GRAPHOLOGY. How to read character from handwriting. By Clifford Howard. Do you know that every time you write five or six lines you furnish a complete record of your character? Anyone who understands graphology can tell by simply examining your handwriting just what kind of person you are. This book will enable you to become a master of this most fascinating art.

CURIOUS FACTS. By Clifford Howard. Why do you raise your hat to a lady? Why do you always offer the right hand? Is there a good reason for the buttons on the sleeve of your coat? Is it true that it takes nine tailors to make a man, and if so, why? These questions find answers here. Open it at any page and you will see something you have wanted to know all your life

PRACTICAL PALMISTRY. By Henry Frith. Palmistry is one of the most popular subjects of the day. Many people would be interested in it if they properly understood it. This volume furnishes full and trustworthy information on the subject, and by means of it any one will be able to read character fully and accurately. Illustrated.

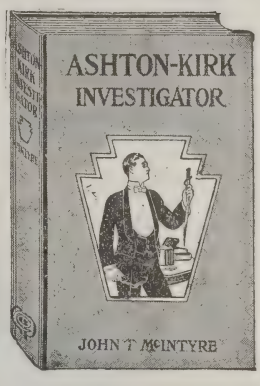
A practical book of inestimable value to everyone. Illustrated.

Ashton-Kirk, Investigator

A Mystery Story. By John T. McIntyre. Price, $1.20 net

Illustrated in colors by Ralph L. Boyer

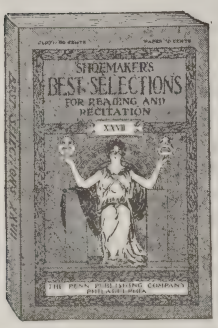


Ashton-Kirk, who has solved many mysteries, although young, wealthy, and of high social position, is nevertheless an indefatigable worker in his chosen field. Those who have found their way to Ashton-Kirk's door have been of many races and interests. Men of science have often been surprised to find him in touch with the latest discoveries; scholars searching among strange tongues and dialects, and others deep in tattered scrolls, ancient tablets and forgotten books have been his frequent visitors. But among them come many who seek his help in solving problems in crime.

This book, the first of a series dealing with Ashton-Kirk's fascinating personality, is handsomely bound in red cloth, with pasted label, and has a jacket in two colors that provokes curiosity.

ASHTON-KIRK, INVESTIGATOR. Into the woof of a charming love story is woven a puzzle that taxes the imagination of the most adept reader, alternately titillating and baffling his curiosity. Appealed to by a beautiful girl to save the man she loves, the investigator sets about what looks like an impossible task. But through an ingeniously entangled web of criminality he works his way with the smoothness and precision of fate; and in the end lays his hand upon the man guilty of the bizarre murder of David Hume.

Speakers and Dialogues



This line of Speakers and Dialogues has long been recognized as one of the leading lines of the kind. Now that the celebrated "100 Choice Selections" have been added to the list it becomes unquestionably the best line extant. Provision has been made for every age and occasion where an entertainment or exhibition is to be given. A number of the books are graded according to the ages of the children, and others are composed entirely of material especially prepared for a particular kind of entertainment. These books are all of the best mechanical execution, and in addition have exceptionally attractive and appropriate cover designs.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SELECTIONS. For Readings and Recitations. By John H. Bechtel. An excellent collection of 150 pieces of unusual merit, suited to Sunday-school Concerts, Christian Endeavor Societies, Young Men's Christian Associations, Anniversary Occasions, etc.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENTS. Composed of originally prepared responsive exercises, dramatized Bible stories, dialogues, recitations, etc., adapted to all kinds of anniversary celebrations or other public exercises connected with Sunday-school work.

MONEY MAKING ENTERTAINMENTS. By Misses Rook and Goodfellow. There is no better way to raise money for church, school, or benevolent purposes than by means of entertainments. This unique volume contains a great abundance of new and original material especially prepared for just such occasions.

TABLEAUX, CHARADES AND PANTOMIMES. The features contained in this attractive volume are adapted alike to Parlor Entertainments, School and Church Exhibitions, or for use on the Amateur Stage. Much of the material was specially written, and all is eminently adapted to the purpose.

SCHOOL AND PARLOR COMEDIES. By B. L. C. Griffith. The plays differ widely in character, thus affording an unusual variety. The scenery required is in no instance difficult, the situations are always ingenious, and the plots are such as to hold the attention of an audience from the beginning to the end.

MONOLOGUES AND NOVELTIES. By B. L. C. Griffith. This unique volume contains a dozen or more Monologues, a Shadow Pantomime, a Recitation with Lesson Help, a Play, and numerous other features, in all of which are embodied many new and original ideas.

SKETCHES, SKITS, AND STUNTS. By John T. McIntyre. Good vaudeville material, amateur or professional, is hard to get. This book contains an abundance of the best for both classes, all written to order by one who knows how to do it well. There are jokes, monologues, dialogues, stories, songs, sketches, parodies, and short farces.

HOW TO BECOME A PUBLIC SPEAKER. By William Pittenger. This work shows in a simple and concise way how any person of ordinary perseverance and average intelligence may become a ready and effective public speaker.

THE AMERICAN SYSTEM OF SHORTHAND.

CATALOG OF

Phonographic Works

BY
BENN PITMAN AND JEROME B. HOWARD.

PUBLISHT BY THE PHONOGRAPHIC INSTITUTE COMPANY,
CINCINNATI, O.

The Standard System in American Shorthand Practise.

In March, 1907, a complete census was made of the shorthand clerks in the offices of the United States Government at Washington. These reports, duly signed by the chief clerks of the several departments of the United States Government, show that out of a total of 1579 shorthand clerks employed in the departmental offices 796 are writers of the Benn Pitman system. The proportionate use of other systems is shown as follows:

Graham, 242 writers, 15.3 %.

Munson, 86 writers, 5.4 %.

Isaac Pitman, 67 writers, 4.2 %.

Gregg, 66 writers, 4.1 %.

Cross, 45 writers, 2.8 %.

Barnes, 25 writers, 1.5 %.

Pernin, 25 writers, 1.5%.

All others (totaling 14.8 %), less than 1 % each.

A table showing the complete details of this census will be sent on request to any address.

Instruction Books.

The Phonographic Amanuensis. A presentation of Pitman Phonography, More Especially Adapted to the Use of Business and other Schools Devoted to the Instruction and Training of Shorthand Amanuenses. By JEROME B. HOWARD. With a Prefatory Note by BENN PITMAN. In this book position-writing and the principles of abbreviation are taught concurrently with the elements of the system. It consists of fifty-nine carefully-graded lessons, each designed to constitute the work of a single school-day. Outlines of words are given in the first lesson; sentences are given in the eighth lesson; phrases appear in the fifteenth lesson; business letters are written in the twenty-second and subsequent lessons. Cloth. $1 00

The Amanuensis is also issued in a special "correspondence edition" for the use of teachers who give instruction by mail. This edition is identical with the regular edition, except in the matter of physical make-up. Each lesson is printed as a separate part, and the parts are placed in a convenient box, from which the teacher can remove any desired part without disturbing the others. The price of the correspondence edition is the same as that of the regular edition. In ordering, always mention expressly the "correspondence edition."

The Phonographic Institute Loose-leaf Tablet. This tablet possesses the following advantages, which make it the most convenient and most economical shorthand note-book for the use of shorthand writers :

1. It lies open on the table perfectly flat, there being no fold in the paper. 2. The paper is held in the cover by metal arches, strong and permanent in construction—superior to rubber elastic bands, which quickly decay, and to tapes, which are inconvenient both in turning the page and in removing a portion of the sheets. 3. The sheets can be removed and replaced quickly and easily. Any one or more sheets may be removed without disturbing the rest. 4. The page can be turned with perfect ease and convenience, as the polisht metal arches create no friction. 5. The triple perforated sheets may be readily bound with tapes when removed from the tablet. In this way the notes of any single piece of work may be permanently preserved intact. 6. When notes are transcribed the tablet may be doubled back on itself and inserted in any kind of copy-holder, just as any other note-book, or it may be used itself as a copy-holder by standing it upright. 7. Perforated paper for refilling may be bought in any quantity, ruled with single or double lines, and suitable for use with pen or pencil. 8. The tablet is strongly made and will last for years.

N. B.—This tablet is especially adapted to the use of schools of shorthand. For this purpose it is provided with four guide-cards that separate the sheets into four divisions—Copying Exercises, Writing Exercises, Dictation Exercises, and Corrections. By the use of the tablet the student has his work in one compact cover and the guide-cards enable him to turn instantly to any of its divisions. When the student has finisht his school course the guide-cards may be removed and the tablet is ready for his regular daily use as a professional shorthand writer.

Pitman's Phonography adapted to Esperanto. Limp cloth. 50c.

SHORTHAND READING BOOKS.

The student, to increase his speed, and to improve his knowledge of Phonography, cannot read too much well-engraved shorthand. One advantage of studying the Isaac Pitman system—an one which cannot well be over-estimated—is, that the shorthand literature in that system is far in excess of all other systems comcombined.

> "We would emphasise still further the wealth of literature the Isaac Pitman system has. . . . These publishers are continually issuing new works in shorthand, and this in itself should make their system a great force in the shorthand world."—Penman's Art Journal (New York).

TYPEWRITING.

Practical Course in Touch Typewriting. By Chas. E. Smith, Author of "Cumulative Speller." Eighth Edition, revised and enlarged. 50c.; cloth, 75c. A Scientific Method of Mastering the Keyboard by the Sense of Touch. The design of this work is to teach touch typewriting in such a way that the student will operate by touch—will have an absolute command of every key on the keyboard, and be able to strike any key more readily without looking than would be the case with the aid of sight. A separate Chart containing Keyboard and Diagrams printed in five colours, on a heavy double-calendered cardboard accompanies each copy. Contains specimens of actual Business Letters, Legal Forms, Specifications, Instructions for the Use of the Tabulator, etc., all printed in actual typewriter type. In ordering state whether Single or Double Keyboard or Oliver Edition is desired. Adopted by the New York Board of Education.

> "I am pleased to state that I consider 'A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting' the only text-book from which I studied, the best Typewriting instruction book that I have seen. The exercises are excellent, and have helped me wonderfully in working up speed. The whole course is very interesting from the beginning, and it cannot but produce the best results in the shortest time."—Rose L. Fritz, World's Champion Typist.

Isaac Pitman's Typewriter Manual. $1.00. Fifth edition, revised and enlarged. A Practical Guide to Commercial, Literary, Legal, Dramatic, and all classes of Typewriting work. Contains 58 plates. All-finger or Touch Typewriting method.

Remington Typewriter Manual. 40c.; cloth, 50c.

Typewriter Backing Sheet. 10c. Designed to protect the type, the platen, and to assist in giving better and longer service to the writing machine and lessen the noise. The sheet is printed with line numerals from 1 to 60, which indicates the hearing of the end of the sheet. It prevents slipping of the paper and wrinkling of carbons.

The New Universal System of Touch or Sight Typewriting. By I. W. PATTON. Third Edition Revised and Enlarged. 60c. The plan of fingering is clear and simple. No antiquated or stereotyped method to puzzle and confuse the pupil. The keyboard is printed in three colors for the different fingers and one glance shows the pupil just what finger to use. Over two thousand lines of fingering exercises on words and sentences are furnished to the pupil.

COMMERCIAL CORRESPONDENCE, BUSINESS ENGLISH, SPELLING, Etc.

Pitman's 20th Century Business Dictation Book and Legal Forms. 272 pp., stiff boards and cloth back. 75c.; cloth, $1.00. (Fifth edition.) Containing an up-to-date collection of genuine letters (in ordinary type) which have been used in the transaction of actual work in large American business houses, classified under fifty distinct lines of business, each set of letters separate; Legal Forms, and a judicious selection of practice-matter for general dictation. Also chapters on Spelling, Punctuation, Capitalization, and Short Practical Talks with the Amanuensis, etc. This work, which is the most complete dictation course published, is specially compiled for the teacher, the beginner, and the advanced student. All progressive Schools, without reference to the system of Shorthand taught, should insist upon each student procuring a copy.

Also published in two parts, as follows:—

Part 1.—Business Dictation, 168 pp., stiff boards and cloth back. 50c. Containing fifty distinct lines of business.

Part 2.—Legal Forms and Miscellaneous Selections, etc, 103 pp., stiff boards and cloth back. 40c.

Pitman's Cumulative Speller. 112 pp., cloth, 40c. By CHARLES E. SMITH, author of "A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting." A modern and practical speller for Commercial Education. As the title indicates, the plan is cumulative. Each lesson consists of sixteen words, the first twelve of which are respelled phonetically and defined. The syllabication, pronunciation, and definition of the remaining four words should be assigned to the student, either as homework or seat-work. A homework dictionary, containing all of these special words, is included in the speller at the end of the first hundred regular lessons. This feature of the work is intended to afford the student a ready means of acquiring the dictionary habit—a habit so essential to all who take pride in turning out accurate work.

 A special edition of "Cumulative Speller" is also issued with a Shorthand Vocabulary for schools teaching the Isaac Pitman system. Cloth, gilt, 145 pp., 75c.

Pitman's Commercial Dictionary. The latest and best pocket dictionary, 384 pp., full cloth, lettering in color, 25c.; French morocco, gilt, 50c. At the suggestion of a number of teachers who have found the various present-day pocket dictionaries incomplete and inaccurate for commercial or public school work, we have prepared this work, which contains many features not found in books of this character.

Punctuation as a Means of Expression. Its Theory and Practice. By A. E. LOVELL, M.A. 50c. This is much more than a mere statement of rules. The author has written an interesting and helpful manual of the subject, that will greatly impress the intelligent student and be much appreciated by all who value clearness and thoroughness in writing.

Style Book of Business English. 234 pp. 85c. For Stenographers and Correspondents. This new treatise will especially appeal to the teacher of English wherever it is seen. Teachers of this subject using this work can feel assured of vastly better results than they have ever before secured. It will be an inspiration to both teacher and student.

"It is a real pleasure to me to testify to the merits of your 'Style Book of Business English.' I recommend your book for the following reasons: It is so comprehensive, thoroughly practical, and above all, it is so plainly composed that a teacher even unfamiliar with the subject can conduct a class with it."—Prof. F. R. Beygrau, Columbia University, New York City.

Key to "Style Book." 20c.

WORKS ON SHORTHAND.

(In Ordinary Type.)

Pitman's Reporting Practice. Cloth, gilt, 75c. The object of this work is to provide teachers and students with suitable matter for reporting practice, arranged and counted so as to be of special assistance in getting up speed.

History of Shorthand. 228 pp., 75c.; cloth, $1.00. By SIR ISAAC PITMAN. Third edition. Containing a description of the principal systems of shorthand which have been published from the time of Bright in 1588, together with a short account of the early history of the art, and prefaced with a summary of Phonography.

†The Life of Sir Isaac Pitman, Inventor of Phonography. 392 pp., with fifty illustrations, including photogravure and many other full-page plates, consisting of portraits, views, and facsimiles. Cloth, gilt, gilt top, $2.00. For the first time the authentic story of Sir Isaac Pitman's career is told completely in the new "Life." The narrative will, without doubt, have great attraction for all Shorthand Teachers, and also for all who use Phonography. Thousands of instructors who have for many years past been engaged in imparting a knowledge of the system the "Father of Phonography" invented, will, we feel convinced, consider it a duty to acquaint themselves with the life story of one whose shorthand system forms, either wholly or in part, the foundation of their vocation in life.

Life and Work of Sir Isaac Pitman. Illustrated. 40c.

Pitman's Popular Guide to Journalism. 112 pp., cloth, 50c.

PHONOGRAPHIC STATIONERY.

Reporters' Note-book. "Fono Series." For pen or pencil. Isaac Pitman & Sons' "Fono" Series. Specially made—ELASTIC BOUND (no stitching) opening PERFECTLY FLAT. The paper contained in these note-books is expressly manufactured, and is of a very superior quality. The peculiar fibre of same permitting of a high rate of speed in shorthand writing. The old style note-book, on account of its cheap stiff binding, has a constant tendency to close, and when forced open will not lie flat. In the Isaac Pitman "Fono" Series this difficulty is entirely obviated, and when the page is turned will lie absolutely flat.

Supremacy by Superiority

ISAAC PITMAN SHORTHAND

HOLDS THE WORLD'S RECORD FOR SPEED AND ACCURACY

"There is always room at the top," is the old and true adage. But in the ladder that leads to attainment the perspective is reversed and the rungs become farther apart as the top is reached. The poorly equipped will reach no higher than the level of their attainments, and so is it with shorthand writers and shorthand systems. The writer who chooses a poor system is far from the winner when the race is over.

ISAAC PITMAN SHORTHAND HAS DEMONSTRATED ITS SUPERIORITY OVER ALL OTHER SYSTEMS by winning all the principal honors in the following International Shorthand Contests:

First International Contest, Baltimore, 1906. The Miner Gold Medal, the only trophy awarded, won by Sidney H. Godfrey.

Second International Contest, Boston, 1907. Miner Gold Medal won by Sidney H. Godfrey, and the Eagan International Cup won by Miss Nellie M. Wood.

Third International Contest, Philadelphia, 1908. Eagan International Cup won for the second time by Miss Nellie M. Wood.

Fourth International Contest, Providence, 1909. Eagan International Cup won for the third time and permanently, by Miss Nellie M. Wood. Gross speed 280 words per minute, Net speed 264 words per minute.

WORLD'S RECORD FOR ACCURACY

The world's record for Accuracy in Shorthand Writing was established by Mr. Sidney H. Godfrey, an Isaac Pitman writer, at the Third International Speed Contest, Philadelphia, April 18, 1908, when he handed in a transcript from notes taken at 180 words per minute. In his transcript of 900 words, Mr. Godfrey had 895 absolutely correct, giving him a percentage of accuracy of 99⅝%.

vered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast quest for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

The virtue of God's blessing. PSALMS. Profession of hope in prayer.

A Song of degrees of David.

IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us

3 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the

PSALM 128

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED is every one that feareth the LORD, that walketh in his ways.

2 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

Peter, accused, THE ACTS, 11. maketh his defence.

40 Him God raised up[37] the third day, and shewed him openly;
41 Not[38] to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him[39] after he rose from the dead.
42 And he commanded us[40] to preach unto the people, and to testify that[41] it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.
43 To him[42] give all the prophets witness, that through his [43]name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.
44 While Pē'ter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost[44] fell on all them which heard the word.

Teachers' Bibles

"TEACHERS' HELPS THAT ARE REAL AIDS."

CAMBRIDGE BIBLICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA.

These Bibles contain the Biblical Encyclopedia, based on the Cambridge Companion to the Bible, the work of the most eminent scholars at the Cambridge University, the object of which is to provide Sunday-school teachers and other students with a concise book of reference to the Bible.

In the Encyclopedia much useful matter has been compressed into a small space and the arrangement of helps in alphabetical form will be found most convenient for the purpose of ready reference.

THE REFERENCES IN THE CAMBRIDGE BIBLES.

Have been re-edited and revised throughout and in this revision full use has been made of the late Prebendary Scrivener's invaluable work on the References which was first published in the Cambridge Paragraph Bible.

CAMBRIDGE INDIA PAPER.

For whiteness, opaqueness, thinness and toughness, the new Cambridge India Paper is generally declared by experts to be the equal of, if not superior to, any thin paper now used in Bibles.

ASHERAH (of which the plural is Asherim or Asheroth), either a living tree or a tree-like pole, set up as an object of worship, being symbolical of the female or productive principle in nature. Every Phœnician altar had an ashōrah near it; in A.V. the word is often translated "green trees" or "grove." This "nature worship" became associated with gross immorality, and so the practice of setting up asheroth was forbidden by Hebrew prophets, Dt. 16. 21; cf. Nu. 25. 3; Judg. 2. 11—13; 1 S. 7. 3, 4; 1 K. 11. 5; Is. 17. 8; Mi. 5. 12 ff.

ASSYRIA and BABYLONIA were the two great Eastern empires before which all the old states of Syria and Palestine fell. We learn their history partly from the Bible narrative and also from contemporary monuments written in cuneiform characters and recently deciphered.

Babylonia or Shinar (Gen. 10. 10) is the alluvial country on the lower course of the Euphrates and Tigris, of which Babel or Babylon was the chief city. Assyria, or Asshur, occupied the Tigris valley to the north of Babylonia. Its centre lay on the left bank of the Tigris, where the great city of Nineveh stood, opposite Mosul. Babylon and Nineveh were long rivals, but they had a common civilisation, of which the southern alluvium was the original home. Their language was Semitic, but in the southern country the Semites seem to have been pre-

106 REVISED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

149 Why are the "peacemakers" so distinguished?—Because of the difficulty of making and keeping peace, and as Christ is the Prince of Peace.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men. (Rom. xii. 18.)

150 How does our Lord connect His disciples with Himself in Matt. v. 11?—By promising them a blessing upon all that they endured for His sake.

151 What great lesson of mutual forgiveness do Matt. and blessing upon earth) is the eternal one, of glory in heaven.

158 What encouragement for our imperfect petitions is there in verse 8?—That our Heavenly Father knows what we have need of, before we ask.

159 How do the first words of the Lord's Prayer adapt it to the whole family of man?—They show that we have "all one Father."

160 What is it to "hallow" anything?—To treat it as holy.

161 How are we taught the broad road?—No; not to the eye of the thoughtless worldly man.

170 Should not our Lord's declaration in Matt. vii. 14, excite us to make diligent search?—Yes, that we are among the few in the narrow way.

171 What lesson do we learn about our conduct in Matt. vii. 16, and following verses?—That we shall be judged by our conduct, rather than our profession; by our fruits, rather than our leaves.

ST. JOHN, 8

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?
37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.
38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)
40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth
44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.
45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?
46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?
49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.
50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)
51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
53 And every man went unto his own house.

THE "VERBA CHRISTI" TESTAMENT

This beautiful edition of the New Testament is printed from clear ruby type on superior paper, in red and black inks—the portions in red being the words of Christ (Verba Christi).

LUKE, XIV.

supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.
13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:
14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.
15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:
17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.
18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.
19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

BAGSTER'S RED LETTER NARROW TESTAMENT

Size, 5½ x 2½.

All the New Testament story, its wonderful teachings, centre around the words of Christ. These words, printed in red, are easily seen, and in this way favorite passages can readily be referred to. The alignment of the Red and Black is absolutely perfect, a feature very important in a Red Letter Testament.

In point of compactness combined with clear type this book is par excellence.

THE CHRISTIAN LIFE NEW TESTAMENT

This edition of the New Testament is printed from remarkably clear and black Brevier type, is convenient in size and contains all of the features incorporated in the popular Christian Life Bibles.

The five great themes, Sin, Christ, Faith, Love, and Salvation, may be said to form the heart of all Bible truth. The choicest verses referring to these five subjects have been brought together and placed in front of the New Testament, each theme in its symbolic color.

For further descriptions, bindings and prices see page 40.

The Christian Life Bible

SCHEME: The five great themes, SIN, CHRIST, FAITH, LOVE and SALVATION, may be said to form the heart of all Bible truth. The choicest passages referring to these subjects have been brought together from all parts of the Bible, each subject in its own color.

By orderly steps the reader can now follow the very language of Scripture as it first pictures SIN and then puts over against it CHRIST and FAITH on man's part leading to LOVE and SALVATION.

COLORS: The choicest passages from all parts of the Bible have been brought together and arranged in colors.

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.
21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.
22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
us; and to the hills, Cover us.
31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
34 ¶ Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they 240 THE COMMUNION.

That these Sentences may be used on any other occasion of Public Worship, when the alms of the People are to be received.

REMEMBER the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. Acts xx. 35.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. v. 16.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. St. Matt. vii. 21.

Zacchæus stood forth, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have done any wrong to any man, I restore fourfold. St. Luke xix. 8.

Who goeth a warfare at any time of his own cost? Who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? Or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? 1 Cor. ix. 7.

GOD, that madest earth and heaven,
Darkness and light;
Who the day for toil hast given,
For rest the night:
May Thine angel-guards defend us,
Slumber sweet Thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
This livelong night.

2 Guard us waking, guard us sleeping,
And, when we die,
May we in Thy mighty keeping,
All peaceful lie:
When the last dread call shall wake us,
Do not Thou, our God, forsake us,
But to reign in glory take us
With Thee on high.

BURIAL OF THE DEAD. 297

And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? and why stand we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of

SAINT ANDREW'S DAY. 189

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and

The Best Editions for Print and Elegance of Bookbinding.

In Combination Sets. According to the New Standard of 1892.

Many new and attractive styles have been added, which brings the Cambridge Editions nearer perfection than ever before. The Cambridge Editions are acknowledged the best printed and most exquisitely bound of any of the Prayer Books or Hymnals published.

The celebrated India paper used in the manufacture of the India paper editions is far in advance of all others. It produces a book light, opaque, and beautiful, and the impression on one side does not show through upon the other side.

GENERAL CATALOGUE OF MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

Illustrated Books of Travel, Biography and History

A CHATEAU IN BRITTANY. By Mary J. Atkinson. With many illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 16 cents.)

A most delightful and interesting volume on Brittany, covering in a chatty but scholarly manner the country, its people, customs and history. By far the best book on the subject published.

THE DAUPHINES OF FRANCE. By Frank Hamel. With frontispiece and 16 illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net $4.00. Three-quarter levant, net $7.00. (Postage, 18 cents.)

This volume may be regarded as a collection of human documents, as an epitome of French History, or as a series of romances, according to the mood of the reader; in any case it will be found full of entertainment. Court Biography is always fascinating, but seldom has an author been more happy in the choice of a subject than the author of "The Dauphines of France." The story of the fifteen charming princesses who form the subject of this volume is connected with much that is most fascinating and picturesque in the history of France. The pomp and splendor of a gorgeous court, with its rivalries, jealousies and intrigues, the tyranny of a senseless etiquette, descending to the smallest details of domestic life, furnish abundant material of absorbing interest, which Mr. Hamel treats with a light and graceful hand in his vivid and sympathetic pages. Famous among the Dauphines are the beautiful Margaret of Scotland, Mary Stuart, Marie-Adëlaide de Savoie, known as the Duchesse de Bourgogne, and the girlish Marie-Antoinette, besides several whose lives, if less familiar, are equally thrilling and fascinating, such as Charlotte de Savoie, Marie-Anne Christine de Bavière, Marie-Thérèse d'Espagne and Marie-Josèphe de Saxe.

NOOKS AND CORNERS OF OLD LONDON. By Charles and Marie Hemstreet. Fully illustrated. Cloth, 16mo, net $1.00. (Postage, 10 cents.)

The object of this book is to add interest to rambles in London by a careful record of the many quaint old nooks still left in London, arranged so that a wanderer may reach the points in consecutive order without going too far afield. London is full of these memorials, and this is an ideal guide book for those who wish to make themselves acquainted with them.

PRIVATEERS AND PRIVATEERING. By Commander Edward P. Statham, R.N. With many illustrations. Large crown 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. (Postage, 16 cents.)

The entire volume is one that may be cordially recommended to all lovers of a good yarn and to all enthusiasts of the sea. While there is, in one sense, no romance about this volume, the stories being derived in every instance from authentic sources and absolutely free from "embroidery," the true relation of the careers of such men as Woodes Rogers, Fortunatus Wright, George Walker and others, among Englishmen; of Jean Bart, Du Guay Trouin and Surcouf, among Frenchmen; and of Joshua Barney, Thomas Boyle, etc., among Americans, teems with exploits and adventures of the most romantic description and often of the most thrilling interest. Desperate and heroic resistance against superior force, hair-breadth escapes, humorous episodes, are all to be found in abundance in these pages, recounted in simple and graphic style, without unnecessary technicalities, and eminently adapted for the entertainment of young and old, seamen and landsmen.

A CORNER OF SPAIN. By Walter Wood, with an introduction by Martin Hume. Many illustrations in black and white and in color, by Frank H. Mason, R.B.A. Cloth, net $2.00. (Postage, 9 cents.)

A fascinating new travel book. The country dealt with is Galicia, that northwest region of Spain which includes Santiago, Corunna and Vigo, and has a stirring and enthralling history.

Corunna is imperishably associated with the name of Sir John Moore, who is buried on its ramparts, as well as with the Most Happy and Invincible Armada; while Vigo and Santiago recall innumerable memories of the days of treasure-ships and pilgrimages.

The author and the artist, during their recent visit to Galicia, both enjoyed exceptional facilities for seeing the country's beauties and possibilities from the tourist point of view.

LOUIS XVIII. By Mary F. Sandars. With photogravure portrait and other illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net $4.00. Three-quarter levant, net $7.00. (Postage, 15 cents.)

There is a strange analogy between the circumstances of Louis XVIII. and those of Charles II. of England. Each was a homeless wanderer, while his throne was occupied by a Cromwell or a Napoleon; each was, at least, called upon to reign over a kingdom weary with military despotism, and each acquitted himself well in a position bristling with difficulties. Both Charles and Louis, too, were followed by brothers who lost their crowns by falling into the mistakes which their predecessors had contrived to avoid. Any comparison between the two monarchs, however, tells enormously in favor of the French King.

"The book is well informed, well arranged and clearly written, and the authoress has duly subordinated the historic to the biographical interest."

IN THE DAYS OF THE GEORGES. By William B. Boulton. With many portraits and illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net $4.00. (Postage, 15 cents.)

Mr. Boulton has read deeply in the memoirs of the Georgian period, and he has a pleasant, gossiping style. He gives us a number of well-written, light, historical sketches, which entertainingly describe men and manners of the Georgian era.

ENGLISH PALACES—CANTERBURY. Edited by R. S. Rait. With many portraits. 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. (Postage, 14 cents.)

The Palaces of Lambeth and Fulham, Farnham Castle, the Old Palace of Lincoln—Norwich, Hereford, Wells, etc.

ENGLISH PALACES—YORK. Edited by R. S. Rait. With many portraits. 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. (Postage, 14 cents.)

THE MARRIAGE VENTURES OF MARIE LOUISE. By Max Billard. English Version by Evelyn, Duchess of Wellington. Fully illustrated, with photogravure plates. Demy 8vo, cloth, net $3.50. (Postage, 14 cents.)

Daughter of one Emperor, wife of another, Marie Louise would always be an interesting personality, even if her later life had not been so full of incident as it actually was.

Handed over to Napoleon for a wife by her country, as the price of peace, she had no love for her husband, and the sorrows and pathetic appeals of the captive of Elba and St. Helena, who really cared for the light-hearted girl, had no effect upon her.

OLD CONTINENTAL TOWNS. By Wallis M. Gallichan. Fully illustrated. Crown 8vo, cloth, net $2.00. (Postage, 10 cents.)

In this charming volume are included descriptive and historical accounts of the more important old Continental towns. Sketches of the chief buildings of past ages, remarkable episodes, curious old laws regulating the religious and social life of bygone ages are noticed in scholarly style. It is shown how cities have risen under the protection of castles, how others have grown under the care of religious houses, while some have advanced under the patronage of kings. Old customs linked with the daily life of the people receive consideration. Sports and pastimes which have made the inhabitants famous are not forgotten. This is a volume for the general reader, and also the student who delights in the picturesque past.

THE ORIGINS OF POPULAR SUPERSTITIONS AND CUSTOMS. By T. Sharper Knowlson. Crown 8vo, cloth, net $1.75. (Postage, 10 cents.)

We meet people every day who are superstitious, but who can give no intelligent account of the origin of those beliefs: that it is dangerous, for instance, to sit thirteen at table, or to break a looking-glass. To trace a habit of thinking and of action to its source is frequently to dispel an illusion; at any rate, the interest of the search for origin has a charm all its own and Mr. Sharper Knowlson, working on the basis of old authorities, has brought forth a mass of attractive exposition respecting popular beliefs and customs which cannot fail to secure the reader's attention.

A GLIMPSE OF INDIA. By Dr. Clara A. Swain. Fully illustrated, 366 pages. 12mo, cloth, net $1.25. (Postage, 10 cents.)

THE WALLS OF CONSTANTINOPLE. By Captain B. Granville Baker. Beautifully illustrated with pen and ink sketches. 8vo, cloth, net $4.00. (Postage, 19 cents.)

Constantinople—The Approach to the City by the Bosphorus—Seraglio Point—The Golden Gate—The Walls of Theodosius—The Valley of the Lycus—From the Gate of Edirné to the Golden Horn—Appendix.

TYROL AND ITS PEOPLE. By Clive Holland. With 16 illustrations in color by Adrian Stokes and many in monotone. Demy 8vo, net $2.50. (Postage, 14 cents.)

To those who do not know the Tyrol, the book should prove an incentive to personal exploration of its manifold beauties; and to those who do, it will possibly prove an awakener of many pleasant memories.

OLD ENGLISH TOWNS. By William Andrews, Author of "Bygone England," etc. Crown 8vo, 16 full-page illustrations, net $2.00. (Postage, 12 cents.)

In this charming volume are included descriptive and historical accounts of the more important old English towns. Sketches of the chief buildings of past ages, remarkable episodes, curious old laws regulating the religious and social life of bygone ages are noticed in scholarly style. Old customs linked with the daily life of the people receive consideration. Sports and pastimes which have made the inhabitants famous are not forgotten.

THE CITY OF GENOA. By Robert W. Carden, A.R.I., B.A. With many illustrations, of which 12 are in color, by William Parkinson. Demy 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

The object of this book is to set out briefly the history, life and art of a city about which very little has been written in the English language.

MADAME DE LAFAYETTE AND HER FAMILY. By M. MacDermot Crawford. Illustrated with portraits, 8vo, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 20 cents.)

Aside from the prominent part she played, no woman of the Revolution possesses a more interesting personality than Adrienne de Noailles. Young and enthusiastic, she encouraged in Lafayette those republican tendencies which cost them at a later date so dearly. Stifling her heartache, she sped the husband on that hazardous voyage across distant seas to aid the great cause of liberty in far-off America—a land, as her quaint letters to Washington show, she always loved.

SUNNY DAYS IN ITALY. By Elsie Lathrop, Author of "Where Shakespeare Set His Stage." 8vo, cloth, decorative cover, with 30 illustrations, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage 15 cents.)

The author is an appreciative and observant woman who has spent much time in Italy—living in small establishments frequented by Italians, and conversing with them in their own language.

TO-DAY IN PALESTINE. By W. H. Dunning, Ph.D., late Instructor in Semitic Languages in Yale University, Author of "To-day on the Nile." 8vo, cloth, with many beautiful illustrations, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 20 cents.)

Few of those who have written on the Holy Land have better knowledge of it than Dr. Dunning.

The book covers all Palestine quite thoroughly, taking us north through Samaria and Galilee to Beyrouth and Damascus.

TO-DAY ON THE NILE. By H. W. Dunning, Ph.D. Photogravure illustrations and maps. 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 20 cents.)

This book is a spirited presentation of the Egypt of to-day. The author sees everything and so does the reader; he enjoys everything and he takes you into his confidence. The book is full to the overflow and alive to the spirit of the hour.

THE MEDITERRANEAN: Its Storied Cities and Venerable Ruins. By J. T. Bonney and others. Photogravure illustrations and map. 8vo, cloth, $3.00. Three-quarter levant, $6.00. (Postage, 17 cents.)

A most delightful description of these old cities, and the itinerary is a rarely attractive one, including Gibraltar, Algiers, Malaga, Nice and the Riviera, Naples, Venice, Sicily, Malta and Alexandria. It ought certainly to be read by anyone who intends to cover the journey and will prove a pleasure to those who cannot. The photogravures are exceptionally beautiful.

A SUMMER TOUR IN FINLAND. By Paul Waineman. With many illustrations in colors. Demy 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage 14 cents.)

Mr. Paul Waineman has recently completed a tour of that country; from Helsington to Tornea, the most northerly town in Europe. During his trip he has collected a mass of personal impressions of the people, land and principal towns, from the wild scenery of the far north, where the peasant's hut is the most luxurious abode, to the old aristocratic homes in the south of Finland.

THE TEMPEST. By William Shakespeare. With many full-page illustrations in color by Paul Woodroffe, and songs by Joseph Moorat. Cloth, net $4.00. Three-quarter levant, net $7.50. (Postage, 16 cents.)

UNKNOWN SWITZERLAND. Picturesque and descriptive. By Victor Tissot. Photogravure illustrations and map. 8vo, cloth, $3.00. Three-quarter levant, $6.00. (Postage, 16 cents.)

This valuable book of travel gets away from the beaten track. The Switzerland presented is the Switzerland of the scholarly traveller, who knows its least frequented and most beautiful parts. A map and excellent illustrations add to the book's value.

ALGIERS. By M. Elizabeth Crouse. Beautifully illustrated with full-page plates from original photographs. Cloth, decorative cover, net $2.00. Three-quarter levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

"A book of impressions is 'Algiers,' by a writer who has the literary gift to express them."

"Algiers is one of the cities of the Mediterranean that have not been overwritten by English writers. The book was worth writing, the task has been admirably performed, and the pictures have much artistic merit."

NORWAY AND ITS FIORDS. By M. A. Wyllie. With many illustrations, of which 16 are in color. Cloth, net $2.00. Three-quarter levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

In this book the reader is carried, as it were, on a pleasant cruise from Christiania Fiord to the North Cape; steaming in and out of beautiful inlets with which the coast of Norway is intersected, chatting on the way on every subject of interest, from Ancient History and primeval formations to the flowers by the roadside.

SCOTLAND OF TO-DAY. By T. F. Henderson and F. Watt. With many illustrations in color and monotone. Cloth, net $2.00. Three-quarter levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

The aim of "Scotland of To-day" is to describe Scotland and the Scot of the present in their relation to the past. The views of Burns, Scott, the Stuarts, Covenanters, and other legends are considered. Scotch scenery in its most representative aspects—Highland, Lowland and Border—is discussed, and the chief characteristics of its different cities and towns are treated of at length. The book will prove useful and interesting as a handbook to the stranger.

OUR WEST INDIAN NEIGHBORS. The Islands of the Caribbean Sea, "America's Mediterranean." By Frederick A. Ober. 50 full-page illustrations, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 21 cents.)

Spanish America becomes a familiar country to the readers of this book. Mr. Ober is an authority on the West Indies, and also he has the gift for interesting narration.

"An entertaining, instructive, finely illustrated and typographically attractive book of travel, covering the Bahamas, Cuba, Jamaica, Hayti, San Domingo, Porto Rico and Martinique."

OLD TOURAINE. History of the famous Chateaux of France. By Theodore Andrea Cook. 30 photogravures. 2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, $5.00. Three-quarter levant, $10.00.

The chateaux of France are perhaps as full of romantic interest as any buildings in the world. Mr. Cook's intimate acquaintance with French country life and castles of the French aristocracy have fitted him to write one of the most delightful of books, of permanent value both to the traveller and to the reader.

WHERE SHAKESPEARE SET HIS STAGE. By Elsie Lathrop. With numerous full-page illustrations. 8vo, cloth, net $2.00. Three-quarter crushed levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

Equally interesting and very useful to the student of Shakespeare. The author takes us to the localities in which the great dramatist placed the scenes of his various plays. She discusses also the period of the action of each drama and the general characteristics of the chief personages.

THE RUINED ABBEYS OF GREAT BRITAIN. By Ralph Adams Cram. With 67 full-page illustrations from photographs by the author. Cloth, net $2.50. Three-quarter levant, net $5.00. (Postage, 20 cents.)

The author is thoroughly acquainted with his subject and describes and illustrates the ruined abbeys of England and Scotland in a way to make one long to visit them, or to recall past days spent under their direct fascination.

THE BASTILE. By Capt. (Hon.) D. Bingham. With a preface by James Breck Perkins. 35 photogravures. 2 vols., crown 8vo, cloth, $5.00. Three-quarter levant, $10.00.

This work about the Bastile is graphic literature as well as accurate history. It has become a standard reference book on that most interesting of the many interesting buildings associated with the French Revolution, and the volumes are exceedingly rich in historical portraits and rare scenes.

THE ENGLISH CASTLES. By Edward B. D'Auvergne. 32 illustrations, crown 8vo, cloth, net $2.00. Three-quarter levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 12 cents.)

The writer discusses the architecture of the English castles and reconstructs for us these old feudal strongholds in all their pride and strength. He repeoples their halls with their former occupants, and tells us of the thrilling scenes enacted there, and of the dire and tragic downfall of great baronial houses. The work will prove of profound interest alike to the antiquarian and the reader of romance.

WANDERINGS IN LONDON—Piccadilly, Mayfair and Pall Mall. By E. Beresford Chancellor, M.A., with 20 illustrations of old London—in color and monotone. Cloth, net 75 cents. (Postage, 10 cents.)

AMONG THE DANES. By F. M. Butlin, with many illustrations, of which 12 are in color by Ellen Wilkinson, 8vo, cloth, net $2.50. (Postage, 12 cents.)

This is a book, descriptive and historical, on one of the most interesting of European countries. The subjects of the different chapters are: Historical Introduction—Skagen and Its Fishermen—The Gutland Heath—Some Danish Towns—Copenhagen—Strandvegen—Life on a Danish Farm—The Danish Middle Class—A Danish National High School—Among the Social Democrats, etc. The main points of the book are: the national revival since the loss of Schleswig-Holstein in 1864—the higher education of the peasant class—co-operation among the peasants—the income and expenditure of the middle class in the towns.

THE CATHEDRALS AND CHURCHES OF BELGIUM. By T. Francis Bumpus. With many illustrations. Cloth, net $2.00. (Postage, 12 cents.)

This is probably the most interesting of the Cathedral Series, and the talented author has treated the subjects covering Antwerp, Bruges, Brussels, Ghent, Liége, Alost, Mons, etc., in a most delightful and fascinating manner.

THE CATHEDRALS AND CHURCHES OF NORTHERN FRANCE. By T. Francis Bumpus. Fully illustrated. Cloth, net $2.00. (Postage, 12 cents.)

In the old provinces of that half of France dealt with in Mr. Bumpus's volume—Normandy, Brittainy, Picardy, the Ile de France, Champagne, Burgundy, the Touraine, etc.—these vast monuments of the Middle Ages lie thick and beautiful. To realize the beauty of Rheims you must sleep and wake under the shadow; while the glories of Amiens, Beauvais, Rouen, Coutances, Soissons, Sens, Troyes, Chartres, Le Mans and Tours fill the mind of him who has once visited them with memories pleasant and gracious.

THE CATHEDRALS OF ENGLAND AND WALES. By T. Francis Bumpus. 3 vols. complete, illustrated. Cloth, net $6.00. Three-quarter levant, net $12.00. (Postage, 30 cents.)

More than a guide-book and something less than a history, yet in a very clear and readable manner it presents the stories of the famous Cathedral buildings in England and Wales, and the text is illustrated by means of a number of very successful photographs.

"We question if there is anything about the Cathedrals of which Mr. Bumpus is ignorant. He is a delightful companion in exploring these great churches. He is full of enthusiasm and knowledge, and he always gives you of his best. His 'Cathedrals' ought to become a standard book."

THE CATHEDRALS AND CHURCHES OF THE RHINE AND NORTH GERMANY By T. Francis Bumpus. With 84 illustrations. Cloth, net $2.00. Three-quarter levant, net $4.00. (Postage, 15 cents.)

To a great extent this volume is breaking unfamiliar, if not actually fresh ground. Descriptions are given of such little known and visited cathedrals and churches as thos of Münster, Soest, Paderborn, Hildesheim, Halberstadt, Magdeburg, Naumburg and Erfurt peeps at the people; descriptions of the services, and criticism on the music heard in thes buildings.

THE CATHEDRALS AND CHURCHES OF NORWAY, SWEDEN AND DENMARK By T. Francis Bumpus. Uniform with "Cathedrals of Northern Italy." With 8(plates and frontispiece in colors. 8vo, cloth, net $4.00. Three-quarter levant, ne $7.50. (Postage, 21 cents.)

Scandinavia is rich in remains of ancient ecclesiastical architecture, yet they have bee but little regarded, or at least we have not had the advantage of any published work whic treats of it in a general manner.

Breaking, as it does, ground but little trodden by the English tourist, this volume will it is believed, command attention from the novelty of the subject of which it is designed t treat.

THE CATHEDRALS AND CHURCHES OF NORTHERN ITALY. By T. Franci Bumpus. With 80 illustrations in color and half-tone. 8vo, cloth, net, $5.00 Three-quarter levant, net $7.50. (Postage, 21 cents.)

Among the numerous Cathedrals and Churches described in this volume are those o Verona, Vicenza, Padua, Venice, Ferrara, Bologna, Ravenna, Modena, Placenza, Cremona Bergamo, Milan, Pavia, Asti, Vercelli, Novara and Turin.

BY THE WATERS OF ITALY. By Norma Lorimer, Author of "By the Waters o Sicily." 8vo, cloth, with 16 half-tone illustrations and frontispiece in colors, ne $3.50. Three-quarter levant, net $6.00. (Postage, 16 cents.)

This volume, the latest of Miss Lorimer's fascinating travel books, is fully up to he high standard of writing, and the interest in her subject will no doubt create a large deman for the book.

BY THE WATERS OF SICILY. By Norma Lorimer. Large illustrated edition. 8vo cloth, $1.50.

"A delightful book; it will probably live longer than 90 per cent. of present-day fiction Fresh, vivid, and full of information, it should be the companion of every one who goe that way."

"The author's vivid and picturesque style is fitted to her theme and the sunny atmospher of Sicily. It is one of the most original books of travel that has ever been written."

BY THE WATERS OF CARTHAGE. By Norma Lorimer, Author of "By the Water of Sicily." 8vo, cloth, with 32 illustrations from photographs, and color frontis piece, net $2.50. (Postage, 16 cents.)

Miss Lorimer has an original way of recounting her travels which is all her own. Th wonderful Oriental life of Tunis—that most Oriental of cities—is vividly depicted and unde a light and racy style the author conceals a real knowledge of the Arab, his ways and cus toms, his religion and social life, and proves herself well read in the works of the variou authorities upon the subject.

BUDAPEST, THE CITY OF THE MAGYARS. By F. Berkeley Smith. With an in troduction by F. Hopkinson Smith. Copiously illustrated. 12mo, cloth, $1.50.

SOME LITERARY ECCENTRICS. By John Fyvie, author of "Some Women of Wi and Beauty," etc. Illustrated. 8vo, cloth, net $3.00. (Postage, 14 cents.)

Thomas Amory—Thomas Day—William Beckford—Walter Savage Landor—William Hazlitt—Henry Crabb Robinson—Charles Babbage—Douglas Jerrold—George Wither—James I.—St. John Mandeville.

MEMOIRS OF THE DUKE OF SAINT-SIMON. On the Reign of Louis XIV. and th Regency. Translated from the French by Bayle St. John. With a Preface b James Breck Perkins. Illustrated with photogravures. 4 vols., cloth, 12mo, wit index, $6.00. Three-quarter levant, $12.00.

"The Student's History of France," in giving the authorities for the Reign of Louis XIV says: "The principal source of contemporary history for this period is the Memoirs of th Duc de Saint-Simon. This work will always preserve its reputation and authority, from th high position of its author, his general fidelity and accuracy, and his remarkable power o delineating individual character."

BYGONE LONDON LIFE. Pictures from a vanished past. By G. L. Apperson, I.S.O. With many illustrations from old prints and engravings. Net $1.50. (Postage, 11 cents.)

Leaving the common places of history alone, he delves into forgotten corners and brings out odd treasures of information—for example, anecdotes of the habitués of the famous old coffee-houses.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON. By G. K. Chesterton. Small 12mo, with frontispiece portrait. Cloth, 50 cents.

A collection of valuable matter about Stevenson, matter not heretofore published, is to be found in this volume on Stevenson.

Every lover of Stevenson will read this little volume with the keenest interest. It is most suggestive, as Mr. Chesterton's expressions usually are, and will take an honorable place among the many studies of an especially difficult and complex personality.

LIFE AND TIMES OF GALILEO. By J. J. Fahie. With portraits and illustrations. 8vo, $5.00.

Whoever has paced the cool quadrangles of Padua will find this magnificent piece of biography more fascinating than any romance and more profound than any other utterances of religious philosophy. Mr. Fahle has endeavored to speak the truth. His narrative is lucid and ingenuous. He neither eulogizes nor disparages Galileo.

THE BOOKMAN BIOGRAPHIES. A series of popular, illustrated monographs on great writers. Profusely illustrated with 40 or more illustrations and Special Portrait in tint. Quarto, cloth, each 75 cents.

SIR WALTER SCOTT. By W. S. Crocket and James L. Caw.

ROBERT BROWNING. By James Douglas.

ALFRED TENNYSON. By G. K. Chesterton and Richard Garnett.

WILLIAM M. THACKERAY. By G. K. Chesterton and Lewis Melville.

The Bookman Biographies, exceedingly suggestive work throughout, were undertaken because a need was felt for thorough and concrete "lives" of these great men. The names of the biographers sufficiently indicate the character of these books.

General Literature

THE MINIATURES. This is a series of bibelots, tastefully produced and consisting of selected gems of literature in an ornate yet artistic setting. Format 5¼ x 3. The value of these pretty little volumes must be gauged, not by their mere size or bulk, but by their quality and beauty. Each booklet is printed in old style type in two colors, on real Japan paper, and contains several exquisite miniature tinted plates. Each has a decorative title-page, and specially designed end-papers. Cloth, 35 cents.

THE TITLES ARE:

1. Sir Roger de Coverley. By Joseph Addison. With tinted plates by Dion Clayton Calthrop.
2. Notes of a Week's Holiday. By W. M. Thackeray. With tinted plates by Sidney Gardner.

3. The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam. By Edward Fitzgerald. Each verse in a tinted panel by Edgar Wilson.
4. The Seven Poor Travellers. By Charles Dickens. With tinted plates by Arthur Hogg.
5. Tam O'Shanter and Other Poems. By Robert Burns. With tinted plates by S. B. Pearse.
6. Coaches and Coaching. By Leigh Hunt. With tinted plates by Paul Hardy.

Many Others in Preparation.

I'VE BEEN THINKING. By Charles Battell Loomis. Frontispiece and decorative cover by Robert A. Graff. Square 12mo, $1.00.

Charles Battell Loomis is a humorist and a thinker—virtues which do not always go together. He has put them both in this little book, "I've Been Thinking," which treats all sorts of subjects in a breezy way; not too much of thought to weary, not too much of fun to bore.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE REPUBLIC. By Rev. Edward Everett Hale, author of "The Man Without a Country," "In His Name," etc., with a frontispiece portrait. Cloth, 12mo, 50 cents; leather, 75 cents.

"Somehow we have a little more faith in the stability of the American Republic after we have read this valuable little book. It is just such a book as we should expect from the distinguished author of 'The Man without a Country.' It bears evidence of that maturity of judgment which comes to one who, for more than three score and ten years, has lived in accordance with the principles and ideals of the founders of the American Republic."

THE REIGN OF GILT. By David Graham Phillips. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

David Graham Phillips's book on the subject of the extravagance and follies of the rich is most timely. Very appropriately it is named "The Reign of Gilt." This means the shoddiness of it all, but recent disclosures of the source of much of wealth would justify the double meaning

THE SPIRIT OF THE MOUNTAINS. By Emma B. Miles. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, net, $1.20. (Postage, 12 cents.)

Mrs. Miles, who has spent her entire life in the heart of the Tennessee mountains, presents in her artistic development one of those rare instances of apparently inspired literary utterances. "The Spirit of the Mountains," with phenomenal simplicity of style, describes the actual every-day life of the Tennessee mountaineer—his traditions, his literature, his music—and predicts his future.

THE WOMAN OF TO-MORROW. By Helen M. Winslow. 12mo, cloth, net $1.00. (Postage, 8 cents.)

A readable, sensible, serious, humorous bit of writing. Its optimism is infectious and holds the attention both of men and women.

THE ESSENTIALS OF SPIRITUALITY. By Felix Adler. 12mo, cloth, net $1.00. (Postage, 8 cents.)

This book crystallizes Dr. Adler's teaching throughout his long service as an apostle of Ethical Culture. Dr. Adler has produced comparatively few books, and none of recent years to which he has given such minute preparation.

A SOUTHERN PLANTER: Social Life in Old South. By Susan Dabney Smedes. Illustrated with photogravures, decorative cover. 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

Containing autograph letter from the Hon. W. E. Gladstone to the author, in commendation of the book. This is one of the most delightful books depicting Southern life in Ante-Bellum Days, the Old South that has passed away.

THE JAPANESE SPIRIT. By Okakura-Yoshisaburo. With an introduction by George Meredith. 12mo, cloth, net $1.00. (Postage, 8 cents.)

Mr. Okakura tells in brief résumé what he considers the essentials to an understanding of modern Japan, its political, religious and social qualities of basic importance.

THE MOON. A new and popular edition. The moon considered as a planet, a world, and a satellite. By James Nasmith, C.E., and James Carpenter, F.R.A.S., late of the Royal Observatory, Greenwich. With numerous illustrations. $2.00.

THE NEGRO PROBLEM. By Booker T. Washington, Principal of Tuskegee; W. E. Burghardt Du Bois, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Charles W. Chestnutt, and others. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

No more interesting or important book has ever appeared upon this absorbing public question of the day.

THE GEM CLASSICS. The best of the world-famous classics in uniform binding. Photogravure frontispiece. Small 12mo, art cloth, paper sides, gold stamping, 50 cents. Red Venetian morocco, limp, gilt top, $1.00.

1. Rasselas. By Samuel Johnson, LL.D.
2. Religio Medici, etc. By Sir Thomas Browne.
3. The Story of the Chevalier Bayard. By Edith Walford.
4. Vathek: An Eastern Romance. By William Beckford.
5. Abdallah and the Four-Leaved Shamrock.
7. Frankenstein: or, The Modern Prometheus. By Mrs. Shelley.
8. Reflections of Rochefoucauld.

"For purity of text, elegance of topography, and beauty of external form, they cannot be equalled."

THE WILL POWER. By J. Miller Fothergill, M.D. 12mo, cloth, 75 cents.

"It is full of illustrations drawn from the widest reading, and showing how far the will has inherited qualities, its relation to self-culture, its behavior under unexpected circumstances, its operation in fight, and its manifestations under the influence of disease."

Fiction

A SICILIAN MARRIAGE. By Douglas Sladen, author of "A Japanese Marriage," "In Sicily," etc. Illustrated, cloth, 12mo, 50 cents.

A strong love story of unusual interest, with the scene laid in Sicily, where the author is on familiar ground, as his previous books testify. He devotes much space to descriptions of Sicilian life, scenery and antiquities, and against this background we are shown a number of people who meet, wander about sight-seeing, fall in love, quarrel, have thrilling adventures with brigands, and do many unlikely things.

TWO OF THE GUESTS. A Romance in Letters. By Kate Gertrude Prindiville. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

"'O wad some power the giftie gie us,' etc., sang the bard of the plowshare, and in her little book Kate Gertrude Prindiville has come as near the 'giftie' as is possible for human eyes."—New York Times.

DOLLY WINTER. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

DALRYMPLE. A Romance of the British Prison-ship "The Jersey." By Mary C. Francis, author of "A Son of Destiny." 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

The fascinating chapters devoted to the horrors of life on board the British prison ship, "The Jersey," excel anything in modern fiction. The pages devoted to this theme, in vivid and realistic description, will live long in the memories of those who read them.

FLOWER OF THE FORT. By Charles Hemstreet, author of "Nooks and Corners of Old New York," "Literary Landmarks of New York." 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

NURSE NORAH. By Elliott Flower, author of "Policeman Flynn." Illustrated by Fanny Y. Cory and Robert A. Graff. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

COUNT FALCON OF THE EYRIE. By Clinton Scollard. With frontispiece. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

It is a romance pure and simple, a stirring tale of Italy in the days of passion and feud.

THE WISDOM OF FOLLY, being three exciting days in the otherwise peaceful life of a fluffy-minded lady. By Cosmo Hamilton. 12mo, cloth, 50 cents.

GHETTO SILHOUETTES. By David Warfield. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, 50 cents.

Nature Books

ALONG FOUR-FOOTED TRAILS. Wild Animals of the Plains as I Know Them. By Ruth A. Cook. With numerous illustrations by Mabel Williamson. 12mo, cloth, net 75 cents. (Postage, 14 cents.)

John Burroughs has heartily commended this western nature book which Miss Cook's personal acquaintance with animals has well fitted her to write. Although accurate scientifically, the volume is characterized by an absence of scientific discussion and terms that so often spoil an otherwise readable book.

MINIATURE AND WINDOW GARDENING. By Phoebe Allen and Dr. Godfrey 12mo, cloth, net 50 cents. (Postage, 8 cents.)

More and more every year Americans see the delightful fashion so much the vogue abroa —the fashion of the window garden—adopted in the United States. With its adoption come the need for knowledge on the subject, and our authors have given just the simple, easil adopted rules necessary to the cultivation of window plants and other small garden effects.

PARABLES FROM NATURE. By Mrs. Alfred Gatty. Small 12mo, cloth, photo gravure frontispiece, $1.50.

There is a geniality and a naturalness in Mrs. Gatty's Parables that we look for in vai in the attempts of other writers.

The cheerfulness of the cricket, the honest toil of the bee, the faith of the caterpillar i its future existence, the joy of the lark in its being, the belief of the robin in a Providence the silent trustfulness of the oak and the beech—all these and many other lessons do thes parables bring with them as we listen to the voices with which Mrs. Gatty has clothed th thoughts of tree and insect, flower and bird.

PRESTON & ROUNDS COMPANY

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

SENT POSTPAID ON RECEIPT OF PRICE

ARNOLD, SAMUEL GREENE

History of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, 1636-1790. New edition, 2 Vols., cloth, octavo, 574 and 600 pp. $7.50 net.

Governor Arnold's History of Rhode Island, based upon a careful study of documents in the British State Paper Office and in the Rhode Island State Archives, supplemented by investigations at Paris and the Hague, has from its publication been the authoritative history of the State.

Genealogical students will find in these volumes the names of fifteen hundred persons prominent in Rhode Island affairs. This work is of much more than local interest, as the experiment of religious liberty here tried, gives to this history an importance far beyond the narrow limits of the State.

"One of the best State histories ever written is S. G. Arnold's History of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations." JOHN FISKE.

"The best history of Rhode Island is that of Arnold's."

PROF. GEORGE P. FISHER, Yale University.

"A work prepared after long and careful research. Probably no student has ever made himself more familiar with the history of Rhode Island than did Arnold. This work abounds, therefore, in valuable information."

PRES. CHARLES KENDALL ADAMS, Cornell University.

BAILEY, W. WHITMAN

(Professor of Botany, Brown University)

Among Rhode Island Wild Flowers. Cloth, 16 mo., 3 plates, 50c. net.

The favorite collecting grounds are fully described, thus forming a botanical guide to Rhode Island.

In writing this volume Professor Bailey has had in mind the needs of the nature lover, and has discarded technical terms as far as possible, adapting the work to the amateur as well as the botanist.

New England Wild Flowers and their Seasons. Cloth, 16 mo., 75c. net.

The characteristics of the conspicuous and dominant flowers of the months are sketched in broad lines, rendering identification easy.

The flowers of the White and Green Mountains—our alpine flora—receive separate treatment, as do also the flowers of the seashore—our coast flora.

Botanizing. A guide to field collecting and herbarium work. New revised edition. Cloth, 12 mo., illustrated. $1.00 net.

"This is an honest and successful attempt to attract amateurs to the delightful study of plants in the forests, fields and waters. The endeavor is made to show the casual as well as the expert collector, that by the employment of a few simple appliances and by the exercise of a certain amount of patience, it is possible to accumulate at small cost, a wealth of material for fascinating investigation during the winter months."—The Nation.

Botanical Note Book. A Synopsis of Lectures and Laboratory Plans in General Morphology and Systematic Botany. Cloth, 12 mo., 75c. net.

Poems. Boards, 8 vo., 186 pp. $1.25 net.

COLLINS, J. FRANKLIN & PRESTON, HOWARD W.

Key to New England Trees, Wild and Commonly Cultivated. Paper, square, 24 mo., 42 pp. 40 cents net.

A simple and compact pocket key for the identification of trees, chiefly by their leaves in the fields and woods.

FIELD, EDWARD

Revolutionary Defenses in Rhode Island. An historical account of the fortifications and beacons erected during the American Revolution, with muster rolls of companies stationed along the shores of Narragansett Bay, with maps, plans and illustrations. Cloth, 8 vo. $2.25 net.

Muster rolls and company lists, containing the names of more than seven hundred officers and enlisted men, many of which have hitherto been inaccessible, are here printed. The work is profusely illustrated with plans and views of old earthworks, together with illustrations of the various styles of equipments used by the patriots of '76, and fac-similes of the enlistment papers of the Continental Army.

The Colonial Tavern. A glimpse of New England Town Life in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries. Cloth, octavo, 292 pp. $2.00 net.

Tax List of the Town of Providence During the Administration of Sir Edward Andros and His Council, 1686-1689. Cloth, 60 pp., 8 vo. Price, $1.00 net. The edition is limited to TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY numbered copies.

Among the rate bills is the list of polls for 1688, which contains the names of all males sixteen years of age and upwards living in Providence in August of that year; practically a census of the town. For the genealogist and historian this volume contains material of the greatest value on account of the great number of names which these lists contain, besides showing the amount of the tax assessment in each case.

The returns of ratable property form a study by themselves, for they tell in the quaint language of the colonist what they possess, and therefore shed much light on the conditions of the times. For a study of this episode in New England Colonial History this work is invaluable.

Diary of Colonel Israel Angell of the Continental Line, with Annotations by Edward Field Explanatory of the Text, and giving the Military History of the persons mentioned. With map and two plates. Cloth, 8 vo. $2.00 net.

"His diary throws some added light on important occurences, such as the evacuation of Newport and Arnold's treason; records familiar routes of travel, civil and military, in his day; affords glimpses of army discipline and of the genus patriot in the service."—The Nation.

GUILD, REUBEN ALDREDGE

Footprints of Roger Williams. Paper, 48 pp. 35 cents.

In this little pamphlet Dr. Guild deals with the vexed question of Roger Williams' birth, and also traces his wanderings from his landing at Boston to his settlement at Providence.

ISHAM, NORMAN M.

The Homeric Palace. Illustrated by eleven full page plates. Cloth, 8vo. $1.00 net.

"A small and handsomely finished book of interest to every reader of the Homeric poems, whether in the original or in translations."—The Outlook.

"An interesting little study in archæology."—London Spectator.

ISHAM, NORMAN M., and BROWN, ALBERT F.

Early Connecticut Houses. A historical and architectural study. Cloth, square octavo, with map, 7 plates and 115 illustrations. $5.00 net.

"There is a completeness of record, a successful attempt to tell the whole story as far as it is important it should be told, upon which it is hard to comment in terms too favorable. Each house is presented in a small, carefully made drawing, mainly in outline, without the slightest attempt at artistic effect; and the more artistic on that account, as revealing the work of architectural art without the interference of the draftsman's fancies. It is clear that these little drawings (stated to have been made with the aid of photographs) and the plans and explanatory sections are as trustworthy as it is possible to make drawings of the kind."—The Nation.

JANES, LEWIS G.

Samuel Gorton: a forgotten founder of our liberties, first settler of Warwick. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00 net.

This is a fresh and comprehensive study of the varied career of the pioneer of Warwick. For the first time his political and religious opinions are adequately presented and their remarkable agreement with the most advanced thought of our day is indicated.

JERNEGAN, MARCUS W.

The Tammany Societies of Rhode Island. Paper, 8vo., 39 pages, 50 cents net.

KIMBALL, GERTRUDE SELWYN

The East India Trade of Providence, from 1787 to 1807. Paper, 8vo. 34 pages. 50 cents net.

By a careful study of log books and commercial papers of the old shipping firms, the author is enabled to present an interesting picture of the East India trade of Providence in its palmy days.

Pictures of Rhode Island in the Past, 1642-1833, by Travellers and Observers. Gertrude Selwyn Kimball, the editor, with an introduction by Prof. J. Franklin Jameson. Cloth, 8vo. $2.00 net.

Many interesting descriptions of Rhode Island appear in the pages of old writers. Miss Kimball has made a comprehensive collection of such descriptions. They come from a surprising variety of sources—natives and foreigners, governors and clergymen, soldiers and geographers, Quakers and Catholics, French officers and American travellers.

KING, HENRY M.

(Minister of the First Baptist Church)

The Baptism of Roger Williams. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00 net.

A vivid picture of the religious controversy in early New England and the wide diffusion of a Baptist sentiment.

A Summer Visit of Three Rhode Islanders to the Massachusetts Bay in 1651. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00 net.

An account of the visit of Dr. John Clarke, Obadiah Holmes, and John Crandall, members of the Baptist Church in Newport, R. I., to William Witter, of Swampscott, Mass., in July, 1651. Its innocent purpose and its painful consequence.

Religious Liberty, An Historical paper. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00 net.

Rev. John Myles and the Founding of Swansea and the First Baptist Church in Massachusetts. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00 net.

John Myles founded the First Baptist Church on Massachusetts soil, and also a town the most unique of any in the New England settlements. The book contains a vivid picture of the times, the man, and his service.

Sir Henry Vane, Jr., Governor of Massachusetts and Friend of Roger Williams and Rhode Island. Cloth, 12mo. 207 pages. $1.25 net.

KOOPMAN, HARRY LYMAN

At the Gates of the Century. Boards, 12mo., 88 pages. 75 cents net.

Morrow-songs, 1880-1898. 12mo., 73 pages. $5.00 net.

Orestes, a Dramatic Sketch, and other poems. 12mo. 192 pages. $1.00 net.

The Librarian of the Desert and other poems. Cloth, 12 mo. 73 pages. $1.00 net.

Woman's Will, a love play in five acts, with other poems. 12mo., 63 pp. 75 cents net.

Magazine of New England History for 1891, 1892, 1893. A few remaining complete sets of the Magazine of New England History, originally published at $6.00, are offered the three volumes in parts as issued for $2.50 net, per set, or bound in one volume, cloth, for $3.50 net.

These volumes contain nearly eight hundred pages of information relating to New England local, church and family history, including records, genealogies, journals, letters, and many interesting notes and queries.

MOWRY, ARTHUR M.

The Dorr War, or the Constitutional Struggle in Rhode Island, with an introduction by Prof. Albert B. Hart. Maps, portraits, plans and fac-similes. Cloth, Square, 8vo. $7.50 net.

This work is a narrative of the civil war of May and June, 1847, including a discussion of its causes and results, and the important issues brought into prominence during the movement for a constitution and for universal suffrage.

TRADE PUBLICATIONS

1910-1911

Rand, McNally & Company

CHICAGO - NEW YORK

To The Trade

Again we take pleasure in presenting to the trade our annual catalogue of miscellaneous publications. It should be remembered, however, that this list describes only the books issued by the MISCELLANEOUS PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

Any of the following catalogues, covering all the well known Rand-McNally department publications, will be mailed upon request:

1. Miscellaneous Department (General Books).
2. U. S. Map Department (Commercial and Trade Maps).
3. Educational Department (School Books).
4. Educational Department (School Maps).
5. Educational Department (Globes).
6. Office Specialties.

In this connection we desire to thank the dealers for their continued interest in our publications, and to express the wish that before holiday orders are placed, our exceptionally strong line of juvenile and standard books may receive careful and favorable consideration.

With best wishes for a prosperous and successful year, we remain,

Faithfully Yours,

RAND MCNALLY & COMPANY.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin

By Robert Browning

In the Pied Piper of Hamelin, the story itself has always had a wonderful sort of attraction. Children liked it, men liked it from the first day the book appeared.

Though neither mice nor children could resist the Piper, in the older editions of the poem, the journey was rather sad.

Now it is different. The "getting there" is wonderful. In the beautiful new edition of Browning's great child story, we are given a new vision. The pictures by Hope Dunlap throw wide to the sunlight the full beauty of the story. The illustrator brings out with an exquisite art all the humorous touches; the quaint beauty and interest of the town, the time, and the people; the rich color possibilities of the situation, and further—she imparts a life and individuality to her characters which will entrance the children.

In illustrating this, the fourth book for us, and such a book—Miss Dunlap again makes the public her debtor.

Baby Days

A Sunbonnet Record

By Bertha E. Corbett

The very latest thing by the Mother of the Sunbonnet Babies—a dainty little record book for every mother's own baby. And here the babies reign supreme. Whichever way we turn, we meet them. In delightful little water color sketches, spiced with a line or so of text, they trip across the pages, and reveal themselves at every step with a newer charm.

Below each drawing, a fascinating space, empaneled in spring green, pink, or blue ribbon, invites the record of current "great events" in baby's life and begets a further mysterious interest in the story yet to come.

In Baby Days, Miss Corbett still further endears herself to the American public. Every mother will love this record even more than she did the Sunbonnet Babies, for it will hold the story of her baby. And every child in later days will keep the book among its treasures.

Quarto. Illustrated in color from drawings by the author. Cloth, pink or blue, stamped with gold and white. Price, boxed $1.50

White cloth with all gold stamping. Price, boxed 2.00

THE RHYMING RING

Illustrated by Hope Dunlap

Published Price $1.25

Copyright, 1910, by

By Louise Ayres Garnett

A charming little book of verses, and a happy successor to that beloved of the children—The Muffin Shop. The Rhyming Ring is instinct with that musical quality and keen appreciation of the child's point of view that in so short a time have placed Mrs. Garnett among the favorite authors for children.

The tender child thoughts ring so true, their charms and questioning are so naturally presented that any child reader will delight in the book, and the older person will gladly read to the child.

In this, as in her other verses, one secret of Mrs. Garnett's gift of interpretation is easily revealed: She is the mother of a lovely little boy, and herself is not very far from the edge of girlhood. Reason enough for that freshness of view that makes her work so attractive.

With the particularly fine color work of Hope Dunlap, to further re-inforce her verses, Mrs. Garnett provides for the children "a lovely time" this winter, and other winters to come.

Illustrated with eight full pages in color; numerous illustrations in color and in black from the drawings by Hope Dunlap.

Tan cloth cover, paneled. Large quarto . . . $1.25

THE HIAWATHA ALPHABET

Illustrated by Hugo D. Pohl

Published Price . . . . . $ .75

Copyright, 1910, by

The Hiawatha Alphabet

By Florence Holbrook

In the Hiawatha Alphabet, Miss Holbrook has touched on one of the great interests of American children. For them, Hiawatha, the great wonder worker of Indian mythology, has an ever fresh and unique charm. His youth, his wonderful experiences in our primeval forests, appeal to the children as something peculiarly close to them, while his supernatural powers furnish the wonder element necessary to a perfect story of this sort.

In her Alphabet, Miss Holbrook has utilized this romantic interest with good effect. Her verses feature some character, animal interest or scene of the young hunter's story, while through the large colored illustrations by Hugo D. Pohl, the situation, as well as the letter of the alphabet is vividly emphasized. On each page the initial letter is printed in large size in red.

The pages are all paneled and the pictures are reproduced in colors by the popular Ben Day process.

Cover of green cloth, paneled, with decorations of gold and red. Quarto. Price.....$ .75

El Estranjero
(The Stranger)

By Russell Judson Waters

In the development of any land, history and romance are indissolubly blended, and nowhere is this more vividly shown than in the settlement of our own Southwest.

In El Estranjero, the reader meets the fullness of this life. Beneath the breathless excitement of rapid action, the fire of daring deeds, the love and mystery of the story, are seen the strength and earnestness of the men who opened to civilization this great land, the intensity of their desires, and their belief in what they are doing.

For a story full of dash and color, strengthened with a deep historic interest, read El Estranjero.

Page decorations in brown; type in green. Profusely illustrated by Will E. Chapin....$1.50 net

Marjorie Moxie—Her Experiences

By Maud Morrison Huey

The vivid and unusual personality of the little girl whose "experiences" are related lends a unique flavor and a constant, active interest to such incidents as naturally occur in the life of a wide-awake child in a small town. Her vivacity and quaint philosophy are bewitching. She has discovered that stray cats have a mission in life, and what it is. She has a respect for tramps that is based on plausible reasons, and a hundred other original ideals and childishly wise theories make the book a continual surprise and a delight from cover to cover. People are going to quote things from "Majorie." There is a little twist in her phrases that makes one laugh, and makes one think. She is altogether charming.

Illustrated with colored frontispiece and four full-page half-tones from drawings by Ruth M. Hallock.

Cloth.....$1.25

Naya

Elizabeth Egleston Hinman

A story of life in the great West. The atmosphere of the plains, the canyons, the mountains sweeps over you in a wave of freshness. Naya, the heroine, affects you like a tonic. The daughter of an Indian princess and an English gentleman—a rancher on the plains—she is the embodiment of the wild, sweet freedom of the prairies, tempered by the influence of the colder clime. Fearless, beautiful; showing in every thought and line of her, the grace of her noble blood, Naya simply takes possession of the reader. Her adventures, her life bristle with interest. Never once, from the beginning of the story to the end, as she leaves for England, does this interest fail.

So strong is the girl's hold on the reader, that when she leaves him, in imagination, he still follows her into that broader, richer development which must await her beyond the seas.

A fine, exhilarating tale.

Frontispiece in color, and four full-page illustrations in black and white by DeForest Schook.

Cloth..... $1.50

Stories of Heroism

By Professor William H. Mace

In Stories of Heroism, by Professor William H. Mace, of Syracuse University, children have a rare sort of treat—life stories of America's great men touched by the spirit that puts the glow in the romance, the fire in the story. The characters affect the reader like living people. Throughout boyhood, youth, and manhood, navigators, soldiers, statesmen, scientists live with the intensity of their hour. Children see them as boys like themselves with all a boy's joys and troubles, later as men, contending with all their strength for the great things—surmounting obstacles, making themselves vital figures in the affairs of the nation, and eventually, vital influences in the lives of the children who read about them. The author has done a splendid piece of work for the children.

Homer W. Colby provides innumerable pen drawings, Reich and Audibert the portraits, and Denman Fink ten beautiful color plates.

Cloth, square, 8vo.....$1.00

The Little Lame Prince

By Miss Mulock

An enchanting new edition of Miss Mulock's classic for children. It would be hard to imagine a book more gorgeously and bewitchingly decorated than this. Dashing horses and gayly decked riders, kingly processions in brilliant regalia, the fairy godmother in her starry robe, and the dear little Prince himself, all appear in the handsomely colored plates. No one can look at these pictures without appreciating the dainty, whimsical, fascinating story they illustrate.

The fact that they are by Hope Dunlap, the illustrator of "The Muffin Shop," one of the most popular of last season's books for children, should place them instantly. Besides illustrations in colors, there are many panels and other decorative drawings.

8 vo., attractive cloth binding. Price.....$1.25

"The Muffin Shop," which in illustrative material is a voucher for the artistic worth of "The Little Lame Prince," "is one of the notable children's books of the season. It is a verse book by Louise Ayres Garnett, recounting the delights of the Muffin Man. The pages are alive with gay color and the designs are most artistic. The combined talent of author and artist has added to juvenile literature another children's book which ranks among the best published in years."—San Francisco Bulletin.

Quarto. Price $1.25

No other pictures show a more surprising recognition of child wants, no other verses now find a warmer place in the affections of the children than those of

Peter Pumpkin in Wonderland

By Ida M. Huntington

Such a dear, breezy, original fairy story is "Peter Pumpkin in Wonderland." Without doubt one of the most unique and pleasing ever published for little folk.

It relates the adventures of Peter Pumpkin, who is visited by his friends, the fairies, on national holidays—Hallowe'en, Christmas, Washington's Birthday, Fourth of July, etc., and tells of experiences that befell him, as amusing as they are unexpected and ingenious.

8 vo., cloth binding. Handsomely illustrated in colors and in black, from drawings by Isabel Hunt. Price.....$1.25

"PETER" AMONG THE REVIEWERS

The book will certainly appeal to the universal heart of boyhood and girlhood and win for itself a lasting place in their memory.—Albany Evening Journal.

"Peter Pumpkin in Wonderland" is rarely imaginative and entirely wholesome. There is much more poetry and ideality in the book than is usually found in juvenile fiction.—Chicago Daily News.

Each story is told with richness of imagination, a skilled daintiness of touch, and a thorough understanding of the hearts of the children. Altogether the book is charming, and older people, as well as children, will enjoy every word, every "make believe," and every illustration.—Cleveland, Ohio, Town Topics.

Wouldn't You Like to Meet Him?

Old Fashioned Fairy Tales

Retold from the poetic version of Tom Hood

Long and long and long ago, when Grandmama was small
Her Grandma told her all these tales;
She listened to them all.

"And now when Grandmama is old, as old as old can be,
She knows these stories all by heart
And tells them all to me."

So runs the rhyme which introduces this collection of old-time tales retold and admirably adapted for the schoolroom and nursery of to-day by Marion Foster Washburne.

Although slightly changed from the way Grandmama's Grandma related the story, "Red Riding-hood," as told here, cannot fail to charm every little reader. "Hop-o-my-Thumb," "Puss in Boots," and "The Sleeping Beauty" are as delightfully retold in the same volume, with extracts from Tom Hood's poetic version woven into the entertaining narrative.

The book is printed in large type with many artistic illustrations by Margaret Ely Webb, printed flat in poster colors. Besides the small illustrations published throughout the text there are four full page illustrations printed on dark brown paper in poster colors.

8 vo., novelty cloth binding stamped in gold.

The Bandit Mouse and Other Tales.

By W. A. Frisbie.

The story of a wicked little mouse and his bandit crew in their raids by land and sea. The life was glorious, but retribution followed. A bunch of toy balloons was the cause; the mice explored them, a bandit joker gnawed the string, and the raiders floated away forever. Other stories just as good.

Brightly illustrated with dashing little drawings in colors by Fred R. Bartholomew.

Quarto, 30 pages, with artistic cover in colors, paper binding.....$0.25

The Shanghai Twins.

By W. A. Frisbie.

Verse stories for children full of humor and go. The Shanghai twins, two enormous Shanghai chickens astound their little Bantam mother when they break through the eggs and tower above her. They never cease to amaze her. The children will be delighted with her efforts to feed her great babies, and to otherwise train them. Cleverly illustrated in colors.

Quarto, with attractive cover printed in colors on white, paper binding..$0.25

Natural History Stories for Children.

By W. A. Frisbie

The Paddlefeet figure in the first story in rhyme; and the way old Uncle Peter Pelican domineers over the young Paddlefeet, and how they "got even" is told in a racy sort of way that will be fully appreciated by any little reader. There are other funny stories of birds and animals. Illustrated with amusing caricatures of the various characters, in colors.

Quarto, cover printed in colors, paper binding.....$0.25

Snap Shots.

By W. A. Frisbie

A treat for little people. All sorts of delightful stories in rhyme—short and clear cut. Jan Van Loo, The Paper Dolls' Ball, Mother Inkstand's Children, and "Supposin' little boys had bills, and all they said was quack" (from "Supposin'") will give some idea of the very entertaining contents of the book. Full-page illustrations in color with in-set text.

Quarto, cover design in colors, paper binding.....$0.25

Pictures of Birds and Merry Rhymes.

By Edward J. Lake.

Clever rhymes full of jingle, fun and meaning. The follies and foibles of human nature are amusingly depicted for the children through the medium of birds. Point clear, language simple. Bob White and Miss Snipe, and Johnny Spry, and old Magpie, are good examples. Illustrations exceedingly fine, splendidly interpret the text. Half tones.

Quarto, paneled pages, white cover with handsome bird design in colors, paper binding.....$0.25

A Book of Birds for Children.

By Edward J. Lake.

The second of this series—even more amusing than the first. The game birds have a convention and discuss, with wit and spirit, ways by which they may "stay their fate before too late." Condemn pigeon-pot-pie, quail-on-toast, and fat-duck-roast. A most animated meeting, bright, snappy. Other short rhymes. Fine illustrations by Lake. Half tones.

Quarto, paneled pages, white cover with colored bird design, paper binding.....$0.25

A Book of Animals for Children.

By Edward J. Lake.

A lively company of the most interesting animals a child would care to know. The Barber Coon, and The Reformer (a bear) are bright personifications of men in the same situations. Crisp, humorous, simple. Pictures by Lake full of action.

Quarto, cover-design of deer—a fine half-tone—on white; paper binding.....$0.25

The Pirate Frog.

By Frisbie and "Bart."

From the time the Frog Captain with his Pirate Crew captures the gallant ship until its loss in the great Waterfall wreck, the action is fast and furious. Profusely illustrated in colors. Paper binding.....$0.25

The Funny Adventures of Captain Pip.

By Frisbie and "Bart"

Captain Pip sails the Main and is wrecked on Monkey Island. After many humorous adventures he persuades a Monkey Crew to repair the ship and sails away home. Every page in color.

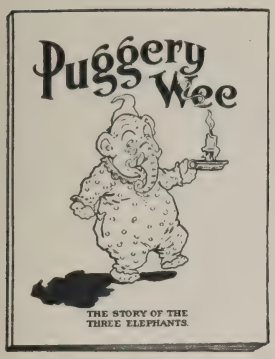
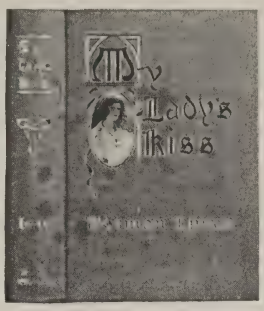
Presidential Campaigns from Washington to Roosevelt.

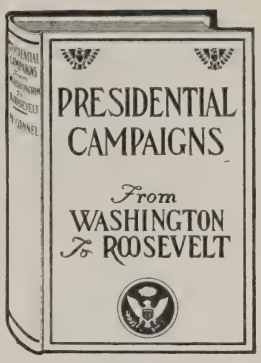
By Major G. M. McConnel.

This important historical work, describes briefly and accurately the paramount issues in the various campaigns from Washington to Roosevelt. The author, a well known editorial writer and newspaper man, has taken part in every campaign since the election of James Buchanan in 1856. He tells of these quadrennial contests in an intimate way that is fascinating as well as instructive.

12mo, cloth binding, illustrated.....$1.25







My Lady's Kiss.

By Norman Innes.

A new work of fiction which one writer describes as "A unique historical novel of the Anthony Hope 'Prisoner of Zenda' style." The characters are drawn so true to life that one might easily suppose the story based on fact, and the characters real persons instead of the creations of an imaginative brain. No moral adorns the tale, rather it is a story fascinating for the story's sake and the startling climaxes it contains.

12mo, artistic cloth binding, illustrated.....$0.75

The New Health Science.

By J. Arvede Walgren.

This work by a new author takes up in an alluring way the secret of health and happiness. The teaching and the line of thought are altogether wholesome. The argument is in behalf of self-control, cheerfulness, and the cleanly life.

Elementary Cabinetwork.

By Frank Henry Selden.

This new book by Mr. Selden contains more than two hundred illustrations, showing designs and combinations in furniture. Every instructor in manual training will find the book replete with suggestions and new ideas in furniture building. It is not only an admirable text-book to place in the hands of the student who is pursuing a course of study in manual training, but it is an excellent book for individuals who have the time and inclination to construct furniture for their own amusement and for use in the home. From the illustrations shown in cabinetwork, it is easy for one to construct morris chairs, old-fashioned hall clocks, and many other pieces of furniture which are not only useful, but decorative.

Cover. Facsimile of title page (reduced).

The Muffin Shop.

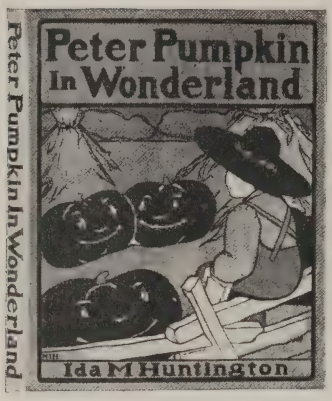
By Louise Ayres Garnett, illustrated in colors and in black and white from drawings by Miss Hope Dunlap.

This dainty story will prove to be one of the notable children's books of the year. It is a verse-book recounting the delights of the Muffin Man and his Shop, located in Pudding Lane. The faithful Jack and Jill, the fastidious Miss Muffet, Mr. and Mrs. Spratt, heretofore unable to agree, the Son of the Piper and his Spotted Pig, and many other inhabitants of Mother-Goose-land, visit the Muffin Shop and buy muffins at a "penny each." The child is given a more extended knowledge of the characters he so well loves. It is a connected story delightfully told, and will appeal unfailingly to the little folks. There are throughout the text various resting-places for the reader.

By no means the least attractive feature of the book are the illustrations in colors by Miss Hope Dunlap. They are sure to capture the child's fancy, for the pages are alive with gay color and the designs are most artistic. The two-page color illustration of the royal coach of gold is delightfully natural and charming. The combination of talent of both author and artist has added to juvenile literature another children's book which will take rank among the best published in recent years.

"It is with a rare pleasure that one looks back at the days of old and thinks of the fascinating books that he used to receive from his friends at Christmas, decorated by Kate Greenaway. When she died, it seemed as though there would never be anyone to take her place. Mrs. Garnett certainly comes the nearest to Kate Greenaway's work of any of those who have succeeded her. There is life in every illustration. Any child would rejoice to be the owner of this volume."—Troy Record.

Quarto, size 9 x 12 inches. Ten full-page illustrations in colors with numerous panel pictures and artistic borders in colors, and in black. Handsomely printed paper wrapper.....$1.25



Cover and Specimen Illustration (reduced).

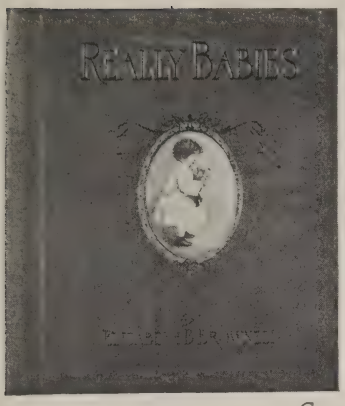
Peter Pumpkin in Wonderland.

By Ida M. Huntington, illustrated in colors and with numerous pen and ink drawings by Mary Isabel Hunt.

A book of charming fairy stories, fresh, novel and piquant in situation, in which Peter Pumpkin, visited by his friends, the fairies, on the national holidays—Thanksgiving, Christmas, Hallowe'en, Washington's Birthday and Fourth of July—meets with adventures as amusing as they are unexpected and ingenious. The tales are woven around incidents connected with these holidays, and in a sense are correlated. Happy, indeed, will be the child who is permitted to go with Peter upon his strange journeys to Jack O'Lantern Land, to the home of Santa Claus, or to visit Turkey Pen Inn with its fascinating picture of Thanksgiving. Lessons of patriotism and love of country are presented in a new way in the account of Washington's Birthday Celebration and the Fireworks' Fourth of July. The reading of the book will be certain to bring to the child's imagination a delightful view-point of these epoch-making periods in the lives of all boys and girls.

The illustrations are a prominent feature of the book. Eight full-page pictures in colors, with numerous black and white pen drawings, distributed throughout the text, make this one of the most attractive children's books of the year. A popular gift book for boys and girls from ten to fifteen years of age, and delightful reading for younger children.

8vo, size 7 x 9 inches, with paper wrapper printed in colors $1.25



Cover and Specimen Illustration.

Really Babies.

By Elizabeth B. Brownell, illustrated with reproductions from exquisite photographs of children.

A new book of charming rhymes which make a strong appeal to children. The verses are such that little folks will demand they be read again and again, and that grown-ups will delight in reading to children on account of the true pictures of the unforgettable days of childhood which are so delightfully presented.

The following stanza selected from the book accompanies the specimen illustration shown above:

I had to have my picshur tooken,
For my grandma's far away,
And wants to see jes' how I'm lookin'
'Cause I'm five years old to-day.
I had to stand jes' awful steady
When he said, "now sonny ready;"
An' I got my picshur tooken
The very way that I was lookin'.

The illustrations, which are reproductions from photographs, show a wonderful understanding of child nature and unusual skill in photography. The arrangement of pictures and text is artistic and effective. A large full-page picture is shown on the left-hand pages, while on the opposite pages appear the rhymes accompanied by smaller illustrations.

Quarto, size 9 x 12 inches; 64 pages of pictures and text matter. Beautifully printed paper wrapper.....$1.25

Our Bird Comrades.

By Leander S. Keyser, author of "In Bird Land," "Birds of the Rockies," etc.

In this book the author gives the reader an unusual insight into the lives and traits of a number of well-known birds. In the interest of his work, and with an expenditure of much time, effort, and money, Mr. Keyser spent day after day in the woods and fields studying the birds in their native haunts. The result of his investigations is a true and intimate study of bird life—a book both entertaining and instructive. "Our Bird Comrades" is printed on a good grade of paper from large, clear type, and is beautifully illustrated with sixteen full-page plates in colors.

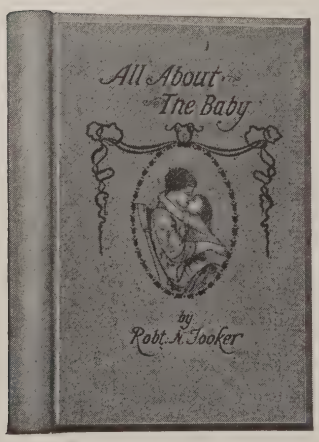
N. B: Uniform editions of Shakespeare's and Browning's Poems in preparation.



All About the Baby.

By Dr. Robert N. Tooker. Illustrated with half-tones and colored plates.

To meet the demand for a less expensive edition, this work, which has been out of print for three years, has been carefully revised and published in cheaper binding. It is considered one of the best works on the subject on the market, and at a popular price should find a ready sale by booksellers generally. The author, who was formerly a prominent physician of Chicago, treats the subject in a popular yet scientific manner.

12mo, cloth, illustrated.....$1.50

The Song of Hiawatha.

By Henry W. Longfellow, illustrated with numerous half-tones and cuts from line drawings printed from tint-blocks.

This delightful epic poem by the "people's poet" always gains fresh interest with each reading. In preparing this new edition it has been the aim of the publishers to make it one of the most attractive ever published at a popular price.

It is printed from large clear type on enameled paper, with lines numbered, thus making it a suitable edition for school use. The text is also supplemented with notes explaining the Indian phrases and terms used throughout the text.

The illustrations are a distinctive feature of the book. A number of these are reproduced from old steel engravings and wood cuts, and portray the characteristic life of the Indian. The line drawings also reproduce symbols and characters pertaining to Indian lore, giving a distinct air of individuality to the book.

Bound in full cloth with artistic stamping in ink and gold, size 5 x 8 inches, boxed $1.00

Presentation Edition, bound in special cloth with Indian pattern, stamped in gold, full gilt edges 1.25

De Luxe Gift Edition, bound in flexible ooze leather, boxed 1.75

The Pony Express.

By William Lightfoot Visscher, illustrated with portraits of famous scouts and notable Indian characters.

Colonel Visscher has written a fascinating and truthful account of the old days on the western plains, before they were traversed by the railroads. He recites the daring exploits of the Pony Express riders, who dashed over hundreds of miles of the plains and through the mountain passes on their special mission. The story is told in vivid language and is especially good reading. Accounts are given of dozens of famous riders, Indian fighters, and United States army officers, whose records are full of wonderful adventures in the early West.

Cloth, 8vo., with artistic stamping in colored inks, size, 6 x 9 inches ... $ .50

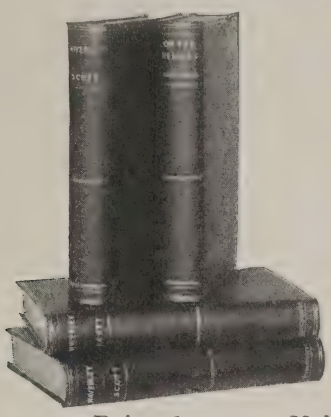
The Atlantic Library.



Cloth, 12mo. Price, $1.00 per Volume.

Already to the front among the Rand-McNally libraries, the Atlantic Library is creating for itself a steadily increasing demand. It is another witness to the fact that there is always room in the market for good books when they can be supplied at a reasonable cost. The volumes included in the Atlantic Library hold a permanent and high place among the English Classics and they are, accordingly, issued in a form appropriate to the library. The books are printed on extra laid paper, with trimmed edges and gold tops and are bound in maroon silk-ribbed cloth.

Copyright Juveniles and Miscellaneous Works.

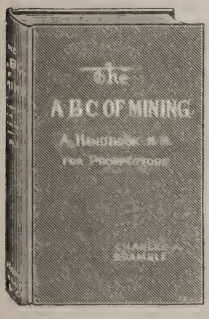
A B C Mother Goose.

Verse by W. A. Frisbie. Pictures by Bart. Price, $1.00. Sixty pages. Size, 9¾x12¼ inches. Printed in colors. Cloth binding with artistic design in colors.

This is a very charming book for little children. The pleasing verses are easily committed to memory and the bright coloring is attractive to the eye. It is printed from large, clear, readable type on extra heavy paper and durably bound in cloth.

A B C of Mining, The

By Charles A. Bramble, D. L. S. Price, Cloth Binding, $1.00.



A Handbook for Prospectors, treating fully of exploratory and preparatory work, of the physical properties of ores, of field geology, the occurrence and associations of minerals, methods of chemical analysis and assay, blowpipe tests, promising indications, and simple methods of working valuable deposits, together with chapters on quartz and hydraulic mining, and especial detailed information on placer mining, with an addenda on camp life and medical hints. Fully illustrated.

Abbe Constantin, The

By Ludovic Halévy. With 32 engravings from the original illustrations by Mme. Madeleine Lemaire. Gift Edition, 12mo. Cloth, $1.25.

This beautiful story has won its way into the hearts of many people in many lands. So long as unselfish love, modest nobility and humble devotion to duty are regarded as admirable; so long as manly men and womanly women are regarded as lovable —so long will this story be admired and loved. To the perfect touch of the author, Mme. Lemaire has added the interpretation of a sympathetic artist of fine taste and skill; and the book, as it now appears, embellished with her beautiful designs, is one of the finest things in literature of this class.

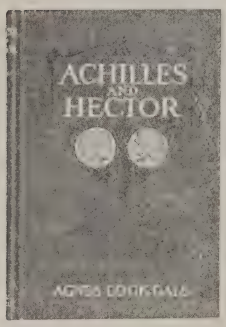
American Book of the Dog, The

Edited by G. O. Shields ("Coquina"). Illustrated. Cloth, 8vo, plain edges, $1.50; half Morocco, gilt top, $3.00; full Morocco, gilt edges, $4.50.

This is a most scientific and exhaustive, as well as a most interesting, work on the dog. Its particular value to the American lies in the fact that it is the American dog as modified by American environment which is discussed in all its phases. The men who write on the subject are entitled to speak with authority, and the name of the editor is a guarantee of the highest excellence. Accurate and ample illustrations add to the scientific value of the book.

Achilles and Hector.

By Agnes Cook Gale, author of "The Story of Ulysses." Illustrated and decorated by Helen Maitland Armstrong. Cloth, 172 pages, 60 cents.



This is the classic story of Homer's "Iliad" retold in a delightfully dramatic spirit for boys and girls. The heroes of Achilles and Hector are great men: what they do they do with all their might; they are willing to work for others without reward; they are withal so clean, brave, healthy, and honest, that they are worthy of the admiration of boys and girls. This is one of the most attractive editions of this famous story.

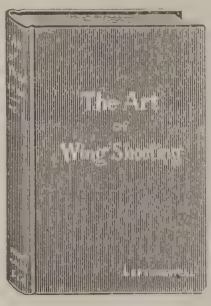
American Game Fishes.

Edited by G. O. Shields. Profusely Illustrated. Cloth, 8vo, $1.50; half Morocco, $3.00; full Morocco, $4.50.

This is a sportsman's book, written and edited by sportsmen, and is a complete guide to the art of angling. The information contained in its pages is not confined to a limited species of fish, nor to those of any one locality, but embraces the entire United States and Canada. Not only is it an exhaustive treatise on the finny tribe, but it also gives full directions for making and using fishing tackle, how, when, and where to angle for all kinds of fish, their habits, habitat, and peculiarities, and a detailed description of the angler's camp outfit. The text is fully illustrated, including portraits of all the fishes described, and two special plates, giving the natural colors of flies commonly used in angling.

Art of Wing Shooting, The.

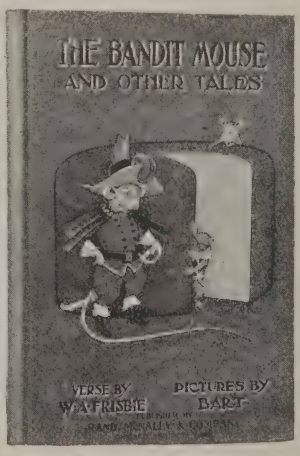
By William Bruce Leffingwell. Price, Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 50 cents.



A practical treatise on the use of the shotgun, illustrating, by sketches, how to become an expert shot; also treating of the habits and resorts of game birds and water fowl. It tells also how to become a proficient inanimate target shot. Profusely illustrated.

Bandit Mouse, The, and Other Tales.

Verse by W. A. Frisbie. Pictures by Bart. Price, 75 cents. Ninety-six pages, large quarto, printed in full colors, bound in cloth with designs in colors.



This is probably the most amusing book for children published for several seasons. The verses are of the Mother Goose order, but will interest older readers, and the pictures will prove a constant source of delight.

Big Game of North America, The

Edited by G. O. Shields. Cloth, 8mo, $1.50; half Morocco, gilt top, $3.00; full Morocco, all gilt edges, $4.50.

Mr. Shields has gathered into this volume articles by twenty-seven writers well known as experts in their several lines. From tracking the caribou in Canada to alligator-shooting in Florida, the ways of the chase are laid bare by these keen-eyed and successful hunters. It is only by the hearty and sympathetic co-operation of such ardent sportsmen and trained naturalists that so comprehensive and valuable a work as this is possible. They have done a service for which all lovers of nature will feel grateful.

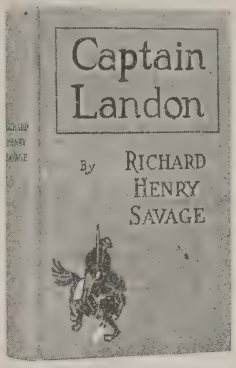
Banking System of the United States.

By Charles G. Dawes. Cloth, 12mo. Price, $1.00.

There can be no proper understanding of the monetary problems of the day unless the relation of the bank-credit money of the country to the money of the government is fully comprehended. This the author, a practical business man, has explained clearly and succinctly. The book will prove a valuable addition to the literature of economics.

Captain Landon. A Story of Modern Rome.

By Col. Richard Henry Savage, author of "My Official Wife," "Checked Through," etc. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents. Paper, 50 cents.



A stirring novel by this well-known and fascinating writer. The scene is laid in Rome, the characters are American, and the plot is one of absorbing interest, bringing into play all those arts of which this author is past master.

The book is handsomely illustrated with half-tone pictures, which lend an additional charm to Colonel Savage's graphic descriptions.

Child Vivien and Other Stories.

By Carlotta Cipriani. Illustrated and decorated by Bror Nordfeldt. Cloth, 12mo, 75 cents.

"Child Vivien" is based upon some of the most famous stories found in the early French epics, and is full of fighting, self-sacrifice, and heroism. The stories have been classic for hundreds of years, and should be a part of every one's literary possessions. It is a companion volume to Radford's "King Arthur and His Knights."

Cheiro's Guide to the Hand.

By Cheiro. Cloth, 12mo. 178 Pages. Price, $1.00.

The study of palmistry from a useful and scientific standpoint, based on the system and experience of Cheiro.

Cheiro's Language of the Hand.

By Cheiro. Large Quarto, 162 Pages. Price, $2.50.

A complete, practical and the only standard work on the science of cheirognomy and cheiromancy. With fifty-five full-page illustrations and over two hundred engravings of lines, mounts, marks, etc.

"Without knowing either the names or the positions in life of any of the people, and without asking a question, or any beating about the bush, Cheiro read from impressions of hands on paper the life and characteristics of each person with the most wonderful accuracy."—New York World.

"Cheiro can tell without error the field or fields in which a person can distinguish himself, if in any. He can reveal to him his whole inner nature; he can warn him of impending dangers; he can even foretell with considerable accuracy of time and circumstances, the chief events of life."—Boston Herald.

Child Stories From the Masters.

By Maud Menefee. Illustrated with reproductions in sepia of famous paintings. Cloth, 12mo, 50 cents.

"Child Stories from the Masters" is artistically and mechanically one of the most attractive books of the year for children. In an admirably simple and sympathetic manner Miss Menefee has told the stories of Browning's Pippa, and Saul and David, of Dante's Beatrice, and of Goethe's Wilhelm Meister and Mignon. Less unusual than these, perhaps, as subjects for stories for children, but not less attractive than they, are the tales from Wagner's operas, Siegfried and Parsifal, presented without any of the heaviness or obscurity of the master. It is an excellent thing to have provided children who have outgrown their gruel with reading matter full of pith and vigor and yet sufficiently easy for their comprehension.

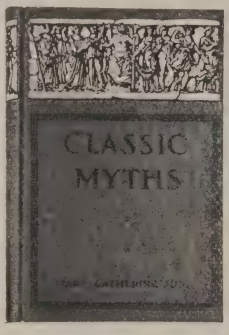
Child's Garden of Verses, A.

By Robert Louis Stevenson. Illustrated by M. H. Squire and E. Mars with many drawings in pen and ink and half-tone, and ten full-page pictures in five colors. Cloth, 96 pages. 75 cents.

This is easily the most beautiful edition of Stevenson's classic volume of children's verse. It is probable that no children's book in the last decade has given as much pleasure as "A Child's Garden of Verses." It is a book for every home and for every children's library.

Classic Myths.

By Mary Catherine Judd. Illustrated by Agnes MacDonall. Cloth, 12mo, 60 cents.



"Classic Myths" is unquestionably the most satisfactory collection of mythological stories for children. It includes stories from Greek, Norse, Roman, Russian, and Finnish stories, told in a childlike and dramatic manner. By reading these myths the child will gain interest and sympathy for the life of beast, bird, and tree; he will learn to recognize those constellations which have been as friends to the wise men of many ages. Such an acquaintance will broaden the child's life and make him see more quickly the true, the good, and the beautiful in the world about him.

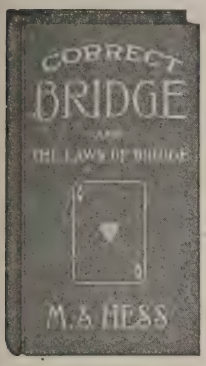
Constitutional History of France, A.

By Henry C. Lockwood. Illustrated. Cloth, 8vo. Price, $2.50.

An outline of the intellectual, social, and political causes which led to the changes in the form of government in France, together with the salient features of its organic law, is given in this essay. The need of such a guide, terse, scholarly, accurate, has long been felt by the intelligent student who yet has not the time to follow the governmental changes of France through the mazes of a general history.

Correct Bridge.

By M. S. Hess. Illustrated. 16mo, Cloth, 25 cents. Full leather, 75 cents.



A necessary book for the beginner and a reference work for the experienced player. Containing the laws of "Bridge," illustrated hands, and all the principles of the game.

The most popular and fascinating card game of the present day is "Bridge." There is, perhaps, no other game at which the instructed and skillful player will derive a greater advantage from his superior knowledge than at "Bridge." To become a successful player one must know the relative value of each card in his hand, and must comprehend the proper declaration of trump, the best card to lead, the opportune time to finesse, the hand in which to unblock, the combining of the dummy hand with his own, and the many other essential points that are constantly arising. All the instructions necessary to make one a successful player are contained in "Correct Bridge."

Cruisings in the Cascades and Other Hunting Adventures.

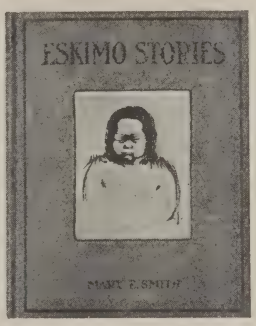
By G. O. Shields ("Coquina"). Illustrated. Cloth, large 12mo, $1.50; half Morocco, $2.50.

A narrative of travel, exploration, amateur photography, hunting and fishing, with special chapters on hunting the grizzly bear, the buffalo, elk, antelope, Rocky Mountain goat, and deer. There are also chapters on trouting in the Rocky Mountains; a Montana roundup; life among the cowboys, etc.

No sportsman's library is complete without this, "Coquina's" best production. As a narrative of travel and adventure for the ordinary reader it is unsurpassed.

Eskimo Stories.

By Mary E. Smith. Profusely illustrated by Howard V. Brown. Cloth, large quarto, 75 cents.

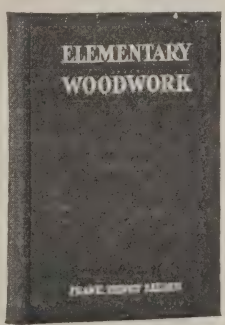


In "Eskimo Stories" Miss Smith has depicted the varying life of an Eskimo family during the long Winter night, the short Summer, and the approaching Winter. It tells of the happier side of the Eskimo life, the Winter sports of real boys and girls, Kyo, Magda, and Agoonack, with snowshoes, sledges, and ivory hockey sticks. The stories are told in very simple language, and with a dramatic quality which holds the child's attention. The book is printed in large type, and is illustrated with more than 150 pictures in half-tone by Mr. Howard V. Brown.

Olof Krarer, a real Eskimo, tells the story of her life in a delightful chapter at the end of the book.

Elementary Woodwork.

By Frank Henry Selden, a successful instructor of shopwork, and a practical mechanic of broad experience. Fully illustrated with half-tone engravings and line drawings showing the work in progress and the correct use of tools. 12mo, Cloth. Price, $1.00.



The most complete, comprehensive, and strictly up-to-date book of its kind on the market. It is thoroughly practical and of great value to both student and instructor, and is written in clear, concise, intelligible language, with no doubtful points left unexplained. Printed from new, large, perfect type on extra heavy paper and substantially bound in the best dark blue ribbed cloth, making it durable and handsome. A practical text-book for use in manual training classes, and also, because of its numerous illustrations and complete text, a very valuable book for home use.

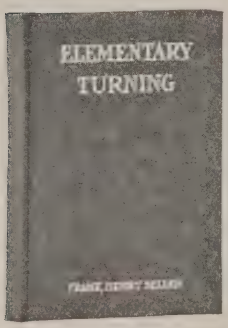
Elementary Turning.

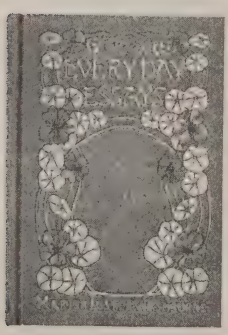
By Frank Henry Selden, an expert wood turner. Illustrated with 288 half-tone engravings and line drawings, showing each step in all the ordinary elements of wood turnings. 12mo, $1.00.



This book marks a great advance in the method of treating this subject. It is sufficiently complete and clear in text and illustrations for use in the home shop, but is especially valuable as a text-book for use in manual training classes. In addition to the many typical exercises given, it contains illustrations of many objects, and describes and illustrates each step in turning them. One should be able to do almost any work in wood turning after a careful study of this book.

Every Day Essays.

By Marion Foster Washburne, Author of "A Little Fountain of Life." Illustrated by Ruth Mary Hallock. Cloth, 12mo, $1.25.



This is a volume of genial, buoyant, and sane observations upon everyday life. The headings of some of the chapters are: Every-Morning's Comedy, Mother and Child, An Irresponsible Ramble, The Day When Everything Is Wrong, Coming Down in the World, Aunt Catherine's Busy Day, and Types of Childhood. The book is elaborately illustrated by Miss Hallock, with pictures printed in sepia.

Evolution of Dodd, The.

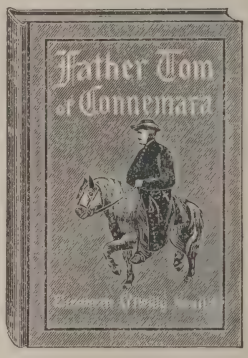
By William Hawley Smith, author of "The Promoters," "The New Hamlet," etc. Cloth, 12mo. Price, 75 cents.

This is one of those rare stories, that as well as being delightfully witty and entertaining, conveys a deep moral lesson. "Dodd," the hero, whose evolution is traced from birth to manhood, is the creation of a master mind and touches a responsive chord in every heart.

This is a novel for teachers and a good one. It tells the story of a "bad boy," redeemed by the kindness, sympathy and firmness of the teacher. It is an interesting story, and an instructive treatise on moral training.

Father Tom of Connemara.

By Elizabeth O'Reilly Neville. Illustrated with photographs of the Connemara Country. Cloth, 12mo, $1.50.



"'Father Tom of Connemara' is a collection of rollicking Irish stories depicting various phases of life in the highlands of Galway. The character drawing throughout the book is as careful and truthful as it is kindly, and Connemara, as Mrs. Neville portrays it, ceases to be merely a name in our ears and becomes an actuality, a real district of Emerald Isle peopled by a race to the full as original and entertaining as those one reads of in 'The Bonnie Brier Bush.'"

"As a story it is full of humor and pathos and closely approaches 'Luke Delmege,' by Father Sheehan, in point of excellence."—The New World.

Folk Tales from the Russian.

By Verra Xenophontovna Kalamatiano de Blumenthal. Illustrated by Lucy Fitch Perkins after suggestive sketches by the Author. Cloth, 147 Pages, 60 cents.

"Folk Tales From the Russian," by Verra Xenophontovna Kalamatiano de Blumenthal, a Russian countess, presents a few of the many stories which indicate the beginning of Russian literature. This is probably the first collection of Russian folk tales in the English language.

American boys and girls know their Andersen and their Grimm, and now they may share with Russian children the imaginative tales of the Slavic people. This world acquaintance, this knowledge of the classic stories of the great countries is at the foundation of all culture.

Four Old Greeks.

By Jennie Hall. Illustrated by Raymond Perry. Cloth, 12mo, 60 cents.

Miss Hall has told in this volume the story of Herakles, Alkestis, Dionysius, and Achilles in a simple, graphic way, splendidly adapted to boys and girls. In their interpretation of Greek life, their dramatic quality, their crisp and picturesque style, the stories are noteworthy. The book has a Greek cover design, a Greek title page, with Greek head-and-tail pieces, and fifty pen-and-ink illustrations from Greek sources.

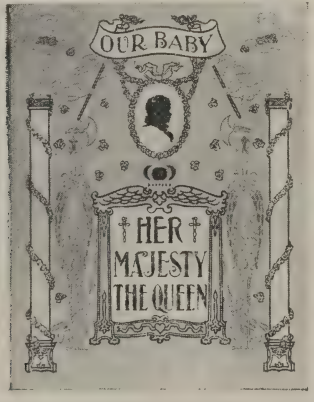
Freckles and Tan.

By Roland C. Bowman. An Illustrated Book of Humorous Verse. Cloth, 12mo, 50 cents.

To one who has not forgotten his childhood days this volume will come as a happy surprise. The spirit of the book is suggested by its title, and the humor and pathos of youth breathe from every page. The spontaneity of the verse with its touches of humor and real pathos constitute its charm. Not since the days of Eugene Field has one written in verse so charmingly or with such freshness as Mr. Bowman in "Freckles and Tan."

Her Majesty the Queen.

By Ethel Elaine Barr. 4to, Cloth. Price, 75 cents.



An artistic baby book—a record of her life. Illustrated with novelty half-tones reproduced from free-hand paper cuttings —a new method of expression. Borders printed in tint. Artistic cover design. Size, 9x11 inches.

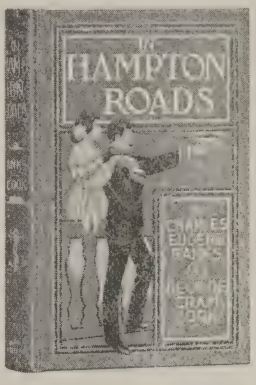
His Majesty the King.

By Ethel Elaine Barr. 4to, Cloth. Price, 75 cents.

An original baby book, uniform with "Her Majesty the Queen." Artistic cover design. Size, 9x11 inches.

In Hampton Roads.

By Charles Eugene Banks and George Cram Cook. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 75 cents.



The fascinating and dramatic romance is adroitly connected with the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac in Hampton Roads.

It is not too much to say that no single event in American history was decisive of greater issues than was the struggle between these floating iron-clad engines of war. It changed the character of naval warfare for all nations and for all time. It virtually decided the issue of the American Civil War. And that war decided, forever, a question left unsettled through all the foregoing events in our national development, the question, whether a state or any number of states could collectively nullify the Federal Constitution and secede from the Union.

In the Shadow of the Pyramids.

By Col. Richard Henry Savage. 12mo. Cloth. Price $1.25.

The story is full of incident, rapid action and wonderful perils and escapes, just as are all stories by this writer. It is a fascinating tale and contains a good deal of political history mingled with its love and tragedy. The one who begins its reading will be likely to continue through to the end.

Honeymoon and Other Poems, The.

By S. H. M. Byers. 12mo. Cloth. Illustrated. Price, $1.00.

A dainty volume of "Love Poems" by a well-known western writer. Major Byers' earlier volumes of poems, "The Happy Isles" and "The March to the Sea," enjoyed wide popularity. A critic has said of his style and verse, that they are exceedingly felicitous and marked by an exquisite verbal music not surpassed by the masters of English verse.

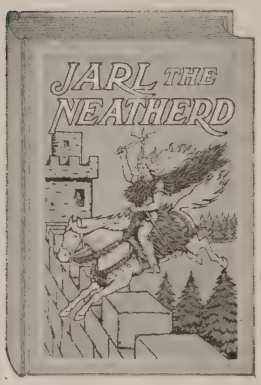
In the Swim.

By Richard Henry Savage. Cloth. Price, $1.00.

"This is 'a story of currents and undercurrents in gayest New York,' told with spirit and dash, and with an art that bears the reader along easily and holds his interest. There is much plotting and counterplotting, and the story is well worked out."

Jarl the Neatherd.

By H. Escott-Inman. Cloth, 12mo, 60 cents.



A fascinating fairy story written in the author's most charming style. It is a tale of the sturdy old warriors of ancient Norway the sea kings of their day. It is delightful, creepy reading for children, full of fights, and giants, and bears, and all manner of monsters who lived in the good old times. Some of these old warriors were grand heroes, too, brave true soldiers. The moral of the story is of the best, but does not spoil the reading of the story for the youths.

Japanese Fairy Tales.

By Teresa Peirce Williston. Illustrated in five colors by Sanchi Ogawa. Cloth, square, 12mo, 80 pages, 75 cents.

Among all the beautiful books that have been published since the struggle between Russia and Japan, none, we believe, is more beautiful and more strikingly unique than "Japanese Fairy Tales." Others have told of the past, the present, and the future of these most interesting little people, but Mrs. Williston went straight to their literature and found there some of the most charming little fairy tales ever told to boys and girls. Mrs. Williston has retold the stories with all the characteristic flavor and charm, all the quaintness and naiveté that pervades everything from Japan.

No effort has been spared in trying to give the book a Japanese touch. The stories themselves are the stories that Japanese mothers tell to Japanese children. The illustrations were drawn by Sanchi Ogawa, a native of Japan. Mr. Ogawa is a graduate of the Imperial Art School of Tokyo, and has a first-hand Japanese instinct as well as a knowledge of Japanese tradition. The illustrations are reproduced in five colors.

King Henry V.

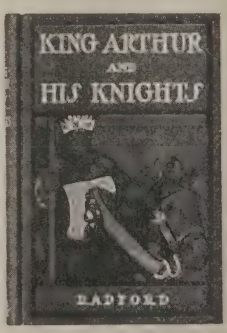
By William Shakespeare. Cloth, 16mo, 50 cents. Paper, 25 cents.
A Special Acting Edition of Shakespeare's Play.

In no other play has Shakespeare attempted so bold an experiment in the dramatization of war. Nowhere else has he made so emphatic an apology for disregarding the unities of time and place, nor put forth so clear a vindication of the rights of the imagination in the romantic drama.

This edition contains a complete glossary of words and phrases, as well as comprehensive notes on each act.

King Arthur and His Knights.

By Maude L. Radford. Illustrated by Walter J. Enright. Cloth, 12mo, 60 cents.



The stories in "King Arthur and His Knights" have been collected from Sir Thomas Malory's "Morte d' Arthur" and Tennyson's "Idyls of the King."

The growing interest in Anglo-Saxon mythology and the belief that American boys and girls should become familiar with the classic stories of our early literature is largely responsible for the preparation of this volume.

The King Arthur stories embody a deep and poetic message. They are of moral value to the children of this day, for they teach the best virtues of the chivalric age; gentleness to the weak, loyalty to friends, mercy to foes. The tales help to inculcate a love of truth and courage, and show the value of discipline and unselfishness.

Last Days of Pompeii.

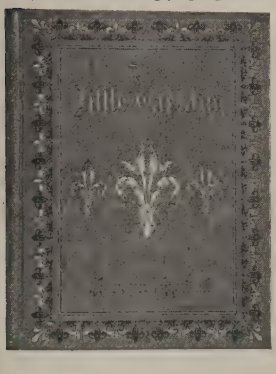
By Bulwer Lytton. Fifty-eight full-page monogravure illustrations. Special Cloth, Library Edition, $3.00. Half Calf, $5.00. Edition de Luxe, $6.00. Two Volumes, boxed.

Cover design by Miss Mary E. Phillips. The design in gold over Pompeian red is from a fresco which beautified the walls of the "House of Castor and Pollux." The obverse side has two horizontal panels, the upper one showing cupids racing in goat chariots, while the lower one is evolved from a Pompeian expression in black and white. The torch on the obverse side of the cover is symbolical of the destructive force of Vesuvius. The lettering used for the title of the work is an imitation of inscriptions found at Pompeii. On the title page is a reproduction of a mosaic border, in colors, said to have been discovered in the "House of the Faun."

The edition is printed from new plates in large type, on deckle edge paper, gilt tops.

Little Captain, The.

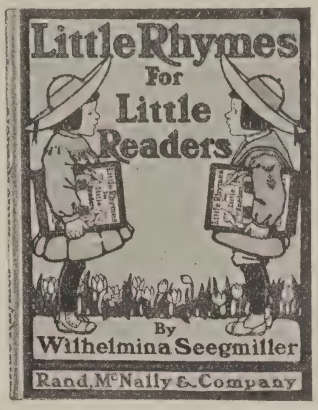
By Charlotte J. Cipriani. Illustrated, 4to, Cloth, 257 pages. Price, 75 cents.



A delightful tale of Savonarola's Florence. The author has aimed to tell this absorbing story in a manner which appeals to both old and young, but the child's point of view has been first considered. The great artistic, political, intellectual, and religious forces at work during the Renaissance were reflected in the life of child at Florence at a time when the issues of our civilization were, one might almost say, focused there, and it is with this vital period of past history that the story deals.

Little Rhymes for Little Readers.

By Wilhelmina Seegmiller. Profusely Illustrated by Ruth M. Hallock. Cloth, Large Quarto, $1.00



In selecting a book of rhymes for children, one is invariably confronted by the problem of avoiding what is either trite or commonplace, or both. Many of the best of our children's books are marred by their poor English, by a tendency to vulgarity, or by carelessness in typography or design. Miss Seegmiller's "Little Rhymes for Little Readers" are delightfully simple, and have a touch of humor and childlikeness that will make them widely read by little children and by "children of a larger growth."

The book contains seventy-five drawings, many of them being full-page, done in Miss Hallock's most delightful manner. In point of literary value and artistic merit this is one of the most notable juveniles yet issued.

The type is large and well arranged and the book is printed in dark green ink on the best coated paper.

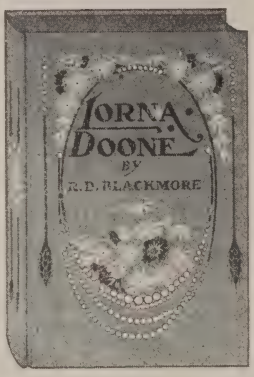
Little Fountain of Life, A.

By Marion Foster Washburne, Author of "Every Day Essays." Cloth, 232 pages, $1.00.

A refreshing love story full of humor and touched with pathos. The character drawing suggests "Mrs. Wiggs"; in fact, Miss 'Postrophe U might well have lived in the "cabbage patch." The scene of the story is laid in a Chicago "settlement," where the heroine discovers a little fountain of life, which wins back her health, her sanity, and, incidentally, her lost lover. It is a book that will give much pleasure, not only because of its delightful character drawing, but because of its wholesome romance.

Lorna Doone.

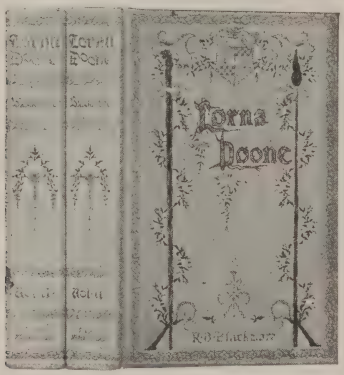
By R. D. Blackmore. Large 12mo. Cloth, boxed. Price, $1.50. Single Volume. Illustrated.



The handsomest edition of this most popular classic ever published at so low a price. The beautiful artistic cover and the superb illustrations make it a particularly attractive book for gift purposes.

Lorna Doone.

By R. D. Blackmore. Cloth, $3.00. Half Calf, $5.00. Edition de Luxe, $6.00.



One of the accepted classics of the nineteenth century is Blackmore's delightful story of Lorna Doone. In this edition we have prepared a special two-volume set which is particularly attractive for gift purposes. It is printed in large type from new plates on deckle-edged paper, with a gilt top and attractive binding.

The illustrations in this edition make it absolutely unique and unusually attractive. They consist of more than forty full-page monogravure plates printed in sepia, and illustrate almost every section of the Land of the Doones. The originals of these illustrations were collected at great expense by Miss Mary E. Phillips, and reproduce with absolute fidelity the setting of this famous story.

The cover design is printed in four colors, and is symbolical of the spirit and the characters of the story. Surmounting the title of the book are the arms of the House of Lorne; on the left is Sir John Ridd's staff, on the right a distaff representing Lorna; below is the torch of Hymen, and about the whole is a border of ivy, signifying matrimony. The design is held together by clusters of English wild roses. On the back of the book is the coat of arms given to Sir John Ridd by the queen of James II.

Lost Countess Falka, The.

By Richard Henry Savage. Cloth. Price, $1.00.

Richard Henry Savage.

"A story of the Orient, and, like all novels by this popular author, full of exciting incidents and clever character sketches."

Col. Savage has written no better story than this thrilling tale of the abduction of a Hungarian maiden by a Turkish renegade, who sells her to the harem of the shah of Persia, from which she is rescued after a series of exciting adventures. The movement of the story is exceedingly well managed, and, as a novel of action, "The Lost Countess Falka" possesses much more than the usual merit of tales of adventure.

Merchant Prince of Cornville.

By Samuel Eberly Gross. Cloth, 12mo. Price, 75 cents.

Samuel Eberly Gross.

A genuine comedy, rendered in poetry that is more than passable, and containing humor that is natural and irresistible.

"It will have an honored place in my library." — Hon. Lyman J. Gage, Secretary U. S. Treasury.

"I read the 'Merchant Prince of Cornville' with much interest and was charmed with its literary excellence and humor."— Judge A. T. Clearwater, Kingston, N. Y.

Mayville Class Abroad, The.

By E. M. Cobb. Cloth, 8vo. Illustrated. Price, 50 cents.

A series of letters written by members of the Mayville High School class while abroad. The letters cover a tour through Europe and Palestine. Not over the beaten paths of the globe trotter, but into the interior and by-places of the countries visited. It brings to the reader a new view-point of the marvelous beauties of the Holy Land.

Mexican Vistas.

By Harriott Wight Sherratt. Profusely illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, $1.50. Paper, 50 cents.

Harriott Wight Sherratt.

This is a story of a journey through Mexico, wherein are given charming descriptions of out-of-the-way places, scenery, customs, people, and things unfamiliar to the general reader, set forth in an entertaining manner. Mrs. Sherratt's keen observations on everything she saw and experienced, and her bright and vivacious style of writing combine to make a delightful story of the land of mañana.

Nume, a Flower of Japan.

By Onoto Wattana, author of "The Heart of Hyacinth," "A Japanese Nightingale," etc.

8vo, artistic cloth binding. Illustrated. Price, $2.00 net.

This Japanese-American story has all the charm and delicacy that is characteristic of the Island Empire. The romance of the story is wrought out of the lives of a young American and a Japanese maiden. It should make an especial appeal at this time on account of the present interest in Japan, its life and its peoples. In addition to the full-page pictures printed in sepia, there are characteristic Japanese decorations on the margins, printed in light tint.

Mists of Fire.

By Coats Kinney, Author of "Lyrics of the Ideal and Real." Cloth, 12mo, $1.50.

This is a volume of poems of the heart which will appeal to many for their simplicity and their pathos. There is also a trilogy of more extended poems on the larger problems of religion and psychology.

Modern Art Creations.

English Linen Cloth Binding, Gilt Edges, in Box, $15.00. Full Leather Binding, Richly Ornamented, in Box, $20.00.

Edition De Luxe. Genuine Morocco, Exquisitely Embossed, Inside of Covers Silk-Lined, in Box, $30.00.

Imperial Quarto (13x15 inches). Weighs 13 pounds, 8 ounces.

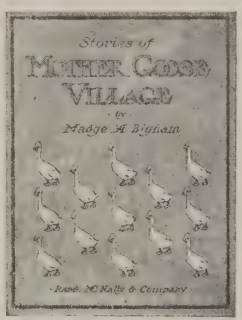
A volume of 239 Artotype Engravings of the most noted modern paintings of every land, selected with the purpose of illustrating the work of all schools and every phase of the art of to-day. Interleaved with 239 pages of descriptive, critical, and biographical text, by Michael Straus, lately Royal Art Commissioner for the Kingdom of Belgium.

The broad scope and beauty of this sumptuous volume is quite unparalleled, and in its production expense has not been spared.

The selection of subjects for reproduction, the text, the engravings, and the binding, are all the work of men of the highest eminence in their respective spheres.

Mother Goose Village.

By Madge L. Bigham. Illustrated in colors by Ella S. Brison. Large quarto, 196 pages, 75 cents.



It is quite possible that Mother Goose Village is not on any map, yet after reading Miss Bigham's charming account of the things that happened there, we are ready to believe in its existence. She tells us all about "Polly Flinder's Apron," "Tommy Grace's Party," "Simple Simon's Silken Coat," "Little Miss Muffet's Valentine," and, best of all, about the "Schoolmaster's Pie."

Children delight in discovering old friends in new situations, and this book will prove a perennial joy. The book is printed in four colors in the flat poster style, and will be a standard juvenile as long as Mother Goose is a part of our children's literature.

New Hamlet, The.

By William Hawley Smith, Author of "The Evolution of Dodd" and "The Promoters." Cloth, 50 cents.

The most original, unique, up-to-date, and altogether out-of-the-ordinary book of the season.

The plays of "Hamlet" and "Romeo and Juliet" have been cleverly interwoven, with all the tragic element in both left out. Hamlet marries Juliet and Romeo is wedded to Ophelia. The style of the work is genuinely Shakespearean, at once scholarly and racy. The dialogue is brimful of humor, satire, quips, and gibes of the most modern kind, yet there is not a line in it that would make the judicious grieve. It is a book that "all sorts and conditions of men" (and women, too) will read and laugh over.

"I will not pretend to tell how much I have enjoyed The New Hamlet—the new and old play. We have all laughed and laughed over it and have taken moral and practical lessons from it, which will bear fruit in our lives, I hope.

"It is at its best when read aloud, and we have had it that way several times."

—Edward E. Hale.

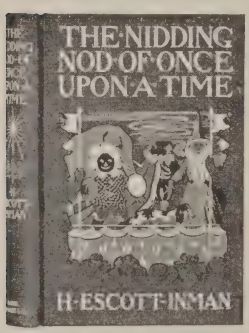
By H. Escott-Inman. Cloth, 12mo. Price 60 cents.



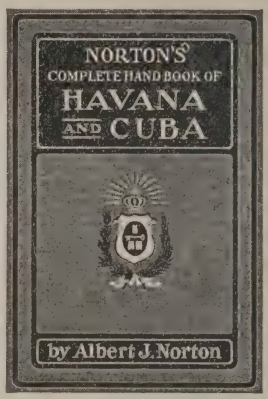
In it he says: Herein are related the adventures of "Patty" and "Pats;" likewise the "Sawdust Elephant," "Rover" and the "Muggie Wub," more especially in the land of "One Fine Day." Also there is recorded their determination to invade the realm of the "Nidding Nod" and drive him from his throne.

Still further there is chronicled the way in which the "Nidding Nod" showed them what was what; and they revealed to the "Nidding Nod" who was who. All of which must be read before it can possibly be known and known before it can be believed.

The author proceeds in a charming way to introduce his little readers to these and sundry other folk, a task in which he is ably assisted by the illustrations of Ernold A. Mason, who shows the fairies at their revels and their incantations in such a grotesque way as to enchant childish imagination.

Norton's Hand-Book of Havana and Cuba.

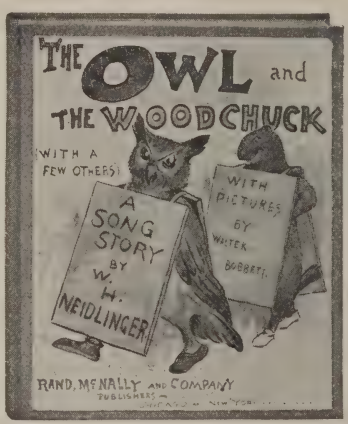
By Albert J. Norton. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. Price, $1.00.



An invaluable work for the tourist, settler and investor, and containing a vast fund of information for the general reader. A complete description of the resources of Cuba, its government under Spain, and under the United States; its judicial and school systems; the capacity of people for self government. The many attractions of beautiful Havana are set forth in an interesting manner. A specially engraved map of Havana accompanies the book.

Owl and the Woodchuck, The.

By William Harold Neidlinger. Illustrated by Walter Bobbett. Boards. Cloth Back. Price, 50 cents.



This is a nonsense story interspersed with bits of musical jingle and pictures of a whimsical attractiveness. Mr. Owl's song of spring and the woodchuck's jolly ballad of the silly farmer and his horse are set to gay little tunes with a tripping rhythm and a fascinating accompaniment. The woodchuck is the same mysterious animal that crawls out of his hole on Candlemas day, February 2nd, and looks at his shadow to see if spring is on the way. For all that, he is a nonsensical woodchuck, for he goes on a journey to ask Mr. Owl who is this Mr. Spring that everybody is talking about, because the woodchuck could see his own shadow? The owl does not explain himself, and the two friends part company, each convinced of the wonderful wisdom of the other.

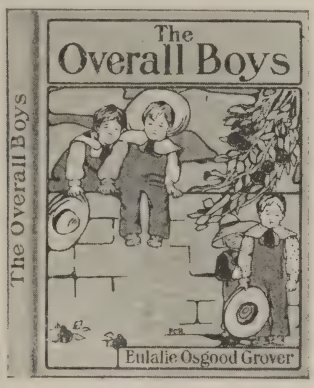
Overall Boys, The.

Text by Eulalie Osgood Grover, author of The Sunbonnet Babies' Book. Illustrations by Bertha L. Corbett, who originated the famous Sunbonnet Babies. Price, 75 cents.



"The Overall Boys" is in every way as attractive as the famous Sunbonnet Babies' Book and will be just as popular. The illustrations are beautifully printed in colors and the type is large and clear. It is the story of the rollicking adventures of four happy little boys, with Molly and May of sunbonnet fame joining in some of their games.

Parliamentary Lessons.

By Urquhart Lee. With an Indorsement by Hon. Thomas B. Reed. Cloth, Price, $1.00.

A hand-book of common parliamentary law arranged in eight lessons, making a complete course of instruction. Only the most simple forms are used but every question pertaining to the conducting of a meeting is fully explained. An invaluable work for the student or the novice called upon to preside over deliberative bodies.

Pirate Frog, The.

By W. A. Frisbie and "Bart." Bound in Cloth with appropriate side stamps in colors. Price, 75 cents.

The authors of "The Bandit Mouse," that delightful little book of jingling verse which has been a source of such joy and amusement to the young folks, have made an equal hit with "The Pirate Frog." The color plates are gorgeous enough to win the heart of the most captious youngster, and the verses have a liveliness and entrain which reminds one of the melodious gurglings of a mountain stream. The story of "The Pirate Frog" is rapid, thrilling and tragic. The other tales in the book are very pleasing.

Prince of the House of David, The.

By J. H. Ingraham. Over thirty full-page illustrations in half-tone, and cover design, in four colors. Two volumes, Cloth, boxed, $2.00. Two volumes, half Calf, $5.00. Two volumes, Edition de Luxe. $6.00.

Among the many books treating of the life and actions of our Saviour, there is none that equals Mr. Ingraham's "Prince of the House of David." Told in a language that is beautiful in its simplicity, the story covers a period of three years and six months, embracing all the events of the life of John the Baptist, and of Jesus of Nazareth to the day of His ascension into heaven. Printed on deckle-edge paper, gilt tops, and containing over thirty half-tone pictures, illustrative of the people and scenes of biblical times, this book is a triumph of the printers' and binders' art, and is well worthy a place on the shelves of every library.

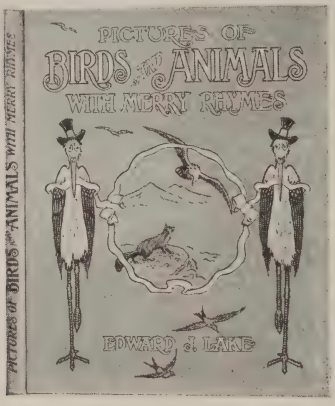
Pictures of Birds and Animals, with Merry Rhymes.

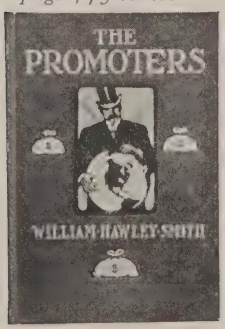
By Edward J. Lake, Professor of Art and Design, University of Illinois. Large quarto, size 9½x11½ inches. Price, $1.00.



At last here is a juvenile book which sets a new standard of excellence both in the character of its illustrations and in the beautiful manner in which it is printed. The pictures, both of wild and domestic animals, are reproduced from drawings by Edward J. Lake, Professor of Art and Design of the University of Illinois. They are so true to nature that the different denizens of the field and forest seem almost animated with life. The illustrations are printed in two-tone photo brown ink, with ornamental border designs on every page. The pictures are accompanied with many rhymes, and each picture and rhyme is presented in a way to instruct as well as entertain.

Promoters, The.

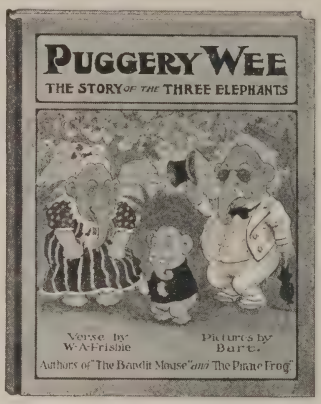
A Novel Without a Woman, by William Hawley Smith, Author of "The Evolution of Dodd," etc. With eight full-page illustrations by J. C. Gilbert. Cloth, 367 pages, 75 cents.



Mr. William Hawley Smith will be remembered as the author of the famous pedagogical story, "The Evolution of Dodd," which has sold to the extent of several hundred thousand copies. "The Promoters" is a humorous and dramatic satire of modern business life. It tells of an all but successful attempt to organize the "world trust." With the present interest in great corporations and political movements, this book ought to find a ready welcome.

Puggery Wee.

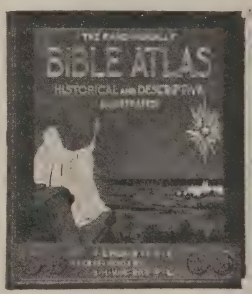
The Story of Three Elephants. Verse by W. A. Frisbie. Pictures by Bart. Price, 75 cents, eighty pages. Large quarto, size 9x11¼ inches. Printed in colors throughout. Bound in cloth with cover design in colors.



This is a very humorous book for little children and tells, in a way, how the animals come to be on exhibition in the menagerie. The pictures are full of action and cleverly portray the different scenes described in the verse. The type is large and clear and easily read by the little ones.

Rand-McNally Bible Atlas, The. Historical and Descriptive.

By J. L. Hurlbut, D. D., with an introduction by J. H. Vincent, D. D. Illustrated. Size, 10x12 1/2 inches. 158 pages. Cloth, $2.75.



Especially prepared for the use of students and teachers of the Bible, and for Sunday-School instruction, containing maps, plans, review charts, colored diagrams, and illustrated with accurate views of the principal cities and localities known to Bible history. Rand-McNally Imperial Atlas of the World, The.

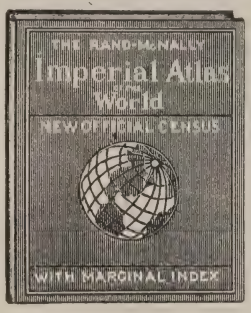
Size, 12x14 inches. Retail Price, Cloth, Colored Edges, $2.50.



The Rand-McNally atlases and maps are unrivalled in workmanship and subject matter by any similar publications in the United States. In consideration of this fact, the purchaser will be interested to know that the maps used in the Imperial Atlas are in every way the most satisfactory of their size and scale that we have thus far produced. The Imperial Atlas contains one hundred and fifty-eight pages of large scale colored maps, of each state and territory and of the principal cities of the United States; of the continents and their subdivisions, and of the provinces of Canada. It also contains new and accurate maps of Porto Rico, the Philippines, the Hawaiian Islands, etc. In addition to these maps the atlas contains colored plates showing the comparative distance of the planets from the sun, and the comparative size of the sun as seen from the planets, and vice versa; colored plates representing the phases of the moon, the theory of the tides, of the seasons and eclipses. The population of states, territories and counties, and of the cities, towns, boroughs and villages that appear in the latest official census of the United States are also given, together with the statistics indicating the value of foreign commerce, the imports and exports of the United States from 1852 to 1899, in millions of dollars. The atlas is equipped with a ready reference marginal index upon all the maps. As a reference book for the desk and the library the Imperial Atlas is unique.

Reminiscences of William Wetmore Story.

By Mary E. Phillips. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo, Gilt Top. Price, $1.75.

Perhaps we cannot better describe the scope and purpose of this charming book than by giving the title in full as it appears on the title page. Miss Phillips describes her book in this way: "Reminiscences of William Wetmore Story, the American sculptor and author, being incidents and anecdotes chronologically arranged, together with an account of his associations with famous people and his principal works in literature and sculpture."

Reed's Parliamentary Rules.

By Hon. Thomas B. Reed. Cloth, 75 cents; full seal grain flexible leather. $1.25.

Thomas B. Reed.

The Official Manual of Parliamentary Law.

A manual of parliamentary Law and Rules for the conduct of meetings, which will be found to be invaluable to all those connected in any way with public life or corporate bodies, being no less necessary to the director of a village school or club than to the legislator or president of some great corporation.

"I commend the book most highly."—Wm. McKinley, President United States.

"The necessity for such a code is apparent."—John J. Ingalls, Ex-Senator.

Romola.

By George Eliot. Two volumes, boxed, 8vo, Cloth, $3.00. Half Calf, $5.00. Edition de Luxe, $5.00.

This is a special gift edition which has been prepared at great expense. The book is printed from new plates, and is elaborately illustrated with over fifty full-page monogravure plates printed in sepia. These include reproductions of famous paintings, photographs of historic scenes and portraits of persons related to the time and place of the story. These were collected largely from European sources and arranged for this edition by Miss Mary E. Phillips. The cover design, which is also by Miss Phillips, is Florentine in character and suggestive of the splendor of Florence at the time of the story. Altogether, this is one of the most attractive editions of George Eliot's famous story.

Scissor Pictures.

By Ethel Elaine Barr. 4to, Cloth. Price $1.00.

The object of this book is to furnish teachers and mothers with seasonable suggestions in the now much used free-hand paper cutting. By free-hand cutting we mean the cutting of an object with scissors from blank paper, without lines, patterns, or folded creases. As the work in this book is done without a line or pattern of any kind, it is to be hoped that the children will be encouraged to do their work in the same way, and also avoid cutting small and petty designs. Large cuttings, in which a free sweep of the scissors may be used, should be encouraged. Free-hand cutting affords another method of expression. It is not a new art, and yet it is only within the last few years that it has held the attention educationally. The preparation of material is simple, and as soon as the children see the possibilities they can do the work quietly and with very little help.

Scissor Pictures.

The above title is also published in two parts, bound in paper cover, and containing all of the illustrations published in the cloth edition.

Part I. 4to, Paper. Price, $0.25.
Part II. 4to, Paper. Price, $0.25.

Sense and Satire.

By William L. Breyfogle. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. Price, $1.50.

This is a book of short verses, by Doctor Breyfogle, wherein is represented the nineteenth century philosophy of life as it is understood by the different types of mind with which the author has become acquainted. The volume is handsomely illustrated by John W. Breyfogle.

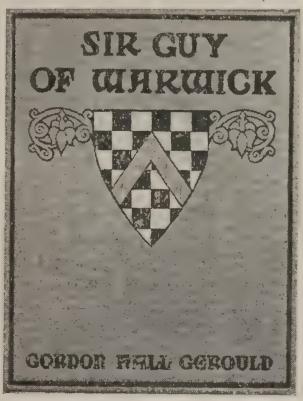
Shooting on Upland, Marsh and Stream.

Edited by W. B. Leffingwell. Profusely Illustrated. Cloth 8vo, $1.50; Half Morocco, $3.00; Full Morocco, $4.50.

The different articles are written by seventeen well-known American sportsmen, among whom are such pleasant writers on shooting topics as T. S. Van Dyke, Amory B. Starr, George W. Baines, and C. R. Tinan. Each writer has selected the certain game bird or field topic with which he was most familiar, and the detail of each article shows intimate knowledge of the subject treated. The articles are in narrative style and the reader accompanies the writer on an imaginary shooting trip especially planned in quest of the bird selected. The description includes the birds' flights, habits, resorts, and treats of the scientific method of shooting ducks, prairie chickens, grouse, quail, snipe, wild turkeys, wild geese, plover, etc. It is a book in which old sportsmen will find many realistic scenes, and from which young ones will be able to gain a fair knowledge of the habits and methods of successful pursuit of the game birds.

Sir Guy of Warwick.

By Gordon Hall Gerould. Illustrated by Bror Nordfelt. Cloth, 12mo, $0.75.



To the lover of romance, possibly the most delightful period in the history of the world is to be discovered in the eleventh and twelfth centuries. That was a time when the feudal system was reaching the perfection of its development, when the highways of England, France and Italy swarmed with knights in search of adventure, when valor and true love were the social ideals. Mr. Gerould has rendered into pure and simple modern English one of the purest and sweetest romances of the best days of chivalry.

Shay's Telegraphic Cipher Code.

By Frank Shay. Full Flexible Morocco Binding. Price, $5.00.

A telegraphic code for the use of shippers, merchants, stock operators, stock brokers, miners, real estate dealers and business men generally.

The design of the present work is to supply a cipher book suitable for the use of business men and women. It is frequently of importance to transmit messages with absolute secrecy. This the simple arrangement of the present code will enable the inexperienced individual to do. Moreover, the use of the cipher in the transmission of long messages results in great economy. For instance, instead of telegraphing, "If we do not hear from you at once, we shall consider the business refused," the word "fallowist" will suffice between owners of Shay's Telegraphic Cipher Code. The book is adequately supplied with index, key, etc., and will be found of value by everyone in business.

Squirrel and the Crow, The.

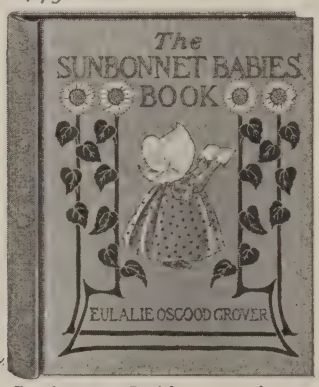
By William Harold Neidlinger. Illustrated by Walter Bobbett. Paper. Price, 25 cents.

Beautiful melodies are chosen to assist in telling the interesting story of "The Squirrel and the Crow," and clever sketches, large and small, are profusely scattered throughout the volume.

Animal stories enchant all children and the picturesque situations, comic and serious, in which Mr. Owl, Mr. Dicky Duck, Mr. Bullfrog, Mr. Rabbit and the Monkey are entangled, are delightfully real. Color adds greater charm to Mr. Bobbett's excellent illustrations. A good story is told in beautiful, clear type from the entrance of Mr. Crow to his mad effort to escape from the infuriated Miss Squirrel, and her friends, which holds the child's breathless attention.

Sunbonnet Babies' Book.

By Eulalie Osgood Grover. Illustrated with nearly 100 drawings in four colors by Bertha L. Corbett. Cloth, large quarto, 75 cents.



The Sunbonnet Babies promise to take a place beside Kate Greenaway's children and Palmer Cox's brownies. They have traveled from one end of the country to the other on cards or valentines, but this is the only book written about them or illustrated by Miss Corbett. The fact that it is already in its seventy-fifth thousand suggests something of its popularity with little children. It is a book about Molly and May, two Sunbonnet Babies, who do all the things, and see all the sights, that real girls and boys do and see at the happy age of five or six.

The book is printed in large type and is illustrated throughout in four colors. The pictures lead irresistibly to the text, and the book has become one of the first to be placed in children's hands when they begin to read. Altogether, it is one of the daintiest picture books for children that has appeared in recent years.

Songs of the Open.

Words by Mary Grant O'Sheridan. Music by W. C. E. Seeboeck. Border decorations by E. B. Comstock and G. M. Hurst. Size, 9x11¾ inches, 108 pages, 31 songs. Price $1.00.

A book of Children's Nature Songs. Both words and music are original compositions. The composer's and author's names are sufficient guarantee of the high character of the work.

Stony Lonesome.

By Arthur J. Russell. With two hundred marginal drawings by Ruth M. Hallock. Cloth, 12mo, 75 cents.

This is a downeast story of a boy's town. The doings of "Pewee" Jackson, "Shorty" Hitchcock, "Mealey" Johnson, and the other members of the "gang" are told with fresh and delightful humor. Every one who has been a boy (and would like to be one) will laugh and grow young over this book.

"Stony Lonesome" is a sleepy New England village inhabited by a "gang" of boys, with here and there a parent or an "Uncle Ellery" to give a background to their pranks and plottings.

"Uncle Ellery," one of the "grown ups" of the book is the town oracle and coffin-maker. He is a philosopher and a staunch friend of the boys. In fact, we suspect he is only a gray-haired boy himself, for he says that "a boy is never grown up until it hurts him to fall out of a tree."

The marginal drawings by Miss Hallock, which enliven every page of the book, are as full of fun as the book itself.

Sword and Cross.

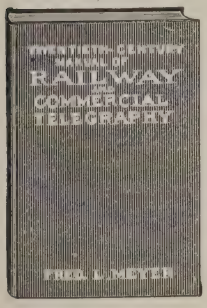
By Charles Eugene Banks, author of "Quiet Music," "Where Brooks Go Softly," etc. 12mo, Cloth. $1.25.

Charles Eugene Banks.

This is a volume of poems interpreting the silent strength, the quiet beauty, and the deep significance of nature in her gentler moods. They also touch the heart of humanity with a master hand, whether to expound its mysteries or to minister sympathy, and comfort.

Twentieth Century Manual of Railway and Commercial Telegraphy, The.—4th Edition. Revised and Enlarged.

By Fred L. Meyer. Illustrated with numerous cuts and engravings. Cloth, 12mo, $1.00.



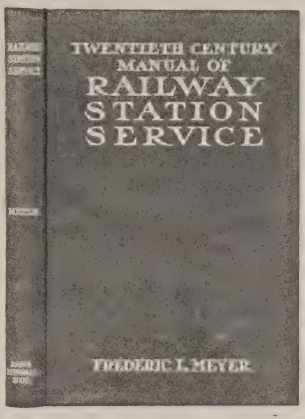
A thoroughly practical and instructive work on telegraphy. The most complete, comprehensive and thoroughly up-to-date book of its kind on the market. It embraces all kinds of practical train orders, railway and commercial messages, phrases, universal abbreviations, punctuations and other compilations of vital importance to both student and operator, covering, as it does, a great many branches of railway and commercial business unknown to the average operator, who has not had an opportunity to work on more than one or two roads.

"The Twentieth Century Manual of Railway and Commercial Telegraphy contains many practical points, and I am glad to see its publication as an aid to both railway and commercial telegraphers.

"I consider this work a distinct advantage to students of telegraphy, and I am glad to recommend it."—F. H. Tubbs, Superintendent of Western Union Telegraph Company, Chicago, Ill.

Twentieth Century Manual of Railway Station Service.

By Fred L. Meyer. Illustrated, Cloth 8vo. Price, $1.25.

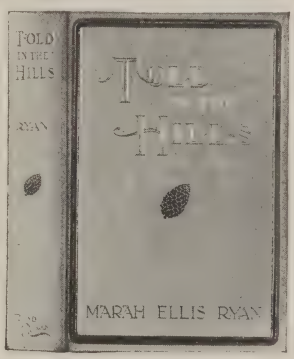


Just as the title indicates, this work covers every department of railway station service in a thoroughly practical and instructive way. The author has had a wide association with railroad work, and has supplemented his own knowledge by seeking assistance and information from men who have had from thirty to forty years' experience in station service.

Printed from large, clear type on extra heavy paper, and substantially bound in a rich, dark blue ribbed cloth, 8vo, size 6x9 inches. Illustrated with full-page facsimile reproductions of railroad forms and reports.

Told In the Hills.

By Marah Ellis Ryan. Holiday edition. 12mo, Cloth. Beautifully illustrated, colored frontispiece. Boxed. Price, $1.50



A demand for a more substantial and artistic edition of this absorbing story of the great West has induced the publishers to present a gift edition illustrated with numerous full-page half-tones reproduced from drawings by John C. Gilbert, with frontispiece in colors. The volume is beautifully printed from large clear type on laid paper. Bound in a rich shade of light green cloth, stamped in gold and colored ink. Gold top. Each volume packed in separate box.

True Bear Stories.

By Joaquin Miller, author of "Songs of the Sierras," etc. Illustrations in black and white, and in colors, 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

Mr. Miller has tried to show the bear as he is, not the traditional bear of the story-books. Bears have one thing in common—they are never cruel. They are generally full of homely, careless kindness, and are fond of music, as well as of honey, blackberries, nuts, fish, and other delicacies of the savage feast. The author of this book has brought the distinctive features of the different bears before the reader so as to instruct as well as to interest children and children's parents in the simple realities of bear life.

Uncle Sam Abroad.

By J. E. Conner. Cloth, 12mo, $1.25.

Lawyers, professors, teachers, and students will find in this book, in interesting and convenient form a complete treatment of a subject everybody wants to know about. It presents something after the manner of a series of University Extension lectures, information in regard to the diplomatic and consular service of the United States.

The book is cleverly written, is an entertaining and informing volume, and one which may be read by old and young with both pleasure and profit.—Toledo Blade.

Unknown Life of Jesus Christ.

By Nicolas Notovitch. Cloth, 12mo, $1.00.

This work presents much curious information about the life of the Man of Galilee Portions of it are said to have been copied from an original manuscript discovered by the author in the Buddhist monasteries of India.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

By Harriet Beecher Stowe. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. Price, $1.25.

An entirely new edition of this great classic, printed in pleasing type upon deckle-edged paper, with gilt top. The binding is unique and striking, and the full-page illustrations, of which there are thirty, add fresh charm to the story. An engaging and little-known portrait of Mrs. Stowe serves as frontispiece. This elegant edition is sure to be a favorite.

Viking Tales.

By Jennie Hall. Illustrated by Victor R. Lambdin. Cloth, 12mo, 60 cents.

"Viking Tales" is another volume of classic stories retold for young people. It is more, however, than a book of legends, for it contains many of the most attractive accounts of the early explorations and adventures of the Norsemen, ending with the discovery of America by Lief Ericsen. The Norsemen were the most romantic people of the Northern seas, and the stories of their adventures, expeditions, and courageous fighting, are among the most fascinating classic literature.

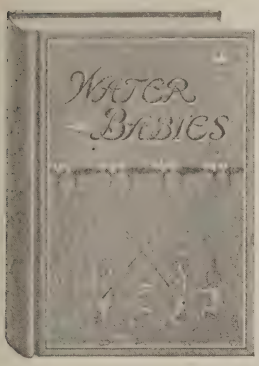
Whom to Trust.

By P. R. Earling. Cloth, 12mo. Price, $2.00

This treatise on mercantile credits is the outgrowth of a long and successful experience in business life. No effort has been made to deal with the subject from the standpoint of theory or political economy. Intended for business men and for practical use, the material has been prepared concisely and to the point—that point being how to make credits.

Water Babies.

By Charles Kingsley. Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. $1.25.



A special holiday edition has been prepared on an elaborate scale of this one of the most charming stories for children ever written. The text has been liberally illustrated with nearly a hundred cuts, besides which there are eight full-page half-tone pictures printed in colors. The ornate and artistic cover design was originated by Miss Mary E. Phillips, who also executed the text drawings.

Wild Fowl Shooting.

By William Bruce Leffingwell. Handsomely illustrated. Cloth, 8vo, $1.50. Half Morocco, $3.00.. Full Morocco, gilt edges, $4.50.

With one exception, no American has ever attempted to write a book exclusively on the subject of wild fowl shooting, so that this book, dealing particularly with the game of our inland waters, supplies a long felt want. Mr. Leffingwell is an acknowledged authority in woodland craft. His practical suggestions are invaluable to the hunter, while his anecdotes and genuine nature studies make a book very interesting to the general reader.

Wings and Stings.

By Agnes McClelland Daulton. Cloth, 12mo, 208 pages, 60 cents.

This little book has been written with but one object in view the bringing of the child near to Nature's heart. Every effort has been made to give to dry scientific facts the breath of out-of-doors. Believing that this can be done only through the story form, the bees, ants, birds, and blossoms have been made to tell their own life histories.

The book will bring to the boys and girls a vision of green fields, leafy forests, sunny meadows, and running brooks. It will make one hear the buzzing of bees, the song of birds, and breathe the fragrance of the clover.

The book is profusely illustrated with more than two-hundred pen and ink marginal drawings by the author. Altogether, this is one of the most attractive books on nature study for children. It is not a volume of scientific essays, but a series of dramatic stories giving the life history of the different insects.

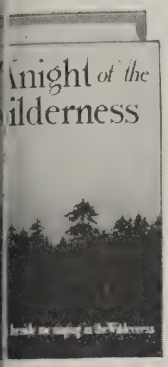
Knight of the Wilderness



A Stirring Novel of the Open

By Oliver Marble Gale and Harriet Wheeler

Illustrated in color by Ivin Ney

This is not an historical novel, but among the strong characters in the book Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis figure conspicuously. There is a heart-gripping love story set against a background of thrilling adventures, in which is woven skillfully the bigness, the freshness, the vigor and the spiritual and physical courage of that early period when the Middle West was the common meeting-ground of the first white settlers and the Indian warriors of Chief Black Hawk.

ry has a forceful swing like a crisp, sweet breeze from pine forests ries the reader with well-sustained interest through chapter after to a cleverly worked out denouement.

er Randolph, of Virginia, is portrayed as possessing a character il that make him in very truth "A Knight"—worthy to stand ose of King Arthur's table round.

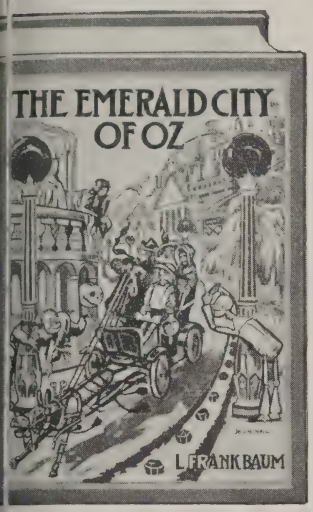
The Last of the "Oz" Books



With the Publication of

The Emerald City of Oz

The children's favorite author—L. FRANK BAUM—has completed his famous "Oz" series. The discontinuation of these wonderful stories is being attended by much protest on the part of thousands of little people who have come to regard Dorothy, the Scarecrow, and the Tin Woodman as the most important characters in literature. When the general announcement went forth Mr. Baum was deluged with letters from children asking him to keep on writing "Oz" stories, but he felt that the time had come to substitute other ideas, and the year 1911 will mark the beginning of a NEW SERIES—more original and unique than any other work from his pen. Mr. Baum is the most inventive writer of fairy tales in all the world

His mind should not be confined to the same setting and characters year after The "Oz" stories teem with favorites new and old, for children miss any old :r and immediately demand reinstatement, so, after long experience, Mr. Baum along the old and created new ones for each succeeding book until now EMERALD CITY OF OZ" assembles more characters than possibly any ıildren's book contains.

ıst of the "Oz" books, is the most beautiful of all. It glistens and gleams with fully colored pictures by John R. Neill—by far the best work of his career.

In this beautiful book Mr. Baum continues his fascinating wonder-tale about the Land of Oz and its charming fairy folk. Dorothy, together with a little boy companion, Zeb, and Jim, the Cab Horse, are swallowed up in an earthquake, only to reach a strange vegetable land whence, by the aid of the Wizard of Oz, whom they meet there, they escape to the Land of Oz and renew acquaintance with the Princess Ozma, The Scarecrow, The Tin Woodman, The Cowardly Lion and all the old favorites. Among the new and delightful characters are Eureka, Dorothy's pink kitten, and The Nine Tiny Piglets. Gorgeously illustrated with 16 full color pages and numerous black and white text pictures, by John R. Neill. 8vo. 280 pages. Extra cloth binding, with beautiful inlaid picture printed in full color and gold. Price $1.25.

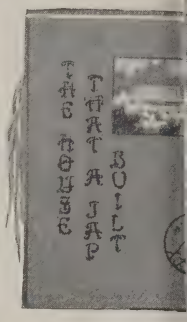
The House a Jap Built

By Gustine C. Weaver



A distinct novelty—will delight, instruct and amuse both young and old. The author while residing in Japan employed a native artist, O. Ishikawa, to illustrate a Japanese variation of the old nursery favorite, "This is the House that Jack Built." The artist's charming water-color paintings have been faithfully reproduced in all their dainty colors. The pictures are sure to amuse and astonish, as they show Japanese cats with no tails, roosters with tails eighteen feet long, queer dogs, native buildings, etc.
